My Lords and Gentlemen,

We forbear laying before you any thing that does not require your immediate Conſideration; not having received his Majeſty's Pleaſure: We ſhall only exhort you, with the greateſt Earneſtneſs, to a perfect Unanimity, and a firm Adherence to our Sovereign's Intereſt; as being the only Means to continue among us our preſent happy Tranquillity.

Reſolved, Nemine contradicente, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to condole with his Majeſty upon the ſad Occaſion of the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign; to congratulate his Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne; and to aſſure his Majeſty of the utmoſt Aſſiſtance of this Houſe to ſupport his Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, againſt the Pretender, and all other Perſons whatſoever; and alſo, to expreſs the impatient Deſires of his faithful Commons for his Majeſty's ſafe Arrival, and Preſence, in Great Britain; and the unanimous Reſolutions of this Houſe to maintain the publick Credit, and effectually make good all Funds which have been granted by Parliament, for the Security of any Sums of Money which have been, or ſhall be, advanced for the publick Service; and that they will uſe their utmoſt Endeavours, by all other Means, to make his Majeſty's Reign happy and glorious.

Mr. Speaker,

The Lords Juſtices command the immediate Attendance of this Honourable Houſe, in the Houſe of Peers.

Accordingly, Mr. Speaker, with the Houſe, went up to the Houſe of Peers.

And, being returned;

Mr. Speaker reported, That the Houſe had attended in the Houſe of Peers: Where the Lord Chancellor did, in the Name of the Lords Juſtices of Great Britain, deliver a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament; of which, for preventing Miſtakes, he had obtained a Copy.

Mr. Speaker read the Speech to the Houſe: Which is as follows; viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with great Satisfaction we can now tell you, That we have, this Morning, received a Letter from the King; wherein his Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to acquaint us, That his Majeſty is haſtening hither, to employ his utmoſt Care for putting theſe Kingdoms into a happy and flouriſhing Condition.

He has commanded us, in the mean time, to continue our Care of every thing that may conduce to the Peace and Safety of his Dominions: And we are aſſured, that, if this had required his more immediate Preſence, he would, without the leaſt Delay, have repaired hither, for the Support of ſo dutiful and faithful Subjects; for his Majeſty does very particularly expreſs his great Satisfaction in the Loyalty and Affection which his People have univerſally ſhewn upon his Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Crown.

At the opening this Seſſion, we did not mention to you the Apprehenſions we then had, from the Smalneſs of the Sum at that time advanced, that the Lottery would not be full; being deſirous, in the firſt Place, to try to make it effectual in the manner the Parliament had eſtabliſhed it: But we are obliged now to acquaint you, That all our Endeavours have failed of the deſired Succeſs, though the Contributions have been thereby conſiderably increaſed.

We muſt therefore earneſtly recommend to you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, to take this into your Conſideration; and to give ſuch further Encouragement as you ſhall think proper, for raiſing the whole Sum which was intended, and is abſolutely neceſſary, for carrying on the Service of the Year.

Reſolved, Nemine contradicente, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return the humble Thanks of this Houſe for the Satisfaction his Majeſty has been pleaſed to expreſs in the Loyalty and Affection which his Subjects have univerſally ſhewn upon his Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne; and for his gracious Intentions of making his People ſpeedily happy with his Royal Preſence; and alſo to aſſure his Majeſty of the Continuance of the ſame Zeal and Affection to his Majeſty, upon all Occaſions; and that this Houſe will contribute their utmoſt Endeavours for preſerving the publick Peace, until his Majeſty ſhall arrive.

Ordered, That the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to the Lords Juſtices, with the Deſire of this Houſe, That they will tranſmit the ſame to his Majeſty with all convenient Speed.

Ordered, That the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to the Lords Juſtices by ſuch Members of this Houſe as are of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council.

Reſolved, That this Houſe will, To-morrow Morning, reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider of that Part of the Speech of the Lords Juſtices, which relates to the Lottery.

A PROCLAMATION

For Calling a new Parliament.

GEORGE R.

IT having pleaſed Almighty GOD, by moſt remarkable Steps of his Providence, to bring Us in Safety to the Crown of this Kingdom, notwithſtanding the Deſigns of evil Men, who ſhewed themſelves diſaffected to Our Succeſſion, and who have ſince, with the utmoſt Degree of Malice, miſrepreſented Our firm Reſolution, and uniform Endeavours, to preſerve and defend Our moſt excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State; and attempted, by many falſe Suggeſtions, to render Us ſuſpected to Our People; We cannot omit, on this Occaſion of Firſt ſummoning Our Parliament of Great Britain (in Juſtice to Ourſelves, and that the Miſcarriages of others may not be imputed to Us, at a time when falſe Impreſſions may do the greateſt and irrecoverable Hurt before they can be cleared up), to ſignify to Our whole Kingdom, That We were very much concerned, on Our Acceſſion to the Crown, to find the publick Affairs of Our Kingdoms under the greateſt Difficulties, as well in reſpect of Our Trade, and the Interruption of Our Navigation, as of the great Debts of the Nation, which we were ſurpriſed to obſerve, had been very much increaſed ſince the Concluſion of the laſt War: We do not, therefore, doubt, that if the enſuing Elections ſhall be made by Our loving Subjects with that Safety and Freedom which, by Law, they are intitled to, and We are firmly reſolved to maintain to them, they will ſend up to Parliament the fitteſt Perſons to redreſs the preſent Diſorders, and to provide for the Peace and Happineſs of Our Kingdoms, and the Eaſe of Our People for the future; and therein will have a particular Regard to ſuch as ſhewed a Firmneſs to the Proteſtant Succeſſion when it was moſt in Danger: We have, therefore, found it neceſſary, as well for the Cauſes aforeſaid, as for other weighty Conſiderations concerning Us and Our Kingdoms, to call a new Parliament; and We do accordingly declare, That, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order to Our Chancellor of Great Britain, to iſſue out Writs, in due Form, for the Calling a new Parliament; which Writs are to bear Teſte on Monday the Seventeenth Day of this inſtant January, and to be returnable on Thurſday the Seventeenth Day of March next following.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fifteenth Day of January 1714, in the Firſt Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

Note, That, in ſome of the Copies of this Proclamation which have been iſſued, Monday, inſtead of Thurſday, the Seventeenth of March, was by Miſtake, inſerted.

Parliamentum inceptum et tentum apud Civitat' Weſtmonaſt' die Jovis, 17° die Martii, Anno regni Domini noſtri GEORGII, Dei gratia, Magnæ Britanniæ, Franciæ, et Hiberniæ, Regis, Fidei Defenſoris, &c. 1°, Annoque Domini 1714.

ON which Day, being the Firſt Day of the Meeting of this Parliament, purſuant to a Proclamation (hereunto annexed), and alſo to the Writs which had iſſued for that Purpoſe, the moſt Noble Wm. Duke of Devonſhire, Lord High Steward of his Majeſty's Houſhold, came, about Eleven of the Clock, into the Rooms belonging to the Clerk of the Houſe of Commons, called the Inner Court of Wards, the uſual Place to adminiſter the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Members returned to ſerve in Parliament: And, George Wright Eſquire, Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, having delivered in a Book of the Names of the Members who had been returned; and Paul Jodrell Eſquire, Clerk of the Houſe of Commons, and Mr. Stables, Clerk-Aſſiſtant, and the other Clerks, attending, according to their Duty; the Lord Steward did himſelf in Perſon adminiſter the Oaths appointed to ſeveral of the Members who appeared; and afterwards made a Commiſſion, or Deputation, under his Hand and Seal, hereunto alſo annexed, impowering ſeveral of the Members who had before been ſworn, to adminiſter the ſaid Oaths to the reſt of the Members returned; who adminiſtred the ſame, accordingly, to ſuch other Members as appeared:

Which being done, the Members repaired to their Seats in the Houſe of Commons.

After which,

A Meſſage was delivered from the King, by Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black Rod:

Gentlemen,

The King commands this Honourable Houſe to attend him, immediately, in the Houſe of Peers.

Accordingly, the Houſe went up to attend his Majeſty in the Houſe of Peers: Where the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by his Majeſty's Directions, ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Am commanded by his Majeſty to acquaint you, That his Majeſty does not intend to declare the Cauſes of calling this Parliament, till there be a Speaker of the Houſe of Commons:

And therefore, you, the Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, are to repair to the Place where the Commons uſually ſit, and there proceed to the Election of a fit Perſon to be your Speaker, whom you are to preſent to his Majeſty here, for his Royal Approbation, on Monday next, at Twelve of the Clock.

And the Houſe being returned;

The Right Honourable Algernoon Earl of Hartford, Son and Heir apparent to the moſt Noble Charles Duke of Somerſet, Knight of the Shire for the County of Northumberland, ſaid;

That the Houſe having received his Majeſty's Commands to return, and immediately chooſe a Speaker; although he was himſelf very unfit to recommend any Perſon; yet he ſhould take upon him to name one, of whoſe Abilities and Virtues, he thought, no one need be better convinced, though it very ill became him to recommend: And thereupon the Honourable Spencer Compton Eſquire, who had already made known his Experience in the Houſe, and given ſo many Occaſions of knowing his Abilities in every thing of that Kind; and as he had already, with the greateſt Honour, filled the Chair of the Committee of Privileges and Elections, which, next to that of the Speaker's, is the higheſt we have; there was no Occaſion to ſay more of him; and therefore moved, That Spencer Compton Eſquire might take the Chair of the Houſe.

Then the Lord Finch, Son and Heir apparent to the Right Honourable Daniel Earl of Nottingham, Knight of the Shire for the County of Rutland, ſaid;

That, after the honourable Mention, which the Noble Member had been pleaſed to make of Mr. Compton, whoſe Abilities were ſo well known to every Gentleman in the Houſe, his Addition would be a Miſ-ſpending of Time: But, however, on this Occaſion, he could not but take notice of him, as he was a Perſon deſcended of a very noble and honourable Family, in all Times famous for their ſteady Adherence to the Conſtitution in Church and State; for their inviolable Loyalty to a deſerving Maſter, though an unfortunate Prince; that he had eminently diſtinguiſhed himſelf in the true Intereſt of his Country, by his firmly adhering to, and ſupporting with Reſolution, thoſe Meaſures, that were neceſſary to maintain the Proteſtant Succeſſion, when in the utmoſt Danger; upon which alone the Security of the Church of England, the Proteſtant Religion abroad, and the Liberties of his Country, could depend; without which, they might not have had an Opportunity this Day to chooſe a Speaker: That, by theſe Virtues, and his great Abilities in Parliamentary Affairs, he had ſo well deſerved of his Country, as to merit all Marks of Eſteem that they could ſhew him: That he had already diſcharged the Duty of the Second Chair, when intruſted with the Rights and Liberties of the Commons, with ſuch Temper, Candour, and Impartiality, as muſt ſatisfy every Gentleman in the Houſe, that he will ſupport the Dignity of the Chair, and ſhew himſelf entirely equal to the Truſt they ſhould repoſe in him. Unleſs ſuch Merit fills the Chair, in vain would it be for a Speaker, at the Bar of another Houſe, to inſiſt upon the Rights and Privileges of Parliaments, Freedom of Speech, and Liberty of Debating; for it would ever be in the Breaſt of a Speaker to obſtruct that Freedom of Speech, which the Crown has not a Right to deny: Since, therefore, to complete his Character, he has already diſtinguiſhed himſelf by theſe Virtues, ſo neceſſary to every one who is to preſide in a free Aſſembly, he begged Leave to ſecond the Motion, That Spencer Compton Eſquire do take the Chair.

Then Mr. Compton ſtood up in his Place; and ſaid;

That Excuſes upon theſe Occaſions were generally ſo much ſuſpected, that, notwithſtanding the juſt Senſe he had of his own Inabilities, he ſhould have choſe to have ſat ſilent, and ſubmitted himſelf to the Pleaſure of the Houſe, had nothing but his own Reputation, however dear that was to him, been concerned in the Deciſion of this Queſtion: But when he conſidered, that the future Proſperity and Tranquillity of this Kingdom would entirely depend on many difficult and important Points, which muſt neceſſarily come under the Conſideration of this Parliament, he muſt own he trembled, leſt the juſt Expectation the Nation had of Relief, of Security, and of future Happineſs, from the Deliberations of this Houſe of Commons, ſhould be any-ways obſtructed, if not diſappointed, by his Want of Capacity; and that he ſhould therefore think himſelf inexcuſable, did he not lay before Gentlemen how unequal he found himſelf to ſo great a Weight: And ſince there were ſo many Gentlemen in this Houſe (he might venture to ſay there never were more in any Houſe of Commons), whoſe Experience, added to their Abilities, did fitly qualify them to promote thoſe great and good Purpoſes, which, he was ſure, every Gentleman in the Houſe propoſed for the Service of his Country, from the Determination of this Parliament, he ſhould hope he might be allowed to ſit down, perfectly ſatisfied with the Honour of having been propoſed by Two Honourable Perſons, who were the Ornaments of the laſt Parliament; and whoſe ſteady Adherence to the true Intereſt of their Country added a Luſtre even to their Birth: And that Gentlemen would agree on ſome other Perſon, whoſe greater Abilities would enable him to diſcharge this high Truſt, with Reputation to himſelf, and Advantage to the Publick.

But, the Houſe calling upon Mr. Compton, To the Chair; he was taken out of his Place by the Earl of Hartford, and the Lord Finch; who led him from the Bar of the Houſe, up to the Chair: Where, upon the Steps, he ſaid;

That the undeſerved Honour he had received, by being brought thus far, require the utmoſt Return of Gratitude to the whole Houſe, and his moſt hearty Thanks to every Member of it; and would ſtop him from farther inſiſting on his own Inſufficiency, leſt he ſhould be thought to cenſure the Judgment of the Houſe: The real Senſe of his own Weakneſs ſtill urged him to intreat Gentlemen to deſiſt from ſo improper a Choice; and to give him Leave to return to his former Seat, where the Errors he might commit could be only unfortunate to himſelf; whereas, in the Chair, they might be prejudicial to the whole Kingdom:

But the Houſe cried, No, no.

Whereupon Mr. Compton took the Chair;

And, the Mace, which before lay under the Table, being laid upon the Table, he, ſtanding up, ſaid; Though the Houſe would not allow of his Excuſe, he hoped they would be pleaſed to permit him to intercede with his Majeſty to command them to proceed to another Election.

The Members cried, No, no.

And thereupon he ſat down in the Chair.

Then Mr. Secretary Stanhope ſaid; His Majeſty having determined, That this Houſe ſhould attend his Majeſty, upon Monday next, at the Bar of the Houſe of Lords, at Twelve of the Clock, in order to preſent their Speaker to him; he therefore moved, That the Houſe would adjourn till Monday next.

And then the Houſe adjourned, accordingly, till Monday Morning next, at Eleven of the Clock.

Lunæ, 21° die Martii;

Anno 1° Georgii Regis, 1714.

THE Houſe being met, and Mr. Speaker Elect having taken the Chair;

A Meſſage was brought from his Majeſty by Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black Rod:

Mr. Speaker,

The King commands this Honourable Houſe to attend him, in the Houſe of Peers, immediately.

Accordingly, Mr. Speaker Elect, with the Houſe, went up to attend his Majeſty: Where he ſpake to the Effect following; viz.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, have, in Obedience to Your Majeſty's Command, proceeded to the Choice of their Speaker; and now attend, with all Humility, to preſent me to Your Majeſty, as the Effect of that Choice.

It muſt be very ſurpriſing to Your Majeſty, that, from amongſt ſo many honourable, learned, and worthy, Perſons, who are every way qualified to diſcharge this great Truſt, any thing could induce Your Commons to preſent me, for Your Majeſty's Approbation, who have none of thoſe Endowments neceſſary for the Execution of this important Charge: I have neither Memory to retain, Judgment to collect, nor Skill to guide, their Debates; nor can I boaſt of any thing that could intitle me to the Favour of the Commons, but an unſhaken Fidelity to the Proteſtant Succeſſion: This, Sir, to your faithful Commons, ſupplied the Want of all Qualifications: By this Firſt Step, they deſign to convince the World, That a ſteady Adherence to the Intereſt of Your Majeſty's Royal Houſe is the only Recommendation to the Favour of Your Commons: This, Your Commons hope, may be ſome Excuſe for their preſuming to preſent to Your Majeſty a Perſon, whoſe Inſufficiency rendered him ſo improper for them to elect, or for Your Majeſty to approve: But though Your Majeſty ſhould be graciouſly pleaſed to allow this as a Juſtification for Your Commons, yet I ſhould be unpardonable, did I not, with all Humility, repreſent to Your Majeſty, That, though my Zeal be great, my Infirmities are greater: This Employment requires a Man of better Underſtanding, and ſtronger Judgment, than I am Maſter of; and I am therefore an humble Suitor to Your Majeſty, to accept my Excuſe, and to command the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, to return to their Houſe, and there to make Choice of ſome fitter Perſon to diſcharge the great Truſt, on the due Execution whereof the publick Welfare ſo much depends.

Then the Lord Chancellor, taking Directions from his Majeſty, ſaid;

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM to acquaint you, by his Majeſty's Command, That his Majeſty is perfectly well ſatisfied with the Choice you have made of Mr. Compton to be your Speaker: And therefore his Majeſty doth allow of, and confirm, you, Mr. Compton, to be Speaker of the Houſe of Commons.

Then Mr. Speaker ſaid;

THAT, ſince it is not Your Majeſty's Pleaſure to admit my Excuſe, it is my Duty to ſubmit, and chearfully to undergo this Burden, which Your Majeſty, and the Commons, have been pleaſed to lay on me; having an entire Confidence in Your Majeſty's Goodneſs for Pardon for my Errors and Infirmities; at leaſt, that they may not be imputed to Your faithful Commons: On whoſe behalf I lay Claim, by humble Petition to Your Majeſty, to all their ancient Rights and Privileges; particularly, That they may have Privilege from Arreſts, and Diſturbance, for their Perſons, Eſtates, and Servants; Liberty of Speech, for the better Management of their Debates; and free Acceſs to Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, as Occaſion ſhall require.

Then the Lord Chancellor, receiving further Directions from his Majeſty, ſaid;

Mr. Speaker,

I AM commanded by his Majeſty to ſay, That his Majeſty, being fully aſſured of the Prudence, Loyalty, and good Affections, of the Houſe of Commons, does moſt willingly grant to them all their Privileges, in as full a manner as they have at any time been granted, or allowed, by any of his Majeſty's Royal Predeceſſors.

And, as to what you have prayed in relation to yourſelf, his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to put the beſt and moſt favourable Conſtruction upon your Words and Actions in the Execution of this great Truſt, as Speaker of the Houſe of Commons; being ſatisfied, by your paſt Conduct, of your good Intentions, and Zeal for his Service, and the true Intereſt of your Country, and of your Experience and Abilities in the Buſineſs of Parliaments.

The Houſe being returned, Mr. Speaker reported, That the Houſe had attended his Majeſty in the Houſe of Peers; where his Majeſty had been pleaſed to approve the Choice which they had made of him for their Speaker; whereby his Majeſty had given Proof, that he would never deny any thing that can be aſked of him by his faithful Commons; becauſe it will be impoſſible for them ever to make a Requeſt, that could be more reaſonably refuſed:

That he did, in their behalf, demand all their ancient Rights and Privileges; particularly, Freedom of Speech, Privilege from Arreſts, and Diſturbance, for themſelves, Servants, and Eſtates; and free Acceſs to his Majeſty's Perſon, as Occaſion ſhould require: And that his Majeſty was pleaſed to ſignify, by the Lord Chancellor, That they ſhould enjoy all their ancient Privileges, in as ample manner as any of their Predeceſſors.

After which, Mr. Speaker returned his hearty Thanks to the Houſe for the great Honour they had done him; aſſuring the Houſe, That he would endeavour to behave himſelf with the utmoſt Reſpect to the Houſe, and every Member of it; and would diſcharge his Duty uprightly and impartially; and, as long as he ſhould continue ſo to do, he hoped to have the Support and Aſſiſtance of the Houſe, and of every Gentleman in it:

That he recommended to Gentlemen the Obſervation of thoſe good Orders eſtabliſhed by their Predeceſſors, for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs; and that they would find great Eaſe in them: And that they were more particularly neceſſary to be obſerved at this time, the Seſſion beginning ſo late; and that it was to be wiſhed, Gentlemen would come early in the Morning:

That, he hoped, in their Debates, Gentlemen would confine themſelves to the Matter in Queſtion, and avoid Reflections; for one Reflection would beget another, and carry Gentlemen from the Argument.

After which, Mr. Speaker put the Houſe in mind, That the Firſt thing they had to do, was to take the Oaths appointed, and to make and ſubſcribe the Declaration, and to take and ſubſcribe the Oath of Abjuration, by Law required.

And thereupon, Mr. Speaker firſt, alone, took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, accordingly.

And, after him, ſeveral other Members took the ſaid Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the ſaid Declaration, and took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration.

And then the Houſe adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eleven of the Clock.

PRAYERS.

SEveral other Members preſent took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, according to the Laws made for thoſe Purpoſes.

A Bill for the more effectual preventing, and puniſhing, the Stealing, or unlawful Killing, of Cattle, was read the Firſt time.

Reſolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Mr. Speaker reported, That, on Monday laſt, when the Houſe attended his Majeſty in the Houſe of Peers, his Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to declare, from the Throne, That he had ordered the Lord Chancellor to declare the Cauſes of calling this Parliament, in his Majeſty's Name and Words: And that, accordingly, the Lord Chancellor did declare the Cauſes of calling this Parliament, as they are mentioned in a Speech delivered into his Hands by his Majeſty from the Throne: Which Speech he read to both Houſes; and of which, to prevent Miſtakes, Mr. Speaker ſaid he had obtained a Copy; which he read to the Houſe; and is as follows;

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THIS being the firſt Opportunity that I have had of meeting my People in Parliament, ſince it pleaſed Almighty God, of his good Providence, to call me to the Throne of my Anceſtors, I moſt gladly make uſe of it, to thank my faithful and loving Subjects for that Zeal and Firmneſs that hath been ſhewn in Defence of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, againſt all the open and ſecret Practices that have been uſed to defeat it: And I ſhall never forget the Obligations I have to thoſe who have diſtinguiſhed themſelves upon this Occaſion.

It were to be wiſhed, that the unparalleled Succeſſes of a War, which was ſo wiſely and chearfully ſupported by this Nation, in order to procure a good Peace, had been attended with a ſuitable Concluſion: But it is with Concern I muſt tell you, that ſome Conditions even of this Peace, eſſential to the Security and Trade of Great Britain, are not yet duly executed; and the Performance of the Whole may be looked upon as precarious, until we ſhall have formed defenſive Alliances, to guaranty the preſent Treaties.

The Pretender, who ſtill reſides in Lorrain, threatens to diſturb us; and boaſts of the Aſſiſtance which he ſtill expects here, to repair his former Diſappointments.

A great Part of our Trade is rendered impracticable: This, if not retrieved, muſt deſtroy our Manufactures, and ruin our Navigation.

The publick Debts are very great; and ſurpriſingly increaſed, even ſince the fatal Ceſſation of Arms: My firſt Care was, to prevent a farther Increaſe of theſe Debts, by paying off, forthwith, a great Number of Ships, which had been kept in Pay, when there was no Occaſion for continuing ſuch an Expence.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I rely upon you for ſuch Supplies as the preſent Circumſtances of our Affairs require for this Year's Service, and for the Support of the publick Faith: The Eſtimates ſhall be laid before you, that you may conſider of them; and what you ſhall judge neceſſary for your Safety, I ſhall think ſufficient for mine.

I doubt not but you will concur with me in Opinion, That nothing can contribute more to the Support of the Credit of the Nation, than a ſtrict Obſervance of all Parliamentary Engagements.

The Branches of the Revenue formerly granted for the Support of the Civil Government, are ſo far incumbred and alienated, that the Produce of the Funds which remain, and have been granted to me, will fall much ſhort of what was at firſt deſigned, for maintaining the Honour and Dignity of the Crown: And ſince it is my Happineſs, as I am confident you think it yours, to ſee a Prince of Wales, who may, in due time, ſucceed me on the Throne; and to ſee him bleſſed with many Children, the beſt and moſt valuable Pledges of our Care and Concern for your Proſperity; this muſt occaſion an Expence to which the Nation has not of many Years been accuſtomed; but ſuch as, ſurely, no Man will grudge: And, therefore, I do not doubt, but you will think of it with that Affection which I have Reaſon to hope for from you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Eyes of all Europe are upon you, waiting the Iſſue of this Firſt Seſſion: Let no unhappy Diviſions of Parties here at home divert you from purſuing the common Intereſt of your Country; let no wicked Inſinuations diſquiet the Minds of my Subjects: The eſtabliſhed Conſtitution in Church and State ſhall be the Rule of my Government; the Happineſs, Eaſe, and Proſperity, of my People ſhall be the chief Care of my Life: Thoſe who aſſiſt me in carrying on theſe Meaſures, I ſhall always eſteem my beſt Friends: And I doubt not, but that I ſhall be able, with your Aſſiſtance, to diſappoint the Deſigns of thoſe who would deprive me of that Bleſſing which I moſt value, the Affection of my People.

Reſolved, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to expreſs our juſt Senſe of the Divine Providence, in placing his Majeſty on the Throne of his Anceſtors: To return his Majeſty the Thanks of this Houſe for his moſt gracious Speech from the Throne; for his Aſſurances, that the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution in Church and State ſhall be the Rule of his Government; and for his Goodneſs expreſſed to thoſe who diſtinguiſhed themſelves by their Zeal and Firmneſs for the Proteſtant Succeſſion: To expreſs our Concern, that any Conditions of the late Peace, eſſential to the Security and Trade of Great Britain, are not yet duly executed; that ſuch Alliances have not been formed, as are neceſſary to render the Peace durable; that our Manufactures and Navigation are in ſuch Hazard, by the Difficulties brought upon our Commerce; and that the publick Debts are greatly increaſed, even ſince the Ceſſation of Arms: To declare our higheſt Reſentment againſt the preſumptuous Declaration of the Pretender, and the Encouragement he boaſts to have received from hence: And to aſſure his Majeſty, That we will demonſtrate our juſt Senſe of the great Bleſſings derived to theſe Nations in the Perſon of the Prince of Wales, and his Iſſue, by enabling his Majeſty to ſupport the Dignity of the Crown, and to make an honourable Proviſion for the Royal Family; and that we will likewiſe grant ſuch Supplies as ſhall be requiſite for the Service of the Year, and for maintaining Parliamentary Credit; and will ſupport his Majeſty in ſuch Alliances as he ſhall judge neceſſary to make, for preſerving the Peace of Europe.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to draw up an Addreſs, upon the ſaid Reſolution, to be preſented to his Majeſty:

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOur Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, return Your Majeſty their unfeigned Thanks, for Your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

'Tis with inexpreſſible Joy that we approach Your Majeſty, peaceably ſeated upon the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors; and, being thoroughly ſenſible of the many open and ſecret Practices that have, of late Years, been uſed, to defeat the Proteſtant Succeſſion, we cannot ſufficiently adore the Divine Providence, that ſo ſeaſonably interpoſed, and ſaved this Nation, by Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown.

Your faithful Commons receive, with the higheſt Gratitude, Your moſt gracious Aſſurances, That the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution in Church and State ſhall be the Rule of Your Government; and the Safety, Eaſe, and Proſperity, of Your People, the chief Care of Your Life: We are ſenſible of Your Goodneſs, expreſſed to thoſe who have diſtinguiſhed themſelves by their Zeal and Firmneſs for the Proteſtant Succeſſion: And as we doubt not, but the Wiſdom and Steadineſs of Your Government will unite the Hearts of all Your faithful Subjects in Duty and Affection to Your Sacred Perſon, ſo we moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we not only highly reſent the wicked Inſinuations uſed to diſquiet the Minds of Your Subjects; but are reſolved, to the utmoſt of our Power, to ſuppreſs and extinguiſh that evil Diſpoſition that is ſtill at work to deprive Your Majeſty of the Affections of Your People.

We are ſenſibly touched, not only with the Diſappointment, but with the Reproach, brought upon the Nation, by the unſuitable Concluſion of a War which was carried on at ſo vaſt an Expence, and was attended with ſuch unparalleled Succeſſes: But, as that Diſhonour cannot, in Juſtice, be imputed to the whole Nation, ſo we firmly hope and believe, that, through Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, and the faithful Endeavours of Your Commons, the Reputation of theſe Your Kingdoms will, in due time, be vindicated and reſtored.

We are under Aſtoniſhment to find, that any Conditions of the late Peace, eſſential to the Security and Trade of Great Britain, ſhould not yet be duly executed; and that Care was not taken to form ſuch Alliances, as might have rendered that Peace not precarious: And as no Care ſhall be wanting in Your loyal Commons to inquire into theſe fatal Miſcarriages, ſo we entirely rely on Your Majeſty's Wiſdom to enter into ſuch Alliances as You ſhall judge neceſſary to preſerve the Peace of Europe; and we faithfully promiſe to enable Your Majeſty to make good all ſuch Engagements.

It is with juſt Reſentment we obſerve, that the Pretender ſtill reſides in Lorain; and that he has the Preſumption, by Declarations from thence, to ſtir up Your Majeſty's Subjects to Rebellion: But that which raiſes the utmoſt Indignation of Your Commons, is, that it appears therein, that his Hopes were built upon the Meaſures that had been taken for ſome time paſt in Great Britain: It ſhall be our Buſineſs to trace out thoſe Meaſures whereon he placed his Hopes, and to bring the Authors of them to condign Puniſhment.

Your Commons are under the deepeſt Concern, that a great Part of our Trade is rendered impracticable, which, if not retrieved, muſt deſtroy our Manufactures, and ruin our Navigation: But, though we are too ſenſible of thoſe fatal Conſequences, we are not yet without Hopes, that Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, by the Aſſiſtance of Your Commons, may find Means to extricate Your People from their preſent Difficulties.

The Bleſſings derived to theſe Nations from Your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, are not confined to the preſent Times: We have a Proſpect of future and laſting Happineſs entailed upon Your People, by a long Succeſſion of Your Royal Progeny: And, as this is a Bleſſing which theſe Kingdoms have a long time wanted, ſo they could never hope to have ſeen it ſo well ſupplied, as in the Perſon of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and his Iſſue: Your faithful Commons ſhall therefore think it their Duty to enable Your Majeſty to ſupport the Dignity of the Crown, and to make an honourable Proviſion for the Royal Family.

The ſurpriſing Increaſe of the publick Debts, even ſince all Thoughts of carrying on the War were laid aſide, ſhall not diſcourage us from granting ſuch Supplies as ſhall be neceſſary for the Service of this Year, and for the Support of publick Faith: And we do entirely concur with Your Majeſty in Opinion, That nothing can contribute more towards preſerving the Credit of the Nation, than a ſtrict Obſervance of all Parliamentary Engagements; which we are firmly reſolved, upon all Occaſions, inviolably to maintain.

SIR Richard Sandford preſented to the Houſe, purſuant to their Addreſs to his Majeſty for that Purpoſe, an Account of the Gold and Silver coined at his Majeſty's Mint in the Tower of London, from Lady-day One thouſand Seven hundred and Thirteen, to Lady-day One thouſand Seven hundred and Fifteen; and of the Gold and Silver remaining in the Tower, in order for Coinage, at Lady-day One thouſand Seven hundred and Fifteen; and of the Denominations and Species in which the ſaid Gold and Silver were brought into the Tower.

And the Title thereof was read.
The ſaid Account is as followeth; viz.

AN Account of the Gold and Silver coined at his Majeſty's Mint in the Tower of London, from Lady-day One thouſand Seven hundred and Thirteen, to Lady-day One thouſand Seven hundred and Fifteen; and of the Gold and Silver remaining in the Tower, in order for Coinage, at Lady-day 1715; and of the Denominations and Species in which the ſaid Gold and Silver were brought into the Tower.

From Lady-day 1713, to Lady-day 1715, there was coined 44,179 Pounds Troy Weight of Standard Gold; which, at 44 Guineas and an Half to the Pound Weight, and One Pound One Shilling and Six Pence to the Guinea, makes —	2,113,412	18	3
In the ſame time, there was coined 3,899 Pounds Weight of Standard Silver; which, at 3*l.* 2*s.* to the Pound Weight, makes — —	12,086	18	0
At Lady-day 1715, there remained in the Tower, to be coined, 6,464 Pounds Weight Eleven Ounces Two Peny-weight and Five Grains of Standard Gold; amounting, at the above Value, to — —	309,265	17	7
And 278 Pounds Four Ounces and Eleven Peny-weight of Standard Silver; amounting, at the above Value, to — — —	862	19	6
	2,435,628	13	4

All the Silver above-mentioned was extracted out of Engliſh Lead; and all the Gold came to the Mint in the Form of Bars, or Ingots, the ſeveral Denominations and Species of which are not entered in our Books; but, by the Shape and Aſſay of the Bars, we conceive great Part thereof to have been imported from Portugal, in the Form of Bars; and the reſt to have been melted into Bars by the Goldſmiths in London, from various Sorts of foreign Gold, and chiefly from the Monies of France and Portugal, before it came to the Mint.

Ordered,

Ordered, That the ſaid Eſtimate do lie upon the Table, to be peruſed by the Members of the Houſe.

Reſolved, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, That he will be graciouſly pleaſed to direct, That all Powers, Inſtructions, Memorials, Letters, and Papers, relating to the Negotiations of Peace at the Hague in One thouſand Seven hundred and Nine; and the Preliminaries negotiated at Gertruydenberg; together with the ſaid Preliminaries, and the Ratification of them; be laid before this Houſe.

Ordered, That the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty by ſuch Members of this Houſe as are of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council.

Mr. Farrer, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom it was referred to conſider of Ways and Means for raiſing the Supply granted to his Majeſty, the Reſolution which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; and he read the ſame in his Place; and afterwards delivered it in at the Clerk's Table: Where the ſame was read; and is as follows; viz.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, towards raiſing the Supply granted to his Majeſty, the Sum of Two Shillings in the Pound, and no more, be raiſed in the Year One thouſand Seven hundred and Fifteen, upon all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Penſions, Offices, and perſonal Eſtates, in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed: And that a proportionable Ceſs, according to the Ninth Article of the Treaty of Union, be laid upon that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

The ſaid Reſolution being read a Second time;

Reſolved, That the ſaid Proclamation be read.

G. R.

IT having pleaſed Almighty God, by moſt remarkable Steps of his Providence, to bring us in Safety to the Crown of this Kingdom, notwithſtanding the Deſigns of evil Men, who ſhewed themſelves diſaffected to our Succeſſion, and who have ſince, with the utmoſt Degree of Malice, miſrepreſented our firm Reſolution, and uniform Endeavours, to preſerve and defend our moſt excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State; and attempted, by many falſe Suggeſtions, to render us ſuſpected to our People; we cannot omit, on this Occaſion of firſt ſummoning our Parliament of Great Britain (in Juſtice to ourſelves, and that the Miſcarriages of others may not be imputed to us, at a time when falſe Impreſſions may do the greateſt and irrecoverable Hurt before they can be cleared up), to ſignify to our whole Kingdom, That we were very much concerned, on our Acceſſion to the Crown, to find the publick Affairs of our Kingdoms under the greateſt Difficulties, as well in reſpect of our Trade, and the Interruption of our Navigation, as of the great Debts of the Nation, which, we were ſurpriſed to obſerve, had been very much increaſed ſince the Concluſion of the laſt War. We do not, therefore, doubt, that if the enſuing Elections ſhall be made by our loving Subjects with that Safety and Freedom which, by Law, they are intitled to, and we are firmly reſolved to maintain to them, they will ſend up to Parliament the fitteſt Perſons to redreſs the preſent Diſorders, and to provide for the Peace and Happineſs of our Kingdoms, and the Eaſe of our People, for the future; and therein will have a particular Regard to ſuch as ſhewed a Firmneſs to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, when it was moſt in Danger: We have, therefore, found it neceſſary, as well for the Cauſes aforeſaid, as for other weighty Conſiderations concerning us, and our Kingdoms, to call a new Parliament; and we do accordingly declare, That, with the Advice of our Privy-Council, we have this Day given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain, to iſſue out Writs, in due Form, for the calling a new Parliament; which Writs are to bear Teſte on Monday the Seventeenth Day of this inſtant January, and to be returnable on Monday the Seventeenth Day of March next following. Given at our Court at St. James's, the Fifteenth Day of January One thouſand Seven hundred and Fourteen, in the Firſt Year of our Reign.

GOD ſave the King.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion being put That the Houſe do now adjourn;

The Houſe divided.

The Noes go forth.

Tellers for the Noes, { Mr Bladen, Mr. Strickland: } 212.

So it paſſed in the Negative.

Then a Queſtion being propoſed, That Sir William Windham, having reflected upon his Majeſty's Proclamation, of the Fifteenth of January laſt, for calling a new Parliament; and having refuſed to juſtify his Charge, although often called upon ſo to do; is guilty of a great Indignity to his Majeſty, and a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe;

An Amendment was propoſed, by inſerting, after the Word "Charge," the Word "immediately:"

Sir William Wyndham,

I AM to acquaint you, That Yeſterday, after you were withdrawn, the Houſe came to this Reſolution;

"That Sir William Wyndham, having reflected upon "his Majeſty's Proclamation, of the Fifteenth of January "laſt, for calling a new Parliament; and having refuſed "to juſtify his Charge, although often called upon ſo to "do; is guilty of a great Indignity to his Majeſty, and "of a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe."

Sir, The arraigning a Proclamation, iſſued by his Majeſty, for calling this preſent Parliament; and refuſing to aſſign any Cauſe, why ſuch Proclamation is blameable; the Houſe thought an Indignity to his Majeſty, and ſo unwarrantable an Uſe of that Freedom of Speech, which is the undoubted Privilege of Parliament, that the Houſe thought they could not let it paſs without Animadverſion: But, being willing their Moderation ſhould appear, notwithſtanding their Lenity has been too much deſpiſed and contemned, they have inflicted the mildeſt Cenſure your Offence was capable of; and have commanded me to reprimand you in your Place; and, in Obedience to their Command, I do reprimand you accordingly.

Whereupon Sir William Wyndham ſaid,

Mr. Speaker,

I Very truly return my Thanks to you for performing that Duty which is incumbent upon you, from your Office, in ſo candid and gentleman-like a Manner.

As I am a Member, I know I muſt acquieſce in the Determination of the Houſe; but, as I am not conſcious to myſelf of having offered any Indignity to his Majeſty, or of having been guilty of any Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe, I have no Thanks to return to thoſe Gentlemen, who, under a Pretence of Lenity, have brought me under this Cenſure.

And then the Houſe adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Nine of the Clock.

and he proteſts againſt the Clerk, That he make no Return founded upon the other Commiſſion, illegal as aforeſaid, in regard alſo that it was objected, that the ſaid Robert Dunbar ſhould not be choſen Delegate, in regard he threatened ſeveral of the Members of the Council of that Town, as is more fully contained in the Minutes of the ſaid Meeting, to which he refers: To which it is anſwered by Robert Dunbar, of Grangehill, That he never was guilty of any undue Practices in procuring the Delegacy of the Town of Elgin; nor that he ever threatened any Member of the Council of Elgin; but that he undertakes to prove, that there was undue Practices uſed upon the other Side; and that there was Threatenings againſt ſeveral of the Council; and granting, that either Whole or Part of theſe Objections were true, as they are all falſe, the Delegate from the other Towns, nor the Returning-Clerk, are not the proper Judges; but that his Commiſſion ſhould be received, being ſigned by the Majority, as above, and the Return made according: In Anſwer to which, Archbald Dunbar, of Thunderton, repeated his Proteſtation: James Murray Eſquire proteſted, That no Commiſſion in favour of Robert Dunbar, of Grangehill, could be received as by Authority, the above-mentioned William Roſs, John Gordon, James Anderſon, James Innes, John Duff, Michael Black, James Bannerman, James Warden, unleſs it is in order to vote for the ſaid James Murray; becauſe they were under Obligation ſo to do, ſigned under their Hands, at Elgin, the Twenty-fifth Day of September; which I deſire to be read, and anſwered, as the Ground of my ſaid Proteſtation:—Our Provoſt, Dunkenlie, did, ſome time ago, ſignify to ſeveral of us his Inclinations of your ſucceeding him as Provoſt of that Burgh; and the Propoſal was ſo reliſhing and well-pleaſing, that nothing but inſupportable Difficulties could have interrupted our aſking the Favour of ſuch a worthy and honourable Countryman to have done us the Honour to have accepted of the Trouble of that Office; but we are ſo hemmed in by a Set, and ſuch Eyes of our common Enemies upon us, as that we would utterly riſk a total Depravation of our Council, in caſe we give them Opportunity, or the leaſt Foundation of a Proceſs, at this Juncture; and we hope this Matter, and the quiet Settlement of this Burgh, is what you will think concerns yourſelf; and you would not be pleaſed, that we ſhould give any Occaſion or Opportunity to a certain Set of People to reign over us; and therefore it is expected you will weigh our Intereſt in the ſame Balance with your own, and not in the leaſt have any Thought of us, as that we will not, in any thing lies in our Power, contribute for your Intereſt, eſpecially as to your continuing to your being Member of Parliament for this Diſtrict of Boroughs; and, in as far as concerns us, we hope, ye will not neglect your own Friends; but will accept an unanimous Vow for you to repreſent this Diſtrict in the enſuing Parliament; and you may be aſſured, and by theſe we do, as one Man, certify and declare to you, that no Delegate ſhall go from this Borough, but ſuch as ſhall be aſſured by your own; for we have ſuch fixed Reſolutions as to this Matter, which ſo nearly concerns us and the Nation, that nothing ſhall ſhake us from the ſame: We wiſh you good Succeſs in your good and virtuous Inclination; and we give you hearty Thanks for the Trouble and Pains you were at to ſerve ſome of our Friends, and we are much honoured: Your moſt humble Servants, the Provoſt, Ballizes, and Council, of Elgin, Sic ſubſcribitur; George Innes, Kenneth [M'Kenize,] William Roſs, John Gordon, Alexander Talconer, James Anderſon, James Innes, John Duff, James Redder, Robert Gibſon, Michael Black, James Finlay, James Bannerman, James Charles, John Hay junior, James Warden.—Robert Dunbar, of Grangehill, proteſts againſt the receiving the Commiſſions of the Burgh of Kintore and Inverury in favour of the Delegates therein named, in reſpect it does not appear, that the ſaid Councils did take the Oaths requiſite by Law before they proceeded to the Nominations of the Delegates: To which Proteſtation John Mark for Banff, and Alexander Abercromby for Cullin, adheres; and offers to produce the Extracts of the Acts of the reſpective Towns, of their having duly qualified before chooſing their Delegates: To which it is anſwered by James Murray Eſquire, and Ballize Ferguſon, for the Towns of Kintore and Inverury, That the Members of both the Town-Councils did qualify in due Form, according to Law, before they proceeded to chooſe their Delegates; and that it was never demanded at any former Election for this Diſtrict of Boroughs, that the Oaths ſigned by the Counſellors ſhould be produced, elſe they ſhould have come prepared to have it; and makes the ſame Objection againſt Cullin and Banff: The Delegates for Banff and Cullin oppoſes their Acts of their reſpective Councils in the Clerk's Hands, for verifying the Premiſes:—After all which, the Delegate took the Oaths required by Law, and ſubſcribed the ſame.—It was agreed, whoever ſhould be choſen Member of Parliament for this Diſtrict, ſhould ſerve upon his own proper Charges: After which, they proceeded to Election; and the Candidates were, James Murray Eſquire, and Colonel John Campbell younger, of Mamore; and the Poll ſtood thus:

For James Murray Eſquire;	For Colonel John Campbell;
James Murray, for Kintore,	Robert Dunbar, for Elgin,
Archbald Dunbar, for Elgin,	John Mark, for Banff,
John Ferguſon, for Inverury.	Alexander Abercromby, for Cullin.

And it appearing, by the Poll as above, that the Votes by the Two Candidates was equal, the ſaid James Murray Eſquire, as Commiſſioner for Kintore, and [Preſes] of the ſaid Meeting, did take the Caſting-Vote to himſelf, as allowed by Law to himſelf; which plainly makes a Majority in his favour: And he does proteſt, that the Clerk of Kintore, and the Sheriff of Aberdeenſhire, may return him as Member choſen for the ſaid Diſtrict of Boroughs upon the Majority above-mentioned, as is directed by Act of Parliament; thereupon took Inſtruments: In Anſwer to which,

which, John Mark and Alexander Abercromby proteſts againſt the Returning of James Murray, either by the Clerk or Sheriff of Aberdeen, for the Reaſons of the Proteſtation above taken by Robert Dunbar, as Delegate from Elgin, and the ſaid John Mark and Alexander Abercromby; and that no Regard ought to be had to the Commiſſion produced by Archbald Dunbar, of Thundertown, and conſequently can be no Place for Mr. Murray's taking the deciſing Vote for himſelf: and therefore the ſaid Robert Dunbar, John Mark, and Alexander Abercromby, proteſts for all Coſts, [Skaith,] and Damage, againſt the Clerk of Kintore, and Sheriff of Aberdeen, in caſe they ſhall return any other than the ſaid John Campbell, for whom they have voted: To which it is anſwered, That the Proteſtation is moſt incongruous; for the Meeting received both Commiſſions from Elgin before they proceeded to vote, without preſuming to determine between them; which gave an Occaſion for the Preſes' Caſting-Vote, which cannot be diſputed; and therefore the ſaid James Murray proteſts, that the Returning-Officers do return him as the Member elected by the Majority in the Terms of Law, upon their Peril: To which it is replied, That Robert Dunbar's Commiſſion and Proteſtation, to which John Mark and Alexander Abercromby adhered * * by James Murray Eſquire, the Commiſſion produced by Archbald Dunbar, and the Proteſtations made by him, to which the Commiſſioners of Kintore and Inverury adhered, as ſufficient to caſt the other Commiſſion alleged upon: After which, James Murray, Preſes of the ſaid Meeting, and Mr. George Scot, Clerk to the Town of Kintore, ſigned theſe Minutes, in Preſence of the other Commiſſioners; and ordered Extracts to be given to all concerned, if required. Sic ſubſcribitur, James Murray, Preſes; Mr. George Scot, Clerk. This is the true Extract of the Minutes of the ſaid Meeting, extracted by me

M. Scott, Clerk.

After which, Mr. Murray was heard in his Place.

And then he withdrew.

And a Motion being made, and the Queſtion being put, That the Honourable James Murray Eſquire is duly returned a Burgeſs for the Burghs of Elgine, Bamf, Cullen, Kintore, and Inverurie; Ordered, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Tueſday Sevennight.

A Petition of Wm. Paterſon Eſquire was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That by the Fifteenth Article of the Treaty of Union it is agreed, That, next after the neceſſary Allowance for any Loſſes which private Perſons may ſuſtain by reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, the capital Stock, or Fund of the African and Indian Company of Scotland, advanced, together with the Intereſt for the ſaid capital Stock, after the Rate of 5 l. per Cent. per Annum, from the reſpective Times of the Payment thereof, ſhall be paid; upon Payment of which capital Stock and Intereſt, it is agreed the ſaid Company be diſſolved, and ceaſe: That, ſoon after paſſing the Treaty of Union by the Parliaments of both Kingdoms, the Parliament of Scotland, by an Act, intituled, Act concerning the Payment of the Sums out of the Equivalent to the African Company, did limit and reſtrict the Payment of ſuch Intereſt at 5 l. per Cent. per Annum to the Firſt Day of May 1707 then next following; and the whole Sums of Principal and Intereſt to be paid to the Creditors and Proprietors of the Joint-Stock of the ſaid Company, to the groſs Sum of 232,884 l. 5 s. $\frac{2}{3}$ d. only; appointing the Directors of the ſaid Company, or any Five of them, with their Secretary, to ſtate the Account of ſuch Debts and Stock advanced; but ſo as, in the Whole, not to exceed the ſaid groſs Sum of 232,884 l 5 s. $\frac{2}{3}$ d. on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, on Pain of Letters of Horning; in which Proceedings, the Petitioner's Claim and Demand upon the ſaid Company was omitted: That, by an Act of the Firſt Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, An Act for the further directing the Payment of the Equivalent-Money, it is particularly declared and enacted, That no Omiſſion or Neglect of the Directors of the ſaid Company, or of others concerned in ſtating, adjuſting, or certifying, the Claims or Demands upon the Equivalent, ſhall prejudice the Right, Intereſt, Claim, or Demand, of the Petitioner in and upon the ſaid Company; but that the ſeveral Sums due to him by the ſaid Company ſhall be certified, and thereupon fully ſatisfied and paid, in the Terms of the Treaty of Union, as the ſame ſhall be proved before the Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland: That, by the Proofs ſince made before the ſaid Judges, purſuant to the above-recited ſpecial Direction (a Certificate whereof is hereunto annexed) it appears, that the Petitioner hath not received the Conſiderations ſtipulated in and by his Firſt Contracts and Agreements with the ſaid Company, nor had Satisfaction for his further and other Services, Expences, and Loſſes, for and on their Account: And praying ſuch Relief as in your great Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet.

Exchequer-Chamber, Edinburgh, 16° Feb. 171$\frac{4}{5}$.

AND whereas it appears, That the Accounts of the Stock advanced, and Debts due, by the African and Indian Company of Scotland, have been made up without Regard to the Claim of Wm. Paterſon Eſquire, for his Expences, Pains, and Loſſes, on Account, and at the Inſtance, of the ſaid Company; Be it Enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Omiſſion or Neglect of the Directors of the ſaid Company, or of others concerned in ſtating, adjuſting, or certifying, the Claims or Demands upon the Equivalent, ſhall prejudice the Right, Intereſt, Claim, or Demand, of the ſaid Wm. Paterſon in and upon the ſaid Company; but that the ſeveral Sums due to him by the ſaid Company ſhall be certified, and thereupon fully ſatisfied and paid, in the Terms of the Treaty of Union, as the ſame ſhall be proved before the aforeſaid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland. And in regard that, ſince the making of the Firſt Contracts and Agreements, the ſaid Wm. Paterſon hath been at further Expences, and ſuſtained other Loſſes and Damages, for and on Account of the ſaid Company; Be it therefore further Enacted, That the ſaid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland ſhall and are hereby required to take an Account of thoſe his Expences and Loſſes, and likewiſe of his good Services and publick Cares, and make a full and fair Repreſentation thereof to her Majeſty: And, to the end the more full and free Inquiries may be made, and Information had of the Premiſes, the ſaid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland ſhall and may, from time to time, direct their Commiſſion, or Commiſſions, to any Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners within this Kingdom of Great Britain, or Dominions or Territories thereunto belonging, for taking the requiſite Examinations, or Informations, to the Purpoſes aforeſaid; and for reporting the ſame to the ſaid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland: That, after paſſing the ſaid Act of Parliament, viz. in the Months of June and July 1708, the Petitioner made his humble Application to this Court; upon which Application, the Court was pleaſed to give Orders and Directions: That, upon ſuch Order, James Dunlop and John Symmer, Accountants to the ſaid Company, did, on the 2d Day of July 1708, lay before this Court a State of the Petitioner's Accounts of Debt and Credit; which was by the ſaid James Dunlop and John Symmer ſworn unto, before Mr. Baron Maitland, upon the 5th Day of Auguſt then next following: That Mr. Roderick Mackenzie, late Secretary to the ſaid Company, did, by like Order, on the 23th Day of the ſame Month of July, lay before this Court a Report, with Extracts out of the Regiſter-Books of the ſaid Company, relating to the Petitioner's Claim; which was ſworn unto by the ſaid Mr. Mackenzie, before Mr. Baron Scrope, on the 29th Day of the ſaid Month of July; the Originals of which Reports, and Extracts out of the Regiſter-Books and Books of Accounts of the ſaid Company, are now in the Hands of Paul Jodrell Eſquire, Clerk of the Houſe of Commons; to which Honourable Houſe the Petitioner hath ſince been obliged to apply for Relief: That, towards being ſtill the better enabled to examine Witneſſes, and bring his Proofs together, the Petitioner did, in Michaelmas .... 1710, exhibit a Bill in this Court againſt the Commiſſioners of the Equivalent, her then Majeſty's Lord Advocate, and Lord Clerk Regiſter: That, upon Interrogatories in relation to the Matter of the ſaid Bill, the Depoſitions of Mr. Roderick Mackenzie were taken on or about the 30th Day of December following, together with the like Extracts directly from the ſaid Company's original Regiſter-Books: That it appears from the before-mentioned Proofs, that the Petitioner hath been at great Expence and Pains, and ſuſtained very conſiderable Loſſes, in the Service of the late African and Indian Company of Scotland; and that it doth not appear, that he hath received the Two per Cent. Premium ſtipulated in the Preamble or Conditions of Subſcriptions, marked N° 1. in the above-mentioned Extracts out of the Regiſter-Books of the ſaid Company, or had other Satisfaction for his ſaid Expences, Pains, and Loſſes; only that the Sum of 435 l. 15 s. 1 d. $\frac{1}{3}$, with the Intereſt thereon from the 7th of November 1701, remains in his Hands: That the many Obſtructions, and long-continued Hardſhips, that the Petitioner hath hitherto laboured under in the Matter of obtaining his Right upon the ſaid Company, do now indiſpenſably oblige him again to make his humble Application to this Court: The Petitioner humbly prays their Lordſhips to make ſuch Report, or Repreſentation of the ſaid Proofs, as they, in their Wiſdom and Juſtice, ſhall judge proper for his Relief.

Upon Conſideration whereof, and of the Proofs made in this Court upon the Matters therein ſet forth, ſince, both at the time when the Company, in the ſaid Petition mentioned, was beginning to be formed, and after it was carried into a Settlement, it was intended by thoſe intereſted therein, that the Petitioner ſhould have a conſiderable Recompence for his extraordinary Services, in projecting the ſaid Company, and carrying on the Intereſts thereof; as, by the particular Propoſals made for that Purpoſe, fully appears, though they were never perfected, or carried into an Execution; we are of Opinion, That the Petitioner had a juſt Right to have had the ſaid intended Recompence made good to him out of the Equivalent-money appointed to make good the Loſſes of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Company: And, ſince he hath been excluded from any Share thereof, and alſo in regard that he hath been very inſtrumental in carrying on other Matters of a publick Nature, which ſeem to us to have been very much for his Country's Service, we think it juſt and reaſonable, that ſome Way ſhould be found out to give him that Recompence for his ſaid Services, which he appears to have merited, and of which he hath hitherto been diſappointed of.

Ordered, That the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the ſame, with their Opinion thereupon, to the Houſe:

And it is referred to Sir James Campbell, Mr. Anneſley, Mr. Diſton, Mr. Foreſter, Mr. Heyſham, Mr. Thomſon, Mr. Monro, Mr. Hampden, Mr. London, Mr. Hungerford, Lord Wm. Samwell, Sir Richard Farrington, Brigadier Sutton, Mr. Lawſon, Major-General Pepper, Mr. Bertie, Sir Arthur Kay, Mr. Ward, Lord Caſtlecomer, Sir Richard How, Mr. Smithſon, Sir Edward Williams, Mr. Hampden, Mr. Monro, Mr. Hyde, Earl of Hertford, Mr. Meyrick, Mr. Jenings, Mr. Barrington Shute, Mr. Nicholas, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Pitt, Mr. Eden, Lord Wm. Pawlett, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Harvey, Lord Down, Mr. Cuningham, Mr. Hungerford, Mr. Middleton, Mr. Cartwright, Mr. Newland, Mr. Conyers; and all that ſerve for the Counties of Berks, Wilts, Southampton, and Somerſet: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, touching the Complaint of the Breach of Privilege, committed againſt Hugh Cholmly Eſquire, a Member of this Houſe, be now received.

Mr. Hampden accordingly reported, from the ſaid Committee, the Matter, as it appeared to them, and the Reſolution of the Committee thereupon; which Report he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered it in at the Clerk's Table: Where the ſame was read: And the Report and Reſolution are as followeth; viz.

Upon the Complaint, That Robert Parker and others had entered upon the Poſſeſſion of Richard Clowder, Tenant to Hugh Cholmly Eſquire, a Member of this Houſe:

That the Committee have examined the Matter of the ſaid Complaint; and heard Counſel for and againſt Perſons complained of.

Richard Clowder ſaid, That he holds from Mr. Cholmly a Wood at Sydenham, in Kent, for which he has paid his Rent to Mr. Cholmly, and his Truſtees, Sixteen Years; and that, upon the Twenty-fifth Day of March laſt, the ſaid Robert Parker came, with John Kither, a Sheriff's Bailiff, and turned him out of Poſſeſſion.

John Kither ſaid, That Mr. Parker employed him to take the Poſſeſſion; which he did by virtue of a Warrant from the Sheriff of Kent, brought to him by Mr. Parker, who went with him to take the Poſſeſſion:

That the Warrant is dated the Twenty-fourth Day of March laſt; and is in Execution of a Judgment in Ejectment, obtained by Default upon the Demiſe of the ſaid Robert Parker.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to this Reſolution;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Robert Parker, having, upon the Twenty-fifth Day of March laſt, entered upon, and taken Poſſeſſion of, a Wood at Sydenham, in the County of Kent, then in Poſſeſſion of Richard Clowder, Tenant to Hugh Cholmly Eſquire, a Member of this Houſe, is guilty of a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe.

The ſaid Reſolution, being read a Second time, was, upon the Queſtion put thereupon, agreed unto by the Houſe.

Ordered, That the ſaid Robert Parker be, for the ſaid Breach of Privilege, taken into the Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe.

Mr. Hampden, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of New-Windſor, in the County of Berks, and the Reſolutions of the Committee thereupon; which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; and he read the Report in his Place; and afterwards delivered the ſame in at the Clerk's Table: Where the ſame was read: And the Report and Reſolutions are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of Sir Henry Aſhhurſt Baronet, and Samuel Travers Eſquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Chriſtopher Wren and Robert Gayer Eſquires for the Borough of New-Windſor, in the County of Berks:

That the Right of Election was agreed to be in the Inhabitants of the Borough paying Scot and Lot.

That the Poll was thus;

For Mr. Wren, 141. For Sir Hen. Aſhhurſt, 136.
Mr. Gayer, 137. Mr. Travers, 135.

That the Petitioners Counſel objected to 23 of the Sitting-Members Voters; viz.

Five, as no Inhabitants of the Borough, or not rated there:

Seven, living there by Certificates from other Pariſhes:

Two, receiving Charity:

Nine, influenced by Bribery, and indirect Practices.

That it appeared to the Committee, by the Evidence of Chriſtopher Clark and James Poole, and by the Certificates produced by them, That Seven Perſons, viz. Charles Sandys, Thomas Frazier, Joſeph Standen, Michael Cook, and Thomas Carter, John Wyat, and John Benning, were no Inhabitants of the Borough, but lived there by Certificates only.

That the Five objected to by the Petitioners Counſel, as not being Inhabitants, were, Peter Stiles, Arnold Allen, Dr. Dawſon, John Bender, and Thomas Elford: To which the Petitioners Counſel called,

Chriſtopher Clark: Who ſaid, That Peter Stiles lives at Sydenham, in the Pariſh of Burnham; but has a Malt-houſe in Windſor, and a little Houſe belonging to it; has Servants there; and is rated to Church and Poor:

That Arnold Allen lives at Uxbridge; his Dwelling-houſe is there; but has a Houſe and Servants at Windſor; and is rated there:

That Dr. Dawſon is rated to the Poor ſince the Election, but was not before.

Mr. James Grape ſaid, That John Bender, in One thouſand Seven hundred and Fourteen, appealed to the Juſtices to be diſcharged from paying the Rate, becauſe of his Poverty.

The ſame Witneſs produced an Order of the laſt Seſſion, Fourteenth May One thouſand Seven hundred and Fourteen: Which was read; viz.

" That John Bender and Hercules Hill be diſcharged " from paying to the Poor, upon their Complaint; and " in reſpect of their Poverty."

He ſaid, That Bender is charged in the Poors Books; but not croſſed as paid: And that ſome time before the Election, Bender came to the Town-Hall, and deſired to be excuſed from paying the Window-Tax, by reaſon of his Poverty.

Thomas Maſon produced the Books for the Poors Rate for One thouſand Seven hundred and Thirteen; none of which are paid by Bender, becauſe he pleaded Poverty: That ſince Intereſt was making for this Election, Bender voluntarily paid the Rates made ſince May laſt; but not any Arrears of former Years.

That it appeared to the Committee, by the Evidence of Mr. William Sutton, Collector of the Land-Tax, That Mr. Thomas Elford declared to him, That he commenced an Inhabitant at St. Thomas's Day laſt; and refuſed to pay the Land-Tax due before that time.

That the Petitioners Counſel proceeded to add to their Poll Thomas Winwood: And called,

Richard Hope: Who ſaid, That Winwood has a Tenement within the Borough, for which he is rated: That he lies ſometimes there, and ſometimes at his Father's, who lives in the Borough: That he offered to vote for the Petitioners, but was refuſed.

John Crockford and Robert Browne were objected to, as receiving Charity: And,

That it was proved by Mr. Clark, That not long before the Election, each of them received Mr. Reeves's Charity, which is a Twelve-peny Loaf diſtributed to poor People.

That the Petitioners Counſel proceeded to prove Bribery, and indirect Practices, on behalf of the Sitting-Members:

That it appeared, by the Evidence of Mrs. Lyford, John Harris, Daniel Philips, and John Herring, That Mr. James Browne, Mr. Newton, and ſeveral others, gathered a Mob in the Town, who inſulted the Petitioners as they were making their Intereſt: And they apprehended, that Miſchief might have enſued, if the Conſtables had not prevented it.

Mrs. Lyford farther ſaid, That Colonel Floyer told her, He would ruin her Huſband, if it coſt him One hundred Pounds, unleſs he voted for Mr. Gayer.

William Cock ſaid, That Dr. Brown, of the Caſtle, by the Duke of Northumberland's Direction, aſked his Vote for the Sitting-Members; and ſaid, The Church was in great Danger if he did not vote for thoſe Gentlemen: And that, about Four Days before the Election, Mr. Mildmay and Mr. Faſhion, the Duke's Gentleman and Steward, came to him, and told him, The Duke's Servants ſhould not come to his Houſe if he would not vote for the Sitting-Members; that he voted for the Petitioners; that the Duke's Servants came conſtantly to his Houſe before the Election, but have not been there ſince.

Thomas Rowland ſaid, That on the Day of the King's Entry, at which time Intereſt was making for this Election, an Ox was roaſted; and the Materials for building a Shed were the King's, and furniſhed by Mr. James Brown, Clerk of the Works:

That ſeveral Workmen belonging to the Works, particularly Arnold Thompſon Joiner, Robert Spencer Carpenter, James Holmes Plumber, and ſeveral others, were continued in the Call-Books, and charged to the King; although allowed to work at the ſame time at Mr. Pieſly's, and ſeveral other Places; and that ſince the canvaſſing for the Election, Thomas Whitby, though decrepit, and not able to do a Day's Work, was taken into the King's Works: That Daniel Hind has been charged in the Call-Books for the King's Works a Twelvemonth; though he did no Work there during that time: That the ſeveral Workmen thus allowed voted for the Sitting-Members:

The Witneſs ſaid, That he was Foreman to the Maſter-Carpenter of the Works, and was turned out for not voting for the Sitting-Members; but is ſince made Maſter-Carpenter, by a Warrant from the Duke of Kent.

John Aldridge ſaid, That Philip Hind told him, He always deſigned to vote for Sir Henry Aſhhurſt; but at Chriſtmas told him, That he believed he could not ſerve him, becauſe the Duke of Northumberland had given him a Trumpet in the Guards; and, if his Grace laid an Obligation upon him, he could not vote for Sir Henry Aſhhurſt: And that he voted for the Sitting-Members.

Henry Aſon ſaid, That the Duke of Northumberland is Steward of Windſor: That at the Election he ſat upon the Bench with the Mayor; but that his Grace did not ſay or do any thing.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel inſiſted, That Certificate-Men have always voted at Elections in this Borough, and have a Right to vote:

To ſupport the Certificate-Men objected to, they called,

Thomas Brownlow: Who ſaid, That Charles Sandys rents Ten Pounds per Annum; and that it is Mr. Topham's Eſtate.

Mr. Topham, being examined, ſaid, This Eſtate conſiſts of Two ſmall Gardens, which are his, and are lett for Five Pounds Ten Shillings per Annum to the Widow Pocock, upon a Leaſe for One-and-twenty Years.

Thomas Brownlowe ſaid, That Thomas Carter ſerved Tythingman in Windſor the laſt Year:

That Thomas Winwood has no Houſe, is charged for a Barn, and pays the Rate.

That it was admitted by the Petitioners Counſel, That John Crockford and Robert Browne, who received Reeves's Charity, paid Scot and Lot; and that John Man and James Deighton, who voted for the Petitioners, are Certificate-Men.

To add John French to the Sitting-Members Poll,

Richard Burk ſaid, French has a Lodging-Room over his Shop, for which he is rated: But the Witneſs ſaid, He never knew French had a Bed there: That he offered to vote for the Sitting-Members, but was refuſed; and that he had been refuſed at former Elections.

Mr. Pieſley ſaid, That Certificate-Men have always voted at Windſor without Objection; and they did ſo at this Election:

That his Houſe belongs to the 13 poor Knights of the Royal Foundation, who have covenanted to repair it: That it has been repaired by the Crown; and, being very much out of Repair, he applied to the Lords of the Treaſury, who ſeemed to conſent to it, by ordering an Eſtimate to be laid before them; and that he has advanced Money for the Repairs, expecting to be repaid it.

Then the Sitting-Members Counſel objected to Four of the Petitioners Voters, as not being Inhabitants; viz. Joſeph Huddle, Laurence Sexton, Francis Thompſon, and Abraham Jagger: And called,

Thomas Brownlow: Who ſaid, That Mr. Huddle, Mr. Sexton, and Mr. Thompſon, follow the Court; have Houſes in Windſor; are there ſometimes; and are all charged to the Poor.

Abraham Goldſmith ſaid, Jagger lives in Datchet-lane, within the Borough; has a Houſe and Malt-houſe at Windſor, where he lives ſometimes, but is chiefly at his Mother's at Eaton; and that he has lett One Half of his Houſe.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel proceeded to give Evidence of Bribery, and corrupt Practices, on behalf of the Petitioners: And called,

William Sherwood: Who ſaid, He belongs to Windſor Caſtle; and that Captain Potts, the Deputy-Governor, threatened him, that he ſhould be broke, and his Wife turned out from being Miſtreſs of the Charity-School, if he did not vote for the Petitioners: And that Mr. Bret, the Duke of Kent's Steward, about Six Weeks before the Election, told him, the Duke of Kent deſired his Vote for the Petitioners; and ſaid, He was neither the King's Friend, nor the Government's, if he did not give them his Vote:

This Witneſs, being croſs-examined, ſaid, That he did vote in the Election; that he is not broke; and that there are Four Governors of the Charity-School.

George Bryers ſaid, That Mr. Saxton told him, He came down about the Election; and ſaid, He believed the Petitioners were Gentlemen well pleaſing to the King; and and that he was ſent down by ſome of the beſt Quality to make Intereſt for them.

Thomas Joy ſaid, That being aſked, the Day before the Election, by Mr. Saxton, Mr. Rutter, Mr. Cartis, and the Duke of Kent's Secretary, to vote for the Petitioners, he told them, He had promiſed to be for Mr. Wren and Mr. Gayer; upon which they replied, That if he was the King's Friend, he ought to vote for the Petitioners; and that Mr. Saxton, at the time of the Poll, declared, That it was the King's Deſire they ſhould chooſe the Petitioners:

That Mr. Travers told him, If he was for the King's Friend, he would vote for the Petitioners.

Robert Holyday ſaid, One Mr. Burrell told him, He came from the Prince, who gave his Service to him, and deſired his Vote for the Petitioners; and ſaid, It might be the Means to get him a Place at Court: He voted for the Sitting-Members.

Cap.* 12.] By this Act of Parliament, 3,700*l.* weekly out of the ſaid Branches of Exciſe is appropriated for publick Uſes: And it was thereby Enacted, That all the Reſidue of the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, which ſhould remain after the ſaid weekly Payments made out of the ſame; and the ſaid Revenue of the Poſt-Office, and the ſeveral ſmall Branches before expreſſed; and the ſaid further Subſidy of Tonage and Poundage; ſhould, during his Majeſty's Life, be for the Service of his Houſhold and Family, and other his neceſſary Expences and Occaſions; any Clauſe in the ſaid former Act to the contrary notwithſtanding: And that all the Clauſes contained in the ſaid former Act, for, touching, or concerning, the ſaid Overplus, over and above the ſaid yearly Sum of 700,000*l.* were and ſhould be repealed and void.

1° Annæ, Cap. 7.] By an Act, intituled, An Act for the better Support of her Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, it is Enacted, That the Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, and the Duties of Exciſe thereby granted to her Majeſty for her Life, ſubject nevertheleſs to the Payment of 3,700*l.* a Week for publick Uſes; and the ſaid Revenue of the Poſt-Office, and the ſeveral ſmall Branches before enumerated; and the ſaid further Subſidy of Tonage and Poundage; and all other Duties which were chargeable with the ſaid yearly Sum of 700,000*l.* the ſaid Duty of 4 and ½ per Cent. excepted; ſhould be for the Support of her Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown.

3° Annæ.] The Queen, by Letters Patents dated the 3d Day of November, 3° Annæ, purſuant to an Act 2° Annæ, Cap. 11. created the Corporation for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy; and thereby granted to the ſame the Revenue of Firſt-fruits and Tenths, and the Arrears thereof, ſubject to the Penſions before that time charged thereupon.

9° Annæ.] By this Act of Parliament, the Rates of Poſtage of Letters, Paquets, and Advices, were increaſed; and, out of the Revenues ſo increaſed, a weekly Sum of 700*l.* was appropriated for 32 Years, from Michaelmas 1711, for publick Uſes; which weekly Sum of 700*l.* amounting to 36,400*l.* per Annum, was ſuppoſed, would have been the Increaſe, by the additional Duties granted by that Act; but, by the Accounts tranſmitted from the Poſt-Office, it appears, that the groſs Produce of the ſaid Revenues have not been increaſed, by the additional Duties, more than 8,000*l.* per Annum, or thereabouts.

12° Annæ.] By an Act for raiſing 500,000*l.* by way of a Lottery, for Payment of Arrears due to her Majeſty's Servants, Tradeſmen, and others; and by Letters Patents, thereupon grounded, bearing Date the 13th Day of October, 12° Annæ; the yearly Sum of 35,000*l.* out of all the Civil-Liſt Branches, was appropriated for 32 Years, from Michaelmas 1713, to pay the principal Sum of 633,000*l.* and Intereſt, at 4*l.* per Cent. to the Adventurers in the ſaid Lottery, or their Aſſigns.

Upon all which Acts, the Alterations, Abridgments, or Incumbrances, have amounted to the reſpective yearly Sums following;

MR. Bromley reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill for veſting in the Warden and College of All Souls in Oxford, and their Succeſſors, certain Houſes and Ground belonging to the Pariſh of St. Mary in Oxford, was committed, That they had examined the Allegations of the Bill, and found the ſame to be true; and that the Parties concerned had given their Conſents to the Bill, to the Satisfaction of the Committee; and that the Committee had made ſome Amendments to the Bill; which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; and he read the ſame in his Place; and afterwards delivered the Bill and Amendments in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Amendments were once read throughout; and then a Second time, one by one; and, upon the Queſtion ſeverally put thereupon, with Amendments to ſome of them, agreed unto by the Houſe.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, to whom the Bill to make the River Kennet navigable from Reading to Newbury, in the County of Berks, is committed: And that the Petitioner be heard before the Committee thereupon, by his Counſel, if he think fit.

Reſolved, That this Houſe will, upon Wedneſday Morning next, reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, upon the ſaid Bill.

Ordered, That the ingroſſed Bill for continuing the Impriſonment of Robert Blackborn, and others, for the horrid Conſpiracy to aſſaſſinate the Perſon of his late Sacred Majeſty King William the Third, be read the Third time upon Tueſday Morning next.

Reſolved, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, That he will be pleaſed to direct the proper Officer to lay before this Houſe an Account at what Time, and by what Warrant, * Counter was releaſed, who was continued in Priſon, during her late Majeſty's Pleaſure, by an Act, of the Firſt Year of her ſaid Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the continuing the Impriſonment of * Counter, and others, for the horrid Conſpiracy to aſſaſſinate the Perſon of his late Sacred Majeſty King William the Third.

Ordered, That the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty by ſuch Members of this Houſe as are of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council.

Mr. Hampden, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Malden, in the County of Eſſex, and the Reſolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered the ſame in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Report and Reſolutions were read; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of Sir William Jollyffe Knight, and Samuel Tufnell Eſquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return of John Comyns Serjeant at Law, and Thomas Bramſton Eſquire, for the Borough of Malden, in the County of Eſſex:

That the Poll ſtood thus;

For Serjeant Comyns,	215:	Sir Wm. Jollyffe,	128:
Mr. Bramſton,	215:	Mr. Tufnell,	168.

That the Right of Election was agreed to be in the Freemen not receiving Alms.

The Queſtion was, touching the Qualifications of the Freemen:

It was agreed, That Perſons are intitled to Freedom by Birth after their Fathers Freedom; or by Marriage with the Daughter of a Freeman ſo born; or by Seven Years Servitude as Apprentices to Freemen; and the Difference was, Whether Freemen by Redemption have a Right to vote?

That the Petitioners Counſel alleged, This is a Borough by Preſcription; and that Freemen by Redemption had no Right.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel alleged, This is a Borough, and a Corporation, by Preſcription; and that all Freemen had a Right to vote.

That, to prove this to be a Borough by Preſcription, the Petitioners Counſel produced the following Returns to Parliament;

33° H. 6. A Return, per burgenſes villæ:

7 Ed. 4. A Return, per burgenſes burgi.

The Petitioners Counſel alleged, The Incorporation began ſubſequent to theſe Returns, when their Name was changed: In Evidence of which they produced a Return,

17 Ed. 4. per balivos burgi & comburgenſes: And, 12 and 16 of Ric. 2. and 9 H. 4. Three ſeveral Grants, from the Crown, of Exemptions, burgenſibus villæ, for repairing their Bridge:

26 Eliz. A Return, per balivos, aldermannos, capitales burgenſes, & communitatem burgi.

The Sitting-Members Counſel inſiſted, That this was a Borough, and a Corporation, by Preſcription; but whether ther it was a Corporation by Preſcription, or not, yet that they had, Time out of mind, admitted Freemen by Redemption; and that ſuch Freemen had a Right to vote in Elections to Parliament.

To prove which, they produced the following Journals of the Houſe of Commons;

18° Jan. 1693. In the then controverted Election between Mr. Hutchinſon and Sir Eliab Hervey, when a Copy was produced of an Inſpeximus of a Charter from Henry 2. Burgenſibus de Malden; whereby their ancient Liberties and Privileges, which they had in the Time of the King's Grandfather, were confirmed to them: And it was teſtified by Sir John Bramſton, who had known the Corporation many Years, and was High Steward thereof, That honorary Freemen had always voted in Elections to Parliament; many of which were controverted, but thoſe Freemen never diſputed; which was alſo confirmed by William Carr, the Town-Clerk.

14 Dec. 1699. The Journal in the then controverted Election between Mr. Fytche and Mr. Mountague; when the Right of Election was agreed to be in the free Burgeſſes; and Perſons were admitted free Burgeſſes upon Three ſeveral Rights; viz. by being the Son of a free Burgeſs, by Apprenticeſhip, and by Election: And,

27 Jan. 1701. The Journal in the then controverted Election between Mr. Mountague and Mr. Comyns; when the Right of Election was agreed in the Freemen not receiving Alms or Charity.

That, to prove the ancient Uſage of admitting honorary Freemen, the Town-Books were produced; and 75 Inſtances were read of Admiſſions to Freedom for Fines, or gratis, in the ſeveral Reigns of R. 2. H. 4, 5, and 6. Ed. 4. H. 7. Ph. and M. Eliz. and J. 1.: And the Petitioners Counſel admitted there were Inſtances of the ſame Nature in all ſubſequent Reigns.

From whence the Sitting-Members Counſel inferred this to be a Corporation by Preſcription; or that, at leaſt, they had, Time out of mind, admitted honorary Freemen; which was what they contended for.

And, to prove farther, that ſuch Freemen had always voted in Elections, they called,

Mr. Richard Freeman, the Town-Clerk: Who ſaid, That honorary Freemen had voted in all Elections for Ten Years paſt; and produced the Polls taken in 93, and 95, and another without Date, when ſeveral honorary Freemen voted.

And that the Committee came to the following Reſolution;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Right of Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the Borough of Malden, in the County of Eſſex, is in ſuch Freemen only as do not receive Alms, and are intitled to Freedom by Birth, Marriage, or Servitude.

That the Petitioners Counſel objected to 113 of the Sitting-Members Voters; viz. 96 as diſqualified Freemen; whoſe Admiſſions to Freedom ſince 1663 were read; of which 21 are admitted gratis; 47, by Purchaſe; and 28, jure hereditario, as Children or Apprentices of Freemen, who had been admitted gratis, or by Purchaſe: 14 others were objected to for Bribery; Two for receiving Alms; and One for being diſfranchiſed.

In Evidence of which Bribery, the Petitioners Counſel produced,

Articles of Agreement between Antony Bramſton Eſquire, and the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Head-Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of this Town, dated 27th of Auguſt 1714; whereby the ſaid Mr. Bramſton agrees to make up 30 Guineas, already advanced by the Hands of William Fytche Eſquire, 600 l. for building the Bridge at Malden: And,

A Letter, dated September 1ſt, 1714, from the ſaid Mr. Antony Bramſton, directed to the Bailiff, Aldermen, and capital Burgeſſes, of Malden; wherein he takes Notice of Mr. Tufnel's Intention to ſtand, and what himſelf had done, and was willing to do, for the Corporation; and deſires them to exert their utmoſt Endeavours in behalf of Serjeant Comyns, and his Couſin Bramſton:

1 September 1714. A Letter from the Corporation, in Anſwer to Mr. Bramſton, ſigned by the Bailiff, and 16 of the chief Burgeſſes; 14 whereof voted for the Sitting-Members; wherein they return him Thanks for his Steadineſs in the Proceeding he had already made in the Affair of their Bridge; which, they ſay, they eſteem a very great Service to their Corporation, and ſhall always be ready to make a due Acknowlegement; and aſſure him of their Votes and Intereſt, as he deſired.

James Stevens, being called, ſaid, That he heard James Lawrence, Matthew Whittaker, and Thomas Kemp, Three of thoſe 16, own, They voted for the Sitting-Members, upon Account of the Bridge; and that, 10 Days before the Election, James Beckwith told him, that Roger Budey, who acted for the Sitting-Members, gave him Ten Shillings for Three Mugs of Beer.

Samuel Mayſant ſaid, That Abraham Bartlet and Robert Chad, Two others of the Sixteen, told him, They voted on the Account of the Bridge.

Abraham Chinery ſaid, That Joſias Bogard, an Agent for the Sitting-Members, gave him Eight Half-Crowns to vote for them; but ſaid, He intended to vote for them if he had not had the Money.

Michael Corder ſaid, That Wall Reary told him, He had a Broad Piece of Gold.

That the Petitioners Counſel objected againſt Abraham Francis and William Pollard, upon the Account of receiving Alms: And it was proved by Wm. Morris and Ellis Clarke, That thoſe Two Voters received Pariſh-Charity before and ſince the Election.

John Cook, another of the Sitting-Members Voters, was objected to, upon Account of Diſfranchiſement:

And there is an Order entered in the Town-Book, of the 9th July 1711; whereby he is diſfranchiſed of the Freedoms and Liberties of the Borough, and removed from all the Privileges and Immunities of a Head-Burgeſs.

Then the Petitioners Counſel inſiſted, That the Election and Return of Mr. Serjeant Comyns is void, by his Refuſal to take the Oath of Qualification: Touching which, the Evidence on both Sides was as follows;

That the Petitioners Counſel called,

James Stevens: Who ſaid, That Mr. Coe and Mayſant, Two of the Voters, declared, before the Election, That the Two Candidates, the now Sitting-Members, ſhould make good their Qualifications: That Coe ſaid ſo to both thoſe Candidates in particular; and that Mr. Gibſon, the Bailiff, took no Notice of it; but proceeded to the Poll.

Mr. Coe ſaid, That he demanded the Qualifications of Mr. Serjeant Comyns and Mr. Bramſton, at the Election before the Poll began: That Serjeant Comyns replied, He did not think himſelf obliged to give it then:

That Mr. Mayſant, another Voter, ſeconded him in this Demand; and while they were talking, the Bailiff went on with the Poll:

Being croſs-examined, he owned, That Serjeant Comyns gave him a Particular of his Qualification in the Time of the Poll; which being Five hundred Pounds, he ſaid, That he thought ſurely the Serjeant was qualified; but that, the others inſiſting on his Qualification, and again demanding the Oath, the Serjeant replied, An Oath was a weighty thing; and that he would not take a falſe Oath for all the World, much leſs for that Election:

Mr. Coe ſaid farther, That he ſtaid till the Poll was over; and then they again demanded the Qualification; and that Sir William Jollyffe demanded the ſame thing: That he did not remember the Serjeant named any Time to take the Oath; but he refuſed to take it then:

Mr. Coe, being farther examined, owned, That, when he firſt received the Particular from Serjeant Comyns, he promiſed to deliver it back again; but carried it away with him; and that Night, after the Court was adjourned, he returned the Particular to the Bailiff, at whoſe Houſe the Serjeant was to lie.

Sam. Mayſant ſaid, That the Petitioners deſired him, and others, to demand the Qualifications of the other Candidates, the now Sitting-Members; and that they did accordingly demand the ſame before the Poll began; but thoſe Candidates did not then take the Oath: That the Bailiff went on with the Poll; and, juſt as the Court was over, they again demanded the Qualification; and then Serjeant Comyns replied, That an Oath was a ſacred thing; and that he would not take a falſe Oath for all the World, much leſs to qualify him for this Corporation: But Mr. Bramſton, before he was declared, did take the Oath.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel called, to this Point,

Mr. Henry Edwards: Who ſaid, That he was at the Beginning of the Election; and that, after a Poll was demanded, Mr. Coe ſtood up, and ſaid to the Sitting-Members, "Gentlemen, Your Qualifications, your Qualifications:" To which Mr. Bramſton anſwered, He was ready to do it; and that he expected the Petitioners ſhould do ſo too: Serjeant Comyns ſaid, He believed, very few queſtioned his Qualification; but, to ſave the Time of the Court, he thought it better to go on with the Poll; and ſaid, he would do it afterwards: Then they proceeded in the Poll; and, after it was over, Mr. Coe came into the Court, with a Paper in his Hand, and ſaid, They had ſeen the Serjeant's Qualification, and were ſatisfied with it; but demanded Mr. Bramſton's; and he produced it: That, after the Proclamation was made, there was no Demand of the Serjeant's Qualification, or any Refuſal by him:

The Witneſs ſaid, He was at the Table, and ſhould have heard if there had been any Refuſal: What Serjeant Comyns ſaid, was, That he was ready to make Oath of his Qualification; which he would not do for all the World, unleſs he was qualified.

Mr. Richard Comyns ſaid, He was preſent during the time of the Poll; and that, before it began, Mr. Coe, addreſſing himſelf to the now Sitting-Members, ſaid, "Gentlemen, Your Qualifications, your Qualifications:" Mr. Bramſton replied, His was ready: Another Perſon ſaid, There was more Reaſon to doubt the Qualifications on the other Side: Upon which, a Diſpute ariſing, the Serjeant ſaid, They need not diſpute about that; he was ready to take the Oath when they deſired it: Then Coe, and the others with him, ſaid, Go on with the Poll; and they did ſo: That, after the Poll was over, Coe came into Court, with a Paper in his Hand, and ſaid, They inſiſted only on Mr. Bramſton's taking the Qualification-Oath:

This Witneſs ſaid, He heard no Demand of the Qualification in any other manner than Coe crying out at the firſt, "Your Qualifications, Gentlemen, your Qualifications:" Nor did he hear the Serjeant once refuſe it; but, on the contrary, ſaid, He would be ready to take it, when deſired.

Mr. Cha. Tyrrel ſaid, That, when the Poll was ended, Coe declared, They were very well ſatisfied with the Qualification of Serjeant Comyns: That they demanded Mr. Bramſton's; which he gave them, and ſaid, He was ready to take the Oath: That he did not hear any body require the Serjeant to take the Oath, nor he refuſe it.

Mr. R. Freeman ſaid, That there was a great Croud and Hurry at the Election: That he had the Care of the Poll, and heard but little of the Qualifications: He ſaw Serjeant Comyns give a Particular of his Eſtate to Mr. Coe; who made Anſwer, Very well, and that he was very well ſatisfied; or to that Purpoſe: That he did not hear any body in particular demand the Serjeant's Oath; and believes, the Serjeant was gone off the Bench when Mr. Bramſton took the Oath: That he was preſent all the while, and did not hear any thing ſaid to the Bailiff about the Serjeant's taking the Oath, nor any Complaint for want of it.

Mr. Tho. Gibſon, the Bailiff, ſaid, That Mr. Coe, at the Beginning of the Poll, moved for the Qualifications; and, thereupon, Serjeant Comyns gave him a Paper, and bid him peruſe it: That Coe afterwards anſwered, He was well ſatisfied with his Qualification: That Serjeant Comyns was not well, and went off the Bench; and, after he was gone, it was inſiſted on, that he ſhould take the Oath; but there was no Complaint to the Witneſs of his not taking it; nor did he remember that it was inſiſted on, or that Sir William Jollyffe ſaid any thing about it till after the Serjeant was gone: That Coe was a Manager for the Petitioners, and ſpoke for the reſt; and was the only Perſon that ſtarted the Queſtion about the Qualifications.

That, in Anſwer to the Petitioners Objections to the 96, as diſqualified Freemen, the Sitting-Members Counſel inſiſted, That the Sons and Apprentices of honorary Freemen had a Right to Freedom; and, being admitted, had a Right to vote: Which was denied by the Petitioners Counſel.

The Committee came to this Reſolution;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That ſuch Perſons who derive their Right to Freedom from honorary Freemen of the Borough of Malden, in the County of Eſſex, have not a Right to vote in the Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.

Then the Sitting-Members Counſel inſiſted, That although ſeveral of the 96 Perſons objected to had purchaſed their Freedom, yet, in reſpect of their being Tradeſmen, and reſident in the Borough, ſuch Freemen ought to be admitted to vote:

Which was denied by the Petitioners Counſel; who admitted, ſuch Freedom intitled them to all Privileges of the Corporation, except that of voting in Elections to Parliament.

The Committee came to this Reſolution;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Perſons claiming their Freedom by Purchaſe, and exerciſing Trades within the Borough of Malden, in the County of Eſſex, have not a Right to vote in the Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.

Four of the 96 Perſons before objected to having ſerved as Members of Parliament, the Sitting-Members Counſel inſiſted, That was a good Qualification.

Then the Sitting-Members Counſel objected to 58 of the Petitioners Voters, diſqualified as being honorary Freemen, or by Redemption, or claiming under ſuch: And they appeared to be ſo by the Entries of their Admiſſions in the Town-Books.

The Sitting-Members Counſel alleged, That the Affair of the Bridge was a Tranſaction between the Corporation and Mr. Antony Bramſton, their High Steward; and that the Sitting-Members were no way concerned in it.

They proceeded to juſtify the 14 Voters objected to on that Head; and produced,

An Order in the Town-Book, dated 13 Ja. 1. for rateing the Inhabitants to repair the Bridge: And,

21 April 1714, a Letter from the Corporation to Wm. Fytche Eſquire, deſiring an Act of Parliament might be obtained for building their Bridge, by a Duty of 12 d. per Chaldron on Coals, and 1 d. per Quarter on all Grain and Meal ſhipped off there: And,

A Petition, under the Corporation-Seal, intended to be preferred to the Houſe of Commons, for that Purpoſe: Alſo,

A Letter, dated 30th Auguſt 1714, from Mr. Coe to Mr. Antony Bramſton; taking Notice of his being that Day to ſign Writings for the Bridge, and of Mr. Tufnell's Encouragement to ſtand; and propoſing, That the Sitting-Member, Mr. Thomas Bramſton, ſhould decline the Election; and Serjeant Comyns join with Mr. Tufnell, as a Perſon that would do more for the Town than ever any other had done.

Mr. Coe ſaid, That, a Year ago, ſome of the Aldermen bought Timber for building the Bridge; and that Mr. Fytche and Mr. Antony Bramſton undertook it before May 1714.

Ja. Lawrence ſaid, That, in the End of May, or the Begin-

Beginning of June 1714, he laid in 80 Pounds worth of Timber, by Order of Mr. Fytche and Mr. Antony Bramſton, for repairing the Bridge.

That, to prove Bribery and Corruption on the Petitioners Part,

John Bowes was called: Who named Eight of the Petitioners Voters; and ſaid, They were treated at the White Horſe at Chelmsford, the Night before the Election, with Beer and Wine: Mr. Tufnell, who was there, left Word, The Reckoning was paid; and went from thence next Morning to the Election: He alſo named Ten other of the Petitioners Voters who were treated at Mr. Coe's on the Day of Election; and their Votes aſked for the Petitioners:

The Witneſs, being croſs-examined as to theſe Treats, ſaid, He did not ſee any of the Reckoning paid, or hear any Order by any of the Candidates for that Purpoſe:

That Joſeph Sams gave him 7 s. 4 d. to take up his Freedom, and vote for Mr. Tufnell; which he did accordingly.

Joſeph Newbold ſaid, That James Stevens, who appeared at the Publick-houſes, and paid the Charge for Mr. Tufnell, declared, ſome time before the Election, That, if they would come in with Mr. Tufnell, they would lay out Money enough to repair the Bridge; would alſo build ſome Alms-houſes; and ſaid, That Mr. Tufnell was a Merchant, and would take off their Goods.

Wm. Cholmly ſaid, That Mr. Tufnell, a little after the Queen's Death, and before the Articles for building the Bridge, expreſſed to him his Deſire to ſerve the Corporation; and declared, He would himſelf give 300 l. towards building the Bridge; and if Mr. Serjeant Comyns would add 300 l. more, it was well; if not, he would recommend a Friend that ſhould make it up 600 l.; and ſaid, The Money ſhould be paid within 14 Days after his Return to Parliament.

Robert Batrum ſaid, That Mr. Leeper gave him 6 s. 6 d. to take up his Freedom, and vote for Mr. Tufnell, and 16 Shillings more for his Expences; otherwiſe, he would have voted for the Sitting-Members: And that Mr. Leeper gave Thomas Waters 6 s. 6 d. to take up his Freedom, and vote for Mr. Tufnell, and 20 s. more for his Loſs of Time, and Expences.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to theſe Reſolutions;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That John Comyns, Serjeant at Law, having, at the late Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the Borough of Malden, in the County of Eſſex, wilfully refuſed to take the Oath of Qualification, as is directed by an Act of Parliament, of the 9th Year of the late Queen, intituled, An Act for ſecuring the Freedom of Parliaments, by the farther qualifying the Members to ſit in the Houſe of Commons, though duly required ſo to do; and not having at any time before the Meeting of this Parliament taken the ſaid Oath; his Election is thereby void.

Mr. Broderick reported, from the Committee, to whom the Petition of Wm. Patterſon Eſquire was referred, the Matter, as it appeared to them, and the Reſolutions of the the Committee thereupon; which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Report and Reſolutions were read; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of William Paterſon Eſquire;

The Committee having taken into Conſideration the Matters of the ſaid Petition, it appeared;

That, by the Fifteenth Article of the Treaty of Union, it is agreed, That, in the Firſt place, out of the aforeſaid Sum, what Conſideration ſhall be found neceſſary to be had for any Loſſes which private Perſons may ſuſtain by reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, may be made good: In the next place, That the capital Stock, or Fund, of the African and Indian Company of Scotland, advanced, together with the Intereſt for the ſaid capital Stock, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the reſpective Times of the Payment thereof, ſhall be paid; upon Payment of which capital Stock and Intereſt, it is agreed the ſaid Company be diſſolved, and ceaſe: And alſo, That, from the time of paſſing the ſaid Act of Parliament in England, for raiſing the ſaid Sum of 398,085 l. 10*s.* the ſaid Company ſhall neither trade, nor grant Licence to trade; providing, That if the ſaid Stock and Intereſt ſhall not be paid in Twelve Months after the Commencement of the Union, that then the ſaid Company may from thenceforward trade, or give Licence to trade, until the ſaid whole capital Stock, and Intereſt, ſhall be paid.

That, ſoon after paſſing the Treaty of Union by the Parliaments of both Kingdoms, the Parliament of Scotland, by an Act, intituled, Act concerning the Payment of the Sums out of the Equivalent to the African Company, did, among other Things, limit and reſtrict the Payment of ſuch Intereſt of 5 l. per Centum per Annum to the 1ſt Day of May 1707 then next following; and the whole Sums of Principal and Intereſt to be paid to the Creditors and Proprietors of the Joint-Stock of the ſaid Company, to the groſs Sum of 232,884 l. 5*s.* $0\frac{2}{3}$ d. only; appointing the Directors of the ſaid Company, or any Five of them, with their Secretary, to ſtate the Account of ſuch Debts and Stock advanced of the ſaid Company; but ſo as, in the Whole, not to exceed the ſaid groſs Sum of 232,884 l. 5*s.* $0\frac{2}{3}$ d. on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, on Pain of Letters of Horning; in which Proceedings, the Petitioner's Claim and Demand upon the ſaid Company was omitted.

That, upon the Petitioner's humble Application to the Firſt Parliament of Great Britain, it was by an Act thereof, intituled, An Act for the further directing the Payment of the Equivalent-money, particularly declared and enacted as follows; viz.

" And whereas it appears, That the Accounts of the " Stock advanced, and Debts due, by the African and " Indian Company in Scotland, have been made up with- " out Regard to the Claim of William Paterſon Eſquire, " for his Expences, Pains, and Loſſes, on Account, and " at the Inſtance, of the ſaid Company; Be it Enacted, " by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Omiſſion or Ne- " glect of the Directors of the ſaid Company, or of " others concerned in ſtating, adjuſting, or certifying, the " Claims or Demands upon the Equivalent, ſhall preju- " dice the Right, Intereſt, Claim, or Demand, of the " ſaid William Paterſon in and upon the ſaid Company; " but that the ſeveral Sums due to him by the ſaid Com- " pany ſhall be certified, and thereupon fully ſatisfied " and paid in the Terms of the Treaty of Union, as the " ſame ſhall be proved before the aforeſaid Judges of the " Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

" And in regard that, ſince the making of the Firſt " Contracts and Agreements, the ſaid William Paterſon " hath been at further Expences, and ſuſtained other " Loſſes and Damages, for and on account of the ſaid " Company; Be it therefore further Enacted, That the " ſaid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland " ſhall, and are hereby required to take an Account of " thoſe his Expences and Loſſes, and likewiſe of his good " Services and publick Cares; and make a full and fair " Repreſentation thereof to her Majeſty.

" And to the end that the more full and free Inqui- " ries may be made, and Information had, of the Pre- " miſes, the ſaid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in " Scotland ſhall and may, from time to time, direct their " Commiſſion or Commiſſions to any Commiſſioner or " Commiſſioners within this Kingdom of Great Britain, " or Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, for " taking the requiſite Examinations or Informations to the " Purpoſes aforeſaid; and for reporting the ſame to the " ſaid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland."

That by a Certificate from the ſaid Judges, bearing Date at Edinburgh the 16th Day of February $171\frac{4}{5}$, it appears;

That after paſſing the ſaid Act of Parliament, viz. in the Months of June and July 1708, the Petitioner made his humble Application to that Court; upon which, the Court was pleaſed to give their Orders and Directions:

That, upon ſuch Order, James Dunlop and John Symmer, Accountants to the ſaid Company, did, on the 2d Day of July 1708, lay before that Court a State of the Petitioner's Account of Debt and Credit; which was, by the ſaid James Dunlop and John Symmer, ſworn unto, before Mr. Baron Maitland, upon the Fifth Day of Auguſt then next following:

That Mr. Roderick Mackenzie, late Secretary to the ſaid Company, did, by like Order, on the 23d Day of the ſame Month of July, lay before that Court a Report, with Extracts out of the Regiſter-Books of the ſaid Company, relating to the Petitioner's Claim; which were ſworn unto before Mr. Baron Scrope, on the 29th Day of the ſaid Month of July.

The which original Account of Debt and Credit, and Report, with Extracts, are now in the Hands of the Clerk of this Houſe.

That, towards being ſtill the better enabled to examine Witneſſes, and bring his Proofs together, the Petitioner did, in Michaelmas Term 1710, exhibit a Bill in that Court againſt the Commiſſioners of the Equivalent, her then Majeſty's Lord Advocate, and Lord Clerk Regiſter:

That, upon Interrogatories in relation to the Matter of the ſaid Bill, the Depoſitions of Mr. Roderick Mackenzie were taken on or about the 30th Day of December following, together with the like Extracts directly from the ſaid Company's original Regiſter-Books.

That it appears from the before-mentioned Proofs, that the Petitioner hath been at great Expence and Pains, and ſuſtained very conſiderable Loſſes, in the Service of the late African and Indian Company of Scotland; and that it doth not appear, that he hath received the Two Pounds per Cent. Premium ſtipulated in the Preamble or Conditions of Subſcriptions, marked N° 1. in the above-mentioned Extracts out of the Regiſter-Books of the ſaid Company; or had other Satisfaction for his ſaid Expences, Pains, and Loſſes; only that the Sum of 435 l. 15*s.* $1\frac{1}{3}$ d. with the Intereſt thereon from the 7th Day of November 1701, remains in his Hands:

Upon Conſideration whereof, and of the Proofs made in that Court upon the Matter therein ſet forth;

" Since both at the time when the Company was be- " ginning to be formed, and after it was carried into a " Settlement, it was intended by thoſe intereſted therein, " that the Petitioner ſhould have a conſiderable Recom- " pence for his extraordinary Services, in projecting the " ſaid Company, and carrying on the Intereſts thereof; " as by the particular Propoſals made for that Purpoſe " fully appears, though they were never perfected, or " carried into an Execution; the ſaid Judges are of Opi- " nion, That the Petitioner had a juſt Right to have had " the ſaid intended Recompence made good to him out " of the Equivalent-money appointed to make good the " Loſſes of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Com- " pany.

" And ſince hath been excluded from any Share " thereof; and alſo in regard that he hath been very in-

" ſtrumental

" ſtrumental in carrying on other Matters of a publick " Nature, which ſeem to them to have been very much " to his Country's Service;"

" The ſaid Judges think it juſt and reaſonable, that " ſome Way ſhould be found out to give him that Re- " compence for his ſaid Services, which he appears to " have merited, and of which he hath hitherto been diſ- " appointed of."

That by the before-mentioned Report, and Extracts out of the Regiſter-Books of the ſaid Company, and Depoſitions of Mr. Roderick Mackenzie, their late Secretary, it particularly appears;

That in regard the Petitioner, and others concerned with him, had been at great Pains and Expence in making ſeveral conſiderable Diſcoveries of Trade, and Improvements in and to both Indies; and likewiſe, in procuring needful Powers and Privileges for a Company of Commerce from ſeveral ſovereign Princes and States; and for which, he and they had contrived, ſuited, and deſigned, the ſaid Company; in Conſideration whereof, by the Preamble, or Conditions of Subſcriptions, bearing Date at London, the 6th Day of November 1695, it was agreed, That the Petitioner, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhould, out of the Firſt Payment, have and receive Two per Cent. of the Money to be ſubſcribed to the capital Stock of the ſaid Company; which was to conſiſt of 600,000 l. Sterling; as alſo 3 per Cent. of the Iſſues, Profits, and Product, of the ſaid Fund, for the Space of Twenty-one Years; which was to be redeemable for 2 per Cent. more of the ſaid capital Fund any time in Five Years:

That, afterwards, it was principally by the Petitioner's Intereſt that the Sum of 300,000 l. was firſt, in the ſaid Month of November 1695, ſubſcribed to the capital Stock of the ſaid Company at London; and that One Fourth-part thereof was at the Time of Subſcription paid, either in Money, Bank-Notes, or Notes payable on Demand to the Company's Order and Uſe:

That, after the Proceedings in Parliament againſt the Subſcriptions taken at London, the Petitioner was prevailed upon to leave his Effects and Buſineſs in London, then very conſiderable, and to go to Scotland; where, by his Countenance and Influence, the Subſcriptions to the ſaid capital Stock of 600,000 l. was completed on or before the Firſt Day of Auguſt 1696:

That the Sums ſubſcribed in London, and thoſe in Scotland, were always underſtood and reputed to be Parts of the ſame Joint-Stock, and ſubject to the ſame Rules and Conditions:

That, after the Subſcriptions in Scotland were completed, the Petitioner did not only continue very much to ſupport and promote the Company's Affairs at home; but was further prevailed upon to go to Holland and Hamburgh, to negotiate the Transferring of ſuch Engliſh Subſcriptions, as, by reaſon of the before-mentioned Oppoſition, were relinquiſhed:

That the Petitioner was ſtill further prevailed upon to embark in the ſaid Company's Expedition to Darien; where, by his Conduct and Credit, he contributed much to the Support of that Colony whilſt it ſubſiſted:

That at his Return, he gave a particular Journal, or Report, of his Negotiations and Tranſactions there:

That the Petitioner hath often expreſſed his Concern for the Loſſes and Misfortunes of the ſaid Company, and was very inſtrumental in having them made good out of the Equivalent-money, as ſtipulated in the 15th Article of the Treaty of Union.

That the ſaid Mr. Roderick Mackenzie, according to Order, attended the Committee:

Whereupon a Copy of a Releaſe from the Petitioner of the aforeſaid Contract for Two per Cent. Premium, and Three per Cent. Profits, as delivered by him the ſaid Mackenzie to a Committee of the then Houſe of Commons, during the Time of the Parliamentary Inquiry into, and Proceedings againſt, the ſaid Subſcriptions taken at London, in the Journal of this Houſe of the 21ſt Day of January 1695, was read:

And the ſaid Mackenzie, being thereon examined by the Committee, declared;

That the aforeſaid Copy of a Releaſe, by him delivered to a Committee of the then Houſe of Commons, was not by him, the ſaid Mackenzie, taken or collated from any Original; but only from the Copy of a Copy written by one Andrew Johnſton:

And he further informed the Committee, and is ſatiſfied, That the ſaid Releaſe was not intended to operate in Bar of the Petitioner's Claim; but intended only to ſilence Reports then raiſed, That the ſaid 2 per Cent. was not really for the Petitioner's Uſe, but deſigned for other Purpoſes:

That he, the ſaid Mackenzie, had Occaſion to be ſo thoroughly verſed in all the Tranſactions relating to that Company, as having been ſole Secretary thereto, both in England and Scotland, from the Time of its Inſtitution, in the Year 1695, to its Diſſolution, by the Union, in the Year 1707; that he dares confidently aver, it will always be found, upon the ſtricteſt Examination that can be made, that, as the Petitioner had no Equivalent, or valuable Conſideration, given him before, or at the Time of, making ſuch Releaſe; ſo it was originally, according to his Apprehenſion, and the beſt Information he ever had, only a Contrivance towards defeating the ſaid invidious Calumny, as aforeſaid.

The Recommendation of the Petitioner to her late Majeſty by the laſt Parliament of Scotland, on the 25th Day of March 1707, in the Minutes of the Proceedings of the ſaid Parliament, was read, as follows; viz.

" It being moved to recommend Mr. Paterſon to her " Majeſty, for his good Services; after ſome Reaſoning " thereon, it was put to the Vote, Recommend him to " her Majeſty, or not? And it carried, Recommend."

The Reſolution of this Houſe, in the Firſt Parliament of Great Britain, relating to the Petitioner, in the Journal of this Houſe of the 18th Day of March $170\frac{7}{8}$, was likewiſe read; and is as follows; viz.

" Reſolved, That the Petitioner, Mr. William Pater- " ſon, ought to be ſatisfied and paid all the ſeveral Sums " owing to him by the African and Indian Company in " Scotland, purſuant to the ſeveral Agreements made " between him and the ſaid Company, in the Terms of " the Treaty of Union, ſo far as the ſame ſhall be proved " before the Commiſſioners that ſhall be appointed for " Stating of the publick Debts; and likewiſe that ſuch " a Recompence be given to him, as may be ſuitable to " his Services, Expences, Loſſes, and publick Cares."

The Petitioner delivered to the Committee the following State of his Claim and Demand upon the ſaid Company:

A State of Mr. Paterſon's Claim upon the Equivalent.

Prejudice of the publick Revenues of that Kingdom; and to preſerve to your Petitioners their Manufactures; by which the Value of our Lands is chiefly ſupported, and our Poor almoſt univerſally employed.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and alſo the Merchants, Fullers, Clothiers, and others, trading in the Woollen Manufacture, within the City of Exon, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the Petitioners labour under great Difficulties, by reaſon of the vaſt Quantities of Wool and Yarn being continually carried to France, and other foreign Ports, from this Kingdom; and more eſpecially from Ireland, where ſeveral Ships of Wool, bound to France, have of late been ſeized; and where the clandeſtine Runner ſaves the Duty, which is at leaſt Twenty per Cent. which the fair Exporter for England is obliged to pay; by means whereof the Woollen Manufacture of this Nation in general, and of this City and Country adjoining in a more particular Manner, ſuffers under the greateſt Hardſhip, and is in Danger of being loſt: The many Thouſands of poor Families who were ſubſiſted by their Labour in that Manufacture alone, muſt fall a grievous Charge to the Pariſhes where they dwell; and we, to our unſpeakable Grief, and Impoveriſhment, muſt ſee the Subjects of the French King growing rich by our Ruin; and foreign Markets, formerly ſupplied from England with our Manufacturies, are now, by the Help of Iriſh Wool, ſupplied from France: And praying, That ſuch ſpeedy and effectual Meaſures may be taken for our Relief .....

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, capital Burgeſſes, and chief Inhabitants, of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the Inhabitants of this Town, who are very numerous, do chiefly depend on the Woollen Manufactury for their Subſiſtence; which Trade is of late very much decayed, occaſioned by the great Quantities of Wool and Yarn ſent into France from the Kingdom of Ireland; by which means, they who ſend it in ſuch a clandeſtine Manner, ſave about 20 per Cent. Duty; which is paid by all thoſe who fairly export for England; and not only the Government ſuſtains a great Loſs in the Revenue, but the French are enabled to ſupply foreign Markets cheaper than can be done from England; which if not timely prevented, the Trade of this Town will be loſt, and many Thouſands in this, and neighbouring Parts, muſt inevitably come to Want: And praying, That ſome effectual Methods may be found out for preventing the ſame for the future.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to conſider the Laws in being for preventing the Exporting of Wool from Great Britain and Ireland; and how the ſame may be made more effectual:

A Petition of the Shoemakers, Curriers, and Sadlers, of the ancient Town of Colcheſter, in the County of Eſſex, in behalf of themſelves, and ſeveral Hundreds of the ſame Trades, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That, by the great Duty upon Leather, and the numerous Quantities exported, occaſioned by the great Encouragement given to Merchants, and Exporters of the ſame, of One Peny in the Pound Drawback, Leather is amounted to ſuch an exceſſive Price, being very near double what formerly, that, without ſome Relief, the Petitioners will, in a little time, be incapable of following and exerciſing their reſpective Trades; and not only they, and their Families, but many others, who work for, and have a Dependence on, them, reduced to extreme Poverty: And praying, That the ſaid Drawback of One Peny in the Pound may be taken off.

Barlow*, bring ſeveral Perſons, Foreigners to the ſaid Corporation, whom he pretended had a Right to vote at the ſaid Election; though the Petitioner is very well informed, they were made Freemen againſt the Rules of the ſaid Corporation; the ſaid Sheriff declaring, notwithſtanding all Objections made by the Petitioner, That he would allow of whomſoever the ſaid Mayor ſhould bring up; and he accordingly did admit the Perſons, ſo illegally made, to vote, and returned the ſaid Sir Geo. Barlow; to the Prejudice of the Petitioner: And praying to be relieved.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Taviſtock, in the County of Devon, in behalf of themſelves, and ſeveral Thouſands, concerned in the Woollen Manufacture, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the Petitioners ſuffer extremely by reaſon of the immenſe Quantities of Wool and Yarn being continually exported to France, and other foreign Parts, from England, and particularly from Ireland; where ſeveral Veſſels of Wool, bound to France, have been ſeized; and where the clandeſtine Runner ſaves the Duty, which is at leaſt Twenty per Cent. which the honeſt Exporter for England is forced to pay; by means whereof, the Woollen Manufacture of this Nation in general, and of this Part in a more particular manner, labour under the greateſt Hardſhips, and is in Danger of being loſt; the many Thouſands of poor Families who had their Livelihood in this Manufacture alone, muſt fall a grievous Charge to the Pariſhes where they dwell: And praying, That ſuch ſpeedy and effectual Meaſures may be taken for our Relief, as to your great Wiſdom ſhall ſeem convenient.

A Petition of the Clothiers of the County of Glouceſter, in behalf of themſelves, and many Thouſands employed in the ſaid Trade, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the Petitioners have, of late Years, and do ſtill, find a great Decay in their Trade; to the utter Ruin of the Poor, whoſe Burden daily increaſeth upon them: This Grievance, they humbly conceive, is occaſioned by the large Quantities of Wool and Yarn tranſported from Great Britain and Ireland to other Nations, and more particularly to France; where it is manufactured at a much cheaper Rate than the Petitioners are able to do it for, and ſent abroad to our Markets; which proves very detrimental to our Trade: And praying, That this Honourable Houſe will grant the bringing in a Bill, which may prevent the Running of our Wool and Yarn, &c. to France, and other Nations.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, who are appointed to conſider the Laws in being for preventing the Exporting of Wool from Great Britain and Ireland; and how the ſame may be made more effectual.

A Petition of the Preſident, Treaſurer, and Governors, of Chriſt's Hoſpital, London, for and on behalf of the poor Children harboured in the ſaid Hoſpital, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That Blackwell-hall, in London, is the Place that, for very many Years, hath been uſed for a common publick Market for Sale of Engliſh Cloth, brought to London for Sale; and has been ſet apart for this Purpoſe; and, before the Fire of London, was very commodious for it; and ſince then, the ſame has, at great Charge, been rebuilt, and new Additions made, to render it ſtill more convenient for theſe Purpoſes; which it accordingly is: That, by Act of Parliament, in the 39th of Queen Elizabeth, Northern Cloths of all Kinds, brought to London for Sale, are to be brought to the ſaid Market in Blackwell-hall; and, upon Application by the Clothiers of divers other Counties, an Act was obtained, in the 9th Year of his late Majeſty King William, intituled, An Act to reſtore the Market of Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers; and for regulating the Factors there; whereby it is enacted, That the Petitioners, Governors of the ſaid Hall, and their Deputies, ſhall ſet forth and appoint to the Clothiers of all Counties, that ſhall bring up Cloths to ſell at the ſaid publick Market, the moſt convenient Room in the ſaid Hall, for the Sale of their Cloth; and likewiſe Warehouſe-Room for the lodging and ſafe-keeping any Cloth of the ſaid Clothiers, unſold; the Clothiers, or their Servants, paying unto the Hall-keepers the ancient Duties of the ſaid Hall, and no more; and the Hall-keepers, Clerks, and Maſter-Porters, of the ſaid Hall, are to keep their Books, and Weekly Regiſter, of all the Cloths bought and ſold in the ſaid Market; in which they ſhall truly enter the Names, and Places of Habitation, of the Owner, Buyer, and Seller, of the ſaid Cloths, together with the Time of the Sale thereof; and likewiſe of the Factor, or any other Perſon other than the Owner, buying or ſelling the ſame; to the end, Clothiers, and others, may be ſatisfied how their Cloths are ſold and diſpoſed of; without Fee or Reward: And they are ſubjected to a Penalty of 10 l. for every Offence againſt the ſaid Act: And that no Factor, or Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, other than the Owner of the Cloth, ſhall ſell, cauſe to be ſold, or expoſe to Sale, out of the ſaid Market, any Cloth conſigned, or directed, by the Owner thereof, to be brought to the ſaid Market, or to any Factor there, to be ſold, under the Penalty of 5 l. for every Cloth ſo ſold: That the keeping up the ſaid Market for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, tends greatly to the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufacture of this Kingdom; and is for the Benefit and Advantage of the Clothiers: That the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act is defective, in regard, as the ſame now ſtands, neither the Owner, nor the Factor, without without expreſs Direction from the Owner, is obliged to bring their Cloths to the ſaid Market; notwithſtanding what the Intent of the ſaid Act ſeemed to be, and the great Charges the Petitioners have been at, and by the ſaid Act are to be at, to accommodate the Clothiers, and their Factors, as to their Cloths: And praying, That the ſaid Act, of the Eighth and Ninth of King William, may be made more effectual, and the Petitioners have Relief in the Premiſes.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, to whom the ſaid Bill is committed.

And a Witneſs being produced to prove a Copy of a Deed, by which the Sitting-Member, Mr. Swanton, conveyed the Inheritance of a Meadow to the Corporation;

The Sitting-Member's Counſel objected againſt ſuch Copy's being read as Evidence:

And the Counſel were heard thereunto.

And then they withdrew.

And, being called in;

And the Particular of the ſaid Mr. Swanton's Qualification, delivered in to the Clerk of the Houſe, purſuant to the Order of the Twenty-third of March laſt, was read:

And the Petitioners Counſel produced the Will of Edward Pyle Eſquire; and called a Witneſs to the Value of One of the Farms mentioned in the ſaid Particular, in relation to the Taxes payable for the ſaid Farm:

And an Objection being made to that Sort of Evidence;

The Counſel were directed to withdraw.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion being put, That the Counſel for the Petitioners be admitted to give in Evidence, in relation to the Value of the Farm of Grately, in the County of Southampton, what the ſaid Farm pays to the publick Taxes, in proportion with other Farms in the ſame Pariſh;

PRAYERS.

A Petition of the Merchants, Clothiers, Fullers, Dyers, and other principal Inhabitants, of the Town of Taunton, in Somerſetſhire, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That, ſince the late Peace and Treaty of Commerce with Spain, the Woollen Manufacture of this Country has laboured under great and unuſual Difficulties here at home, and as great Diſcouragements from abroad; which, the Petitioners are well aſſured, do proceed from the Exportation of Wool, in greater Quantities than ever, out of his Majeſty's Dominions, into France; by which means, the French, who have the Liberty of foreign Markets, are able to ſupply them on lower Terms than his Majeſty's Britiſh Subjects; who, beſides the other Duties on the Manufactury, are obliged to pay a conſiderable Duty on all the Wool they receive out of Ireland; which all that is clandeſtinely exported into France does eſcape: And praying, That ſuch effectual Reſtraints may be provided againſt that pernicious Trade, ſo injurious to the publick Revenues in Ireland, and to the Woollen Trade in this Kingdom, and ſuch Encouragements given to the Woollen Manufacture, by which ſo many Thouſands of the Poor are maintained in this Country, as, in your Honours great Wiſdom, ſhall be thought proper.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and other Inhabitants, of the Borough and Pariſh of Barnſtaple, in the County of Devon, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the Petitioners labour under great Difficulties, by reaſon of the vaſt Quantities of Wool and Yarn being continually carried to France, and other foreign Parts, from this Kingdom, and more eſpecially from Ireland; where ſeveral Ships of Wool, bound to France, have of late been ſeized; and where the clandeſtine Runner ſaves the Duty, which is at leaſt Twenty per Cent. which the fair Exporter for England is obliged to pay; by means whereof, the Woollen Manufacture of this Nation in general, and of this Town, and Country adjoining, in a more particular Manner, ſuffer under the greateſt Hardſhips, and is in Danger of being loſt; the many Thouſands of poor Families, who were ſubſiſted by their Labour in that Manufacture alone, muſt fall a grievous Charge to the Pariſhes where they dwell; and we, to our Grief, muſt ſee the Subjects of the French King growing rich by our Ruin; and foreign Markets, formerly ſupplied from England with our Manufactures, are now ſupplied from France: And praying this Honourable Houſe, That ſuch ſpeedy and effectual Meaſures may be taken for our Relief . . . . . .

Ordered, That the ſaid Petitions be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, who are to conſider the Laws in being for preventing the Exporting of Wool from Great Britain and Ireland; and how the ſame may be made more effectual.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and chief Inhabitants, of Northwych, and Parts adjacent, in the County of Cheſter, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the River Weaver, in Cheſhire, from Frodſham Bridge to Northwych aforeſaid, is capable of being made navigable for Barges, and other Veſſels; which, in caſe the ſame may be effected, will be of Advantage to the Publick, and tend very much to the Preſervation of the Highways, Improvement of Trade, and Increaſe of Watermen: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring a Bill into this Honourable Houſe, for making the ſaid River navigable from Frodſham Bridge to Northwych aforeſaid.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition: And that Mr. Booth and Sir George Warburton do prepare, and bring in, the ſame.

A Petition of the Maltſters within the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, and Places adjacent, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That within the ſaid Borough, and Places adjacent, there anciently hath been, and now is, a very great Trade of Malting; and that the Barley, with which the Maltſters there are ſupplied to make Malt of, is very bold and good; and the Petitioners, and their Predeceſſors, have conſtantly uſed to ſteep their Barley in the Ciſtern much longer time than the Maltſters in other Places uſually do; by reaſon whereof, and of the Goodneſs of the Barley, it ſwells as much, or more, in the Ciſtern, as in moſt other Places it doth in the Couch: That, by reaſon the King's Officers may take as many Gauges as they pleaſe, the Petitioners are forced to let it lie, in a regular Form, in the Couch, 30 Hours; which is not only in itſelf very prejudicial to the Malt, but alſo the Officers, in taking their Couch-Gauges, cannot avoid treading upon Part of it; which, being bruiſed, corrupts the reſt that it is mixed with, and proves prejudicial to the Petitioners: And praying your Honours to conſider their Caſe, and give Leave, That a Clauſe may be added to the Bill, now before you, for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year 1715, That the Gauge of the Petitioners Malt may be confined to the Gauge of the Ciſtern only.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition do lie upon the Table.

Reſolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Upon the Petition of Samuel Shepheard junior, and John Jenyns junior, Eſquires, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Sir John Hynde Cotton Baronet, and Thomas Sclater Eſquire, for the Town of Cambridge:

That it was agreed, That Cambridge is a Corporation by Preſcription; and that the Right of Election is in all Freemen not receiving Alms.

That the Poll was;

For Sir John Hynde Cotton, 196: Mr. Shepheard, 156:
Mr. Sclater, 175: Mr. Jenyns, 105.

That the Petitioners Counſel objected to 61 of the Sitting-Members Voters; viz. 36 as diſqualified Freemen; 23 on account of Bribery; One under Age; and One receiving Alms:

That, on the Head of diſqualified Freemen, the Petitioners Counſel alleged, There are Two Courts held in this Town; One called the General Common Day, the other the Private, or Summoned, Common Day:

That the General Common Day is held Five times a Year, on particular Days appointed by the Charter, when the Corporation aſſemble without Summons; and the Private, or Summoned, Common Day, is held as often as the Mayor thinks fit; of which, they inſiſted, there ought to be a reaſonable Summons, by One Day's Notice at the leaſt; and that no Freemen could be admitted but at One of theſe General, or Summoned, Common Days, when a Majority of the Aldermen, being Six at leaſt, muſt be preſent:

That they produced the following Inſtances in the Town-Books;

In

In Phil. & Mar. Eight Summoned Common Days held; viz.

One, præſentibus majore, aldermannis, balivis, et 24:

Another, coram majore, et balivis, necnon Roberto Smith, uno aldermannorum villæ prædictæ, ac aliis aldermannorum, ac etiam magna congregatione burgenſium villæ, prout mos eſt:

Another, coram majore et balivis, necnon Willielmo Haſſell, uno aldermannorum, prout mos eſt:

Another, præſentibus majore, aldermannis, balivis, 24, et communitate:

Another, præſentibus majore, aldermannis, et 24:

Another, coram majore et balivis, necnon Roberto Chapman, uno aldermannorum, prout mos eſt:

Another, ſtiled Dies communis legitime ſummonitus; and no Mention is made of Aldermen being preſent:

Another, ſtiled Dies communis, præſentibus de aldermannis, the Mayor, and Nine other, Three Bailiffs, and 14 of the 24.

9° of Eliz. Two Summoned Common Days; One, præſentibus majore, aldermannis, et 24; and the other, ſtiled Dies communis legitime ſummonitus:

That it does not appear, that any Freemen were admitted at any of theſe Courts; but other Buſineſs was done.

7° Jan. 1633. A Summoned Common Day, when a Freeman was admitted; and the Recorder, and Nine Aldermen, are mentioned to be preſent:

That, between the Years 1633 and 1653, the Petitioners Counſel produced Nine Inſtances; viz. Four of Admiſſions of Freemen at Summoned Common Days; and Five other Inſtances of Buſineſs done on the like Days, when Six, or a greater Number of, Aldermen are mentioned to be preſent:

That the Stile of theſe ſeveral Courts is, a Summoned Common Day; without mentioning before whom held:

In 1653, the Stile of the Summoned Common Days is altered; they are then mentioned to be held before the Mayor and Bailiffs:

And between the Years 1653 and 1660, the Petitioners Counſel produced 13 Inſtances; viz. Five of Admiſſions of Freemen at Summoned Common Days ſo held; and Eight Inſtances of Buſineſs done on the like Days, when Six, or a greater Number of, Aldermen are mentioned to be preſent.

That in 1660, the Stile of theſe Courts is again altered; in that Year, they are mentioned to be held before the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes: Afterwards, that Stile is altered: and the uſual Stile is, a Summoned Common Day Court, ſuch a one Mayor:

In the Years 1660, 1661, and 1662, the Petitioners Counſel produced 14 Inſtances; viz. Six Summoned Common Days, Two General Common Days, when Freemen were admitted; and Six other Summoned Common Days, when Buſineſs was done; and another Summoned Common Day in 1713, when a Freeman was admitted: At all which Days, Six, or a greater Number of, Aldermen are mentioned to be preſent.

That the Petitioners Counſel offered to produce many other Inſtances ſince the Year 1662, of Admiſſions of Freemen, when a Majority of Aldermen appeared to be preſent.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel admitted, That, from the Year 1662, whenever the Aldermen preſent are named, they are generally Six, or more, in Number.

That the Petitioners Counſel produced an Inſtance, 14 April 1653, of a Summoned Common Day, when the Entry is thus; "Nothing done at the ſaid Day, by Defect "of a competent Number of Aldermen, moſt of them "being out of Town."

That the Petitioners Counſel allowed there are ſome Entries of Admiſſions to Freedom, when leſs than Six Aldermen are named to be preſent; but inſiſted Six Aldermen are neceſſary.

To ſhew ſuch Entries might be miſtaken, they produced the Town-Book of a Common Day Court, held 12 February 1713, when only Six Aldermen are named to be preſent; and called,

Mr. Joſeph Pyke: Who ſaid, He was then an Alderman of the Town, and was preſent during that whole Court; although his Name is not entered in the Book.

That the Petitioners Counſel produced a Collection of Orders in the Town-Book, for the better Government and Quiet of the Town, made at a Summoned Common Day, 14 Auguſt 1629; One of which is, That before the Mayor ſummon a Common Day, he and the Aldermen meet, and agree of the Things to be propounded that Day; and what ſhall be agreed by the major Part, the Mayor ſhall propound; and that no Propoſition ſhall be made by the Mayor againſt the Will of the greater Part of the Aldermen; and when the Propoſitions are agreed on, then, and not before, the Common Day to be warned.

That it appears by the Town-Book, that 28 July 1691, a Summoned Common Day was held in the Mayoralty of Mr. Ewen: Five Aldermen are named to be preſent; and there is a Raſure among their Names.

The Petitioners Counſel alleged this to be a Raſure of the Name of another Alderman then preſent; and called

Thomas Sanders: Who ſaid, That, ſince Michaelmas laſt, he had ſome Diſcourſe with Mr. Fox the Town-Clerk; who told him, There was always Six Aldermen preſent when any Freemen were admitted in Mr. Ewen's Mayoralty: But Fox was not then Town-Clerk.

Thomas Crab, One of the Common-Council, ſaid, He has been a Freeman 40 Years; and has been Treaſurer and Bailiff; and that he never heard it pretended, till now, that Freemen could be admitted, without Six Aldermen preſent:

That, for 21 Years, he has known this to be the Uſage upon the Common Days; the Mayor and Aldermen aſſemble in their Parlour, and the Common-Council in their Hall; and nothing can be done but what is firſt propoſed by the Mayor, and agreed to by Six Aldermen then preſent; and for want of a Sixth Aldermen, he has ſeveral times known the Common Days break up, and nothing done, though the Mayor and Five Aldermen have been preſent.

John York ſaid, He has been a Freeman 20 Years, and 16 Years a Common-Council-man: That it is requiſite the Mayor and Six Aldermen be Preſent at the Admiſſion of Freemen at a Private Common Day: That when Three, Four, and Five Aldermen, beſides the Mayor, have been preſent, he has known the Common Day break up for want of a Sixth Alderman; and that he remembred but Two or Three Inſtances of doing any Buſineſs when leſs than Six Aldermen were preſent.

Wm. Simonds ſaid, He has known the Corporation Thirty Years; and has been of the Common-Council 18 Years: That Six Aldermen, beſides the Mayor, were always neceſſary for admitting Freemen; he has ſeveral times known the Courts break up for want of Sixth Alderman, when Five have been preſent, beſide the Mayor; and never knew it otherwiſe, but in a late Inſtance or Two within theſe Three Years.

Wm. Read and Tho. Sanders (one is of the Common-Council, the other a Burgeſs), ſaid, They had known the Corporation 17 Years: That Six Aldermen, beſide the Mayor, were always neceſſary for admitting Freemen: That they never knew any Buſineſs of Moment done, ſuch as making Leaſes or Freemen, though intitled by Birth, or Service, without Six Aldermen preſent; and that they had known the Courts break up ſeveral times for want of that Number of Aldermen.

John Wendy, another of the Common-Council, ſaid, He had known the Corporation 30 Years: That Six or more Aldermen are neceſſary to make Freemen; and that they always broke up if Six Aldermen were not preſent.

That, as to the Manner of making the Thirty-ſix Freemen objected to, the Petitioners Counſel called,

Wm. Rumbold: Who ſaid, That, on the 5th of October laſt, the Mayor propoſed to make ſome honorary Freemen: Twelve Aldermen were then preſent, and Seven of them oppoſed it; which ſtopped thoſe Proceedings that Day.

John York ſaid, He was at the Common Day the 14th of October laſt, when the Mayor, and only Five Aldermen, were preſent: The Mayor declared to the Common-Council, That he called that Common Day to make his own Freeman; and, after a little Diſcourſe, propoſed that Freeman, and ſeveral more; but the Witneſs, and others, proteſted againſt admitting any Freeman at that time, for want of a ſufficient Number of Aldermen preſent; and cautioned the Mayor againſt proceeding: But the Mayor ſaid, There was an Alderman of the Corporation that would juſtify him, and he would do it; and that he made 36 Freemen that Day, notwithſtanding their Proteſts.

That it was admitted by the Sitting-Member's Counſel, That the 36 Freemen objected to were admitted to Freedom on the 14th of October and 10th of November laſt, when only the Mayor, and Five Aldermen, were preſent.

Tho. Sanders ſaid, That 13 of thoſe 36 Freemen had a Right by Birth, or Service; and the reſt purchaſed, or were honorary Freemen: That, the Witneſs afterwards telling the Mayor he could not juſtify thoſe Admiſſions; and that Complaint would be made to the King's Bench, and to the Houſe of Commons; the Mayor ſaid, He did not value either; and that, if thoſe he had made would not carry the Election, he would make 60 or 100 more: And the Town-Clerk ſaid, They would give Mr. Shepheard his Belly-full of the King's-Bench, and of the Houſe of Commons:

The Witneſs farther ſaid, The Sitting-Members were preſent at both Courts when theſe 36 Freemen were admitted; and, if they had not been there, they durſt not have done as they did.

Mr. Crab ſaid, He was ſummoned to be at the Common Day Court the 14th of October laſt, at Two of the Clock; and that he had no Notice of it till between 11 and 12 the ſame Day: That, formerly, Notice was given the Day before; but, of late, it has been uſual to give it at Nine of the Clock in the Morning of the ſame Day.

Theophilus Tyrrel ſaid, That diſcourſing with the Mayor, laſt Aſſizes, about the Election, he told the Mayor, That he heard he had Security given him; and that now the Petitioners had petitioned, the Witneſs ſuppoſed he was ſatisfied in his Security: To which the Mayor anſwered, He wiſhed it was more, or to that Purpoſe; but did not ſay from whom he had Security; or that he had any.

That the Petitioners Counſel produced a Rule of the Court of King's-Bench in Hilary Term laſt, for an Information, in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, againſt the Mayor, and Five Aldermen, for claiming a Privilege of admitting Freemen without a Majority of the Mayor and Aldermen preſent.

That, on the Head of Bribery, they called the following Witneſſes;

Wm. Rumbold ſaid, Nicolas Apthorpe told him, He intended to vote for Mr. Shepheard; but Dr. Edmonds, of St. John's, who has 60 Scholars, threatening him with the Loſs of their Cuſtom for Grocery, made him vote for the Sitting-Members.

Nicolas Culchy, who ſerves Gravel to St. John's and Trinity Colleges, ſaid, He was threatened to loſe their Cuſtom, elſe he would have voted for Mr. Shepheard.

James Ivers promiſed Mr. Shepheard a ſingle Vote; but ſaid, He could not give it; becauſe Sir Pynſent Charnock and Mr. Hervey threatened he ſhould loſe their Buſineſs if he did; and that he voted for the Sitting-Members.

Martin Appleyard promiſed Mr. Shepheard a Vote; but ſaid, He voted for the Sitting-Members, becauſe Mr. Sclater paid his Apothecary's Bill.

Edward Turkey promiſed Mr. Shepheard; but ſaid, He voted for the Sitting Members, becauſe his Landlord threatened to arreſt him for Rent if he voted otherwiſe.

John Sewſter ſaid, Nicolas Cutchy declared, He had rather vote for Mr. Shepheard; but, if he did not vote for the Sitting-Members, he ſhould loſe all his College-Places.

Thomas Sanders ſaid, Gutchy had declared he would vote for Mr. Shepheard; but durſt not, for fear Dr. Berry ſhould turn him out of his Buſineſs at St. John's; and that he ſhould loſe all his other Work: The Witneſs overheard Dr. Berry threaten to turn him, and his Son, out of their College-Employments:

That Charles Harding was arreſted by the Witneſs for 30 Shillings; and Mr. Whiſkin, who voted for the Sitting-Members, paid the Money; and that Harding voted for the Sitting-Members.

Richard Sanders ſaid, Alderman Carrington, who voted for the Sitting-Members, lent him 10 Pounds, without Intereſt; that he voted for Mr. Shepheard and Mr. Sclater: And ſaid, He voted for Mr. Sclater becauſe he knew him to be an honeſt Gentleman; and that he did not know but he might have voted for him if he had not had the Money.

John Bird ſaid, That, on the 14th of March laſt, David Hall told him, at Wilton in Norfolk, That a Meſſenger who came down for him bore his Charges to Cambridge; that Mr. Sclater gave him Two Guineas to take up his Freedom, which coſt him 10 Groats: Then he went down again, and was ſent for at the Election, and engaged to vote: After he had voted, Sir John Hynde Cotton bid him go to Alderman Carrington, who ſhould ſatisfy him for his Trouble and Charge: He went; and the Alderman gave him Four Guineas, and a Five Shilling Piece.

Thomas Gale ſaid, He aſked Thomas Fuller, the Night before the Election, Why he would not vote for Mr. Shepheard? He anſwered, Becauſe the Mayor had taken away a Horſe; but that he was promiſed to have his Horſe again, or one as good, or Nine Pound in Money; and that was the Reaſon he voted:

That Philip Sanders told him, the Night before the Election, He would vote for Mr. Shepheard; but that Joſeph and BenjaminWendy, Two Butchers, who voted for the Sitting-Members, had ſent him as many Sheep-ſkins as came to Three Pounds and Ten Shillings, to vote for the Sitting-Members.

Thomas Jones, a Voter for the Sitting-Members, ſaid, Alderman Carrington's Brother paid Six Shillings for his Horſe-hire, and gave him Half a Guinea for his Charges; and, after he had polled, the Alderman gave him Two Guineas; and told him, Sir John and Mr. Sclater ſent them: That Carrington likewiſe paid Ten Shillings to Benjamin Pearce, which the Witneſs owed him.

Mr. Short ſaid, Thomas Rowland, who voted for the Sitting-Members, told him, He had Four Guineas and an Half; Two before the Election, from an Agent for the Sitting-Members; and Two after, from Sir John Hynde Cotton himſelf.

John Witham ſaid, His Son Charles told him, Mr. Whiſkin had promiſed him a new Suit of Cloaths, and had given him a Pair of Breeches; and that he was to have the reſt when the Two Sitting-Members were ſeated in the Houſe: He was alſo promiſed to be helped to Dr. Bentley's Service:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, He drove Four Aldermen out of Town; viz. Mr. Pyke, Ewen, Rumbold, and Fowle; upon the 14th of October laſt; and that Mr. Shepheard was with them, at Bourn Bridge.

That it appeared, by a Copy of the Regiſter-Book of St. Sepulchre's Pariſh, in Cambridge, that Thomas Rowland was baptized the 3d of February 1695.

John Witham ſaid, John Morgan, who voted for the Sitting-Members, has received Collections of Sacrament-money and Bread Three or Four Years paſt.

John Woolar ſaid, John Wildman promiſed to give Mr. Shepheard a ſingle Vote; but, being afterwards arreſted, he told the Witneſs, Sir John Hynde Cotton ſent him 50 Shillings, and paid the Debt; and gave him a Suit of Cloaths; which made him vote for Sir John.

That the Petitioners Counſel acknowleged they could not make a Majority for Mr. Jenyns; but ſubmitted, whether Sir John Hynde Cotton's Election was not vitiated by Bribery.

That

That the Sitting-Members Counſel inſiſted, That the 36 Freemen admitted 14th of October and 10th November laſt, when only Five Aldermen were preſent, with the Mayor, were regularly admitted: That the Common Day Courts are held before the Mayor and Bailiffs, and ſo ſtiled; and that the Aldermen are no eſſential Part of thoſe Courts: That the moſt ancient Entries do not ſhew any Number of Aldermen preſent; nor does it appear what Number they had, till their Charter in 1632 appointed 12 Aldermen: That the Admiſſion of Freemen is an Act of the Common-Council: That here is a Mayor, Four Bailiffs, and 24 of the Common-Council; and that the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes aſſembled, can admit Freemen, without Six Aldermen preſent.

They produced the following Inſtances in the Town-Books; viz.

In Ed. VI. Three Common Days when Freemen were admitted; and no mention made of any Aldermen being preſent.

The Stile of thoſe Courts is thus; "A Common Day "held."

1ſt and 2d Ph. and Mary, a Common Day held, when a Freeman was admitted: And,

2d and 3d Ph. and Mary, a Summoned Common Day, when Members of Parliament were choſe; and Notice is not taken of any Aldermen being preſent:

1° Eliz. a Summoned Common Day, when Freemen were admitted, and other Buſineſs done, præſentibus tota communitate.

Nineteen other Inſtances; viz. Seven tempore Eliz. and Eleven between the Years 1636 and 1649, of Summoned Common Days, when Freemen were admitted, and Leaſes for 21 Years, or greater Terms, granted; a general Common Day held in 1683, when a Freeman was admitted: In all which Inſtances, no Notice is taken whether any Aldermen were preſent.

In the Stile of theſe Courts, the Mayor is but twice named; the reſt are ſtiled Summoned Common Days, without mentioning either Mayor, or Bailiffs.

Two-and-twenty other Summoned Common Days held; viz.

Seventeen between the ſaid Years 1636 and 1649; at Three of which Days Freemen were admitted, and Leaſes for 21 Years granted, when only Five Aldermen are named to be preſent:

At Four other of the ſaid Days Officers were elected, and other Buſineſs done, when the like Number of Five Aldermen are named to be preſent:

At Five other of the ſaid Days, Freemen were admitted, and Leaſes for 21 Years granted, when only Four Aldermen are named to be preſent:

At another of the ſaid Days a Mayor and Aldermen were elected; and, at another, a Treaſurer elected; and the like Number of Four Aldermen named to be preſent:

At Three other of the ſaid Days Freemen were admitted, when only Two Perſons are named to be preſent.

5 Mar. 1640, a Summoned Common Day, when Members of Parliament were choſe, the greateſt Part of the Burgeſſes of the Town being preſent; and no Notice is taken, whether any Aldermen were then preſent, or not.

4 September 1643, Preſent, Mayor, Recorder, and Five Aldermen; and the Entry is, That nothing was done this Day for want of a Bailiff, One Bailiff only being preſent; upon which, the Day was adjourned.

16 September 1678, a Summoned Common Day held, when a Freeman was ſworn, and only Five Aldermen named to be preſent.

28 July 1691, a Summoned Common Day, in Mr. Ewen's Mayoralty, when Three Freemen were admitted, and other Buſineſs done, and only Five Aldermen named to be preſent: This is the Court where the Petitioners Counſel taken Notice of a Raſure among the Aldermens Names.

10 December 1695, a Summoned Common Day, when a Freeman was admitted, and but Five Aldermen named to be preſent.

The Stile of theſe laſt-mentioned 22 Common Days, held ſince 1636, are thus; viz.

Five are ſtiled, Summoned Common Days, held coram majore et balivis; the reſt, Summoned Common Days, ſuch a one Mayor.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel produced the old Book of Orders, eſtabliſhed 16 March 1626; One of which is, That no Mayor ſhall, at any time hereafter, propound any thing to the Houſe, unleſs he do firſt acquaint the Aldermen then preſent with his Purpoſe; and that the moſt Part of the Aldermen preſent do give their Aſſent to the ſame:

This, they ſaid, was the Firſt time any Aldermen became neceſſary; but the Number is not named.

And they produced the new Book of Orders and Conſtitutions, eſtabliſhed 20th April 1686; by which all Orders contained in the former Book of Orders are made void, and new Orders eſtabliſhed; One of which new Orders is, That the Mayor ſhall not propound any thing at a Private Common Day, unleſs Five Aldermen be there then preſent, and all conſenting: And Another, That, from thenceforth, no Leaſe ſhould be granted for longer than 21 Years, without the Conſent of Six Aldermen, preſent at One of the General Common Days; under a Penalty upon the Mayor.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel inferred from theſe Conſtitutions in 1686, That no certain Number of Aldermen were neceſſary before that time.

As to Notice of the Two Courts held in October and November laſt; they called,

Richard Ewin, John Wiſh, and William Gunbay, Serjeants at Mace: Who ſaid, They ſummoned the Common Days of 14th October and 10th November laſt by Order of the Mayor: That the ſame Notice was given of thoſe Courts as had been of all Courts in their Time, which was about Seven Years; and that they never knew Notice given but on the ſame Day the Courts were held; or any Court objected to for want of a legal Summons.

John Wardall ſaid, He had been of the Common-Council 27 Years, of the Corporation 40 Years, and had known the Town 79 Years: That, in all his time, the Common Days were ſummoned on the ſame Day they were held; he never knew any other Summons; or ever heard any body object to a Court ſo ſummoned for want of due Notice: And ſaid, He did not know he had in his Life miſſed 10 times attending the Courts.

That, to prove a wilful Abſence of the Aldermen who were not at theſe Courts, the Sitting-Members Counſel called,

Francis Peircy: Who ſaid, He was Deputy-Mayor in October laſt; and that, Two Days before the Common Day Court was held, Mr. Pyke bid him take care what he did at that Court; for none of them would attend; and that the Witneſs ſhould anſwer for it above.

Thomas Wilkes ſaid, The Night before the Common Day was held in October laſt, Alderman Newland told him, He ſuppoſed there would be a Common Day held the next Day; and ſaid, That Seven Aldermen would go out of Town, and not appear there; viz. Mr. Ewen, Rumbold, Frowhock, Lancaſter, Pyke, * Fowle, and himſelf: And, ſome Days afterwards, he told the Witneſs, He met thoſe Gentlemen at Bourn-Bridge.

John Grumbold ſaid, That, after the Court Day in October, Alderman Newland told him, He went out of Town with the reſt of the Aldermen: He ſaid, There was a Deſign to keep a Court; but they had tricked them; and they went out of Town on Purpoſe to prevent that Court:

That, about Three or Four Years ago, Mr. Pyke, being then Mayor, granted a Warrant to the Witneſs, who was Churchwarden, for levying a Church-rate, which had been refuſed to be paid; and afterwards, on a Tryal before the Lord Chief Baron Ward, touching the Validity of that Warrant, Mr. Pyke denied his Hand to it; although his Hand was proved by the Witneſs, who ſaw him write the Warrant, and ſign it, and by ſeveral other Witneſſes, upon Oath; for which the Judge reprimanded Pyke; and told him, He would have made an Example of him, if it had not been in that Place where he had been Mayor.

That it appeared by the Town-Book, That of the 36 admitted 14th of October and 10th of November laſt, 19 had a Right to Freedom, Nine purchaſed, and the reſt were admitted gratis.

Thomas Rowland ſaid, That his Son Thomas, who was objected to by the Petitioners Counſel as a Minor, is 22 Years of Age; and was Three Years old when he was chriſtened.

That, on the Head of Bribery, to affect Mr. Shepheard, and 12 of his Voters; the Sitting-Members Counſel called,

John Flanders: Who ſaid, He voted for Mr. Shepheard: That John Witham gave him Ten Shillings at one time, and Twenty Shillings at another, to take up his Freedom; and that he had 26 Shillings more of Mr. Shepheard; and that, if no Money had been given him, he ſhould not have changed his Word:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, That, after he had promiſed Mr. Shepheard, Mr. Franks, Mr. Sclater's Agent, threatened to arreſt him for a Debt; and offered him a Bill for 40 Shillings to alter his Mind.

Lazarus Munns ſaid, Mr. Shepheard ſent for him, and gave him 20 Shillings to take up his Freedom; and told him, He ſhould vote, and he would juſtify his Title; but the Witneſs did not vote, becauſe they would not admit him to Freedom, though he had a Right:

That, the Day after the Election, Robert Parker ſhewed him Three Guineas, which, he ſaid, he had for voting for Mr. Shepheard:

That James Munns told him, Mr. Shepheard gave him 40 Shillings after he had voted.

Rebecca Spilman ſaid, That Morley's Wife declared, Mr. Bromley gave her a Ten Pound Bill, for her Huſband to vote for Mr. Shepheard; and that ſhe had received the Money: And that Robert Sibthorpe and Thomas Gotobed ſaid, Mr. Shepheard gave them 30 Shillings apiece for their Votes.

Hatton Buck ſaid, Robert Parker told him, He had 20 Shillings of John Sewſter, by Order of Mr. Shepheard, to take up his Freedom, and Ten Shillings for his Charges; and that, after he had voted, Mr. Pyke gave him Three Guineas, by Order of Mr. Shepheard:

That Joſeph Cook told him, He had a Guinea when he was made free, Two Guineas afterwards for his Charges; and that, when he came to vote, Mr. Shepheard gave him Two Guineas more, and paid a Reckoning of 16 Shillings.

Richard Linſey ſaid, One Tabor, a Friend of Mr. Shepheard, offered him Four Guineas; and ſaid, He would give him Nine Pounds to vote for Mr. Shepheard: He voted for the Sitting-Members.

John Wiſh ſaid, He ſollicited his Brother-in-law, Charles Stone, to vote for the Sitting-Members; but he anſwered, That Mr. Shepheard had engaged him, and given him Two Guineas to take up his Freedom, and Two more for his Vote.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to theſe Reſolutions; viz.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes, of the Town of Cambridge, may hold a Summoned Common Day Court, and admit Freemen, without Six Aldermen of the ſaid Town being then preſent.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir John Hynde Cotton Baronet is duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the Town of Cambridge.

The Yeas go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas,	Sir Geo. Beaumont, Mr. Shippen:	90.
Tellers for the Noes,	Mr. D'Gray, Mr. Onſlow:	248.

So it paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered, That the ſaid Amendments be read a Second time.

The ſaid Amendments were ſeverally read accordingly; and, upon the Queſtion ſeverally put thereupon, agreed unto by the Houſe.

Ordered, That Mr. Pulteney do carry the Bill to the Lords, and acquaint them, That this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Amendments.

Mr. Hampden, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts, and the Reſolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Report, and Reſolutions, were read; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of George Evans, now Lord Carbery of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Charles Allanſon Eſquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return of the Honourable Willoughby Bertie and Francis Anneſley Eſquires, for the Borough of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts:

That it was agreed, That Weſtbury is a Borough by Preſcription; and that only Burgage-Tenants have a Right to vote.

That the Petitioners Counſel inſiſted, They muſt be ſuch Tenants only as hold in Fee for Life, or 99 Years determinable on Lives, or by Copy of Court-Roll, and pay an annual Rent of Four Pence, or Two Pence, to the Lord; from which Rent they are called whole or half Burgages.

The Sitting-Members Counſel inſiſted, That Tenants for Terms abſolute, and Quarter-Burgages; viz. ſuch as pay a Peny Rent to the Lord; have alſo a Right to vote.

That the Petitioners Counſel called,

Zach. Bayly: Who ſaid, He had known the Town 16 Years: That thoſe who have an Eſtate of Inheritance, or for One, Two, or Three Lives, or 99 Years, determinable on Lives, or ſuch a long Term as ordinarily extends to a Man's Life, and who pay a whole or half Burgage-Rent, have a Right to vote: That he had known Two controverted Elections, when the Quarter-Burgages were refuſed: That they were always refuſed in his time; and he had heard, They were always refuſed before; but he could not ſay, whether the Quarter-Burgages had a Right, or not:

That the Leaſes for Terms were always for 99 Years determinable on Lives; and that he never heard of any Leaſe in the Borough for 99 Years abſolute, or for any abſolute Term, till, of late, the Leaſes have been ſhortened, to make Votes.

Thomas Hayward ſaid, He had known the Borough 25 Years; and had been at Five or Six Elections within theſe Ten Years; that the Quarter-Burgages were then allowed to vote, if they pleaſed Mr. Gibbs, and not elſe; but it was always looked upon, that they had no Right; and that only whole and half Burgages had a Right of Voting.

That the Petitioners Counſel produced the Town-Book, wherein there is a Declaration entered, under the Hands and Seals of the Mayor and Burgeſſes, aſſembled at a General Council, held the 5th of January 1685, That, by a Cuſtom there, Time out of mind, the Right of Voting for this Borough is in Perſons having, in any Meſſuage, or Meſſuages, within the Borough, out of which a yearly Rent of One, To, or Four, Pence, or more, called Burgage-money, is iſſuing, any Eſtate in Fee, Fee-Tail, or for One, Two, or more, Lives, or for any Number of Years determinable on One, Two, or more, Lives, or for any long Term of Years; and in no others.

It appears by the Book, That, in that Part of this Declaration, which ſpecifies the Rent, the Words "One, To, "or," are wrote upon a Raſure; and the Spelling differs from the reſt of the Entry.

Mr. James Edgill ſaid, That he was Steward of the Borough when this Declaration was made: That it is all his Hand-writing, except the Alteration where the Raſure is; which is done ſince the making the Declaration:

That they keep Books of Entries of the Burgage-Tenures; and that he has ſearched thoſe Books down from the Time of Philip and Mary, and finds no mention of any Quarter-Burgage till the Year 1671:

That the Right of Voting is in ſuch as have a Freehold, or an Eſtate for Life, or a Term of 99 Years, or 80 Years, or ſuch a Term as ordinarily extends to a Man's Life, determinable on Life, or Lives, out of which a Burgage-Rent iſſues of Four Pence, or Two Pence, yearly:

That the Peny-Burgages have been objected to; but he never knew them rejected in his time; which is from 1684; nor did he know of any Leaſes for Years abſolute in the Borough:

Being croſs-examined, he owned, That he polled the Peny-Burgages when he was Mayor; but firſt aſked them, Who they would be for; and ſaid, He did not remember, that he gave any Evidence for Terms of Years abſolute, when he was a Witneſs in the controverted Election in 1702.

That, to prove that Quarter-Burgages, and Leaſeholders for Years abſolute, have a Right to vote, the Sitting-Members Counſel called,

Samuel Gibbs: Who ſaid, He had known the Borough Sixty-four Years: That he was taken into Cuſtody for refuſing the Quarter-Burgages in his Mayoralty, about 37 or 38 Years ago; and ever ſince that time thoſe Burgages have voted: That Tenants for Years alſo voted in that Election; but he could not ſay what Terms they held under.

Benjamin Bourn ſaid, He has lived at Weſtbury Sixty Years; and that all Perſons living within the Borough, whether Whole, Half, or Quarter, Burgages, or Tenants for Years, or Copyholders for Life, had voted in all his time; and that, 30 Years ago, William Cockle, who was reported to have only a Leaſe for 21 Years abſolute, was allowed to vote in a controverted Election.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel produced the Journals of the Houſe of Commons, in the following controverted Elections; viz.

1ſt December 1702. When the Right of Election was agreed to be in the Owners of Burgage-Houſes; no Diſtinction was then taken of Quarter-Burgages: The Objection was only to Leaſeholders for Years abſolute: And James Edgill, and others, gave Evidence, That Tenants for Years abſolute were always reputed to have a Right; and gave an Inſtance of one Browne voting under a Leaſe for 99 Years abſolute: And the Houſe then adjudged, That Leaſeholders for Years abſolute had a Right to vote.

26° November 1680. Samuel Gibbs, the Mayor, was ſent for in Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms, to anſwer, at the Bar of the Houſe, for great Miſdemeanors by him committed in that Election and Return.

William Cockle and Benjamin Bourne were called: And, confronting each other, touching Cockle's Voting;

Cockle ſaid, That both he and his Father always voted for a Copyhold; and that neither of them ever voted for a Leaſe of Years:

Bourne ſaid, That neither of the Cockles ever had a Copyhold; but they had a Leaſehold, and always voted for that:

Cockle, in Reply, ſaid, His Father had a Copyhold 50 Years, for which he voted; and that he had been dead 30 Years.

That the Committee came to the following Reſolution;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Right of Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the Borough of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts, is in every Tenant of any Burgage-Tenement, in Fee for Life, or Ninety-nine Years determinable on Lives, or by Copy of Court-Roll, paying a Burgage-Rent of Four Pence, or Two Pence, yearly; being reſident within the Borough, and not receiving Alms.

That the Poll was;

For Mr. Bertie, 29: For Lord Carbery, 19:
Mr. Anneſley, 28: Mr. Allanſon, 18.

That the Petitioners Counſel objected to 16 of the Sitting-Members Voters, as having no Right; and alleged, They ſhould add 12 to the Petitioners Poll, who had a Right, and were refuſed.

To take off the 16 objected to, they called the following Witneſſes;

Wm. Cockle and Thomas Phipps: By whoſe Evidence it appeared, That James Clift, the Voter, had confeſſed, His Father had only a Chattel-Leaſe; and that Mr. Poulgrain, the Earl of Abingdon's Steward, had told him, He could not renew till the Election was over; becauſe it would be Bribery if he did: That his Father died inteſtate, and left a Widow, who is in Poſſeſſion:

And the Petitioners Counſel objected, That there was no Adminiſtration taken out to the Father:

The other Side produced a Leaſe to the Father for 99 Years determinable on Three Lives; and Letters of Adminiſtration granted to the Voter.

It appeared by the Evidence of Wm. Cockle, Richard Connop, and John Sly, That Thomas Gray voted for a Houſe granted in Leaſe to John Watts, deceaſed; who left a Wife and a Daughter: That Gray was in Poſſeſſion; but they did not know by what Title:

To this it was anſwered, The Poſſeſſion was an Evidence of a good Title, unleſs a better appeared.

John Withers, Wm. Sweetland, ſaid, That John Barker voted for a Houſe which his Mother and he live in; and that Barker confeſſed, His Father had mortgaged the Leaſe:

The other Side produced a Leaſe to Barker's Father, determinable on Three Lives; and Letters of Adminiſtration to the Father granted to the Voter.

Thomas Brown, John Sly, and Zach. Bayly, ſaid, That Patrick Mackay voted for a Copyhold Tenement, formerly Wm. Cockle's; and that John Sly was in Poſſeſſion at the time of the Election, as Tenant to Samuel Gibbs; who paid the Poor-Rate for it as his own Houſe:

On the other Side it appeared, That Suſan Cockle, who has been dead 18 Years, was admitted to this Houſe in 1681: That Samuel Gibbs purchaſed it of William Cockle in January 171$\frac{2}{3}$; and that, in December laſt, Patrick Mackay was admitted thereto, as a Purchaſer from Samuel Gibbs: And Mackay's Payment of his Purchaſe-money was proved:

But the Petitioners Counſel objected to the Title, for want of a Surrender to Gibbs.

Roger Kelloway ſaid, That the Tenement for which William Amills and Samuel Bigood voted, was never but One Half-Burgage, till, about 10 Years ago, it was divided into Two Tenements; before which Diviſion it never had but One Vote:

On the other Side,

George Amills ſaid, This was always Two Half-Burgages; and that, for above 40 Years, he had known Two Voters allowed for it.

John Kelloway ſaid, His Father told him, That James Kelloway ſhewed him Four Guineas, which, he ſaid, Mr. Poulgrain, the Lord Abingdon's Servant, gave him to vote for the Sitting-Members; and ſaid, They would not let him have his Leaſe till the Election-day:

To which it was anſwered, That this Evidence was only Hearſay.

Wm. Sweetland and William Jorden ſaid, That Michael Goddard voted for the Houſe which his Mother is in Poſſeſſion of; and in which ſhe has her Widow's Eſtate; and that Michael Goddard has confeſſed, He had no Intereſt in the Houſe:

Wm.

Wm. Amylls, on the other Side, ſaid, That Michael Goddard has been in Poſſeſſion near 40 Years; and has voted before for this Tenement, which is Copyhold; and that his Mother alſo lives in it:

Wm. Jorden ſaid, That Jonas Dier has, for ſome Years, lived in the Houſe he voted for; but it was generally reported, That he never had any Leaſe of it:

To which it was anſwered, That this was only Hearſay.

Joan Carpenter ſaid, That William Syms voted for his Mother's Houſe, in which they both live together: That ſhe heard Syms ſay, His Mother would not let him vote, unleſs my Lord Abingdon added Two Lives to the Leaſe; and that he had no Title till ſince the Election:

The other Side produced a Title to William Syms, by Aſſignment from the Mother, executed in December laſt.

Wm. Cockle ſaid, That Michael Bayly voted for a Quarter-Burgage; and that his Vote had been always denied:

This Vote was not inſiſted on.

Thomas Browne and John Hayward ſaid, They did not know, that the Houſe for which Philip Bendall voted had any Vote:

But Hayward owned, The former Poſſeſſors had voted; and that it had been voted for at Three former Elections:

Upon which Evidence the other Side reſted his Title.

Wm. Cockle ſaid, That the Houſe for which Samuel Watts ſenior voted is a Quarter-Burgage: And,

Walter Smith ſaid, That Clift, the former Owner, had ſometimes voted; and was ſometimes refuſed, when they did not want Quarter-Burgages; Mr. Gibbs refuſed him, telling him, There was no Occaſion for him: That Watts has had it Ten Years; and his Vote was always accepted, becauſe it was in the Earl of Abingdon's Intereſt:

Upon this Evidence of Voting, the other Side reſted his Title.

Wm. Jorden ſaid, He had heard Samuel Watts junior confeſs, His Houſe was mortgaged by John Hancock, the former Owner, to George Turner; but the Witneſs ſaid, Turner never was in Poſſeſſion: That Watts had not Poſſeſſion 12 Months; and this was the Firſt time he voted:

The other Side produced a Leaſe from the Earl of Abingdon to George Turner, dated 5 December 1711; and Turner's Aſſignment to Watts thereof, dated 24th June 1714, for 25 l. Conſideration-money.

Wm. Cockle ſaid, He very well knew James Manſell; and knew, that he had no Burgage-Houſe, and nothing to vote for.

Wm. Jorden ſaid, That Roger Perkin has lived ſome Years in the Town; but never voted before; and that he had nothing to vote for:

On the other Side, it was inſiſted, This Evidence was not ſufficient to take off the Votes of Manſell and Perkin.

It was proved, That the 16 Perſons before-named, were objected to at the time of the Election.

To add 12 to the Petitioners Poll, who were proved to have offered their Votes for the Petitioners, but were refuſed;

Mr. Edgill ſaid, That the Wife of John Whitacre, the Voter, was Daughter of Edward Paſhion, who was a Copyholder for Three Lives:

And produced the Admiſſion of Paſhion; and ſaid, He thought Whitaker lived at Bratton; but could not tell whether he lived at Weſtbury, or not:

Wm. Cockle ſaid, That Whitaker had a Burgage-Houſe; and that he lived within the Borough before the Teſte of the Writ, and at the time of the Election; but his Family was at Bratton, which is in the Pariſh of Weſtbury, but Two Miles from the Borough:

Benjam. Bourne and John Coe, on the other Side, ſaid, That Whitaker and his Family have lived at Bratton theſe 20 Years: That he comes to Market every Week; but never was reſident, nor kept Houſe nor Servant within the Borough; and, though he has a Copyhold there in Right of his Wife, they never knew him vote before.

A Leaſe was produced from John Withers to Philip Withers, who voted, dated 4 October 1714: And,

John Phips and Thomas Phips, the Witneſſes to the Execution of this Leaſe, being examined, ſaid, They ſaw the Leaſe ſealed, and delivered, by John Withers, for the Uſe of his Brother Philip:

Being croſs-examined, they ſaid, They ſaw no Money paid: But John declared, He was ſatisfied with the Conſideration: It was executed at Mr. Cockle's Houſe:

John Phips ſaid, It was executed on the Day of the Date, or the Day after: And,

Thomas Phips ſaid, It was executed in December laſt, about Chriſtmas:

They ſaid, That Philip was not then preſent: That John Withers, after he had ſealed it, took it into his Cuſtody, for his Brother Philip's Uſe: That Philip is in Poſſeſſion, and his Mother lives with him; and they did not believe it to be a fraudulent Deed:

To this, on the Sitting-Members Side,

Samuel Sweetland ſaid, That, Three Weeks after the Election, Philip Withers told him, That his Grandfather, who died inteſtate, had promiſed to make a Leaſe to his Mother, for the Lives of her, him, and his Siſter; and had given a verbal Direction to his Brother John to grant ſuch a Leaſe; but he would not ſeal any: And,

John Barker ſaid, That he was in Company with Philip Withers upon the 20th of March laſt, when Philip owned, He had no Right or Title from his Brother John.

A Conveyance to Walter Smith was produced; but not proved:

Roger Tucker ſaid, That Smith has voted Eight or Ten Years for a Half-Burgage, which his Father voted for before:

On the Sitting-Members Side,

Samuel Sweetland ſaid, Smith lives a Mile and a Half out of the Borough.

As to William Cockle, who alſo voted for the Petitioners;

An Aſſignment of a Half-Burgage was produced, from Grace Cockle to Henry Murford, dated 6 May 1702; and a ſubſequent Aſſignment from Murford to William Cockle, the Voter, dated 29 December 1714: The Conſideration mentioned in each Aſſignment is 10 l.: But,

Grace, being called, denied her Hand; and ſaid, The Deed went for nothing: That ſhe never aſſigned, or parted with, the Houſe to Murford, nor ever received any thing for it; and that ſhe has always had the Poſſeſſion, and received the Profits.

A Leaſe from the Earl of Abingdon to Adam Watts was produced, dated 1 May 1683; and an Aſſignment thereof, dated 1ſt January 1714, from Anne Watts, as Executrix of her Mother Margaret Watts, to William Hilman, the Voter: And the Witneſs to it ſaid, That Aſſignment was executed above a Week before the Election:

It appeared by Certificate from the Regiſter of Sarum, That Letter of Adminiſtration to Margaret Watts had not iſſued:

Zach. Bayly ſaid, He knew Anne Watts was in Poſſeſſion at Chriſtmas laſt; and knew ſhe had ſold to Hilman:

On the other Side, it was objected, That it did not appear Margaret Watts had any Title: And,

James Kemp, being called, ſaid, That, about Three Days after the Election, Anne Watts had offered to lett this Eſtate.

As to John Sly, who offered to vote for the Petitioners;

A Leaſe was produced from the Earl of Abingdon to Francis Amiot, in 1700; and an Aſſignment by Elizabeth Amiot, as Widow and Adminiſtratrix of Francis, to Thomas Uſher, in 1706; and a ſubſequent Aſſignment from Eliz. Uſher, as Widow and Adminiſtratrix of Thomas Uſher, to John Sly, executed in December laſt: And,

It was proved, That Sly is in Poſſeſſion, and pays the Rates:

To which it was objected, That Poſſeſſion, without a Title, was not ſufficient; and that no Adminiſtration was produced, either to Francis or Eliz. Amiot, or Elizabeth Uſher:

Mr.

Mr. Cockle, in Anſwer to this, ſaid, He had, ſince the Election, demanded the Letters of Adminiſtration to the Amiots, of Mr. Theophilus Dyer, the Regiſter of Sarum, and offered him his Fees; but that Dyer refuſed to iſſue ſuch Adminiſtration; and ſaid, None ſhould go till this Diſpute was over.

An Aſſignment from Thomas Norton, and his Wife, to Thomas Wright, who voted, was produced, and proved to be executed at Mr. Cockle's Houſe, in October laſt, for 100 l. Conſideration; of which, the Witneſs ſaid, Wright paid down 30 l. and gave a Note of his Hand for the reſt: That Wright carried away the Deed; and was in Poſſeſſion at the time of the Election:

Wm. Turner was called on the other Side; and ſaid, That, in the latter End of December laſt, Wright declared to him, That he had no Title to vote.

Wm. Cockle ſaid, That his Brother John Cockle, who voted, had been in the Poſſeſſion of a Burgage 18 Years; and voted for it in the controverted Election between Mr. Trenchard and Mr. Bertie.

The Sitting-Members Counſel offered to produce a Leaſe to Suſan Cockle, who was admitted to be dead; and it appeared by Certificate, that nobody had yet adminiſtred to her.

A Leaſe, dated 15 January 1714, from George and William Taylor to John Seaſon, who voted, was produced, and proved to be executed at Mr. Cockle's Houſe, about a Fortnight before the Election: And,

The Leaſe appeared to be but for 80 Years, determinable on Two Lives.

Matthias Amiat claimed by a Leaſe for 99 Years, determinable on the Life of Edmund Patient the Leſſor, who was a Copyholder for Life: And,

The other Side inſiſted, This was not a good Title; for that ſuch a Copyholder could not grant ſuch a Leaſe:

Wm. Turner ſaid, That Patient is in Gaol; and confeſſed to him, That he had but a Guinea for his Eſtate.

Thomas Browne ſaid, Thomas Amills, who voted for the Petitioners, has been in Poſſeſſion of a Burgage-Tenement many Years; and his Vote was taken in former Elections: And,

That Wm. Sweetland, who voted, has lived in a Burgage-Houſe about 40 Years: And both are Tenants to the Earl of Abingdon:

On the other Side, it was objected, That Amills' Title was not ſufficiently proved: And,

William Sweedland, being examined, ſaid, That himſelf lives in London; and has ſo done for Seven or Eight Years paſt.

On the Head of ill Practices; the Petitioners Counſel obſerved, upon the Poll, That all the Sitting-Members Voters were taken, before any one was polled for the Petitioners: And they called,

John Kelloway: Who ſaid, That Six of the Sitting-Members Voters, viz. Samuel Watts ſenior, Samuel Watts junior, Roger Kelloway, John Barker, Samuel Sweetland, and Roger Perkin, were ſent, Six Miles out of Town, to Weſt-Lavington, on the Friday Night before the Election; and were entertained at an Inn there, from that time to Tueſday Morning, when the Election was: On Saturday the Witneſs was there; the Maſter of the Houſe told him, They muſt not go home till the Morning of the Election; and they ſaid, They would go home time enough to ſpeak the Word; and that they got drunk Three times a Day: The Witneſs ſaw them at the Earl of Abingdon's on Saturday Night and Monday Morning; and, on Tueſday Morning, they came to the Election with his Lordſhip, on Horſes provided for them; but they went out of Town on Foot:

Nicolas Humphrys ſaid, That none of thoſe Six Voters had any Horſes of their own; and that they came to the Poll on Horſeback, with the Earl of Abingdon:

Thomas Phipps ſaid, That James Kelloway told him, Mr. Poulgrain refuſed to let him have his Leaſe till after the Election; and threatened to take away his Houſe, if he would not vote for the Sitting-Members; before which, Kelloway had told the Witneſs, He would vote for the Petitioners:

That John Barker, about a Week before the Election, declared, That he would vote for the Petitioners; but Mr. Baxter, who had his Leaſe in Mortgage, upon which there was about 16 l. due, refuſed to let him have his Leaſe till after the Election; and told him, He ſhould never have it, if he voted againſt the Sitting-Members.

Wm. Jorden ſaid, That the Earl of Abingdon made a publick Treat a little before this Election; and that there had been, once in Three Years, diſtributed among the Voters a conſiderable Number of Guineas, in Wheat, Woollen, or Linen, under the Denomination of Bertie and Anneſley: The Firſt Diſtribution was about Six Years ago; ſince which, it had been done twice or thrice; and the laſt time was about a Twelvemonth ago, or not ſo much, when the Witneſs received his Proportion, to the Value of a Guinea, in Wheat:

Being examined to the laſt Time, in particular; he declared, He could not be poſitive in that to a Month; nor whether it was before or after the Queen's Death: But ſaid, It was diſtributed under the Denomination of Bertie and Anneſley; and that none but Voters had it.

Thomas Browne ſaid, That Mr. William Bourne, the Mayor, declared publickly, in a Court held about a Fortnight or Three Weeks before the Election, That he would return Mr. Bertie and Mr. Anneſley, though the other Candidates ſhould have a Majority: He ſaid, Several other Perſons were preſent; but he did not know their Names.

Thomas Neat ſaid, That, about a Week before the Election, upon the Day the Earl of Abingdon came to Weſtbury, James Coward, who took the Poll for the Sitting-Members, ſollicited his Father's Vote; and ſaid, He came from the Earl of Abingdon; and aſſured his Father, That his Lordſhip had promiſed, upon his Honour, That he ſhould have a farther Eſtate in his Houſe, if he voted for the Sitting-Members; and Coward offered Security for it, by a Bond of 100 l.; but did not ſay what he was to pay for ſuch further Eſtate.

Roger Kelloway ſaid, That his Son James Kelloway ſhewed him Four Guineas, which, he ſaid, Mr. Poulgrain, the Earl of Abingdon's Steward, on the Wedneſday or Thurſday before Chriſtmas, gave him, to vote for whom his Lordſhip ſhould deſire; and that Paulgrave ſollicited Votes for his Lordſhip's Friends, the Sitting-Members.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel objected againſt Nine of the Petitioners Voters; viz. againſt John Auſtin, as being in the ſame Caſe with Samuel Watts junior, a Voter for the Sitting-Members, whoſe Houſe was in Mortgage:

To which it was anſwered, That Watts's Title was good; but his Vote vitiated by Bribery.

Wm. Turner ſaid, That the Houſe for which his Brother John Turner voted was a Leaſe, to which himſelf, and his other Brother, had an equal Title with his Brother John: That his Father had been dead 18 Years; and that the Houſe is now in Leaſe to William Hall, from John Turner:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, His Brother John voted without Oppoſition.

The Sitting-Members Counſel produced the Leaſe to the Father, dated 19 November 1692: And,

The Petitioners Counſel produced an Aſſignment thereof from Wm. Turner the Witneſs, and Robert Turner, as Two Executors of the Father, unto the other Executor, their Brother, John Turner the Voter: But,

The Sitting-Members Counſel objected, for want of producing the Father's Will, or any thing to manifeſt their Title to aſſign.

Henry Cocks was objected to, as having no Title under his Father:

A Leaſe to Robert Cocks the Father was produced, dated November 8th, 1693: And,

Samuel Gibbs ſaid, That Joan, the Widow of Robert Cocks, had been in Poſſeſſion ever ſince his Death; and that Henry lives with her, and never voted before.

The Petitioners Counſel offered to prove a Poſſeſſion in Henry Cocks; and that he had always voted:

To which it was anſwered, That would not do, without a Title.

Matthew Neate was objected to, for want of Letters of Adminiſtration to the Father:

A Leaſe to the Father was produced, dated 28 April 1670: And,

Benjamin Bourne, being examined on both Sides, ſaid, That Neate the Father had been dead 10 or 12 Years; his Widow is living; he left Three Children, Matthew the Voter, and Two Daughters; and that Matthew the Voter had been in Poſſeſſion ever ſince the Father's Death; but he never knew him vote before.

Roger Fricker was objected to, as having no Title under his Mother: And,

A Copy of the Father's Will, dated 15 November 1708, was produced; whereby he deviſes the Weſt End of his Houſe, and the Uſe of his Goods there, and Half the Garden, to his Wife Alice, during her Widowhood; and reſerves to his Executors, his Three Sons, the Malting-Rooms:

To juſtify this Vote, the Petitioners Counſel produced an Aſſignment of the Houſe, dated 10 May 1709, from Two of the Three Executors, to Roger Fricker the Voter, who is the other Executor: And,

It was replied on the Sitting-Members Side, That the Mother, who had her Widow's Eſtate in the Houſe, had not aſſigned.

George Taylor was objected to, as voting under a Leaſe to his Father, who died inteſtate, and no Adminiſtration is taken out to him:

No Leaſe was produced; but it was proved, That the Father died in Poſſeſſion, and the Voter is his eldeſt Son.

Thomas Norton was objected to, as having no Title:

A Leaſe to Henry Belton, deceaſed, dated 30 September 1668, was produced: And,

It was proved, That Samuel Norton, the Voter's Father, married Belton's Daughter; and that ſhe is in Poſſeſſion:

To which it was anſwered by the Petitioners Counſel, That this Leaſe was expired, and a new one granted to the Voter in 1707:

But ſuch new Leaſe was not proved.

John Amills was objected to, as having no Title under Cicely and Mary Jones, to whom a Leaſe was granted, dated 1 April 1682:

It was anſwered on the Petitioners Side, That this Leaſe was expired; and they produced a new Leaſe, granted to the Voter, dated 26 March 1704:

To which it was replied, That Amills was diſqualified by Bribery.

Benjamin Bourne ſaid, That he knows Richard Clacey's Houſe is a Quarter-Burgage:

William Sweetland, on the other Side, ſaid, He formerly collected the Rents, and then this Houſe was a Half-Burgage; but he could not ſay what it is now.

On the Head of Bribery, the Sitting-Members Counſel called the following Witneſſes; viz.

Samuel Watts junior ſaid, He voted for the Sitting-Members; but that Mr. Robert Holton offered him 20 l. to redeem a Mortgage upon his Houſe, if he would have voted for the Petitioners.

Samuel Sweetland ſaid, He was preſent when Mr. Holton offered Watts this 20 l.; and that Holton then ſaid, If they could have ſuch Men choſe as the Petitioners, they would regulate the Saints Days, and Ceremonies of the Church, that they might become one People.

Geo. Amills and Wm. Amills ſaid, They heard John Davis, who is dead, declare, That he would have voted for the Sitting-Members; but that he voted, againſt his Conſcience, for the Petitioners, becauſe Mr. Holton and Gibbs proffered him 10 l. for it: He complained, that he had it not; and, to the time of his Death, repented this Voting againſt his Conſcience, for Money.

James Kemp ſaid, That, when the Lord Carbery firſt came down, he aſked the Witneſs, If he was any-ways incumbred; and proffered to relieve him, as far as 10 Guineas would go, if he was.

Sam. Bigood, Sam. Sweetland, and Wm. Amills, ſaid, John Amills confeſſed to them, That he would have voted for the Sitting-Members; but voted for the Petitioners, becauſe John and Thomas Phipps promiſed him 10 Guineas; which, he has ſince declared, he is to receive as ſoon as the Petition is over, whether the Petitioners prevail or not:

Wm. Amills, being croſs-examined, owned, He had laid a Guinea with Zach. Bayly, about the Succeſs of this Cauſe.

Anto. Clacey ſaid, That Richard Clacey told him, He was offered ſome Money to vote for the Petitioners; but did not ſay by whom, or what; and that he put his Hand to a Writing, but did not know what it was.

Eliz. Auſtin ſaid, She was preſent when the Petitioner the Lord Carbery deſired her Mother to make a Bargain with any of the Voters for their Votes; and particularly with John Hayward; her Mother bargained with him for 15 Guineas; which his Lordſhip being afterwards acquainted with, approved, and ſaid, He would pay the Money:

That his Lordſhip put 10 Guineas into her Hand, to engage her Father's Vote; but ſhe returned the Money:

That Richard Tracey was guarded about the Town by another Perſon, to prevent his going over to the Sitting-Members.

Wm. Adlam ſaid, That Wm. Jorden offered him 10 Guineas to vote for the Petitioners: He voted for the Sitting-Members; but was not polled.

Sam. Sweetland ſaid, He heard Jorden own, ſince the Election, That he had depoſited 10 Guineas in the Hands of a Third Perſon to be given to Adams, if he voted for the Petitioners.

John Hale ſaid, He ſaw the Petitioner the Lord Carbery draw out his Purſe, and offer Henry Cocks 20 Guineas for his Vote: He ſaw no Money produced; but heard it rattle in the Purſe.

Samuel Sweetland ſaid, That Zach. Bayly, who made Intereſt for the Petitioner, told him, There was Two Gentlemen ſent down by my Lord Chancellor Cowper, and now was the time to do his Family Service: He offered the Witneſs 30 Guineas to vote for the Petitioners; and ſaid, If that was not enough, he ſhould have 40 or 50; and if the Witneſs would engage his Brother-in-law Michael Goddard, Bayly promiſed him 1,000 l. Security, That he ſhould have a Place in the Stamp-Office, which Gibbs formerly had; and ſaid, That now it lay in my Lord Chancellor's Breaſt to diſpoſe of that Office as he pleaſed:

Bayly likewiſe ſaid to him, That my Lord Chancellor had Power to turn out what Juſtices of the Peace he thought fit; and that Mr. Long would be put out, and Mr. Bennet put in: That Mr. Long made Intereſt for the Sitting-Members, and Mr. Bennet for the Petitioners: That Mr. Bennet has a Parſonage at Weſtbury, of 3 or 400 l. a Year; and that the Witneſs, and his Brother Goddard, voted for the Sitting-Members:

This Witneſs alſo ſaid, That Robert Hooper, ſome time before the Election, told him, and his Brother Goddard, That if they would vote for the Petitioners, they ſhould have 100 l. for a Hayrick; which was Goddard's, and was but worth 5 l.:

The Witneſs ſaid, He keeps the Books for the London Waggon; had 5 l. a Year Wages; and that his Maſter acquainted him, He had received Commands from Mr. Robert Holton to turn him out of his Service, unleſs he voted for the Petitioners:

That his Father, Wm. Sweetland, who came down Ten Days before the Election, and lodged at William Cockle's, told the Witneſs, He was to be there free-coſt as long as he ſtaid in Town: That he was ſent down by Mr. Bere, a Commiſſioner of the Victualing-Office; and that his Charges were borne, and his Wages went on the mean time; and, ſince the Election, he has a Watchman's Place upon Tower Wharf:

That Mr. Read, ſome time before the Election, invited the Witneſs, in the Duke of Bolton's Name, to a Treat at John Hayward's; and ſhewed him a Letter, ſigned Bolton, deſiring him to come to Weſtbury, and, in the Duke's Name, to make Intereſt for the Petitioners.

Sam. Gibbs ſaid, That, upon the Monday the Writs bore Date, Mr. Read ſhewed him a Letter which he received that Morning, and was dated the Saturday before, from the Duke of Bolton, authorizing him to make Intereſt for the Petitioners: The Subſtance of the Letter was, That the Duke deſired Read to go to Weſtbury, and give his Service to the Voters; and that his Grace would take their Votes for the Petitioners as a Favour:

The Witneſs could not ſay it was the Duke's Hand; but ſaid, It was ſigned Bolton, in capital Letters: That Read deſired of the Witneſs (being Churchwarden), That the Bells might ring on that Occaſion; which he refuſing, Read replied, If he would not let them be merry with the Bells, they would be merry without them; and that Read invited the Voters to a Treat that Day.

Sam. Bigood ſaid, He heard Thomas Hayward declare, That he got 50 l. for his Father's voting for the Petitioners.

Michael Bayly ſaid, Mr. John Cooper offered to cloath his Three Children, if he would vote for the Petitioners.

Wm. Sims ſaid, That, 22d January laſt, Mr. Robert Holton offered him 10 Guineas to vote for the Petitioners; or if he would not vote, offered him the ſame Sum, and a Horſe to carry him out of Town.

John Adlam ſaid, The Lord Carbery offered any Money for his Vote; that he did not vote: And that he had been threatened by William Jorden upon Account of his giving Evidence.

Sam. Sweetland ſaid, That George Taylor, One of the Petitioners Voters, ſaid to him in the Market-place, ſince the Election, That it was a damned, toadiſh, whiggiſh, low, Parliament; and that he was ſure the Petitioners would be brought in, had they had but Ten Votes: And that Wm. Jorden had threatened him if he gave Evidence.

Wm. Kemp ſaid, Roger Fricker threatened him, That he ſhould be thrown into Newgate if he came up on the Sitting-Members Side.

Samuel Sweetland ſaid, That Thomas Brown, a Witneſs for the Petitioner, is a lazy, troubleſome Fellow: That, in 1710, he ſtole a Hood from his Lodgings, which he afterwards returned with Shame; and that he enticed a Woman from her Huſband, and kept her all Night.

To invalidate the Credit of Sam. Sweetland, a Witneſs for the Sitting-Members, the Petitioners Counſel, on their Reply, called,

Walter Smith: Who ſaid, That, ſome time before the Election, when the Petitioners firſt came down, Sweetland told him, That, if the Petitioners would give him 50 l. he would vote for them himſelf, and bring Two others; and would diſcover all the Roguery in the Borough:

That Sweetland is a Bailiff, and has as ill a Character in the Corporation as any-body:

This Witneſs, being croſs-examined, owned, himſelf was, Two Years ago, a Week in Saliſbury Gaol; but ſaid, It was for no Harm:

Hugh Whatley ſaid, That Samuel Sweetland is a Bailiff, a ſcandalous Fellow, of very ill Reputation, and a great Lyer.

All the Leaſes, produced on either Side, appeared to be ſuch, as give a Qualification to vote within the Reſolution of the Committee; except thoſe to John Seaſon and Matthias Amiat, who the Petitioners would add to their Poll.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Honourable Willoughby Bertie Eſquire is not duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the Borough of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts.

The Second Reſolution being read a Second time;

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion being put, That the Houſe do agree with the Committee in the ſaid Reſolution, That the Honourable Willoughby Bertie Eſquire is not duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the Borough of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts;

So it was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Mr. Hampden accordingly, according to Order, reported from the ſaid Committee, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the ſaid Election, and the Reſolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Report and Reſolutions were read, and agreed unto by the Houſe; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of Edward Minſhull Eſquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Sir Thomas Styles Baronet for the Borough of Bramber, in the County of Suſſex:

That it was agreed, That Bramber is a Borough by Preſcription; and that the Right of Election is in the Perſons inhabiting in ancient Houſes, or in Houſes built on ancient Foundations, paying Scot and Lot.

That the Poll was;

For Sir Tho. Styles — — — — 17:
Mr. Minſhull — — — — 13.

That the Petitioner's Counſel objected to Seven of the Sitting-Member's Voters; and alleged, they ſhould add Four to the Petitioner's Poll.

Richard Parſons, Philip Caplin, and Thomas Potter, ſaid, John Seward Eſquire came down about an Hour or Two before the Election; and went away immediately after it: That he voted for an empty Houſe belonging to the Lord Windſor; and never was an Inhabitant at Bramber.

On the Sitting-Member's Side,

It appeared by the Rates, That Mr. Seward paid to Church and Poor for a Houſe:

And Thomas Waller ſaid, Mr. Seward has had a Burgage-houſe ſome Years, for which he has voted before; and the Widow Symonds lives in it, but as his Servant only: That Mr. Seward came down about a Week before the Election; and eat at the Witneſs's Houſe; but he could not ſay where he lay.

That it appeared by the Evidence of

Thomas Potter, Richard Parſons, and Philip Caplin, That Mr. John Thompſon is the Lord Windſor's Steward; he now voted for a Houſe where the Widow Symonds lives: In former Elections, he voted ſometimes for one Houſe, and ſometimes for another: He never came down but againſt an Election; and never was an Inhabitant:

That, on the Sitting-Member's Side, it appeared by the Rates, That Mr. Thompſon is rated; and it was proved, he paid to Church and Poor for a Houſe: And

Thomas Waller ſaid, That Mr. Thompſon has voted for a Houſe in the Borough at Two or Three Elections: It goes in his Name; but the Witneſs could not ſay whether he lay in it, or not.

Philip Caplin and Thomas Potter ſaid, That Stephen Ruſſell was no Inhabitant: He voted for an empty Houſe; and that he came about an Hour or Two before the Election; and went away in a little time after it.

On the Sitting-Member's Side,

Thomas Waller ſaid, That Stephen Ruſſell has a Houſe in the Town, for which he pays Scot and Lot; and that he has voted before for the ſame Houſe:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, Mr. Ruſſell came ſome Days before the Election; and had lived in the Houſe more than Two Hours at a time: The Witneſs had ſeen him there; but could not ſay the Day when; and that a Widow keeps the Houſe for him, only as his Servant.

Thomas Potter ſaid, That Richard Chipper is no Inhabitant; has no Houſe in the Borough; is a yearly Servant to a Farmer who lives Six Miles off; and voted for the Widow Norris's Houſe:

Being croſs-examined, the Witneſs ſaid, Chipper voted once or twice before; and was then a yearly Servant to one who lived within the Pariſh, but out of the Borough:

Thomas Waller, on the Sitting-Member's Side, ſaid, That Chipper had voted in former Elections; and that he lived with the Farmer but ſometimes, when he pleaſed; and was not a yearly Servant to him:

That Chipper has been Four or Five Years an Inhabitant in the Pariſh; pays Scot and Lot; has a Houſe within the Borough, for which he voted; and lived in that Houſe at the time of the Election:

Being croſs-examined, the Witneſs ſaid, He had known Chipper live in the Borough Half a Year together: That the Widow Norris now lives in the Houſe, and keeps it for him.

Thomas Potter and Edward Bud ſaid, That John Griffith was no Inhabitant: He lived a Mile out of the Borough; came Two or Three Nights before the Election to the Widow Pelham's; and voted for her Houſe:

Mr. Thomas Pyke, on the Sitting-Member's Side, ſaid, That he lett this Houſe to John Griffith Half a Year ago; that he came into it Ten Days before the Election, and has reſided there ever ſince.

Joſeph Hogtrough and Thomas Hodges ſaid, That Evan Griffith is no Inhabitant within the Borough: He lives at a Farm which is within the Pariſh of Steyning, but a Mile out of the Borough of Bramber; and that he voted for the Widow Pelham's Houſe, where he never lived:

That, on the Sitting-Member's Side;

Thomas Waller ſaid, Evan Griffith pays to Church and Poor; and has polled ſeveral times: And

Mr. Thomas Pyke ſaid, Evan Griffith's Farm is out of the Borough; but the Houſe he lived in at the time of the Election is within the Borough; and that he has known him poll for Ten Years paſt, and never was diſputed, or objected to, by any Candidate.

Being croſs-examined, the Witneſs ſaid, The Widow Pelham would have taken this Houſe; but he had lett it before to Griffith: Upon which, ſhe went to Griffith; and he agreed to let her live in the Houſe, and take care of it for him, as his Servant, and to have nothing for her Pains.

Thomas Potter, Edward Bud, and Thomas Hodges, ſaid, That Thomas Bawcomb lives in the Borough of Steyning; is no Inhabitant in this Borough; and voted for the new End of an ancient Houſe where a Widow lives; and he never inhabited, or had any Goods, there:

That, on the other Side, it appeared by the Rates, That Bawcombe is rated; and it was proved he paid the Rates for a Houſe within the Borough: And

Mr. Pyke ſaid, He knew the Houſe where Bawcomb lives is within the Borough of Bramber, and a Burgage-houſe; and that he had voted for it at Two former Elections.

On the Petitioner's Side,

Thomas Hodges ſaid, That when theſe Perſons came to the Poll, they made a great Cry for the Church, though they do not frequent it.

To add Four to the Petitioner's Poll, who were proved to have offered their Votes for him, and were not taken;

Thomas Churcher and Mary Potter ſaid, That Nicolas Wilkins is an Inhabitant of a Houſe adjoining to Thomas Potter's, which are diſtinct Tenements, and pay ſeparate Rents, and always had Two Votes; and that the Lord Windſor, Ten Years ago, gave Churcher, who then lived in that Part where Wilkins now lives, Twenty Pounds for his Vote.

That, on the Sitting-Member's Side,

Thomas Waller ſaid, Wilkins lives in Part of the Widow Potter's Houſe: That both Parts are but One Burgage; and never had but One Vote till about Six or Seven Years ago, when it was divided between Two Tenants; and both voted ſince that time: And

Mr. Pyke ſaid, They never pretended to give Two Votes for this Tenement till May 1708: That the Lord Windſor, after he purchaſed, would never ſuffer but One; and that his Lordſhip always before thought the giving Two Votes for it was wrong.

Thomas Hodges and Thomas Potter ſaid, That the Houſe Richard Wheeler lives in is Two diſtinct Tenements, held by Two Tenants at different Rents, under Leaſes from different Lords: It was formerly Two Tenements, and both Tenants voted, till it was laid into an Inn, and held by One Tenant for ſome time; after which, it was, Twelve Years ago, divided again into Two Tenements, as it had been before; and both Tenants have ſince voted, and both have a Right to vote:

Thomas Waller, on the other Side, ſaid, He has lived in Part of this Tenement 16 Years: That the Houſe is held from one Lord, and the Stable from another: That the Stable-Tenant had, indeed, ſometimes offered his Vote; but it was never taken; and no more than One Vote was ever allowed, and that was for the Houſe: That the Houſe pays Half a Crown a Year Rent to the Duke of Norfolk; and the Stable Five Shillings and Five Pence a Year to Magdalen-College.

Richard Wheeler ſaid, That Thomas Churcher's Houſe is a new-built Houſe upon an old Foundation: The Witneſs, about Six or Seven Years ago, cleared the Foundation of it, and found Morter and Stones in the old Foundation:

Mr. Pyke, on the other Side, ſaid, Churcher's Houſe is not an old Burgage; but a Cottage built Five Years ago: That a ſmall Part of it ſtands within the Church-yard, and the reſt upon the Waſte of the Manor; and that he had a Leaſe of it for Ninety-nine Years, at Half a Crown a Year Rent.

George Yeomans ſaid, That Richard Parſons was an Inhabitant within the Borough at the Time of the Election, and for above a Year and half before; but could not ſay whether his Houſe had a Vote:

That, on the other Side, it appeared by the Evidence of

Mr. Waller and Mr. Pyke, That Parſons had been, Three Years ago, turned out of Poſſeſſion by Ejectment; and, after the Writs were out, he broke into the Houſe again, and pretended to vote for it under ſuch forcible Entry; and that, before the Election, Application had been made to a neighbouring Juſtice to remove the Force.

That, on the Head of ill Practices, the Petitioner's Counſel called,

Mary Potter: Who ſaid, The Petitioner, and the Gentleman who ſtood with him, deſired the Conſtable to make a fair Poll, and to poll all that came; and that Mr. Pyke bid the Conſtable mind his Buſineſs, and not be bubbled out of the Election by them.

John Hunt ſaid, That, about a Fortnight before the Hearing of this Petition, Thomas Bawcomb had been with him ſeveral times; and told him, The Lord Windſor would be kind to him, and would order him Twenty Pounds, if he could prove Bribery againſt the Petitioner:

Being croſs-examined, the Witneſs ſaid, He knew of no ſuch Bribery; but did not tell Bawcomb ſo.

The Counſel for the Sitting-Member obſerved upon the Poll, That he had the greateſt Number, and the Petitioner the leaſt, of all the Four Candidates; ſo that there was an intervening Majority for the other Sitting-Member; and, while that Majority ſtood allowed againſt the Petitioner, they inſiſted, he could not queſtion the Superiority for Sir Thomas Styles: And they objected to Six of the Petitioner's Voters; againſt whom they produced the following Evidence:

Dat. 28 September 1703, A Leaſe of a Tenement to Edward Benton ſenior, and Anne his Wife, for Ninety-and-nine Years, determinable on their Lives, was produced, and proved: And

Thomas Pyke ſaid, That Benton is dead; his Widow lives in this Houſe; and that Henry Heaver, who voted, lives with her:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, He believed Heaver did not rent the Houſe of her; but ſaid, He had voted before.

George Laſhmer, on the Petitioner's Side, ſaid, That Heaver has been Three Years an Inhabitant in a Borough-Houſe, which had always a Vote.

Thomas Waller ſaid, That James Bennet is a yearly Servant within the Pariſh, but out of the Borough; and is no otherwiſe an Inhabitant; and that he never lived in any Burgage-Tenement within the Borough:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, Bennet was rated to the Poor:

George Laſhmer, on the Petitioner's Side, ſaid, Bennet is an Inhabitant in one of their Houſes, for which a former Tenant had voted for the Lord Windſor; and that his Lordſhip aſſerted it to be as good a Vote as any.

Thomas Waller ſaid, That Stephen Green is not rated; and that he is Shepherd to one who lives out of the Borough:

Geo. Laſhmer, on the Petitioner's Side, ſaid, Green is an Inhabitant, was put in by the Lord Windſor, to ſerve him; and that his Lordſhip aſſerted, His Vote was good.

Evan Griffith ſaid, That John Hunt lives with his Father; and is not rated.

Thomas Waller ſaid, That Joſeph Hogtrough is rated; but has not paid to Church and Poor theſe Two Years: And

That Thomas Potter, about a Year ago, received Relief when he was under an Execution; but afterwards returned the Money; and now he is rated and pays to Church and Poor.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to theſe Reſolutions:

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir Thomas Styles Baronet is not duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the Borough of Bramber, in the County of Suſſex.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Edward Minſhull Eſquire is duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the ſaid Borough of Bramber.

The Firſt Reſolution being read a Second time;

And a Motion being made, and the Queſtion being put, That the Houſe do agree with the Committee in the ſaid Reſolution, That Sir Thomas Styles Baronet is not duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the Borough of Bramber, in the County of Suſſex;

The Houſe divided.

PRAYERS.

A Petition of the poor inſolvent Debtors now in Cuſtody in the County-Gaol at Maidſtone, in the County of Kent, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the Petitioners humbly beſeech your Honours, in this our miſerable Condition, to have ſome Pity and Compaſſion on us, being utterly condemned to perpetual Impriſonment, without your Mercy; that we muſt certainly periſh for Want, if not ſpeedily relieved: And praying your moſt gracious Act for our Diſcharges.

A Petition of more than Sixty poor Priſoners for Debt and Damages in his Majeſty's Gaol for the County of Bedford, as well in behalf of themſelves, as of divers others in Cuſtody in the ſaid Gaol, and other Gaols of this Kingdom, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That not only the Petitioners, but alſo many Thouſand others, whom Misfortunes have rendered inſolvent, are now detained in the ſaid Gaol, and other the Gaols of this Kingdom; to the Relief of a very great Number of whom the ſeveral late Acts for the diſcharging poor Priſoners for Debt and Damages in no-wiſe extended: That, whilſt they are in this Diſtreſs, deprived of the holy Ordinances of God, and Service of Man, others are greatly burdened with their reſpective Families; for whom, by their Induſtry, they might make a competent Proviſion, were they freed from this miſerable Confinement; which though it can no-ways avail their Creditors by reaſon of their utter Inability to anſwer their Demands: And praying your Honours Conſideration, and ſuch Relief therein, as to your great Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition do lie upon the Table.

The Clerk of the Crown attended, and, according to Order, amended the Returns for the Boroughs of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts; and Bramber, in the County of Suſſex.

Mr. Hampden, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex, and the Reſolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Report, and Reſolutions, were read; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of the Honourable Arthur Ingram, and Arthur Ingram, Eſquires, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Sir Harry Goring Baronet, and Charles Eversfeild Eſquire, for the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex:

That it was agreed, That Horſham is a Borough by Preſcription; and that only Burgage-Tenants in Fee, or for Life, have a Right of voting:

But the Sitting-Members Counſel inſiſted, It was eſſentially neceſſary they ſhould be preſented by the Homage-Jury: Which was denied by the Petitioners Counſel.

Jo. Wicker ſenior, Eſquire, ſaid, He was Bailiff 35 Years ago: That all Burgage-Tenants had a Right to be of the Homage; and none were ever refuſed till within theſe Six or Seven Years, during which time, one of the Sitting-Members has been Foreman of the Jury (who preſent), and the other has been Steward of the Borough (who admits), the Burgage-Tenants; and they have altered the ancient Uſage of preſenting and admitting all Burgage-Tenants, and taken ſuch as would be for them, though they had no Right, and refuſed others who were againſt them, though they had a Right:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, That, at all Elections, the Voters were called over by the Burgage-Roll, and none others were, or could be, polled; becauſe, till of late Years, none who had a Right were ever refuſed to be preſented by the Homage:

But he conceived all Burgage-Tenants in Fee, or for Life, had a Right of voting, whether admitted by the Steward, or not; and gave an Inſtance of a Perſon allowed to vote in the laſt Election but one, who had been refuſed by the Homage: And ſaid, The Two Bailiffs of the Borough are appointed by the Steward, out of Four Perſons nominated by the Homage.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel called,

Mr. Thomas Pyke, Mr. Nat. Sturt, Thomas White Eſquire, Nat. Tredcroft Eſquire, and Mr. John Warden: Who ſpoke for 25 and 30 Years, and upwards; and ſaid, That only Burgage-Tenants in Fee, or for Life, had a Right to vote; and that it had always been uſual, juſt before Elections, to ſummon all Burgage-Tenants to a Court-Baron, where the Homage preſent all new Titles; and they never knew any refuſed to be of the Homage who had a Right, except in ſome few Inſtances of late, when a great Number have appeared: That, at all Elections, the Voters were called over by the Burgage-Roll; and none others ever voted, or pretended to vote, except in a ſingle Inſtance or Two, to the contrary:

They thought a Preſentment by the Homage was neceſſary, and, without it, a Perſon had no Right to vote; but they never knew this Point conteſted: They gave Inſtances of Candidates at ſeveral Elections, who were of this Opinion; and that this was the Opinion alſo of a former Steward, who was an ancient Man.

That the Committee came to this Reſolution;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Right of Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex, is in all ſuch Perſons as have an Eſtate of Inheritance, or for Life, in Burgage-Houſes, or Burgage-Lands, lying within the ſaid Borough:

That the Poll was;

For Sir Harry Goring Baronet — —	33:
Mr. Eversfeild — — — —	36:
The Honourable Arthur Ingram —	33:
Arthur Ingram — — — —	28.

That the Petitioners Counſel inſiſted, That the Number for the Honourable Mr. Ingram being equal with Sir Harry Goring, he had an equal Right to be returned, and took notice of the not returning him as an Inſtance of Partiality in the Bailiffs:

They objected againſt Nine of the Sitting-Members Voters; and alleged, they ſhould add 15 to the Petitioners Poll;

To take Ralph Linfeild from the Sitting-Members; and add Theobald Mitchel Clerk to the Petitioners Poll:

That the Petitioners Counſel produced a Conveyance in 1697, by Leaſe and Releaſe, from Doctor Robert Coe to John Lindfeild, and his Heirs, of a Tenement, Garden, Orchard, Gates, and a Croft belonging; and afterwards, in the ſame Deed, the ſame Gates are excepted out of the Grant, and reſerved to the Grantor (Dr. Coe), and his Heirs: In 1702, Linfeild, in the ſame manner, conveyed to Harvey; and, 15th January 1714, Harvey, in the ſame manner, conveyed to Mitchell:

It was proved, That Mr. Harvey had left the Croft; that he voted in 1702, 1705, 1707, and 1708:

That Ralph Linfeild, who is objected to, was, in April 1705, preſented by the Homage to the aforeſaid Gates (being Burgage-ground), as a Purchaſor thereof from John Linfeild, who purchaſed the ſame in 1702 from Dr. Robert Coe; and the Homage apportioned Ralph Linfeild's Rent at Two Pence; the whole Rent Twelve Pence: And,

That Receipts were produced of Mr. Harvey's Payment of a Burgage-Rent of 1*s. per Annum*, for Seven Years laſt paſt, for his Borough-Houſe and Croft:

That, on the Sitting-Members Side, it was inſiſted, That the Right of voting is for theſe Gates, which was a Timber-Yard; and that they were expreſly excepted out of all the Conveyances on the Petitioners Side: And, to

juſtify Ralph Linfeild's Vote for the Sitting-Members;

They produced Conveyances in Fee of theſe Gates; viz.

From Dr. Robert Coe to John Linfeild, in 1702; and from John Linfeild to Ralph Linfeild, in 1705: And,

George Bridger ſaid, Dr. Coe voted for the Gates, after he had ſold the Houſe to John Linfeild: And,

It appeared by the Returns, That, in 1705, 1707, and 1708, Ralph Linfeild voted, as well as Mr. Harvey:

To which the Petitioners Counſel replied, That theſe Gates paſſed on their Side by Dr. Coe's Firſt Conveyance, in 1697; for that the Exception, in that Deed, of theſe Gates being ſubſequent to the Grant thereof by the ſame Deed, is a void Exception.

To take John Waller from the Sitting-Members, and add Geo. Booker for the Petitioners;

Dated 27th and 28th Jan. 1714, a Conveyance of an entire Burgage, called Pollard's Croft, from Arthur Rowland to Booker, for his Life, was produced: And,

Samuel Chambers ſaid, Waller was only Tenant to Rowland; and that Waller is in Poſſeſſion:

That the Sitting-Members Counſel objected, That this Conveyance to Booker was after the Teſte of the Writs: And they produced a prior Title in Waller, by Preſentment in 1702, as a Purchaſer for Life from Arthur Rowland, who was then upon the Homage: And,

Michael Waller and John Clarke ſaid, That Waller has voted for this Burgage 10 Years; that nobody elſe had been preſented, or voted for it; and that he had ſerved Bailiff: To which

The Petitioners Counſel objected, for want of producing a Conveyance to Waller.

To take Robert Hall junior from the Sitting-Members, and add Robert Hall ſenior for the Petitioners;

In October 1714, the Petitioners Counſel produced a Preſentment, that Henry Scut died ſeiſed in Fee; that Mary his Widow, who was intitled to her Thirds, ſurviving her Daughter Anne, the Wife of Robert Hall ſenior, the Homage were of Opinion the Premiſes ought to have deſcended to Robert junior, upon his Grandmother's Death; and that Robert ſenior ought not to hold by the Courteſy, his Wife not having been ſole ſeiſed:

Which the Petitioners Counſel denied to be Law:

Mr. Wicker ſaid, That Hall ſenior is in Poſſeſſion, and has been ſo above 30 Years; and has all along voted; and that he did not know Scutt's Widow ever was in Poſſeſſion; but had heard, That Hall ſenior did pay her ſomething of a Rent for her Thirds:

That the Sitting-Members Counſel alleged this to be an Inheritance of the Grandmother, who outlived her Daughter, the Wife of Robert Hall ſenior; and therefore he could not be Tenant by the Courteſy:

And it appeared, by Copies of the Regiſter, That Hall's Wife was buried in 1682; and her Mother in 1684.

Geo. Bridger was objected to as a ſplit Vote, made under Sturt:

To which it was anſwered, That the Diviſion was before the Statute:

Mr. Wicker, on the Petitioners Side, ſaid, Bridger deſired Sturt to make him a Vote, only to ſave him from being Conſtable; and promiſed to re-convey; and believed Bridger paid nothing:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, Bridger had voted, and had been Bailiff of the Town.

To take John Reynolds from the Sitting-Members, and add Arthur Ingram Eſquire to the Petitioners Poll, Reynolds was objected to, as voting by a Title from his Maſter Mr. Eversfeild, who had only a Mortgage from John Hargrave, deceaſed, dated 11th and 12th January 1714;

The Petitioners Counſel produced an abſolute Conveyance in Fee, by Leaſe and Releaſe, from the Heir of Hargrave, to the Petitioner Arthur Ingram, of Berriby, Eſquire: And,

It was proved, That, upon this Conveyance, Mr. Ingram had offered to pay off Mr. Eversfield, who had given a Note under his Hand to re-convey, upon Payment of Principal and Intereſt, in Six Months:

It was alſo proved, That old Hargrave was upon the Homage in October laſt; to which he had no other Title, but this Eſtate; and from thence the Petitioners Counſel inferred, That Mr. Eversfeild had not Poſſeſſion; and conſequently could not make a Vote:

That the Sitting-Members Counſel produced an abſolute Conveyance from Mr. Eversfeild to Reynolds for his Life, dated 24th January laſt: But the Witneſs to the Deed ſaid, He did not ſee any Money paid.

To take Richard Vincent from the Sitting-Members, and add John Aylward, by prior Title, to the Petitioners, Poll;

The Petitioners Counſel produced a Preſentment by the Homage of John Aylward, by Purchaſe from Nathanael Sturt, and his Wife, in 1702:

That it appeared, by the Returns, That Aylward voted in 1702, 1705, 1707, and 1708.

John Hall ſaid, That Vincent is One of the Bailiffs; and that he voted for this Burgage in the laſt Election but One:

That the Sitting-Members Counſel objected to Aylward for want of his Title-Deeds: They alleged, He had not voted ſince 1708;

And produced a Preſentment of Vincent, as a Purchaſer, in 1713, from John Bridger, who purchaſed from Nathanael Sturt; taking notice, That the Deeds, formerly made to Aylward by Sturt, had been delivered up:

The Conveyance from Bridger to Vincent was produced: And,

Geo. Arnold ſaid, That Sturt's making the former Title to Aylward was only to give him a Vote; and that Security was taken for delivering up that Title; which was accordingly done, upon the giving back that Security.

Joſeph Lee was objected to, as having no Title: The Tenant ſaid, He paid his Rent to Mr. King:

The Sitting-Members Counſel produced a Conveyance in 1712, from King to Lee, for King's Life; and a Preſentment of King thereupon.

John Middleton Eſquire was objected to, as a ſplit Vote: His Title appeared to be Part of a Houſe purchaſed in 1710:

John Parſons, the Tenant in Poſſeſſion, ſaid, The former Owner of this Part of the Houſe never voted.

John Warden was objected to for Bribery:

It was proved he was preſſed for an old Debt of 50 l.; and that the Sitting-Members gave their Bond for it in January laſt:

On the Sitting-Members Side, it was alleged, That Warden owed them a greater Sum, for the ſake of which they advanced this; and thereupon took a Security for the whole Debt: And,

A Copy of a Judgment was produced, confeſſed by Warden to the Sitting-Members in Hilary Term laſt, defeaſanced on Payment of 330 l. lent, with Intereſt.

To add William Paſh to the Petitioners Poll;

A Conveyance to him was produced, dated 5° and 6° Januarii laſt:

Which the Sitting-Members Counſel objected to, as executed after the Teſte of the Writs.

To add Arthur Rowland ſenior to the Petitioners Poll;

A Preſentment by the Homage, in 1699, of him, as a Purchaſer in Fee, was produced; and he was proved to be in Poſſeſſion of Six whole Burgeſſes; and Mr. Everſfeild, in November laſt, made him very conſiderable Offers for their Votes:

The Sitting-Members Counſel objected, for want of producing a Conveyance to Rowland.

To add Thomas Shepherd to the Petitioners Poll;

Richard Curtis ſaid, Shepherd's Father and Grandfather had formerly a Plot of Land; but he could not ſay, they, or any one elſe, had voted for it:

A Rent-Roll in 1674 was produced; wherein Shepherd's Grandfather's Name is inſerted among the Burgage-Tenants:

On the Sitting-Members Side,

Geo. Bridger ſaid, He knew Shepherd's Father had a Burgage-houſe, for which he voted; and had no other Burgage; and that Mr. Wicker junior now voted for it, as his Houſe.

To add Richard Curtis junior to the Petitioners Poll;

Dat. in Auguſt 1713, a Conveyance of the Geo. Mead from Mr. Yates to Curtis, for his Life, was produced; and it appeared, That Yates was admitted to ſeveral Burgages, Two of which are called The George:

Richard Luckin ſaid, He had paid Rent to Curtis for the George Mead within a Year paſt:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, That he had known this Mead 50 Years; and never heard, that any one had voted for it; but believed it to be Burgage-Tenure:

The Sitting-Members Counſel objected, No Proof was made of any Money paid by Curtis; and the Witneſs to his Conveyance ſaid, He did not remember any paid.

To add John Napper to the Petitioners Poll;

A Conveyance from Sarah Somerſet, in November laſt, to him for his Life, if ſhe ſo long lived, was produced; a former Conveyance in 1713, from her to him, for his own Life abſolutely, was alſo produced: And

John Hall ſaid, The Homage rejected that former Conveyance, becauſe not limited to the Life of Sarah:

That the Sitting-Members Counſel inſiſted, She had diveſted herſelf by the Firſt Conveyance, which was nought; and that nothing paſſed by the Second.

To add Five others to the Petitioners Poll; viz. Thomas Huſſey, Edward Stanford, Thomas Swayne, John Hall, and Thomas Pope; who claimed by Titles from Richard Lintot;

The Petitioners Counſel produced a Copy of a Survey of the Manor, taken in the Year 1650; whereby John Lintot's Holding is found to be Five Burgages and a Half: And,

In 1683, a Preſentment of Richard Lintot, as Heir of his Father John, to Three Meſſuages, and certain Lands, called Goals' Lands; Rent 5.6: And,

Dat. 11th and 12th Auguſt 1713, the ſeveral Conveyances for Life, by Leaſe and Releaſe from Richard Lintot, under which theſe Voters claimed:

The Sitting-Members Counſel obſerved, That all theſe Conveyances were made the ſame Day; and objected to them as ſplit Votes, and fraudulent; and called,

Robert Lord, Edward Tupp, and Mr. John Wicker junior: Who ſaid, They are Tenants to Mr. Lintot of ſeveral Parts of theſe Lands; and do conſtantly pay their Rents to him:

It was proved, That all the Perſons, who the Petitioners would add to their Poll, had been rejected by the Homage; and had tendered their Votes for the Petitioners.

On the Head of ill Practices, the Petitioners Counſel called,

Geo. Booker: Who ſaid, That Mr. Richard Vincent, One of the Bailiffs, had declared, They would return the Sitting-Members, though the Petitioners ſhould have a Majority.

It was proved, That Mr. John Linfeild, an Agent for the Sitting-Members, the Night before the Election, took John Burſtow in Execution, upon a dormant Judgment of 11° Annæ; and that, upon the Election-Day, he had cauſed Mr. Wicker ſenior to be arreſted in ſeveral Actions, and held him to Bail: And,

Mr. Rowland, the Plaintiff in One of thoſe Actions, denied any Privity to the Arreſt of Mr. Wicker in his Name:

John Pilfold ſaid, Sir Harry Goring ſollicited his Brother's Vote; and, when he found he could not depend upon it, they were ſerved with a Declaration in Ejectment upon the Demiſe of Sir Harry, to turn them out of their Shop:

Being croſs-examined, he ſaid, He paid but 12 l. a Year Rent; that his Landlord had told him, Sir Harry Goring would give 15 l.; and offered it the Witneſs at that Rent; which he declining, his Landlord acquainted him ſome time after, That he had lett the Shop to Sir Harry for 21 Years, at 15 l. Rent: He owned the Shop had no Vote; and that he had not been turned out: Proceedings are ſtaid, by Agreement, till Lady-day 1716; and the Matter is in a Way of Accommodation.

In relation to the Complaint of taking Burſtow in Execution, and arreſting Mr. Wicker;

It was proved, Burſtow was preſently diſcharged out of Cuſtody; and that former Proceſs had been ſeveral times taken out againſt Mr. Wicker, by ſome of the ſame Plaintiffs, and others; and that he was not then to be met with: It was alſo proved, That Mr. Linfeild had Directions from the Plaintiffs, for whom he was concerned; and that other Perſons were concerned in the other Cauſes:

The Petitioners Counſel admitted the Debts, for which Mr. Wicker was arreſted, were juſt; but complained of the Arreſts, for being at the time of Election; though it appeared, That neither Wicker, nor Burſtow, were deprived of voting:

John Day, the Bailiff who arreſted them, ſaid, He was ſent down by Mr. Orlton, with Orders to follow Mr. Linfeild's Directions, which he did accordingly; and, purſuant to ſuch Directions, he took Burſtow on the Friday Night before the Election; and could have then alſo taken Mr. Wicker; but Linfeild bid him not take him then: On the Election-Day, Linfeild directed him to take Wicker; and he did ſo.

That the Sitting-Members Counſel objected to 17 of the Petitioners Voters; and alleged they ſhould add Four to their own Poll:

They alleged, That the Honourable Henry Ingram Eſquire had not a good Title; for that he claimed under Richard Eade, deceaſed, whoſe Eſtate deſcended to his Two Daughters:

They produced a Preſentment in October laſt of Mr. Ingram, by Conveyance from Sarah, the Widow of Richard Eade, to whom he had deviſed his Burgage to be ſold; and objected, That, if the Will was produced, which they had required, it would appear, the Daughters had the Right:

They objected againſt Richard Lintot, That he had divided his Burgages into ſplit Votes, and, having no diſtinct Burgage left, had no Vote for himſelf:

William Briggs was objected to, as voting for The George; for which Curtis ſenior alſo voted:

It appeared, That The George was Two Burgages, and was ſeparated in 1702, and the Rent apportioned.

Samuel Caffin, Henry Howes, and Richard Pilfold, were objected to, as voting under a Truſt; but none appeared:

It was proved, That Richard Pilfold, and John Burſtow, had confeſſed Promiſes, from the Lord Irwin, of Places for their Votes: And Burſtow ſaid, His Lordſhip had paid 50 l. for him.

Abraham Newnham's Title appeared to be a Moiety of a Burgage, to which he was admitted in 1680, and the Rent was then apportioned.

Michah Waller ſaid, That Benjamin Borer voted for Part of an Orchard, to which he had no Title: The Witneſs has been in Poſſeſſion 12 Years; and he and the former Owner have voted.

It was proved, That John Gratwick junior had only a colourable Title to vote; and was under a Bond to reconvey upon Requeſt; and that he voted for Mr. Everſfeild, and the Honourable Mr. Ingram.

William Griffith ſaid, He heard John Smith declare, above a Year ago, That the Lord Irwin gave him a Quartermaſter's Place; but did not ſay upon what Conſideration it was given.

Robert Hedger was objected to, on account of the Uncertainty of his Burgage:

In 1702, the Homage Preſentment of him is, as Heir of his Father to a certain Burgage-Tenure, which they cannot deſcribe.

Wm.

Wm. Kempſter ſaid, Joſhua Guilford voted for Part of Catharine Lotter's Houſe.

Richard Sayres was objected to, as voting for Mr. Goodyer's Houſe:

It was proved by the Tenants, That they pay their Rent conſtantly to Goodyer: And,

Mr. Goodyer ſaid, He has Security from Sayres to reconvey; and that he made him only a colourable Title to vote, upon the Two Mr. Wicker's Sollicitation; and promiſed, That he ſhould have 30 l. for it.

John Wicker junior, Eſquire, was objected to, as claiming under Shepherd's Widow; whereas ſhe had no Title: And,

It appeared, That, in 1699, Thomas Sheppard was preſented by the Homage to a Burgage, as Heir to his Father:

Nat. Sturt and Sam. Blunt averred, That the Houſe, for which John Wicker ſenior, Eſquire, voted, was ſettled on his Son, upon his Marriage, Three Years ago; and that the Son is in Poſſeſſion.

To add Four to the Sitting-Members Poll; viz. Philip Lutman, John Tingler, Thomas Bryan, and John Blake; who were proved to have tendered their Votes, and were refuſed; becauſe not admitted by the Homage;

Their Title-Deeds were produced; viz.

Lutman's in Fee, dated 19th and 20th January laſt;

Tinger's for Life, dat. 26th January laſt;

Bryan's, for Life of a Third Perſon, dated 15° Aug. 1713: And,

Blakes's in Fee, dat. 10° and 11° Ap. 1713.

On the Head of Bribery, and ill Practices;

It was proved, That Mr Thomas Harvey confeſſed he had ſold his Houſe to the Lord Irwin for 350 l.; very nigh Three times as much as it coſt him.

Henry Longhurſt and Richard Luxford mentioned Offers to them by Mr. Wickers ſenior, and Lord Irwin, to vote for the Petitioners; but they voted for the Sitting-Members.

That then the Sitting-Members Counſel objected to the Qualification given in by the Petitioner Arthur Ingram, of Hills, Eſquire, amounting to 371 l. 4 s. per Annum; and charged to be 330 l. per Annum above Reprizes and Incumbrances:

One Part thereof is the Palace of York, leaſed to the Petitioner from that See, for his own and Two other Lives, and mentioned, in the Particular, to be lett out in ſeveral Tenements at 115 l. 1 s. per Annum; excepting an Apartment, Long Gallery, Garden, and Appurtenances in hand: Which being charged at 20 l. per Annum;

The Sitting-Members Counſel objected to that particular Article, as an Overcharge; and urged, That the Rent reſerved to the See of York ought alſo to be conſidered, by way of Deduction:

The reſt of the Qualification is an Eſtate for Life, conveyed from the other Petitioner by Leaſe and Releaſe, dat. 23° and 24° December laſt, for 2,000 l.:

That the Sitting-Members Counſel objected to this Part of the Qualification, for want of actual Payment of the Conſideration-money: And they called,

Mr. John Hand, a Witneſs to the Conveyance: Who ſaid, That no Part of the Conſideration-money was paid; but a Bond given for the Whole, payable in Six Months, as he remembred the Time.

That the Petitioners Counſel, on their Reply, obſerved, That no Part of the Qualification had been falſified; and that it was of ſufficient Value, above the 20 l. per Annum in hand:

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to theſe Reſolutions:

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir Harry Goring Baronet is not duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Charles Eversfeild Eſquire is not duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the ſaid Borough of Horſham.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Honourable Arthur Ingram Eſquire is duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the ſaid Borough of Horſham.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Arthur Ingram Eſquire is duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the ſaid Borough of Horſham.

The Firſt of the ſaid Reſolutions being read a Second time;

Reſolved, That this Houſe doth agree with the Committee in the ſaid Reſolution, That the Right of Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex, is in all ſuch Perſons as have an Eſtate of Inheritance, or for Life, in Burgage-houſes, or Burgage-lands, lying within the ſaid Borough.

The ..... ſaid Reſolutions, being ſeverally read a Second time, were, upon the Queſtion ſeverally put thereupon, agreed unto by the Houſe.

Ordered, That the Clerk of the Crown do attend this Houſe To-morrow Morning, to amend the Return for the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex, by raſing out the Names of Sir Harry Goring Baronet, and Charles Eversfeild Eſquire, and inſerting the Names of the Honourable Arthur. Ingram and Arthur Ingram Eſquires, inſtead thereof.

Reſolved, That John Linfeild, Attorney at Law, has been guilty of divers illegal and unjuſtifiable Practices, in relation to the late Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex.

Ordered, That the ſaid John Linfeild be, for his ſaid Offence, taken into Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe.

Mr. Hampden, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Aldborough, in the County of Suffolk, and the Reſolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Report and Reſolutions were read; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of John Moleſworth and John Holt Eſquires, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Sir Henry Johnſon Knight, and William Johnſon Eſquire, for the Borough of Aldborough, in the County of Suffolk:

That the Petitioners Counſel alleged, This is a Borough by Preſcription; and that the Right of Election is in the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes reſident in the Borough:

That the Sitting-Members Counſel alleged it to be a Corporation by Preſcription; and that the Right of Election is in the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Freemen at large:

That a Charter of Edward the Sixth was produced, reciting this to be a Borough; and from thenceforth incorporating the ſame, and the Inhabitants in the ſaid Borough, by Name of Bailiffs and Burgeſſes; with Power to make Ordinances for Government of the ſaid Borough, and any of the King's Subjects wholly reſident, or not wholly reſident, there; the Preamble of which Charter mentions it to be granted ob ſingularem amorem Regis erga tenentes et inhabitantes burgi:

4 Jac. I. a Charter of Incorporation, de novo, by the Name of Bailiffs and Burgeſſes; creating and conſtituting primos et modernos ballivos, et primos et modernos capitales burgenſes, with farther Privileges:

In 1661, a Return by Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, under the common Seal:

In

In 1669, a Return by One Bailiff and Five Burgeſſes, under their Hands and Seals:

Sarah Hills ſaid, She was at the Election in 1661; and that none but Inhabitants then voted; but that ſhe was not in the Town-hall during the whole Election: That ſhe knew all the Perſons, who ſigned the Return in 1669, were Inhabitants: That ſhe had been at ſeveral Elections ſince, where none but Inhabitants voted; and that formerly no others claimed to vote:

Roſe Becket, being called, ſaid, She knew nothing of Elections; but had been threatened and abuſed by one Oſborne:

Thomas Richas ſaid, That none but Inhabitant-Burgeſſes voted in 1669, when there was but One Candidate: That the Town-Burgeſſes have Privileges in the Town-Marſhes, which the Out-Burgeſſes have not:

John Poſtle ſaid, The Out-Burgeſſes do not do watch and ward.

That, on the Sitting-Members Side,

Wm. Robinſon ſaid, He had known the Borough 50 Years: In all his Time, the Freemen at large voted; and he never knew any Out-Burgeſſes refuſed: Himſelf lived out of Town 20 Years, and voted in all Elections in that time: The Out-Burgeſſes ſerve Town-Offices, and are annually called over by Roll, as well as the reſident Freemen, upon Election of Bailiffs and chief Burgeſſes: and are fined for Non-appearance:

He named Four Out-Burgeſſes, who, he ſaid, voted in 1669; viz. Newport, Gaffard, Shepherd, and Porter.

Thomas Wills, Edward Wall, and John Dawſon, ſpoke to 67, 55, and 18 Years; in which time, they ſaid, Out-Burgeſſes had always voted without Refuſal; and that they are annually called over upon the Election of Bailiffs and chief Burgeſſes; and had been ſometimes elected into the Offices of Conſtable, Chamberlain, Aldermen, and Bailiffs.

That it appeared by the Journals of the Houſe,

That 1° Dec. 1691, Mr. Johnſon, who was choſe by the Freemen at large, was determined by the Committee, and by the Houſe alſo, to be duly elected: And,

23° Dec. 1709, it was reſolved by the Committee, and agreed to by the Houſe, Nemine contradicente, That the Right of Election is in the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Freemen not receiving Alms.

The Petitioners Counſel alleged, on their Reply, That, in thoſe Conteſts, there was but very little, or no, Evidence to be had againſt the Members who were then returned.

And that the Committee came to the following Reſolutions;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Right of Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the Borough of Aldborough, in the County of Suffolk, is not in the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Freemen, of the ſaid Borough, not receiving Alms.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Right of Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the Borough of Aldborough, in the County of Suffolk, is in the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes reſident within the ſaid Borough, and not receiving Alms.

That the Poll was,

For the Sitting-Members — — — 46:
the Petitioners — — — — 35.

It was proved, That 19 of the Sitting-Members Voters were not reſident; and another received Alms:

That the Names of the 19 Perſons, who voted for the Sitting-Members, and were objected to by the Petitioners Counſel, on the Account of Non-reſidence, are; viz. Sir Henry Johnſon, William Johnſon Eſquire, John Johnſon and Alexander Bence Eſquires, Wm. Howell, Edward Lark, Kavet Gray, Geo. Lyle, Nic. Baldrey, Thomas Meadows, Richard Laſhley, Chriſtopher Staffe, Edward Flower, John Wall, Jonathan Norris, Wm. Sparkes, Wm. Betts, Iſhmael Lincoln, and Alexander Oſborne.

Upon which, the Counſel for the Sitting-Members withdrew: And,

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the River Weaver navigable from Frodſham Bridge to Northwych, in the County of Cheſter, is committed.

Reſolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants, of the County of Bedford, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That a great Number of the Petitioners have ſuffered by Horſe-ſtealers; but, if

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, to whom the Bill for the more effectual preventing and puniſhing the Stealing, or unlawful Killing, of Cattle, is committed.

The Houſe being moved, That the Account of what Propoſals have been made, in relation to the Coinage of Farthings and Halfpence, which was ordered to lie upon the Table, might be read:

It was read accordingly; and is as follows; viz.

AN Account of what Propoſals have been made, in relation to the Coinage of Farthings and Halfpence, and what has been done thereupon, from the Beginning of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Ann, to the Date hereof; that is to ſay,

Anno 1703, Abel Slaney, Citizen and Woollen-draper, of London, as principal Undertaker for the coining Halfpence and Farthings . . the Reign of their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary; alleging, That he was a very great Sufferer in the Changing of Tin Halfpence and Farthings for Copper, by Tale; propoſed to coin 700 Tons of Copper Halfpence and Farthings in Seven Years, of equal Value, Weight, and Fineneſs, of the laſt Halfpence and Farthings, to be melted, rolled, cut, and ſtamped, at her late Majeſty's Mint in the Tower, ſubject to a Comptroller to be appointed by her ſaid late Majeſty, and at the Undertaker's Expence:

In Conſideration of ſuch Grant, the ſaid Slaney, for himſelf and Partners, propoſed to give her late Majeſty a Fine of 5,000 l. and a Rent of 1,000 l. per Annum, by Half-yearly Payments; and to be under ſuch Reſtrictions and Regulations as her ſaid late Majeſty ſhould think reaſonable:

Thomas Renda Eſquire, Edward Ambroſe, and Daniel Barton, who were before Partners with the ſaid Slaney in coining the former Halfpence and Farthings, underſtanding that the ſaid Slaney deſigned to intitle a new Set of Partners to the Merit of another's Patent, upon the Terms by him propoſed, did petition, That, if her Majeſty thought fit to grant a new Patent for making Copper Halfpence and Farthings, Strangers might not reap the Benefit of the Expences they had been at in performing the former Patent, which, they pretended, was done to their Loſs; but that they might have ſome new Patent, paying for the ſame what was propoſed by others.

Anno $170\frac{4}{5}$, William Shepard, N. Shepard, and George Freeman, did, in March $170\frac{4}{5}$, petition to have a Patent to impower them to coin Forty or Fifty Tons every Year, for Eight or Ten Years; obliging themſelves to make them of Engliſh Copper, of equal Weight and Fineneſs with thoſe then current.

The Fellow-moneyers being poor and needy, and having no Work in the Mint, did, about the ſame time, petition to the ſame Effect, That, out of the Profits of ſuch Coinage, they might ſuſtain themſelves until the Mint was ſet to Work about Gold and Silver Monies.

Soon after the Union, Sir Talbot Clerke and Partners did repreſent, That having, in the Year 1686, obtained Letters-Patents for 14 Years, to put in Practice a new Invention of Furnaces for melting and refining Metals out of Ores; and that, by their Care and Expence, great Advantage had accrued to the Nation; but that, by reaſon of great Difficulties they met with in the Management, and the Time being expired, they had not made the hoped Advantage; they, therefore, did petition, That, in ſome Recompence for their Charges and Expences, they might ſend in Two Tons of Copper Blanks per Week into the Mint, until they had diſpoſed of 700d Tons:

Mr. Chambers, hearing of this Propoſal of Sir Talbot Clerke, repreſented, That he, and divers other Perſons, had purchaſed, at a very dear Rate, of the ſaid Sir Talbot Clerk, and others concerned with him, their Intereſt in the ſaid Patent; and were afterwards incorporated by their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, under the Name of the Governors and Company of Copper-Mines in England; and that, having very much improved the Copper-works, and, at the Charge of above 20,000 l. having obtained the Knowlege of making Copper fine; and having greater Stock in his Hands than could be diſpoſed of; did propoſe to ſend 100 Tons of Copper into the Mint, at the Rate of Twelve Pence per Pound, to be there coined into Halfpence and Farthings, at ſuch Value as ſhould be directed; ſo that the Charges of coining the ſame, and other Incidents, might be borne out of the Surplus; and that he might have Twelve Pence per Pound, to be paid him as faſt as the Copper-money ſhould be diſpoſed of.

Anno 1708, William Morgan Gentleman, and others, did petition for a Grant for the coining 1,000d Tons of Engliſh Copper; one Half into Halfpence, and the other Half into Farthings and Half-farthings; within the Term of Seven Years, to be of Weight and Fineneſs according to a Standard to be agreed to; which Standard was to be at leaſt 20 l. per Cent. finer and better Copper than the 700 Tons formerly coined; and was to be melted, aſſayed, rolled, and cut and ſtamped, at the Mint in the Tower; ſubject to a Comptroller to be appointed by her late Majeſty, and at the Expence of the Undertaker:

By this Propoſal, all the Copper Halfpence and Farthings formerly coined were to be taken and exchanged by the Propoſer, in Tale, for thoſe of the new Stamp, and ſo melted down.

1710, Mr. William Palmes did petition, That, towards a Recompence for the Loſſes he had ſuſtained, he might have a Patent for the Coining of 700d Tons of Copper in 14 Years; ſubject to ſuch Agreement, Limitations, and Covenants, as were made in the Patent granted for the coining the former 700 Tons.

The ſeveral Reports, which were made by the Officers of the Mint, upon the aforegoing Petitions and Propoſals, were to the Effect following; viz.

That, ſince the Year 1672, in the Reign of King Charles the Second, and in the Beginning of the Reign of their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, all the Coinages of Farthings and Halfpence, before the laſt Contract, were performed by Commiſſioners, who had Money impreſted from the Exchequer to buy Copper and Tin; and coined the ſame, at moſt, into 20 d. per Pound Weight Avoirdupoiſe, the Copper being Swediſh; and accounted, upon Oath, to the Government for the Charges and Produce thereof by Tale:

That, upon Complaints made againſt the Tin Halfpence and Farthings, Sir Joſeph Hern, and others, contracted to change the ſame; and, to enable them to bear that Charge, were allowed, by Patent, to coin 700d Tons of Engliſh Copper into Halfpence and Farthings at 21 d. per Pound Weight; with a Remedy of an Halfpeny, without being accountable to the Government for the Tale; which Engliſh Copper was cheaper than the Swediſh: And, the Reaſon of this Allowance being ceaſed, the ſaid Patent ought not to be drawn into Precedent for coining the Money ſo much lighter than the intrinſick Value, and without Account; eſpecially ſince the Money coined thereby were lighter, and of worſe Copper, than by Agreement, and badly coined:

That it was beſt to coin the Copper-money as near as could be to the intrinſick Value, including the Charges of Coinage, ſet Allowances, and Incidents, and reckoning the Copper at what it would ſell for, if the new Money ſhould be melted down again; for which Reaſon, it ought to be free from ſuch Mixtures as would diminiſh the Market-price; and that, whatever Profit ſhould ariſe by the Coinage, the Crown might have it in its Power to gratify whom it pleaſe therewith; and therefore the former Method, by Commiſſioners, and upon Account, ſeemed the more ſafe, commendable, and advantageous to the Government; eſpecially if the Method uſed in the Coinage of Gold and Silver be obſerved, as nearly as conveniently can be, in the Coinage of Copper; for that thereby thereby the Coinage might come nearer to the intrinſick Value, and would be apt to be better performed, and of better Copper; and, by a ſtanding Commiſſion, any Quantity might be coined at any time, as the Uſes of the Nation ſhould, from time to time, require, for preventing Complaints; for, in the Times of the Petitions and Propoſals above-mentioned, there was at firſt no Want, and afterwards no conſiderable Want, of Copper-money; and it was thought ſafeſt to coin only what was wanted, leaſt the Coinage of too great a Quantity at once ſhould occaſion Complaints, as it did actually in Parliament in the Coinage of the Firſt 600 Tons of the preſent Copper-money.

And further, that, upon the Petition of Mr. Morgan, there was a verbal Report, That, to call in all the Copper-money then current, would be a Loſs of 70 or 80,000 l. to the Government, or above; and that 1,000d Tons would be too much, 6 or 700 Tons being found ſufficient to ſtock the Nation of England: And to an Argument of the Petitioners, That a new Coinage of weightier and better Money would cauſe the old Money to be rejected by the People, and loſe its Currency; it was anſwered, That a great Coinage, ſuppoſe of 6 or 700 Tons, might have that Effect, becauſe alone ſufficient for the Uſes of the Nation; but that a ſmall Coinage, not ſufficient for that Purpoſe, would be beſt.

Anno 171$\frac{2}{3}$, there was alſo a Petition of Mr. Charles Parry, Proprietor of the Tower Mills at Mitcham, (a) [to deliver] Blanks of fine hammered Copper at 18 d. per Pound Weight, or of fine caſt and rolled Copper at 15 d. per Pound Weight, to be coined in the Tower; or to deliver Fillets of fine hammered Copper, ready for the Roller, at 15 d. per Pound Weight, and take back the Sciſſel at 12 d.; the fine hammered Copper to be of equal Fineneſs with the Blanks of Swediſh Copper coined in the Reign of King Charles the Second:

There was alſo, at the ſame time, a Petition of John Perry, John Shorey, Leonard Fletcher, and Thomas Humfrevile, and others, Proprietors of the Copper and Braſs-works called Temple-mills, near Great Marlow, in Buckinghamſhire, to deliver in to the Mint Blanks of the fineſt Copper at 17 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per Pound Weight; or elſe to deliver Plates, drawn fit for cutting, at 15 d. per Pound Weight; and to take back the Sciſſel at 12 d.:

And one Mr. Eyres has ſince propoſed to deliver into the Mint Plates of fine Copper malleable without cracking, when red-hot, and drawn to a Breadth and Thickneſs fit for cutting, and blanched; paying him 15 d. per Pound Weight for the Blanks cut out of the ſame; and returning back the Sciſſel, without paying any thing for it.

1713, There was alſo a Propoſal of Charles Tunnah and William Dale, to coin, in Ten Years, a Thouſand Tons of Halfpence and Farthings of a mixed Metal, that ſhould look and touch like ordinary Gold, cutting a Pound Weight into 32 Pence.

Nothing being done upon theſe Petitions, the Officers of the Mint were directed, in November laſt, to lay before the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury ſuch Method, or Propoſals, for coining Halfpence and Farthings of Engliſh Copper, as had been made, or they ſhould think fit to make; and they repreſented thereupon, That ſuch Money be made of Engliſh Copper, malleable under the Hammer, when red-hot; becauſe ſuch Copper is free from Mixture, and is of about the ſame Degree of Fineneſs with the Swediſh Copper-money, and with Copper Veſſels made at the Battering-mills: And becauſe ſuch fine Copper cannot be run into Bars by caſting, they propoſed, That it . . made into Bars or Plates of a due Breadth and Thickneſs, either at the Battering-mills, or at the Drawing-mills; and be received at the Mint by Weight and Aſſay, upon the Mint-maſter's Note, expreſſing the Weight thereof; and that the new Monies be examined by Weight and Aſſay together, and the Examination entered in Books; and the Mint-maſter, upon delivering the ſame Weight of Copper in Money and Sciſſel together, be diſcharged of his Receipts; and that the Importer have ſo much of the Money as ſhall be agreed upon, for his Copper and Workmanſhip; and the King have the reſt as a Seigniorage, for defraying all the Charges of this Coinage; and the Mint-maſter account for the Seigniorage: And, for this End, they recommended the Propoſal of Mr. Eyres as the beſt.

The Seigniorage then propoſed was 4 d. per Pound Weight; whereof 3 d. for Hazard and Making; and a Peny more for putting them in Repair, and defraying the Charges of the Buildings, and of aſſaying, weighing, entering in Books, accounting, and other Incidents.

In December laſt, a Propoſal was made for coining 1,000d Tons of Copper Farthings and Halfpence within the Space of Ten Years; to wit, 800 Tons for Great Britain and the Plantations, and 200 Tons for Ireland: But the Propoſal ſeeming to the Lords of the Treaſury unreaſonable, and what might be a Prejudice or Inconvenience to his Majeſty's Revenue, by the great Quantities of Farthings and Halfpence that might be thrown into the Receipts of the Exciſe and Poſt-Office, as formerly happened, their Lordſhips did not think it adviſeable to make any Proceedings thereupon.

By Order of the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury.

Wm. Lowndes.

20th May 1715.

Reſolved, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, That he will be graciouſly pleaſed to direct, when his Majeſty ſhall think it neceſſary, that more Farthings and Halfpence ſhould be coined, that they be made of the fineſt Britiſh Copper, and as near the intrinſick Value as is poſſible; and that, if any Advantage is made thereby, it may be applied to the Service of the Publick.

Ordered, That the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty by ſuch Members of this Houſe as are of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council.

The Order of the Day being read, for taking into further Conſideration the Report from the Committee of Secrecy;

Ordered, That the further Conſideration of the ſaid Report be adjourned till Tueſday Morning next.

And then the Houſe adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Nine of the Clock.

PRAYERS.

*H*Erman Meyer took the Oaths appointed, in order to his Naturalization.

A Petition of the Farmers and Freeholders in the Hundred of Northwych, in the County of Cheſter, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That there is a Bill depending for making the River Weaver navigable from Frodſham Bridge to Northwych, in the ſaid County; which Bill, if paſſes, will deprive the Petitioners of employing themſelves, their Servants and Horſes, in carrying Coals in the Summer-time to their own Houſes, with which they ſupply the Wiches in the Winter: And praying to be heard, by Counſel, againſt the ſaid Bill, before the ſame paſſes.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the River Weaver navigable from Frodſham Bridge to Northwych, in the County of Cheſter, is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard, by their Counſel, before the Committee, thereupon, if they think fit.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of Middlewich, in the County of Cheſter, and the Proprietors of the Salt-works there, and Parts adjacent, was preſented to the Houſe, and and read; ſetting forth, That the Bill, now depending, for making the River Weaver navigable from Frodſham Bridge to Northwych, is far from anſwering the good Ends, or promoting the publick Good, thereby ſuggeſted; for that the ſame would only carry the Navigation Six Miles farther into the Country; and thereby ſome Thouſands of Perſons, who maintain their Families by the Carriage of Salt, would be impoveriſhed: And praying to be heard, by Counſel, againſt the ſaid Bill.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, to whom the Bill for makeing the River Weaver navigable from Frodſham Bridge to Northwych, in the County of Cheſter, is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard, by their Counſel, before the Committee, thereupon, if they think fit.

A Petition of John Reup, of the City of London, Merchant, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the John and Anne Fly-boat, Burden 300 Tons, or thereabouts, being foreign-built, and wholly unfit for Service, was bought by the Petitioner, who new-built her; and the ſaid Ship is approved on at his Majeſty's Cuſtom-houſe, as Engliſh-built; and has paid the Duties as ſuch; and is wholly manned by Engliſh; and the Petitioner doubts whether the ſaid Ship may not be interrupted in her Trade at his Majeſty's Plantations, under colour of the Act, of the 7th and 8th .. King William the Third, for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes, in the Plantation-Trade: And praying to bring in a Bill to make the ſaid Ship free.

And a Motion being made, and the Queſtion being put, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition;

It paſſed in the Negative.

Sir John Ward reported, from the Committee, to whom the Petition of ſeveral Merchants Importers of Tobacco and Wine, concerned in Bonds given for Part of the Duties on the ſame, the Matter, as it appeared to them upon the ſaid Petition; and alſo, upon the Petition of the Merchants of Whitehaven, trading in Tobacco; and alſo, upon the Petitions of Thomas Hamond, Merchant, and Dean Cock, Merchant (the Conſideration of which Petitions was referred to the ſaid Committee); which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Reports upon the ſeveral Petitions of the Merchants Importers of Tobacco and Wine, and alſo of the Merchants of Whitehaven, were read; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of ſeveral Merchants Importers of Tobacco and Wine, concerned in Bonds given for Part of the Duties on the ſame:

That, the Committee having taken into Conſideration the ſeveral Matters contained in the ſaid Petition; and examined the ſeveral Merchants, and Officers of the Cuſtom-houſe, in order to prove the Allegations of the ſaid Petition;

It appeared to the Committee, That, by a Clauſe in an Act, of the Fourth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, for continuing an additional Subſidy of Tonage and Poundage, &c. the Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, upon any Repreſentation of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, if they judged it reaſonable, might remit the Intereſt due upon Bonds given for Cuſtoms upon Goods and Merchandizes imported, or to be imported, upon Payment of the principal Money for which ſuch Bonds were given.

It appeared to the Committee, That, on the Importation of theſe Commodities, Part of the ſaid Duties are generally bonded; the Goods are exported; and the Importers are thereby intitled to the Cuſtoms, to be paid them by Debenture, in order to diſcharge the Bonds which they entered into for the ſaid Duties; but they are from Four Months to Six Months, before the Debentures paſs the proper Offices; and the Crown allows no Intereſt for the ſame:

That the Bonds ſtanding out againſt the Petitioners, where the greateſt Part of the Principal is diſcharged, are, many of them againſt Perſons which have been Security for others, that, by Misfortunes, are become dead, or inſolvent:

That the Wine-Merchants are the chief Exporters of Corn; for which they are intitled to a Bounty by Debenture: Many of their Bonds were paid by Certificates and Debentures, on which the Crown allowed no Intereſt, though they were as long due as the Bonds they diſcharged:

That the Crown never pays any Intereſt for Money which lieth in their Hands; nor the Law impoſeth none upon the Merchant, but what ariſeth upon the Penalty of the Bond; which never was demanded of them till of late.

It appeared to the Committee, That the Petitioners have laboured under many Difficulties and Hardſhips, which they have ſuſtained, during the late War, by the great Duties and Impoſitions which have been laid upon them; and, by the Misfortunes of Perſons failing, the Petitioners have not only loſt their Goods, but great Duties they have paid the Crown for the ſame.

That the Committee then proceeded to examine ſeveral of the Merchants, to prove the great Hardſhips and Difficulties they labour under, by reaſon of theſe Bonds; viz.

Mr. Richard Perry ſaid, That, in the Year 1706, his Father Micajah Perry became bound, as a collateral Security, at the Cuſtom-houſe, for Daniel Park Eſquire, for Cuſtoms due on Tobacco, in the Sum of 3,231 l. 14 s.; which Sum the ſaid Mr. Perry paid to the Crown: That, after he had paid the ſame, he applied to the proper Officer of the Cuſtoms, for his Bond to be given up; but was anſwered, That there was Intereſt due upon the ſaid Debt, and his Bond could not be given up; which Intereſt was not made known to Mr. Perry when he became bound, but lay dormant until the Year 1712, when the then Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms ſent for the ſaid Perry, and charged him with Intereſt upon Park's Debt, as follows; viz.

For Intereſt ſince Mr. Perry became bound — — — —	97	13	10
Which Sum Mr. Perry depoſited the 7th of February, in hopes no further Demand would be made in ſo hard a Caſe:
But, after this, the Commiſſioners proceeded to take out an Extent againſt Park's Eſtate; which obliged Mr. Perry to make a further Depoſit the 4th March 1712; there being due for Intereſt, before Mr. Perry became bound, the Sum of — —	885	5	7

So that Mr. Perry hath paid the whole principal Debt of 3,231 l. 14 s.; and depoſited 982 l. 19 s. 5 d. for Intereſt on the ſaid Debt.

Mr. Richard Lindſey ſaid, That he had paid for Cuſtoms on Wines, at the Port of London, and Out-Ports, from the Beginning of the War to the Month of June 1715, as appears by his Books, the Sum of 118,400 l.:

That he has ſuſtained great Loſſes, during the War, as appeared by his Account delivered in to the Committee, amounting to the Sum of 14,795 l.:

That he has diſcharged Part of his Bonds, by Certificates for damaged Wines, and Debentures for Corn, &c. exported, to the Value of 16,500 l. which were due to him from the Crown, from Six to Eight Months, and ſome Fourteen Months, when paid in to the Receiver-General of the Cuſtoms; and if the Intereſt of the ſaid Certificates and Debentures had been computed, as well as that on his Bonds, there would remain but a very ſmall Sum for Intereſt due to the Crown.

Mr. Manly produced a Copy of the Report from the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, dated the 31ſt of May laſt, upon the Petition of the Merchants concerned in Tobacco and Wine Bonds, about the Intereſt due on them; together with an Account of the Simple Intereſt due on all ſuch Bonds, of which the Principal is paid; and of ſuch only, where neither Principal nor Securities are become inſolvent: By which Account it appears, that there is due, for Simple Intereſt on the ſaid Bonds, 4,412 l. 18 s. 0 $\frac{3}{4}$ d.

Mr. Fern ſaid, That if the Merchants had had Intereſt allowed them on their Debentures and Certificates, it would have amounted to a much greater Sum than is now demanded on their Bonds:

And alſo ſaid, That the augmenting the Time for Payment of the Principal due upon Bonds, and entirely remitting the Intereſt, was the Occaſion, as he conceives, of bringing in, ſome time ſince, ſeveral Sums of Money, which otherwiſe, in all Probability, would never have been paid: And that .. was his Opinion, it would be a great Encouragement to Trade, and an Advantage to the Revenue, to remit the Intereſt:

That Mr. Fern likewiſe declared, That the Merchants were often kept out of their Money for their Debentures, after they had paſſed through the proper Offices, for want of Money upon the proper Branches for which the Debentures belonged, and no Conſideration allowed the Merchants for the ſame.

Mr. Metcalf ſaid, That, upon Orders being formerly made at the Treaſury, to remit the Intereſt, if the Principal was paid at the time mentioned in the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury's Warrant, great Sums of Money had been brought in, as well from the Port of London, as the Out-Ports.

It appeared to the Committee, That the Petitioners did, in the Year 1713, apply to the Parliament for the Diſcharge of thoſe Bonds; and the Houſe thought their Caſe ſo juſt and reaſonable, that a Clauſe in the Tobacco-Bill paſſed the Houſe for their Relief; but, the ſame being clogged with ſo many Clauſes of different Natures, the ſaid Bill was laid aſide by the Lords.

Upon the Petition of the Merchants of Whitehaven trading in Tobacco:

That the Committee, having conſidered of the Allegations of the ſaid Petition, do find, That ſeveral of the Duties ariſing by the Importation on Tobacco were, till of late, payable at Three Months, Nine Months, and Eighteen Months; and ſecured by ſeveral Bonds:

That the Payment of Intereſt upon thoſe bonded Duties, accruing before the Expiration of the Eighteen Months, have always been attended with great Hardſhips upon the Merchants:

That, by the Act, made in the 12th Year of her late Majeſty's Reign, for encouraging the Tobacco-Trade, the Payment of the ſaid ſeveral Duties at the different Times aforeſaid, is declared to be prejudicial and burdenſome to Trade, and a Loſs to the Revenue; and are therefore all reduced to One Payment at the End of Eighteen Months:

But there being no Proviſion made, in the ſaid Act, for diſcharging the Intereſt, before the ſaid Eighteen Months ariſing upon the Bonds made before that Act, ſeveral of thoſe Bonds are now lately put in Suit againſt the Petitioners, notwithſtanding they have duly paid off all the Principal Money due thereon, upon the Expiration of the Eighteen Months.

Mr. Metcalf, Sollicitor of the Cuſtoms, attended the Committee, and delivered an Account of what Intereſt is demanded from the Tobacco-Merchants of Whitehaven upon Bonds and Notes in Proceſs, where the Principal is paid, or diſcharged; which amounts to the Sum of 348 l. 14 s. 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ d.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for Relief of Merchants Importers of Tobacco and Wine, concerned in Bonds given for Part of the Duties on the ſame: And that Sir John Ward, Mr. Heyſham, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Corrance, Sir Thomas Johnſon, Sir Robert Davers, Mr. Bertie, and Mr. Wrightſon, do prepare, and bring in, the ſame.

The Report upon the Petition of Thomas Hamond, Merchant, being read, is as follows; viz.

Upon the Petition of Thomas Hamond, Merchant:

That it appeared to the Committee, That the Petitioner, being a conſiderable Trader, for Twenty Years laſt paſt, for Wines, and ſeveral other Merchandizes, has paid the Crown for Cuſtoms, in that Time, 100,000 l.:

That, by reaſon of great Loſſes, and other Misfortunes, by the late War, the Petitioner was forced to abſcond; and, at the time of his Failing, was indebted to the Crown, for Cuſtoms, 6,987 l. 8 s. 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.:

That an Extent was taken out, and his Perſon and Effects

Effects were ſeized: After which, he made Diſcovery of his Effects and Eſtate before the Sheriff of Surry:

A Copy whereof, with an Account of what was ſeized in London and Briſtol, of his own Effects, and his Sureties; and how much has been paid to Mr. Fern, the Receiver-General of the Cuſtoms; appears by the Account following; viz.

There has been paid to the ſaid Mr. Fern, out of the Petitioner's own Effects, the Sum of — — — —	1,245	19	5½
And of the Effects of Warren and Woodlaw, Two of his Sureties — —	307	3	6
Beſides Debentures, amounting to the Sum of — — — —	340	2	6
In the Whole, as appears by the Receiver-General's Certificate — —	1,893	5	5½
Beſides which, the Petitioner aſſigned over what was due to him upon Account of the Ship Worceſter, the Sum of —	2,890	0	0
Alſo his Share of the Ship Thomas and Elizabeth, amounting to the Sum of —	3,520	0	0
Total — —	8,303	5	5½
And the Petitioner's Debt to the Crown is — — — — —	6,987	8	9½

By which it appears, That the Petitioner diſcovered to the Crown, and has paid, ſufficient to have overpaid his ſaid Debt, had not the Ship Thomas and Elizabeth miſcarried:

That William Warren, Samuel Woodlaw, Thomas Joyner, Samuel Meares, and Henry Wooden, were the Petitioner's Sureties: That Warren and Wooden were taken upon the Extent; but, after ſome Continuance in Priſon, were ſet at Liberty by the late Lord Treaſurer's Order, upon giving Bonds to ſurrender themſelves when required:

That Sampſon Mears died before the Bonds were put in Suit; and none of his Effects could be found, ſave his Share in the Ship Worceſter, mentioned in the Account annexed to the ſaid Hamond's Petition:

That Samuel Woodlaw abſconds, and cannot be taken; and that Thomas Joyner, another of his Sureties, was taken, and is now a Priſoner in the King's-Bench Priſon:

That the Petitioner was a Priſoner, under the Extent, for a Year and Three Quarters, as appears by Certificates:

That, in October 1712, the Petitioner petitioned the late Lord Treaſurer for his Liberty; which Petition was referred to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms; and their Report thereupon, together with the Petition, were afterwards referred to Mr. Attorney-General; who made a Report: Both which Reports being in the Petitioner's Favour, he obtained his Liberty, upon giving Security to ſurrender himſelf when required:

That, in April 1714, the Petitioner petitioned the late Lord Treaſurer for Leave to apply to Parliament for an Act to impower the Lord Treaſurer to compound the ſaid Debt; which was referred to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms; and a Report made by them in his favour: Whereupon he obtained Leave from his Lordſhip to apply to Parliament for an Act for that Purpoſe.

It appeared, That the Petitioner has, in all things, complied with the Orders of this Houſe relating to Bills for compounding Debts due to the Crown; and made a full Diſcovery of all his Effects and Eſtate.

Ordered, That the ſaid Report do lie upon the Table.

Upon the Petition of Dean Cock Merchant:

That, the Committee having taken into Conſideration the Matters contained in the Petition; and examined ſome of the Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, in order to prove the Allegations thereof;

It appeared, That the Petitioner became bound for Robert Wiſe, Cornelius Denn, and David Dennis, for ſeveral conſiderable Sums of Money for Cuſtoms on Tobacco; viz.

The Petitioner ſtands bound for David Dennis, in the Sum of — — —	1,391	3	11
For Cornelius Denn, in the Sum of —	3,257	0	8½
For Robert Wiſe, in the Sum of —	16,443	10	6¾
Total —	21,091	15	2¼

That the ſaid Wiſe, Denn, and Dennis, failed, without having diſcharged their Bonds to the Crown, wherein the Petitioner ſtands bound; which occaſioned the Petitioner to withdraw himſelf; but the Petitioner, being deſirous to pay the Crown all the Cuſtoms due from himſelf, did, with the Aſſiſtance of his Friends, raiſe, and pay to the Receiver-General of the Cuſtoms, the Sum of 1,255 l. 10 s. 5 d. being the full Balance of his own Debt; as appears by a Report from the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to the late Lord Treaſurer, dated the 13th of June 1713.

It appeared to the Committee, by a Certificate under the Hand of Robert Stephen Eſquire, Sollicitor to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, as alſo of Mr. Coode, Examiner of Securities, That the Petitioner's Circumſtances are very indifferent, having no Eſtate in the World.

It appeared to the Committee, by a Certificate of ſeveral eminent Merchants of London, who declare, That the Petitioner always behaved himſelf as an honeſt and fair Man; and that they did verily believe in their Conſciences, that, by reaſon of ſome great Misfortunes that hath lately happened to him, he is not able to pay to the Crown, on any Compoſition, or otherwiſe, more than 300 l.; and believed the Petitioner muſt be aſſiſted by his Friends to do that.

That, the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, the Petitioner applied to the Houſe for Relief; but, it being late in the Seſſion, and the Houſe being taken up in Matters of more publick Concern, nothing could be done in this Affair.

It appeared, That the Petitioner has in all things complied with the Orders of this Houſe relating to Bills for compounding Debts due to the Crown.

Ordered, That the ſaid Report do lie upon the Table.

An ingroſſed Bill, from the Lords, intituled, An Act for Sale of Part of the Eſtate late of William Betts Gentleman, deceaſed, for diſcharging Incumbrances thereupon; and for making good a Settlement by him made of other Part of his Eſtate; was read the Firſt time.

Reſolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

An ingroſſed Bill, from the Lords, intituled, An Act to explain the Act, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown; and better ſecuring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject; was read the Firſt time.

Mr. Drew reported from the Committee, who were to conſider of the Laws for preventing the Exporting of Wool from Great Britain and Ireland; and how the ſame may be made more effectual; and to conſider of proper Methods for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufacture; That they had come to ſeveral Reſolutions, which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the ſame were once read; and are as follows; viz.

1. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Act of Parliament, made in the Ninth and Tenth of his late Majeſty King William, intituled, An Act for the Explanation, and better Execution, of former Acts made againſt Tranſportation of Wool, Fullers-earth, and Scouring-clay, be made to extend to the Kingdom of Ireland.

2. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That no Wool, Woollen Yarn, or Worſted, in Ireland, be, at any time, carried or conveyed within Miles of the Sea, unleſs directly to ſuch Ports which are free for the exporting the ſame to England, under a Penalty; unleſs by ſpecial Licence or Permit firſt had from a proper Officer for carrying any Quantity of Wool to ſuch Places where Wool is manufactured; and which Place or Places ſhall be particularly mentioned in ſuch Permits; and, in ſuch Caſe, ſufficient Security ſhall be firſt given in treble the Value of the Goods ſo licenſed, that the whole Quantity ſhall be manufactured in thoſe Places; and the Proof of the Manufacturing thereof ſhall lie on the Perſons who give ſuch Security.

3. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That all Licences, or Permits, for the removing Wool, Woollen Yarn, or Worſted, in Ireland, be made returnable to the proper Officer, within Days; and that all Perſons ſhall return ſuch Licences or Permits within ſuch time, under a Penalty; and the ſame Method to be obſerved in Great Britain; and, to prevent Colluſion between the Officer and Grower, or Firſt Owner, of ſuch Wool, that the Officer, who grants the ſame, ſhall tranſmit a Copy thereof to the next Collector of Exciſe or Cuſtoms, within Days thereafter.

4. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That any Perſon may ſeize any Wool, Woollen Yarn, or Worſted, carried, lodged, removed, whether ſhipped ... any-where in Ireland, contrary to any the Directions of the ſaid Act, of the Ninth and Tenth of his late Majeſty King William, ſo to be extended as aforeſaid.

5. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, of all Seizures and Forfeitures in Ireland, Three-fourths ſhall be to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſeize the ſame, to be intitled thereto, upon Conviction of the Party; and the other Fourth ſhall be to the King, for the Uſe and Encouragement of the Linen Manufacture in Ireland; and that, of all Seizures and Forfeitures in Great Britain, the Seizer ſhall be likewiſe intitled to Three-fourths, and the other Fourth to the King; and the Crown to be at the Expence of Proſecutions in both Kingdoms.

6. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That no Wool, Woollen Yarn, or Worſted, be, at any time, carried or conveyed any-where in Ireland, within Miles of the Sea, in any other Package than common Linen Packs or Bags; and that no leſs Quantity be contained in each than Weight, under a Penalty; except that a Grower give full Satisfaction to the Officer, that he had not ſo much grown; and then the Quantity to be ſpecified in his Permit.

7. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, inſtead of the great Ships and Sloops employed in England and Ireland againſt the Owlers, by virtue of the Tenth and Eleventh of his late Majeſty King William, a greater Number of ſmaller Veſſels be employed in Great Britain and Ireland for that Purpoſe; which may be a more effectual Method for preventing the exporting Wool to France, and may conſiderably leſſen the yearly Charge of the Publick.

10. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, for the better Encouragement of the Woollen Manufacture, the Port of Exeter be made a free Port for the Receiving of Wool from Ireland; and to continue ſo in the Time of Peace only.

11. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, for the better Encouragement of the Linen Manufacture in Ireland, which may tend to the Diſcouragement of exporting Wool from thence to France, ſo much of the Act, of the Third and Fourth of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, relating to the Exportation of Iriſh Linen Cloth for the Plantations, be made perpetual; and that the Iriſh Linen Cloth, imported into Great Britain, may be re-exported Duty-free.

A Petition of the Commiſſioners of Equivalent was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, lately appointed by his Majeſty, find ſuch real Difficulties in the Execution of the Truſt committed to them, as they, with all Submiſſion, think can only be removed by Parliament; and therefore they humbly preſume to lay before the Honourable Houſe of Commons a ſhort View of the Agreements in the Treaty of Union, which relate to the Subject-matter of their Commiſſion; of the Manner in which it was intended, as they humbly apprehend, that theſe Agreements ſhould have been brought to Execution; and of what has actually happened: That, by the Treaty and Articles of Union, it is agreed, That, towards preſerving an Equality of Trade, the United Kingdom ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Cuſtoms, on Export and Import, upon exciſeable Liquors: That neither Kingdom was to be ſubject to the Debts of the other, due and contracted before the Union; and ſeveral Branches of the Revenue of England were appropriated for Payment of their own Debts, ſome for ever, ſome for Eighty or Ninety Years yet to run; and other Branches of their Revenue were impoſed, and to continue till June, Auguſt, and September, One thouſand Seven hundred and Ten; becauſe it was computed, that the Debts for which they were impoſed might then be paid off; whereby Scotland would become liable to ſeveral Cuſtoms and Exciſes that . . . . . payable in England, which would be applicable towards Payment of the Debts of England contracted before the Union: Therefore, by the Fifteenth Article of Union, it was agreed, That Scotland ſhould have an Equivalent for what the Subjects thereof ſhould be ſo charged, towards Payment of the Debts of England, in all Particulars whatſoever; viz. Three hundred ninety-eight thouſand Eighty-five Pounds and Ten Shillings, for ſuch Parts of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe with which that Kingdom was to be charged upon the Union, as would be applicable to the Payment of the ſaid Debts of England, according to the Proportions which the then preſent Cuſtoms in Scotland, being Thirty thouſand Pounds per Annum, did bear to the Cuſtoms in England, computed at One Million Three hundred forty-one thouſand Five hundred Fifty-nine Pounds per Annum; and the then preſent Exciſes in Scotland being Thirty-three thouſand Five hundred Pounds per Annum, did bear to the Exciſes in England, computed at Nine hundred forty-ſeven thouſand Six hundred and Two Pounds per Annum: 2°, It was agreed, That, from and after the Union, the whole Increaſe of the Revenues of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, over and above the annual Produce of the ſaid reſpective Duties, as above-ſtated, ſhould go, and be applied, for the Term of Seven Years, to the Uſes mentioned in the ſaid Fifteenth Article; and that, upon the ſaid Account, there ſhould be anſwered to Scotland annually, from the End of Seven Years after the Union, an Equivalent, in proportion to ſuch Parts of the ſaid Increaſe as ſhould be applicable to the Debts of England; and generally, That an Equivalent ſhould be anſwered to Scotland for ſuch Parts of the Engliſh Debts as Scotland might thereafter become liable to pay by reaſon of the Union, other than ſuch Debts in reſpect whereof Equivalents are therein before provided: That it might be the better underſtood by what Rule the Equivalents above-mentioned were ſtated, and to facilitate the ſubſequent Accounts to be made up, purſuant to the Agreements aforeſaid, at the time of the Treaty, an Account was made out, of the Revenues of England, taken from a Medium of Three Years; an Account of the Debts of England then provided for, with an Account of the Equivalents founded upon the Proportion between the Revenues of the reſpective Kingdoms; all which Accounts were, by Order of the Lords Commiſſioners of both Kingdoms, annexed to the Minutes of their Proceedings, and ſigned by their reſpective Secretaries: That, towards executing theſe Agreements, it is, by the Fifteenth Article, further agreed, That her Majeſty be impowered to appoint Commiſſioners, who ſhall be accountable to the Parliament of Great Britain for diſpoſing of the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety-eight thouſand Eighty-five Pounds and Ten Shillings, and all other Monies which ſhould ariſe to Scotland upon the Agreements aforeſaid, to the Purpoſes mentioned in that Article; which Commiſſioners are impowered to inſpect the Books of the ſeveral Collectors of the ſaid Revenues of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and of all other Duties from whence an Equivalent might ariſe to Scotland; and that the Collectors and Managers of the ſaid Revenues and Duties be obliged to give to the ſaid Commiſſioners ſubſcribed authentick Abbreviates of the Produce of the Revenues and Duties ariſing in their reſpective Diſtricts; that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have their Office within the Limits of Scotland, and, in ſuch Office, keep Books, containing Accounts of the Amounts of the Equivalents, and how the ſame ſhall be diſpoſed of from time to time; which may be inſpected by any of the Subjects who deſire the ſame: That, by an Act, of the 6th Year of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, Act for further directing the Payment of the Equivalent-money, it is Enacted, That the Commiſſioners, Managers, Collectors, and other proper Officers, of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and of all other Duties and Revenues from whence an Equivalent may ariſe to Scotland, according to the Agreements contained in the aforeſaid Treaty of Union, ſhall make and ſubſcribe Two authentick Abbreviates of the Produce of ſuch Revenues, with the Amount of the ſeveral Sums which ſhall be due, by way of Equivalent, according to the aforeſaid Agreements, from the Commencement of the Union to the Twenty-fifth March One thouſand Seven hundred and Eight, for the Firſt time, and ſo from thenceforward half-yearly; and ſhall tranſmit One of the ſaid Abbreviates to the Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, or the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, for the Time being; and the other to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent in Scotland, for the Time being: It is further Enacted, That the Lord High Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury aforeſaid, upon Receipt of ſuch Abbreviates, ſhall and may grant his or their Warrants or Orders, for the Payment of ſuch Sums as ſhall be ſo found due to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, for the Time being, or to ſuch Perſons as they ſhall appoint to receive the ſame: That, by the ſame Act, of the 6th of the Queen, Proviſion was appointed for the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, out of the growing Equivalent, which was by that Act to have been paid half-yearly; but, no Payment having hitherto been made, theſe Commiſſioners have not as yet got Payment of their Salaries; neither is there any Fund for ſupporting the Charges of the preſent Commiſſion: That the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, appointed by her ſaid late Majeſty, and veſted with the aforeſaid Powers, did begin the Diſtribution of the Money which they had received; and, towards being enabled to execute the other Part of their Truſt, they demanded ſuch Abbreviates and Accounts from the Treaſury, and from the Managers and Officers of the Revenue, as the Article of the Union, and the afore-mentioned Act, directed; but never could obtain any other than half-yearly Abbreviates of the groſs and net Produce of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe of Scotland; nor do theſe, as the Commiſſioners humbly think, come up to the Intention of the Article and Act aforeſaid: That, ſince the Union, there is a very conſiderable Alteration in the State of the publick Revenues, and publick Debts; ſeveral Branches, which, at the time of the Treaty, were unappropriated for Debts, all the Branches which were temporary, and to have continued only till June, Auguſt, and September, 1710, have been, by ſeveral Acts ſince, further continued, and at length made perpetual; beſides many Duties impoſed ſince the Treaty, which are to continue for a long Term of Years; and the Monies ariſing from the ſaid Appropriations, from the Continuance of the old, and Impoſition, of the new Duties aforeſaid, have been applied promiſcuouſly; that is, for paying and ſatisfying old Debts, and making Proviſion for the ſeveral Years ſince the Union, as appears by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament continuing, impoſing, and appropriating, theſe Duties: And though, by comparing the Agreements in the Treaty of Union with the Acts of Parliament made ſince, it appears plain enough, that there is an Equivalent due, and growing due, to Scotland; yet the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, by not getting the half-yearly Abbreviates, appointed to be given them, have never been able to make up ſuch Accounts of the Equivalents, as the Subjects of Scotland had Reaſon, from the 15th Article of Union, to expect; and, by this Delay, the Difficulty of making up ſuch an Account will always grow greater: That, by an Act of the laſt Parliament of Queen Anne, the Commiſſioners of Equivalent were acquitted and diſcharged of the Sums by them duly iſſued; and, by the ſame Act, the publick Debts of Scotland, which were adjuſted and certified, purſuant to the Direction of the ſeveral Acts therein recited, did amount, on the 24th June 1714, to 230,308*l.* 9*s.* 10$\frac{5}{6}$d. to bear Intereſt thereafter at Five Pounds per Centum per Annum; for which no Proviſion is made, notwithſtanding the above Claim; and that it is believed, there is ſcarce any Debt due before the Union but is provided for, except this; neither has any Care hitherto been taken of the Manufactures and Fiſhing of Scotland, as was intended by the Treaty, and expected by the Subjects of Scotland: That, by the Agreements, and Manner of Execution of them above-expreſſed, it appears plainly, that the Subjects of Scotland believed themſelves very ſecure in the publick Faith, for the Performance of all theſe Agreements and Conditions: And the Commiſſioners of Equivalent being accountable to the Parliament of Great Britai, and by no means able to obviate the Difficulties above-mentioned: And praying to make ſuch further Proviſion for the ſtating the Accounts of the Equivalent for theſe Seven Years paſt, as may effectually anſwer that End; and to ſettle ſuch Branches of the Revenue of Scotland as now are, or for the future may be, applicable to the Payment of the Debts of England contracted before the Union, and the publick Debts of Scotland, which are eſtabliſhed bliſhed and certified by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, may be paid, and the other Ends of the Treaty of Union may be attained.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of James Campbell, of London, Merchant, Agent for the publick Creditors of Scotland, in the Name and Behalf of them, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter of Fact; and report the ſame, with their Opinion thereupon, to the Houſe.

Mr. Hampden, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter touching the Election for the Town of Haverford-Weſt, and the Reſolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Report and Reſolutions were read; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of John Barlow Eſquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Sir George Barlow Baronet, for the Town of Haverford-Weſt:

That the Right of Election was agreed to be in the Freeholders, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants, paying Scot and Lot, and not receiving Alms.

That the Poll was;

For the Sitting-Member — 222:
For the Petitioner — — 181:

That the Petitioner's Counſel objected to 79 of the Sitting-Member's Voters; viz. 34 as illegal Burgeſſes; 20 receiving Alms; 15 Inhabitants not paying Scot and Lot; Eight neither Freeholders, Burgeſſes, or Inhabitants; and Two under Age.

On the Head of illegal Burgeſſes, the Petitioner's Counſel produced,

Dat. 16 October 1629. A Collection of Orders agreed upon by the Mayor, Common-Council, and other the Inhabitants; and confirmed and allowed by the King's Juſtices of Aſſize:

By which no Perſon is to be admitted and ſworn Burgeſs (Apprentices and Freemens Sons only excepted), unleſs he be thereunto thought meet, firſt by the moſt Voice of the Common-Council of the Town, and afterwards by the Conſent, and moſt Voice, of the Burgeſſes and Commons of the Town, under a Penalty of 10 l. upon the Mayor; and further, that none ſhall be admitted or ſworn Burgeſs at any Day or Time, ſaving the Days of Nomination and Election of the Mayor yearly, and at the Two Sheriffs Turns; and at no other time in the Year.

Dat. 11° Mar. 1714. An Order in the Town-Book for the Mayor's ſwearing Eleven of them Burgeſſes when he thinks fit; viz. Thomas Skyrm Gentleman, Simon Higda, Morgan Folland, John Hill, John Brown junior, George Hellier, and John Parrot, claiming Freedom as Burgeſſes Sons; Tho. Howell, claiming as Apprentice; and Mr. Lewis Powell, Mr. John Lort, and the Reverend Mr. George Phillips, whoſe Titles are not mentioned:

Dat. 19° Mar. 1714. Another Order for the Mayor's ſwearing Eleven others; viz. Thomas Bateman, George Jenkins, Henry Bowen Clerk, and David Lewis, being Freemens Sons; James Wilkin junior, having married a Freeman's Daughter; Richard Llewellin, as Apprentice; Mark Roach Eſquire, Richard Cuny Eſquire, John Stephens Gentleman, John Powell Gentleman, and Wm. Davids, whoſe Titles are not mentioned:

[(a) Dat. 20 Mar. 1714. Another Order for admitting and ſwearing 12 others; and the Order ſays, They were then ſworn accordingly; viz. Mr. Arnold Bowen, Thomas Rees Taylor, Geo. Jones Glover, John Barnſly Butcher, Rowland Harries, and Thomas Davies, Gentlemen (being Freemens Sons); John Thomas, Thomas Knowles Eſquire, Geo. Bowen Eſquire, Thomas Edwards Gentleman, Joſeph Allen Gentleman, and Richard Foley, whoſe Titles are not mentioned.]

(a) Supplied from the original Report.

That the Petitioner's Counſel objected againſt the Legality of theſe Admiſſions, as being clandeſtine, and upon neither of the Three Days allowed by the Conſtitution: And againſt the Truth of theſe Entries they obſerved, That the 20th of March was upon a Sunday, when no Court was held; and called,

John Bateman and Richard Smith: Who ſpoke for 20 and 40 Years; and ſaid, The Practice has always been to admit and ſwear Burgeſſes only upon the Three Conſtitution-Days; viz. the Election of the Mayor, and the Sheriffs Turns; and never at any other time, except ſometimes in the Caſe of Gentlemen of Quality, or the Mayor's own Freeman:

That Burgeſſes cannot be admitted but by Conſent of the Majority of the Common-Council; and alſo by Conſent of the Majority of the Burgeſſes in the Common-Hall: That all Members of the Common-Council ought to be ſummoned to every Court; but only ſelect Perſons were ſummoned to the Courts in March laſt: Neither of them, though both of the Common-Council, were then ſummoned: They never knew Burgeſſes admitted in any ſuch manner before:

And Smith ſaid, The Mayor declared, He would make as many new Burgeſſes as would ſerve his Turn.

Rowland Harries, who is entered in the Town-Book as admitted and ſworn upon the 20th of March, ſaid, He was ſworn upon the Day before the Election, being the Second of May laſt, at a Publick-houſe, by the Mayor, and One of the Aldermen.

Mr. Hugh Fowler ſaid, That Arnold Bowen, another of thoſe mentioned to be admitted and ſworn the 20th of March, polled as a Burgeſs; and hath, ſince the Election, confeſſed, He never was ſworn a Burgeſs.

Wm. Holloway named Twenty of the Sitting-Member's Voters; and ſaid, They received Alms, or publick Charity.

That the Petitioner's Counſel proceeded to give Evidence of Partiality, and arbitrary Proceedings, of the Mayor and Sheriff, in favour of the Sitting-Member:

But the Sitting-Member's Counſel alleged, They were ſurpriſed: And, having no Witneſſes in Town to juſtify the Election, they withdrew.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to theſe Reſolutions;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir George Barlow Baronet is not duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the Town of Haverford-Weſt.

Ordered, That the ſaid Accounts do lie upon the Table, to be peruſed by the Members of the Houſe.

The Houſe being acquainted, That George Carpenter Eſquire, ſince his Election for the Borough of Whitchurch, is appointed his Majeſty's Envoy to the Court of Vienna; and that he deſires to know the Senſe of the Houſe, whether he is included in the Diſability of the Act of the Sixth Year of her late Majeſty;

And the Clauſe in the ſaid Act, relating thereto, was read:

And the Queſtion being put, That, George Carpenter Eſquire being appointed his Majeſty's Envoy at the Court of Vienna, ſince his Election for the Borough of Whitchurch, in the County of Southampton, his Election for the ſaid Borough is thereby become void;

It paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered, That it be an Inſtruction to the Committee of Privileges and Elections, That they do hear the Merits of the Election for the County of Eſſex, which was appointed to be heard upon Wedneſday next, upon Wedneſday Sevennight.

Mr. Walpole, from the Committee of Secrecy, acquainted the Houſe, That the Committee had, in Obedience to the Commands of the Houſe, prepared Articles of Impeachment for High Treaſon, and other High Crimes and Miſdemeanors, againſt Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer; and that the Committee had commanded him, at the ſame time, to acquaint the Houſe, That they ſhall, in a ſhort time, have farther Articles to lay before the Houſe againſt the ſaid Earl; and that the Committee had directed him to report the Articles, already prepared, to the Houſe; and he read them in his Place; and afterwards delivered the ſame in at the Clerk's Table: Where they were once read; and are as follow; viz.

Articles of Impeachment of High Treaſon, and other High Crimes and Miſdemeanors, againſt Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer.

WHereas many ſolemn Treaties and Alliances have been formerly entered into, between the Crown of England and other Princes and Potentates of Europe, for their mutual Safety, and from the Conſiderations of the common Danger which threatened all Chriſtendom from the immoderate Growth of the Power of France:

And whereas the preventing the Monarchy of Spain from coming into the Hands of the Houſe of Bourbon, has, for many Years, been a fundamental Principle and Maxim of Union among the Allies, in order to preſerve a juſt Balance of Power in Europe: And to that end, as the Deſigns of France on the Monarchy of Spain have, from time to time, appeared, new Treaties, and expreſs Stipulations, have been entered into amongſt the Allies, to ſtrengthen themſelves againſt that approaching Danger; and, on this Foundation, a Treaty for an intended Partition, whereby a ſmall Part only of the Dominions of the Crown of Spain was allotted to the Houſe of Bourbon, was condemned by the Wiſdom of Parliament, as being highly prejudicial, and fatal, in its Conſequences, to England, and the Peace of Europe:

And whereas the Duke of Anjou, Grandſon to the King of France, on the Demiſe of Charles the Second, King of Spain, took Poſſeſſion of the intire Monarchy of Spain; whereby the Balance of Power, the Proteſtant Religion, and the Liberty of Europe, were threatened with immediate Danger:

Whereupon Leopold, then Emperor of Germany, his late Majeſty King William the Third, of ever-glorious Memory, and the States-General of the United Provinces, finding, at that moſt critical Juncture, that a ſtrict Conjunction and Alliance between themſelves was become neceſſary for repelling the Greatneſs of the common Danger from ſo great an Acceſſion of Power to the then common Enemy, did, in the Year of our Lord 1701, make, form, and conclude, a new Treaty and Alliance; whereby it was agreed,

That there ſhall be, and continue, between the ſaid Confederates, his Sacred Imperial Majeſty, his Sacred Royal Majeſty of Great Britain, and the Lords the States-General of the United Provinces, a conſtant, perpetual, and inviolable, Friendſhip and Correſpondence; and that each Party ſhall be obliged to promote the Advantages of the other, and prevent all Inconveniences and Dangers that might happen to them, as far as lies in their Power:

That the ſaid Allies, deſiring nothing more earneſtly than the Peace, and general Quiet, of all Europe, have adjudged, that nothing can be more effectual for the Eſtabliſhment thereof, than the procuring an equitable and reaſonable Satisfaction to his Imperial Majeſty for his Pretenſion to the Spaniſh Succeſſion; and that the King of Great Britain, and the States-General, may obtain a particular and ſufficient Security for their Kingdoms, Provinces, and Dominions, and for the Navigation and Commerce of their Subjects:

That the ſaid Confederates therefore ſhall, in the Firſt place, endeavour, by amicable means, to obtain the ſaid Satisfaction; but if, contrary to their Expectation and Wiſhes, the ſame is not had, the ſaid Confederates do engage and promiſe to one another, That they will aſſiſt each other with all their Forces, according to a Specification to be agreed upon in a peculiar Convention for that Purpoſe:

That the Confederates, in order to the procuring the Satisfaction and Security aforeſaid, ſhall, amongſt other things, uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to recover the Provinces of the Spaniſh Low-Countries, that they may be a Fence and Rampart, commonly called a Barrier, ſeparating and dividing France from the United Provinces, for the Security of the States-General, as they have ſerved in all times, till of late that the moſt Chriſtian King has ſeized them by his Forces; as likewiſe the Duchy of Milan, with its Dependences, as a Fief of the Empire; and contributing to the Security of his Imperial Majeſty's hereditary Dominions; beſides the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily, and the Lands and Iſlands upon the Coaſt of Tuſcany, in the Mediterranean, that belonged to the Spaniſh Dominions; and may ſerve to the ſame Purpoſe; and will be alſo of Advantage to the Navigation and Commerce of the Subjects of the King of Great Britain, and of the United Provinces:

That, in caſe the Confederates ſhall be forced to enter into a War, for obtaining the Satisfaction aforeſaid for his Imperial Majeſty, and the Security of his Majeſty of Great Britain, and the States-General, they ſhall faithfully communicate their Deſigns to one another, as well in relation to the Actions of the War, as all other things wherein the common Cauſe is concerned:

That it ſhall not be permitted to either Party, when the War is once begun, to treat of Peace with the Enemy, unleſs jointly, and by a Communication of Councils; and no Peace ſhall be made, unleſs an equitable and reaſonable Satisfaction for his Imperial Majeſty, and the particular Security of the Kingdoms, Provinces, Dominions, Navigations, and Commerce, for his Majeſty of Great Britain, and the States-General, be firſt obtained; and unleſs Care be taken, by fitting Security, that the Kingdoms of France and Spain ſhall never come, and be united, under the ſame Government; nor that one and the ſame Perſon ſhall be King of both Kingdoms; and particularly, that the French ſhall never get into the Poſſeſſion of the Spaniſh Indies; neither ſhall they be permitted to ſail thither on the Account of Traffick, directly or indirectly, or any Pretence whatſoever; and laſtly, unleſs full Liberty be granted unto the Subjects of the King of Great Britain, and the States-General, to exerciſe and enjoy all the ſaid Privileges, Rights, Immunities, and Franchiſes, of Commerce by Sea and Land, in Spain, the Mediterranean, and all Lands and Places which the King of Spain, laſt deceaſed, did poſſeſs at the time of his Death, as well in Europe as elſewhere, which they uſed and enjoyed, or which the Subjects of both or either of them, by any Right, acquired by Treaties, Agreements, Cuſtoms, or any other way whatſoever, might have uſed and enjoyed, before the Death of the late King of Spain:

That, at the ſame time that the ſaid Agreement, or Peace, ſhall be made, the Confederates ſhall agree amongſt themſelves about all the things that they ſhall think neceſſary for maintaining the Navigation and Commerce of the Subjects of his Majeſty of Great Britain, and the States-General, in the Lands and Dominions they may acquire, and that were poſſeſſed by the late deceaſed King of Spain; and alſo in what manner the States-General may be ſecured by the aforeſaid Fence, or Barrier:

And whereas his ſaid late Majeſty King William, and the States-General, ſeriouſly conſidering, that France was then become ſo formidable, from the Acceſſion of Spain to the Duke of Anjou, that, in the Opinion of all the World, Europe was in Danger of loſing her Liberty, and undergoing the heavy Yoke of univerſal Monarchy; and that the ſureſt Means of effecting that Deſign were, to divide the King of Great Britain from the States-General; for which Purpoſe, all imaginable Efforts would be made; they therefore thought it neceſſary to unite in the ſtricteſt Manner that was poſſible; and, to that End, a defenſive Treaty and Alliance was concluded, and entered into, between them, in or about the Month of November 1701; wherein it was, among other things, agreed,

That,

That, in caſe the ſaid high Allies ſhould be jointly engaged in War, by reaſon of this defenſive Alliance beforementioned in the Fifth Article, or on any other Account, there ſhall be an offenſive and defenſive, and perpetual, Alliance between them, againſt thoſe with whom the War ſhall be; and all their Forces ſhall be employed by Sea and Land; and they ſhall act in Conjunction, or ſeparately, as it ſhall be agreed between them:

That ſince, in the Alliance with the Emperor, made in September laſt, particular Care was taken of the Recovery of the Spaniſh Low-Countries out of the Hands of the moſt Chriſtian King, the ſaid Confederates expreſly engage to aid one another with all their Forces for the Recovery of the ſame: And in regard the principal Intereſt of the ſaid Confederates conſiſts in the Preſervation of the Liberty of Europe, the before-mentioned Treaty with the Emperor ſhall be faithfully and ſincerely executed; and both Sides ſhall guaranty the ſame, and uſe their Endeavours to confirm and render it more ſtrong from time to time:

That, in making Peace, particular Care ſhall be taken of the Commerce and Traffick of both Nations; as alſo for their Security, as well in regard to the Low-Countries, as the Countries adjacent:

That, when the War is begun, the Confederates ſhall act in Concert, according to the 7th and 8th Articles of the Treaty, of the 3d of March in the Year of our Lord $167\frac{7}{8}$, between England and Holland; which is hereby renewed and confirmed; and no Peace, nor Truce, or Suſpenſion of Arms, ſhall be negotiated or made, but according to the 9th and 10th Articles of that Treaty; by which it was agreed,

That, when the Two Allies come once to an open War, it ſhall be lawful for neither of them afterwards to come to any Ceſſation of Arms with him who ſhall be declared and proclaimed an Enemy, without it be done conjointly, and with common Conſent:

That no Negotiation of Peace ſhall be ſet on foot by one of the Allies, without the Concurrence of the other: That each Ally ſhall continually, and from time to time, impart to the other every thing that paſſes in the ſaid Negotiation; and ſhall ſtipulate with the common Enemy for the ſame Rights, Immunities, Exemptions, and Prerogatives (a) [for his Ally as he does for himſelf]; if ſo be the ſaid Allies do not agree to the contrary:

And whereas the French King, having got Poſſeſſion of a great Part of the Spaniſh Dominions, exerciſed an abſolute Authority over that Monarchy; having ſeized Milan, and the Spaniſh Low-Countries, by his Armies, and made himſelf Maſter of Cadiz, of the Entrance into the Mediterranean, and of the Ports of the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies, by his Fleets; every-where deſigning to invade the Liberties of Europe, and to obſtruct the Freedom of Navigation and Commerce; and, inſtead of giving the Satisfaction that ought juſtly to be expected, had proceeded to further Violencies, and had taken on him to declare the pretended Prince of Wales King of England, Scotland, and Ireland; and had alſo influenced Spain to concur in the ſame Affront; her late Majeſty Queen Anne, taking notice that ſhe found herſelf obliged, for maintaining the publick Faith, for vindicating the Honour of the Crown, and to prevent the Miſchiefs which all Europe was threatened with, to declare War againſt France and Spain, did accordingly, in the Month of May 1702, in the moſt publick and ſolemn manner, declare War againſt France and Spain; and, in the ſaid Declaration, placing her intire Confidence in the Help of Almighty God, in ſo juſt and neceſſary an Undertaking, declared, That ſhe would, in Conjunction with her Allies, vigorouſly proſecute the ſame by Sea and Land; being aſſured of the ready Concurrence of her Subjects, in a Cauſe they had ſo openly and heartily eſpouſed: And his Imperial Majeſty, and their High Mightineſſes, purſuant to the Treaties aforementioned, reſpectively, in or about the ſaid Month of May 1702, did likewiſe declare War againſt France and Spain:

And whereas the Kings of Portugal and Pruſſia, the Electors of Hanover, Saxony, Treves, Mentz, Palatine of the Rhine, the Duke of Savoy, the Prince of Heſſe, the Dukes of Wolfembuttle, Mechlenberg, and Wirtemberg, the Circles of Suabia and Franconia, and of the Upper Rhine, the Biſhops of Munſter and Conſtance, and other Princes and Powers, being invited by the ſaid Grand Alliance, and relying on the Faith thereof, did afterwards become Parties to the ſaid Confederate War againſt France and Spain: And in the Treaty entered into, in or about the Month of May 1703, between his Imperial Majeſty and the Queen of Great Britain, the States-General, and the King of Portugal, it is, amongſt other things, expreſly ſtipulated,

That no Peace nor Truce ſhall be made, but by the mutual Conſent of all the Confederates; nor ſhall any, at any time, be made, whilſt the Second Grandſon of the moſt Chriſtian King, by the Dauphin, or any other Prince of the Line of France, continues in Spain; nor unleſs the Crown of Portugal ſhall fully poſſeſs and enjoy all the Lands, Kingdoms, Iſles, Caſtles, Cities, Towns, &c. with their Territories and Dependencies in Spain, or elſewhere, which it now poſſeſſes: And, in the Treaty of Norlingen, ratified by her late Majeſty, it is, amongſt other things, expreſly agreed,

That it ſhall not be allowed to make particular Treaties; but the Peace ſhall be jointly treated of; and ſhall not be concluded, without obtaining, as far as is poſſible, the Reunion of the Lands belonging to the Circles (b); [and until at leaſt the Security of the Aſſociated Circles] be abſolutely provided for, in the beſt manner that is poſſible, and better than it has formerly been:

And whereas, to give the greateſt Strength that was poſſible to the Union ſo neceſſary to both Nations, her late Majeſty, and the States, by a Treaty, in the Month of June 1703, renewed and confirmed all Treaties and Alliances then ſubſiſting between them; and therein it is, amongſt other things, expreſly and particularly ſtipulated,

That as the ſaid moſt Serene Queen, and the Lords the States-General, are now in War with France and Spain, and are reciprocally bound to aſſiſt each other, and mutually to defend, maintain, and preſerve, their Countries and Subjects in their Poſſeſſions, Immunities, and Liberties, as well of Navigation and Commerce, as other Rights whatever, by Sea and Land, againſt, and in Oppoſition to, all Kings, Princes, and States; and particularly againſt France and Spain; to the end a juſt and reaſonable Peace may the better be obtained, that may eſtabliſh the Repoſe and Tranquillity of Europe;

It is agreed, between the moſt Serene Queen of Great Britain and the ſaid Lords the States-General, That neither of the ſaid Allies ſhall make a Suſpenſion of Arms, or a Peace, with France or Spain, or any other King, Prince, or State, who ſhall moleſt or attack either of the ſaid Allies, but in Conjunction, and by common Conſent:

And whereas the ſaid War was, for ſeveral Years, carried on with Vigour and Unanimity, by her Majeſty, and her Allies, at a vaſt Expence, both of Blood and Treaſure; for the Support of which, on the Part of England, many Millions have been granted by Parliament; who, on many Occaſions ſince, continued not only to expreſs their Senſe of the Juſtice and Neceſſity of the War, but did frequently give their humble Advice to the Throne, That no Peace could be ſafe, honourable, or laſting, ſo long as the Kingdom of Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, continued in the Poſſeſſion of any Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon:

And whereas it pleaſed Almighty God to grant to the Confederate Arms, under the Command of their great and victorious General the Duke of Marlborough, ſuch unparalleled Succeſſes, as exceeded even their own Hopes, and the Fears of the Enemy; and, by the many ſignal Victories of Schellenberg, Hochſtedt, Audenarde, and Ramellies, as well as by the Conqueſts of the Electorates of Bavaria and Cologne, and the Reduction of the Spaniſh Netherlands, and many other great Advantages both by Sea and Land, and by the Wiſdom and Unanimity of their Councils, the Glory of the Confederate Arms, and the Reputation of Great Britain in particular, was raiſed to an higher Pitch than in any former Age:

And whereas her late Majeſty, in Conjunction with her Allies, wiſely foreſeeing, that, whenever the Enemy ſhould be brought to make Overtures of Peace, the ſureſt Way to put an End to the War, and prevent France from putting in Practice her uſual Intrigues, was, by previouſly inſiſting on ſuch Conditions from France, that nothing might remain to be done in a General Aſſembly, but to give them the Form of a Treaty; and, for thoſe Reaſons, a Preliminary Treaty was concluded on, and was afterwards ſigned by the Plenipotentiaries of his Imperial Majeſty, of her late Majeſty the Queen of Great Britain, and of the Lords the States-General of the United Provinces, and afterwards ratified by their Principals; wherein the Intereſts of the ſeveral Allies were adjuſted, in order to a General Treaty of Peace with France; and therein the Reſtitution of the Spaniſh Monarchy to the Houſe of Auſtria, being One of the chief Cauſes for carrying on the War, is laid down as an immutable Foundation among the Allies:

And whereas, in the Year of our Lord 1709, the King of France, having firſt ſignified his Conſent to the Reſtitution of the Spaniſh Monarchy to the Houſe of Auſtria, ſent Miniſters to the Hague, to treat with the Miniſters of the principal Allies on a General Peace; and, in the Conferences held thereupon, the Intereſts of all the Allies, as adjuſted in the ſaid Preliminaries, were poſitively and expreſly agreed to by the Miniſters of France, and particularly that of the Reſtitution of the intire Spaniſh Monarchy to the Houſe of Auſtria; and the ſaid Negotiation was afterwards broke on no other Diſpute, but on the 37th Article of the Preliminary Treaty, concerning the Time and Manner of evacuating Spain:

And whereas, the Conferences being reſumed at Gertruydenberg, in the Year of our Lord 1710, the ſaid 37th Article became the only Subject of the Negotiation which was then ſet on foot for the finding out ſome Equivalent, by which the ſame Security might be given to the Allies, as they had by the 37th Article of the ſaid Preliminaries: And though it was unqueſtionable, that before any Negotiation was begun, that while the Preliminaries were treating, that by thoſe Preliminaries themſelves, that before the laſt Negotiation was reſumed, and all the while it laſted, the Reſtitution of Spain, and the Indies, was laid down as a firm and immoveable Foundation of the Negotiation; and no Queſtion remained concerning it with the Miniſters of the Allies, or thoſe of France, but touching the Security for its Execution; and though all ſeaſonable and prudent Overtures were made by the Allies for ſettling an Equivalent; yet the Conferences were broke off by France, without any Satisfaction therein:

And whereas the ſincere Intentions of all the Allies to have ſettled the Peace of Europe on ſolid and equitable Foundations, were notorious and inconteſtable; and the Rupture of the ſaid Negotiations could only be imputed to the Enemy; her Sacred Majeſty, in Conjunction with her Allies, renewed their Reſolutions to continue and puſh the War with Vigour, and to make all poſſible Efforts, as the only Means left to force a good and general Peace; and her Majeſty, in her Speech from the Throne, on the 15th of November 1709, taking Notice of the Endeavours of the Enemy, during the ſaid Negotiations, to amuſe, and create Jealouſies among, the Allies, declared her Reſentment thereat; and earneſtly recommended the carrying on the War, and a vigorous Proſecution of the Advantages obtained, that ſhe might put the laſt Hand to that great Work, of reducing the exorbitant and oppreſſive Power, which had ſo long threatened the Liberties of Europe:

And it having pleaſed Almighty God, after the ſaid Preliminary Treaty, to bleſs the Confederate Army, under the Command of their conſummate General the Duke of Marlborough, with new and ſignal Conqueſts, the Reduction of Tournay, the Victory of the Jaſnieres, the Taking of Mons and Doway, Bethune, St. Venant, and Aire, and the penetrating the Lines near the Scarpe:

And whereas, from the proſperous Condition of the Affairs of the Allies, and the Wiſdom, Firmneſs, and Unanimity, of their Councils, nothing remained, in all human Appearance, but that they ſhould reap the Fruits of their Victories in a ſpeedy, juſt, honourable, and laſting Peace; and, on the other hand, nothing was left to raiſe the Hopes of the Enemy, whereby to defeat that happy Proſpect, but the Succeſs of their ſecret Endeavours to diſunite the Confederacy:

And whereas Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, with other evil-minded Perſons, Enemies to the true Intereſts of their own Country, as well as to the common Liberty and Welfare of Europe, having, by many wicked Arts, and baſe Inſinuations, obtained Acceſs to her late Majeſty Queen Anne; and, in or about the Months of July or Auguſt 1710, being admitted into her Councils, and into Places of the higheſt Truſt; and, to make way for their wicked Enterprizes, did, by their evil Counſel and Advice, prevail on her Majeſty to diſſolve a Parliament which had given the moſt unqueſtionable Proofs of their great Wiſdom, and of their true Zeal for the common Cauſe; for which, as well as for the many Marks of Duty and Affection given to her, her Majeſty returned her hearty Thanks, and expreſſed her great Satisfaction:

And whereas the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others his Accomplices, had formed a treacherous Correſpondence with the Emiſſaries of France; by means whereof, certain Propoſitions were tranſmitted from France to England, ſigned by Monſieur de Torcy, Secretary of the King of France, in the Month of April 1711, to be the Baſis of a Treaty of a General Peace; which Propoſitions though her Majeſty was prevailed on, by the falſe Counſels of the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others, to receive as a ſufficient Foundation for a Treaty of a General Peace, and, as ſuch, to communicate them to the Grand Penſionary and the Miniſters of Holland; her Majeſty was, however, graciouſly pleaſed, at the ſame time, to declare to them her Pleaſure, by her Secretary of State, That, being reſolved, in making Peace, as in making War, to act in perfect Concert with the States, ſhe would not loſe a Moment in tranſmitting a Paper of that Importance; and that, though the Propoſitions were general, and contained an Air of Complaiſance to her Majeſty, and the contrary towards the States, yet that could have no ill Conſequences, as long as her Majeſty and the States underſtood one another, and acted with as little Reſerve as became Two Powers ſo nearly allied in Intereſt; and that the Penſionary ſhould be aſſured, that that Rule ſhould be inviolably kept on her Part:

Which gracious Declaration of her Majeſty, as well as the ſaid Propoſitions, being maturely conſidered by the Grand Penſionary and the Miniſters of Holland, an Anſwer was returned from them to her Majeſty, full of Duty and Thankfulneſs for the obliging Manner in which ſhe was pleaſed to communicate the ſaid Propoſitions; and with the utmoſt Aſſurances of mutual Confidence, ſo neceſſary to prevent the Deſigns of the Enemy; but more particularly, That the States deſired, equally with Great Britain, to have a general, definitive, and laſting Peace; and declared, That they were ready to join in all the moſt proper Meaſures to procure it: That the Propoſitions were yet too general; and that the States deſire, as Great Britain did, that France would explain herſelf more particularly upon the Points therein contained, and impart a Plan which ſhe thinks the moſt proper to ſecure the Intereſt of the Allies, and ſettle the Repoſe of Europe; after which, a more particular Negotiation might be entered into:

Notwithſtanding all which Premiſes;

Article 1.

He the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, having no regard to the Honour or Safety of her late Majeſty, or her Kingdoms, or to the many ſolemn Engagements ſhe was then under to the old and faithful Allies of this Nation, or to the common Liberties of Europe; but but being devoted to the Intereſt, and the Service, of the French King, the common Enemy, and being then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and One of her Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council; contrary to his Oath, and in Violation of his Duty and Truſt, and in Defiance of the Tenor of the ſeveral Treaties afore-mentioned, or ſome of them, as well as of the frequent Advices of Parliament, and the many Declarations of her Majeſty from the Throne; but more particularly in Defiance of the ſolemn and mutual Aſſurances which had been ſo lately renewed between her Majeſty and the States, to act in perfect Concert with them in making Peace, as in making War; did, on or about the Months of July or Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord 1711, maliciouſly and wickedly form a moſt treacherous and pernicious Contrivance and Confederacy, with other evil-diſpoſed Perſons, then alſo of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, to ſet on foot a private, ſeparate, diſhonourable, and deſtructive, Negotiation of Peace between Great Britain and France, without any Communication thereof to her Majeſty's Allies, according to their ſeveral Treaties; and was not only wanting in his Duty and Truſt to her Majeſty by not oppoſing, and, as far as was in his Power, by not adviſing, her Majeſty againſt going into any private, ſeparate Negotiation with France; but, in Execution of his Purpoſes aforeſaid, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did adviſe her late Majeſty to ſend Matthew Pryor Eſquire directly to the Court of France, to make Propoſitions of Peace, without communicating the ſame to her Majeſty's Allies: And accordingly the ſaid Matthew Pryor, by the Advice, and with the Privity, of him the ſaid Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and other falſe and evil Counſellors, in or about the Months of July or Auguſt in the Year of our Lord 1711, was ſent, in a clandeſtine Manner, from England to France; and did communicate the ſaid Propoſitions of Peace to the Miniſters of France; in which the particular Intereſts of Great Britain, as well as the common Intereſt of Europe, were ſhamefully betrayed: And, in Manifeſtation of his ſaid Deſign to exclude her Majeſty's Allies from their juſt Share in the ſaid Negotiation, an expreſs Article was inſerted in the ſaid Propoſitions, by the Privity and Advice of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, that the Secret ſhould be inviolably kept till allowed to be divulged by the mutual Conſent of both Parties; although the King of France had, in the Propoſitions ſigned by Monſieur de Torcy, and tranſmitted in the Month of April preceding, offered to treat with the Plenipotentiaries of England and Holland alone, or jointly with thoſe of the Allies, at the Choice of England: By which treacherous and dangerous Advice, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did not only contrive, and ſet on foot, a Negotiation of Peace more advantageous to France than even France itſelf had aſked; but thereby did put it into the Power of the common Enemy to create incurable Jealouſies and Diſcords between her Majeſty and her faithful Allies, and to deſtroy the Confidence which had ſo long, and ſo ſucceſsfully, been cultivated between them, and which was ſo neceſſary for their common Safety.

That the French King, laying hold of the ſaid treacherous Overture, ſet on foot in manner aforeſaid, did, in or about the Months of Auguſt or September, in the Year of our Lord 1711, ſend over Monſieur Meſnager into England, to carry on a clandeſtine and ſeparate Negotiation of Peace; which being made known to him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, he did afterwards, in the ſaid Month of September 1711, ſecretly and unlawfully, without any Colour of Authority, meet, confer, and treat, with the ſaid Sieur Meſnager on the Negotiations of Peace between Great Britain and France; and therein he did adviſe and promote the making a private and ſeparate Treaty or Agreement between the ſaid Crowns; which ſaid Treaty or Agreement was afterwards, with the Privity, Conſent, and Advice, of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, agreed, concluded on, and ſigned, by the ſaid Sieur Meſnager, on the Part of France; and by the Earl of Dartmouth, and Henry St. John Eſquire, Two of her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, in behalf of her late Majeſty; by virtue only of her Majeſty's Sign Manual under the Signet, and without the leaſt Knowlege or Participation of the Allies: In which Treaty, the immediate Intereſts even of Great Britain are given up to France, and the Duke of Anjou is admitted to be King of Spain; an expreſs Stipulation being therein made with the Sieur Meſnager, in the Name, and (as therein is alleged) purſuant to Powers from King Philip, as King of Spain: Whereby he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did not only aſſume to himſelf regal Power, in taking upon him to meet and treat with the Enemy, without any Authority or Powers from her Majeſty; but did what in him lay to ſubvert the ancient and eſtabliſhed Conſtitution of the Government of theſe Kingdoms, by introducing illegal and dangerous Methods of tranſacting the moſt important Affairs of the State:

And by which private and ſeparate Treaty, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did what in him lay to diſſolve and cancel the many ſolemn Treaties her Majeſty then ſtood engaged in to her good and ancient Allies; and whereby her Majeſty, even before any thing was finally ſettled for the Safety or Advantage of her Kingdoms, was brought to this fatal Dilemma; either to ſubmit to the Dictates of France in the Progreſs of the ſaid Negotiation; or, ſo notorious a Breach of national Faith being divulged by the Enemy, from thence to loſe all future Confidence of her good Allies.

Article 3.

That the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, the better to diſguiſe and carry on the aforeſaid private, ſeparate, and dangerous, Negotiation, did, together with other evil-diſpoſed Perſons, then in high Truſt under her Majeſty, contrive and adviſe the preparing and forming a Set of general Preliminaries, intituled, Preliminary Articles, on the Part of France, to come to a general Peace; and that the ſame ſhould be ſigned by the ſaid Sieur Meſnager (a) [only: And, the ſame being ſo prepared and ſigned by the ſaid Sieur Meſnager,] he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did, contrary to his Duty and Truſt, impiouſly adviſe her Sacred Majeſty (b) [that the ſame ſhould be, and accordingly they were, received by her Majeſty,] and communicated to the Miniſters of the Allies then reſiding in England, as the Ground of a general Negotiation of Peace; and as if the ſame were the only Tranſactions that had been on this Subject between Great Britain and France: And, to this End, the private Treaty, ſigned, as aforeſaid, by the Earl of Dartmouth and Mr. St. John, on the Part of England; and by the ſaid Sieur Meſnager, on the Part of France; was, by the evil Advice and Contrivance of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others, wilfully and induſtriouſly concealed, not only from all the Allies, but even from her Majeſty's Council, and her Parliament: And he did further adviſe her Majeſty, not only to accept the ſaid general Preliminaries, but, in her Name, and by her Authority, to communicate the ſame to the States-General, as a ſufficient Foundation whereon to open the Conferences of Peace with France:

And the more effectually to cover from the States-General the pernicious Steps, which his evil Influence had engaged her Majeſty in with the common Enemy, certain Inſtructions were prepared, and, by his Counſel and Advice, were ſigned by her Majeſty, and delivered to the Earl of Strafford, her Ambaſſador to the States-General; wherein the ſaid Earl of Strafford is directed to repreſent to the Penſionary of Holland, and to ſuch others as ſhall be appointed to confer with him, That when her Majeſty had received, in May laſt, by his Excellency's Diſpatches, an Account of the Senſe which thoſe among them, who were at that time in the Secret, had of the Overtures made by France for ſetting a general Negotiation of Peace again on foot, and of the Anſwer which, it was deſired, might be returned to the Propoſitions ſigned by Monſieur de Torcy, her Majeſty did immediately acquaint the Enemy, That their Offers were thought by her, and by the States-General, neither particular nor full enough; and therefore that her Majeſty did inſiſt, That they ſhould form a diſtinct Project of ſuch a Peace as they were willing to conclude; whereas no ſuch Inſtances had been made to the Enemy on her Majeſty's behalf: But, on the contrary, notwithſtanding her Majeſty had declared, That the Propoſitions of Monſieur de Torcy were thought by her, and the States-General, neither particular nor full enough; yet, without any further Explication from the Enemy, her Majeſty was prevailed on, in manner aforeſaid, to ſend over Propoſitions to France, as general and enſnareing, and, in all reſpects, as deſtructive to the Intereſts of Great Britain, and her Allies, as the Propoſitions of Monſieur de Torcy: And the ſaid general Preliminaries, communicated to the States in manner aforeſaid, were calculated only to amuſe and deceive them into a general Negotiation with France; and, in the Particulars aboveſaid, as well as in ſeveral others, the ſaid Inſtructions contained Matters either falſe, or groſly prevaricating and evaſive: By which moſt wicked Counſels of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, that unqueſtionable Truth and Sacredneſs, which, by the Laws of Nations, ought to accompany and conſtitute the Inſtructions of publick Ambaſſadors to Princes in Friendſhip, and Confederacy againſt the common Enemy, was moſt vilely proſtituted to the moſt dangerous Purpoſes, to deceive and miſlead her Majeſty's good Allies in Matters of the greateſt Importance to their own Intereſts, and the Intereſts of theſe Kingdoms; the Honour of her Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and of the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, which had been raiſed to the higheſt Pitch of Glory abroad, and had been juſtly held in Veneration with her good Allies, was ſcandalouſly debaſed and betrayed; and the Royal Hand, by the wicked Arts of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, was made the Inſtrument to advance the Intereſt of the common Enemy.

Article 4.

That whereas the Earl of Strafford, purſuant to his ſaid Inſtructions, had communicated the Preliminaries, ſigned by Monſieur Meſnager only, to the States-General; who, being juſtly alarmed at the preſſing Inſtances made, on the Part of her Majeſty, that Conferences ſhould be opened on Propoſitions as general and uncertain as thoſe ſo lately offered by France, and ſigned by Monſieur de Torcy; and their High Mightineſſes, having been unſucceſsful in their Remonſtrances to the Earl of Strafford againſt opening the Conferences upon the ſaid Propoſitions; did ſend over Mr. Buys their Ambaſſador, to repreſent to her Majeſty, as well the Hazard of meeting the Miniſters of France, before the eſſential Articles were firſt ſettled by ſpecial Preliminaries, or, at leaſt, explained by France, and made ſpecifick; as likewiſe the Advantages to the Enemy, who, being but One Body, were influenced by One Council, and directed by One Power; whereas the Confederates conſiſted of ſeveral Powers, whoſe Intereſts are not only diſtinct, but, in many Caſes, contrary to each other; whereby the French would have a fair Opportunity to divide the Allies, when it would be impoſſible for them to break in upon France; and further to repreſent, That the Propoſitions themſelves were, in ſome Inſtances, very prejudicial, particularly in the Articles of Commerce, Dunkirk, and the Union of the Crowns of France and Spain: All which Repreſentations of the ſaid Mr. Buys, by the evil Influence of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others, were rendered ineffectual: But, in order to prevail upon the States-General to open the Conferences upon the ſaid general Preliminaries, by the Management and Contrivance of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others, an Occaſion was taken to declare to Mr. Buys at a Committee of Council, in her Majeſty's Name, her conſtant Affection, aud good Diſpoſition, to their State, and to the promoteing their Intereſt, and to treat with their High Mightineſſes with a perfect Confidence and Harmony: And, at the ſame time, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did then falſly and maliciouſly declare, or was privy to, adviſing and conſenting, that it ſhould be, and ſo it was, declared, in her Majeſty's Name, That ſhe had made no ſeparate Treaty with France, nor would ever make any, before ſhe had fully complied with all Engagements to her Allies; and that each of them ſhould have Opportunity to make good their Pretenſions: By which falſe, ſcandalous, and diſhonourable Aſſurances, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did not only highly diſhonour her Majeſty, by whoſe Privity the ſaid ſeparate Treaty with France had been, before that time, concluded and ſigned; but their High Mightineſſes, the good Friends, and ancient Allies, of her Majeſty, were groſly abuſed, and thereby induced to enter into a Negotiation with France, ſo dangerous in itſelf, and ſo fatal in its Conſequences.

Article 5.

That her Sacred Majeſty Queen Anne having, in due Form of Law, and under her Great Seal, conſtituted the Right Reverend John Lord Biſhop of Briſtol, and the Earl of Strafford, her Plenipotentiaries, with full Powers to meet, treat, and conclude, with the Plenipotentiaries of the Confederates, and thoſe whom the King of France ſhall, on his Part, depute for that Purpoſe, the Conditions of a good and general Peace, that ſhall be ſafe, honourable, and, as far as is poſſible, agreeable to the reaſonable Demands of all Parties; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, not contenting himſelf to abuſe the Royal Authority to the Deluſion of the States-General, the neareſt Allies of the Queen, but intending the univerſal Prejudice of his Imperial Majeſty, and all the Allies of theſe Kingdoms, and thereby the more ſucceſsfully to carry on the Meaſures of France, wherein he was then engaged, contrived and prepared Inſtructions, or was privy to, conſenting and adviſing, the ſame, for her Majeſty's ſaid Plenipotentiaries, which ſhe was prevailed upon, by the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer's evil Counſel, to ſign; and the ſame were delivered to the ſaid Plenipotentiaries; wherein, among other things, they are inſtructed to the Effect following; viz. "If it "ſhall be thought proper to begin by the Diſpoſition of "the Spaniſh Monarchy, you are to inſiſt, That the Security "and reaſonable Satisfaction, which the Allies expect, and "which his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty has promiſed, cannot be "obtained, if Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, be allotted to any "Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon;" whereas the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer had, at that time, privately and treacherouſly negotiated and agreed with the Miniſters of France, that Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, ſhould remain in a Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon; and had prevailed on her Sacred Majeſty to be Party to the ſaid private Treaty, wherein the ſame is neceſſarily implied: And the ſaid Plenipotentiaries are further inſtructed, in caſe the Enemy ſhould object, as the Imperial Miniſters have done, That the 2d Article of the 7th, ſigned by the Sieur Meſnager, implies, That the Duke of Anjou ſhall continue on the Throne of Spain; "You are to inſiſt, That thoſe Ar-"ticles, as far as they extend, are indeed binding to "France; but that they lay neither us, nor our Allies, "under any poſitive Obligation:" Whereby the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer baſely entered into a Confederacy and Colluſion, even with the Miniſters of the Enemy; and prevailed on her Majeſty to give her Royal Conſent thereto, the more effectually to impoſe on his Imperial Majeſty, and all the Allies; and to conceal the ſaid ſecret Negotiations, and the ſeparate Treaty, that had been agreed on between Great Britain and France: And the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, not only in the Particulars before-mentioned, but in many others contained in the ſaid Inſtructions, has brought a laſting Reproach on the Crown of theſe Realms, and groſly violated the many Treaties, wherein her Sacred Majeſty was then engaged to her Allies, to act in perfect Concert with them throughout the Negotiations of Peace.

Article 6.

That the Conferences of Peace being opened between the Plenipotentiaries of the Allies and thoſe of the Enemy, for the negotiating a general Peace, upon the mutual and moſt ſolemn Engagements amongſt the Allies, not only to act in perfect Confidence with each other, but to promote their common Intereſt, and to obtain from the Enemy all juſt and reaſonable Satisfaction; and a ſpecifick Explanation of the general Preliminaries having been given in by the Enemy at Utrecht, whereon the Allies delivered their reſpective Demands; by the Artifices of France, and the ſecret Encouragement and Concurrence of the Miniſters of Great Britain, the Progreſs of the ſaid publick Negotiation was delayed, and kept in Suſpenſe, under Pretence of the Enemy's refuſing to give their Anſwer in Writing: During which time, he the ſaid Earl Robert of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, again aſſuming to himſelf regal Power, in Derogation of the Royal Authority, to treat of Peace with France, which was then delegated, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to her Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht; and for the promoting the Deſigns of the Enemy; to the apparent Deſtruction of the common Cauſe of her Majeſty, and her Allies; contrary to the known Laws and Conſtitution of this Kingdom; in direct Violation of the ſeveral Alliances her Majeſty then ſtood engaged in; and in Oppoſition to the many Aſſurances given by her Majeſty to act in Concert with her Allies; and in Defiance of the expreſs Inſtructions given to her ſaid Plenipotentiaries; was not only wanting in his Duty to her Majeſty, as far as in him lay, to have put an End to, and prevented, any further private and unlawful Negotiations with France; but did, with others his Accomplices, adviſe, concur, continue, and promote, a private, ſeparate, and unjuſtifiable, Negotiation of Peace with France, directly from England to France, without any Communication thereof to the Allies; and, in ſuch private Negotiations, did concert with the Miniſters of the Enemy Terms of Peace highly prejudicial to the Intereſt of her Majeſty, and her Kingdoms, and of all her Allies; and whereby the good Effects of the ſaid general Negotiations were intirely defeated.

Article 7.

That her Sacred Majeſty Queen Anne having been prevailed on, by the falſe Counſels of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, to accept of a Treaty with France, on the Suppoſition, that the Spaniſh Monarchy ſhould continue in the Poſſeſſion of a Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon; and it being acknowleged, even by the King of France, in the general Preliminaries ſigned by Monſieur Meſnager, that the Exceſs of Power, from the Reunion of the Crowns of France and Spain, would be contrary to the Good, and general Repoſe, of Europe; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, having nothing ſo much in View as the aggrandizing the common Enemy; yet always intending to cover the Iniquity of his Heart under ſpecious Pretences, and falſe Appearances; did wickedly and treacherouſly adviſe, and carry on, a private and ſeparate Negotiation with France, on the Subject of a Renunciation of his Right to the Kingdom of France by the Duke of Anjou; and that ſuch Renunciation ſhould be the Security againſt the Reunion of the Two Kingdoms: And, by the Influence of his evil Counſels, her Majeſty was prevailed on to accept, and finally to conclude and ratify, a Treaty of Peace with France; wherein the ſaid Renunciation is taken as a ſufficient Expedient to prevent the Miſchiefs that threatened all Europe, in caſe the Crowns of France and Spain ſhould be united upon the Head of one and the ſame Perſon; although he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer well knew, that a Memorial had been, during the ſaid ſeparate Negotiation, tranſmitted by Monſieur de Torcy, Secretary of State, and Miniſter, to the French King, to One of her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State; whereby it was declared, That the ſaid Renunciation would be null and invalid by the fundamental Laws of France; which Laws were looked upon as the Work of him who had eſtabliſhed all Monarchies, and which he only could aboliſh; and that no Renunciation, therefore, could deſtroy it; and, if the King of Spain ſhould renounce, they would deceive themſelves that ſhould receive it as a ſufficient Expedient to prevent the Miſchiefs propoſed to be avoided: By which falſe and treacherous Counſels, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did not only betray the Intereſts of the common Cauſe into the Hands of the moſt formidable Enemy, but wilfully and maliciouſly abuſed the Power and Influence which he had obtained with her Majeſty, ſo far as to engage her Sacred Majeſty, and the Honour of the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms, to become Party with France in ſo fatal a Deceit.

Article 8.

That her late Majeſty Queen Anne having, on the 7th Day of December in the Year of our Lord 1711, earneſtly recommended it from the Throne, that Proviſion might be made for an early Campaign, in order to carry on the War with Vigour, and as the beſt Way to render the Treaty of Peace effectual; in order to which, vaſt Supplies were granted, and Magazines provided, at a great Expence, for an early Campaign; and, in purſuance thereof, her Majeſty having ſent her Generals Lumley and Cadogan to give early Aſſurances to her Allies of her ſincere Intentions, and likewiſe expreſly inſtructed her General the Duke of Ormond, not only to renew the ſame Aſſurances, and declare her Reſolutions of puſhing on the War with the utmoſt Vigour, but to concert with the Generals of the Allies the proper Meaſures for entering on Action; and the Confederate Army, which at that time was the fineſt and ſtrongeſt that had been in the Service during the whole Courſe of the War, and provided with all Neceſſaries to act with Vigour, having marched, according to the Reſolution taken in Concert with her Majeſty's General, almoſt up to the Enemy, with a great Superiority both as to the Number and Goodneſs of Troops, and animated with a noble Courage and Zeal to acquit themſelves bravely; ſo that, in all human Appearance, and with the Divine Aſſiſtance, which had appeared ſo viſibly for them on many other Occaſions, they would have been able, either by Battle or Siege, to have gained great Advantages over the Enemy, to have bettered the Affairs of the Allies, and to have facilitated the Negotiations of Peace; and the Miniſters of France having frequently and earneſtly repreſented to the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others his Accomplices, during their ſecret Negotiations, their juſt Apprehenſions from the Bravery, and good Diſpoſition, of the Confederate Army; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, being truly informed of the ſure Proſpect which, by the Bleſſing of God, the Army of the Confederates then had of gaining new Conqueſts over the Army of France, and whereby they would have been enabled to have forced Terms of Peace, ſafe, honourable, and laſting; in order to diſappoint thoſe comfortable Expectations of the Allies, and to give Succeſs to his ſecret Negotiations with the Miniſters of France, was privy to, conſenting and adviſing, together with other falſe and evil Counſellors, and, together with them, did adviſe and conſent, That an Order ſhould be ſent, in her Majeſty's Name, to the Duke of Ormonde in Flanders, to avoid engaging in any Siege, or hazarding a Battle, till further Orders; although nothing had then been ſettled in the ſaid private Negotiation for the Intereſt and Security of Great Britain; and although Philip King of Spain at that time had not conſented to the Renunciation of his Right to the Crown of France: And, not contenting himſelf with having obtained that fatal Step, ſo highly advantageous to the Cauſe of France, but being wickedly determined to do all that in him lay to diſſolve the whole Confederacy, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, with others, was privy to, and did conſent and adviſe, That Orders ſhould be ſent to the Biſhop of Briſtol, One of her Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries then at Utrecht, to take the Firſt ſolemn Opportunity to declare to the Dutch Miniſters, That her Majeſty looked on herſelf, from their Conduct, to be then under no Obligation whatſoever to them: Which Two Declarations giving juſt Alarm to all the Allies, they repreſented to the Biſhop of Briſtol their general Diſſatisfaction, faction, and the unexpreſſible Conſternation they were all in: That theſe Proceedings were the unavoidable Ruin of Europe: They urged Religion, Liberty, and the Faith of Treaties, to ſhew the Enormity of this Uſage: And the States expreſſed their Uneaſineſs on no Account ſo much, as that they could not come to the Knowlege of their own Lot: Which Repreſentations the Biſhop of Briſtol did, at the Inſtance of the Allies, ſignify to One of her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: But their High Mightineſſes finding, that all Applications to the Miniſters of Great Britain, and, in particular, to the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, were of no Avail againſt France, and for the Intereſt of the common Cauſe, thought it neceſſary, in a manner the moſt moving and reſpectful, to addreſs directly to her Majeſty, by a Letter of the 5th of June 1712; therein expreſſing their great Surprize and Affliction at the Two Declarations afore-mentioned; and finding it difficult to conceive how ſuch Declarations, ſo prejudicial to the common Cauſe, given ſo ſuddenly without their Knowlege, and undoubtedly too without the Knowlege of the other Allies, could agree and conſiſt with the Nature of an Alliance, and with thoſe Aſſurances and Engagements her Majeſty had ſo lately made; and not knowing how to reconcile it with the great Goodneſs and Kindneſs which her Majeſty had always honoured them with; and not being able to conceive how ſuch a ſudden Change could happen with reſpect to them, having carefully examined their own Conduct, and finding nothing therein that could have given Ground to her Majeſty's Diſſatisfaction: And having repreſented the viſible and immediate fatal Conſequences of the ſaid Two Orders, not only to the common Intereſt of her Majeſty and the States, but to the whole Confederacy, and to the Proteſtant Religion; they beſeeched her Majeſty, with all the Reſpect, and all the Earneſtneſs, they were capable of, That ſhe would not perſiſt in the Declarations made by the Biſhop of Briſtol, and would be pleaſed to revoke the Orders given to the Duke of Ormonde; and would authorize him to act according to Occurrences, and as the Exigency of the War, and the Advancement of the common Cauſe, ſhould require: Notwithſtanding which, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, being acquainted with the ſaid Repreſentations of the States, was not only wanting in his Duty to her Majeſty, and to his Oath, and the great Truſt repoſed in him, in not adviſing, as he ought to have done, her Sacred Majeſty to have hearkened to the ſaid ſeveral Inſtances made to her, but, perſiſting in his deſperate and deſtructive Meaſures for the Advancement of the Intereſt of the common Enemy, did afterwards adviſe her Majeſty to diſregard and reject the ſame; and did countenance, encourage, adviſe, and promote, the ſaid private, ſeparate, and wicked, Negotiations with France, without any Participation of the Allies, contrary to all her Majeſty's Engagements, and to the apparent Ruin of the common Cauſe:

By which ſeveral wicked and perfidious Counſels, the Progreſs of the victorious Arms of the Confederates was ſtopped; and an Opportunity loſt for conquering the Enemy, the moſt favourable, in the Opinion of all the General Officers, and the Quarter-maſters of the Allies, who were ſent out to view the French Camp; and whereby all Hopes of Confidence between her Majeſty and her Allies was intirely deſtroyed, and the King of France made abſolute Maſter of the Negotiations of Peace, and the Affairs of Europe given into his Hands.

Article 9.

That, to impoſe upon the Allies the fatal Neceſſity of ſubmitting to the Terms of France, and, in order thereto, to leave the whole Confederate Army at the Mercy of the common Enemy, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, was privy and conſenting to a ſecret and ſeparate Concert with the Miniſters of France, without the Knowlege of the Allies, for the ſeparating the Troops in her Majeſty's Pay from the reſt of the Confederate Army; for the Effecting whereof, inſtead of preventing, as far as in him lay, ſo fatal a Step, he was not only wanting to adviſe againſt ſo unwarrantable a Proceeding, but did conſent to, and adviſe her Majeſty, that the Duke of Ormonde, and all the Troops then in her Majeſty's Pay, or ſuch of them as would obey his Orders, ſhould ſeparate themſelves from the Army of the Confederates: And, having Notice, that the Generals of the Auxiliaries paid by her Majeſty, whoſe Honour and Conſciences would not permit them to abandon the Confederates, and leave them as a Sacrifice to France, but, for the Sake of the common Intereſt of Europe, and according to the true End and Deſign of their Conventions, did refuſe to withdraw with the Duke of Ormonde, without particular Orders from their reſpective Maſters; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, being then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and One of her Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council, in Violation of his Oath, and the Duty and Truſt repoſed in him, did take upon himſelf an arbitrary and illegal Power to refuſe, and put a Stop, to the Pay and Subſidies due on account of the ſaid foreign Troops; although they were intitled thereto by the Conventions entered into with her Sacred Majeſty, and by expreſs Proviſion, made by Act of Parliament, for the Payment of the ſame:

By which fatal Separation, which, purſuant to his evil Counſels, was afterwards made, great Numbers of the Confederate Troops, who had before, on many Occaſions, ſignalized themſelves in the Defence of the Cauſe of Europe, ſoon afterwards, at the unfortunate Action of Denain, fell as Sacrifices to the Fury and Revenge of France; the Siege of Landrecy was raiſed; the important Towns and Fortreſſes of Queſnoy, Bouchain, and Douay, were retaken by the French Army; and not only the Fortune of the War, but the Fate of Europe, decided in favour of France.

Article 10.

That, in further Execution of his pernicious Deſigns to complete the Deſtruction of the common Cauſe of Europe, and to render it impracticable for her Majeſty to reſume the War againſt France, in Conjunction with her Allies; or to recover the Union with her Majeſty's old and faithful Allies, ſo neceſſary to the Preſervation of theſe Kingdoms; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, did carry on, and concert, with the Miniſters of France, a private and ſeparate Negotiation for a general Suſpenſion, by Sea and Land, between Great Britain and France; and to that End, among others, did adviſe her Majeſty to ſend over Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of the Principal Secretaries of State, to the Court of France, with Powers to ſettle the ſaid Suſpenſion; in purſuance of which, a deſtructive Treaty of Suſpenſion was made in France, on the 19th of Auguſt, N. S. 1712, by the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, on the Part of her ſaid Majeſty, for Four Months, without the Knowlege, or any Participation, of the Allies, and before any Terms of Peace were ſettled with the Enemy, either for Great Britain, or the Allies: By which evil Counſels, the expreſs Terms of ſeveral of the afore-mentioned Treaties were expreſly contravened and broken; the good Friends, and ancient Allies, of her Majeſty, and theſe Kingdoms, were totally deprived of the juſt Aſſiſtance, to which they were thereby intitled, and were left expoſed to the Inſults of the common Enemy; and, the ſacred Ties of Union and Friendſhip between her Majeſty and her Allies being cut aſunder, her Majeſty's Perſon and Government, the Safety of her Kingdoms, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms, were left expoſed to the Enterprizes of her moſt formidable Enemy.

Article 11.

That whereas the States-General of the United Provinces were, in or about the Months of September or October in the Year of our Lord 1712, in Poſſeſſion of the ſtrong and important Town and Fortreſs of Tournay; and whereas the King of France had, during the Courſe of the ſaid private, ſeparate, and treacherous, Negotiation between him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others, and the Miniſters of France, ſignified his Conſent to the Miniſters of Great Britain, that the ſaid Town and

and Fortreſs of Tournay ſhould remain to the ſaid States-General, as Part of their Barrier; and whereas her Majeſty, in her Inſtructions, of December 23d, 1711, to her Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, had expreſly directed them to inſiſt, with the Plenipotentiaries of France, in the General Congreſs, that, towards forming a ſufficient Barrier for the States-General, Tournay ſhould remain to their High Mightineſſes; and did afterwards declare herſelf conformably thereunto, in her Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, on the 6th of June 1712; in which ſhe communicated to them the Terms whereon a Peace might be made; and whereas, for ſeveral Years before, and till the ſaid Months of September and October, in the Year of our Lord 1711, there was open War between her late Majeſty and the King of France; and, the ſaid War continuing for all the ſaid Time, and afterwards, the ſaid King of France, and his Subjects, were Enemies to her Majeſty; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and a Subject of her Majeſty, not conſidering the Duty of his Allegiance, but having altogether withdrawn the cordial Love, and true and due Obedience, which every true and faithful Subject owed to her ſaid Majeſty, and deſigning to give Aid and Succour, and to adhere to the ſaid French King, did, on or about the Months of September or October 1712, during the ſaid War, falſly, maliciouſly, wickedly, and treacherouſly, aid, help, and aſſiſt, and adhere to, the King of France, then an Enemy to her late Majeſty; and, in Execution and Performance of his ſaid Aiding, Aſſiſting, and Adhering, maliciouſly, falſly, and treacherouſly, did counſel and adviſe the ſaid Enemy in what Manner, and by what Methods, the ſaid important Town and Fortreſs of Tournay, then in the Poſſeſſion of the States-General, might be gained from them to the King of France; contrary to the Duty of his Allegiance, and the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Article 12.

That whereas her late Majeſty Queen Anne, not only in purſuance of the Treaties ſhe ſtood engaged in to her good Allies, and in particular to his Imperial Majeſty, for the Recovery of the Monarchy of Spain to the Houſe of Auſtria, thereby to preſerve a due Balance of Power in Europe; but alſo from her juſt Reſentment againſt the Duke of Anjou, who then ſtiled himſelf King of Spain, and who, in Defiance of her Majeſty's (a) [Title] to the Crown, had acknowleged the Pretender as King of Great Britain; and, on theſe juſt Foundations, her Majeſty had, in Vindication of the Honour of the Crown, and in Juſtice to her People, at a vaſt Expence of Blood and Treaſure, and on the earneſt and repeated Advices of her Parliament, proſecuted a vigorous War againſt the ſaid Duke of Anjou; and whereas, in the Years of our Lord 1710, 1711, and 1712, the ſaid open, bloody, and expenſive War was carried on between her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Anne and the ſaid Duke of Anjou; and, during all the time aforeſaid, the ſaid War did continue; and for all that time, the ſaid Duke of Anjou, and the Subjects of Spain adhering to him, were Enemies of her late Majeſty; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and One of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, and a Subject of her ſaid Majeſty, not conſidering the Duty of his Allegiance, but having withdrawn his true Obedience from her late Majeſty, did, at ſeveral times, in the ſaid Years of our Lord 1710, 1711, and 1712, falſly, maliciouſly, wickedly, and treacherouſly, aid, help, aſſiſt, and adhere to, the ſaid Duke of Anjou, then an Enemy to her ſaid late Majeſty; and, in the Execution and Performance of his ſaid Aiding, Helping, Aſſiſting, and Adhering, and in Confederacy and Combination with the then Enemies of her late Majeſty, and with divers other wicked and evil-diſpoſed Perſons, did, at ſeveral times, in the Years aforeſaid, adviſe and counſel the Enemies of her late Majeſty, and, in ſuch Counſelling and Adviſing, did concert with them, and did promote, the yielding and giving up, Spain and the Weſt-Indies, or ſome Parts thereof, to the ſaid Duke of Anjou, then in Enmity with her Majeſty; againſt the Duty of his Allegiance, and the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Article 13.

That whereas the Ri hes, Power, and Strength, of theſe Kingdoms, depend intirely on the flouriſhing Condition of Trade and Navigation; and her late Majeſty Queen Anne, having due Regard thereto, as well as to the juſt Expectations of her People, after the vaſt Expences they had ſo chearfully undergone in Support of the War, did, on the firſt opening the Conferences for a General Peace, declare from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, on the 7th of December 1711, That ſhe would endeavour, that, after a War which had coſt ſo much Blood and Treaſure, the Nation might find their Intereſt in Trade and Commerce improved and inlarged by a Peace; and, on the 6th of June 1712, when ſhe was pleaſed to communicate the Terms on which a General Peace might be made, did declare, That nothing had moved her Majeſty from ſteadily purſuing the true Intereſt of her own Kingdoms; and that the Terms of Peace, obtained for her own Subjects, were ſuch as, ſhe had Reaſon to expect, would make her People ſome Amends for the great and unequal Burden which they had lain under through the whole Courſe of the War; and hoped that none of the Confederates would envy her Share in the Glory and Advantage of the Peace; and afterwards declared to both Houſes of Parliament her Satisfaction in the near View ſhe had of Peace, ſince it would, in ſome meaſure, recompenſe her Subjects for their vaſt Expences; and, after the Concluſion of the Treaties of Peace and Commerce with France, did declare from the Throne, on the 9th of April 1713, That the many Advantages ſhe had obtained for her Subjects, had occaſioned much Oppoſition, and long Delays, to the Peace; but it afforded her great Satisfaction, that her People will have it in their Power, by degrees, to repair what they had ſuffered during ſo long and burdenſome a War; whereon both Houſes of Parliament did, from time to time, expreſs their grateful Acknowlegements to her Majeſty, for her great Care and Concern for the Welfare of her People:

And whereas, at the Setting on foot, and in the Progreſs, of the ſaid private, ſeparate, and pernicious Negotiations between the Miniſters of Great Britain and France, it was laid down as a Principle, on the Part of Great Britain, never to be departed from, That France ſhould conſent to adjuſt the Intereſts of Great Britain in the Firſt place, that the Miniſters of Great Britain might thereby be enabled to engage the Queen to make the Concluſion of the General Peace eaſy to France; and, on this plauſible Pretence, it was inſiſted on, by the Miniſters of Great Britain, to remit the Diſcuſſion of the particular Intereſts of the Allies to general Conferences; and, throughout the whole Courſe of the ſaid ſeparate Negotiation, all imaginable Conceſſions were not only made by the Miniſters of Great Britain, for the real Advantage of the Intereſts of France againſt the Allies; but all Meaſures were entered into, and concerted, between them, that even the Miniſters of France could dictate, in order to ſtrengthen their Hands, and to enable them to impoſe the Terms of a General Peace; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, having nothing in View through the whole Courſe of the ſaid Negotiation, wherein he was wickedly and principally engaged, in Concert with France, but the final Deſtruction of his Country; and, to that end, the ſacrificing the Commerce of Great Britain to the Aggrandizement of France; was not only wanting in his Duty to her Majeſty, in not inſiſting on, in all Events, and not procuring, in the Firſt place, the moſt certain and ſtrict Securities imaginable for the Safety and Advantage of the Commerce of theſe Kingdoms; but did adviſe her late Majeſty, That, in the Propoſitions ſent, by his Privity and Advice, by Mr. Pryor, to France, and alſo in the ſaid private and ſeparate Treaty, ſigned on the ſaid 27th of September 1711, wherein the preliminary Demands for Great Britain, more particularly, were intended to be adjuſted with France, the Demands for Great Britain, in point of Commerce, ſhould not only be made in

looſe, general, and inſufficient Terms; but that the Liberty of Fiſhing, and Drying of Fiſh, on Newfoundland, ſhould be expreſly given up to France; though the Reſtitution of that ſmall Part of the Iſland, which France had taken during the War, was therein referred, to be diſcuſſed, to general Conferences; and, having, by his wicked Artifices, engaged her Majeſty in the ſaid private Treaty with France, without any Security for the Commerce of Great Britain, he did artfully and cunningly contrive, with the Miniſters of France, to keep in Suſpenſe all Matters that concerned the Commerce of Great Britain; until, by means of his wicked and pernicious Counſels aforementioned, France was become Maſter of the Negotiations: And the chief Advantages for the Commerce of Great Britain by that means remaining unſettled; and the Miniſters of France afterwards diſputing the moſt eſſential Articles which had been in Agitation; and, in particular, that fundamental Principle of treating, and being treated, as Gens amiciſſima; and endeavouring to elude what had been agreed on in the ſaid private and ſeparate Negotiation for the ſuppoſed Advantage of Great Britain; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, under Pretence of removing a Difficulty then depending, by an Expedient advantageous to Great Britain, did treacherouſly adviſe the 9th Article of the Treaty of Commerce with France; a Bill for the rendering whereof effectual was afterwards rejected by the Houſe of Commons, as highly prejudicial and deſtructive to the Commerce of theſe Kingdoms; but yet, for the ſake of gaining that deſtructive Article for Great Britain, as if the ſame had been advantageous, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, in Defiance of the expreſs Proviſion of an Act of Parliament, as well as in Contempt of the frequent and earneſt Repreſentations of the Merchants of Great Britain, and of the Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, did adviſe her Majeſty finally to agree with France, that the Subjects of France ſhould have Liberty of Fiſhing, and drying Fiſh, on Newfoundland; and did alſo adviſe her Majeſty to make a Ceſſion to France of the Iſle of Cape-Breton, with Liberty to fortify the ſame; although the Iſle of Cape-Breton was Part of the ancient Territories of the Crown of Great Britain; and her Majeſty had declared from the Throne, That France had conſented to make an abſolute Ceſſion of Nova Scotia, or Acadia, whereof Cape-Breton is Part, to her Majeſty:

And the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, intending, in all Events, to ſecure to France the Advantages relating to the Fiſhery of Newfoundland, and to Cape-Breton, did, in Conjunction with the Miniſters of France, adviſe her Majeſty to conſent, that the ſame ſhould be made an Article in the Treaty of Peace between Great Britain and France; whereas the only Advantages in Trade, pretended to be ſtipulated for Great Britain, being inſerted in the Treaty of Commerce, were to depend on certain Conditions, to be made good by Act of Parliament:

And, purſuant to, and by the Influence of, the ſaid evil Counſel of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, her Sacred Majeſty was adviſed to ratify the ſaid Article in the ſaid Treaty of Peace, and the ſaid Treaty of Commerce; by means of which pernicious Counſels, the good Intentions of her Sacred Majeſty to have obtained for her People advantageous Terms of Commerce, were intirely fruſtrated; the Trade and Manufactures of Great Britain, as far as in him lay, rendered precarious, and at the Mercy of the Enemy; and that beneficial Branch of Trade, always eſteemed the great Support of the Naval Power, and the chief Nurſery of the Seamen, of Great Britain, yielded up to the Subjects of France:

And the only Pretence for the avowed and notorious Violation of Treaties, and the carrying on the Meaſures of France; viz. the adjuſting firſt the Intereſt of Great Britain; through the whole Courſe of the ſaid private and ſeparate Negotiation, terminated at laſt in the Sacrifice of the Commerce of Great Britain to France, without the leaſt Shadow of Advantage in Trade procured for theſe Kingdoms.

Article 14.

That he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did, in Concert with other evil and falſe Counſellors, even without any Application from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, and after the King of France had, in the Courſe of the ſaid private and ſeparate Negotiations, conſented that the Kingdom of Sicily ſhould remain to the Houſe of Auſtria, form a Project and Deſign to diſpoſe of the Kingdom of Sicily to the Duke of Savoy, from the Houſe of Auſtria; and, to effect that his unjuſt, diſhonourable, and pernicious Project, he did adviſe her Majeſty to give Inſtructions, among other things, to Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, then appointed her Ambaſſador to France, to demand, in her Majeſty's Name, of the King of France, the Kingdom of Sicily for his ſaid Royal Highneſs: And, a Treaty of Peace being afterwards made between the King of France, his Royal Highneſs, and the Duke of Anjou, wherein a Ceſſion is made to his Royal Highneſs of the Kingdom of Sicily, without any Concurrence or Participation of his Imperial Majeſty, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did baſely and ſcandalouſly adviſe her Sacred Majeſty to conſent to the ſame, by an Article inſerted in the Treaty of Peace between her Majeſty and the King of France; and afterwards, by his Privity and Advice, her Majeſty was prevailed on to aſſiſt his Royal Highneſs againſt the Emperor, then in Alliance with her Majeſty, with a Part of her Royal Fleet, at her own Expence, in order to put him in Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Kingdom of Sicily; whereby the greateſt Injuſtice was done to his Imperial Majeſty, in direct Violation of the Grand Alliance, and contrary to her Majeſty's frequent Declarations from the Throne, and her plain and full Inſtructions to her Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, for obtaining his juſt and reaſonable Satisfaction; and whereby National Faith, and the Honour of the Crown, was vilely betrayed; and the Naval Power of theſe Kingdoms, and the Supplies granted by Parliament for reducing the common Enemy, were perfidiouſly employed againſt the great and faithful Ally of this Kingdom.

Article 15.

That whereas the Dignity and Support of the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms has, in all Ages, greatly depended on the Wiſdom and Truth of the Communications made from the Throne, eſpecially in Parliament, as the ſure and only Means, whereby the Kings and Queens of this Realm can receive the ſincere and faithful Advice of their People, in Matters of the higheſt Importance; and which, by the fundamental Laws and Conſtitution of this Government, ought to be inviolably obſerved, as the ſacred Band of the Duty and Affection of Subjects to their Sovereign:

And whereas, by the moſt ancient and known Laws of this Kingdom, it is indiſpenſably incumbent on the great Officers of State, that ſurround the Throne, to maintain, as far as in them lies, the Sacredneſs of the Royal Word, on all Occaſions; it being moſt apparent, that the greateſt Diſhonour to the Throne, and the greateſt Danger to theſe Kingdoms, muſt inevitably enſue, whenever that Fountain of Truth, by wicked Counſels, ſhall be in any Degree corrupted, and thereby loſe its juſt Influence, and neceſſary Authority:

And whereas the Power of making Peace and War, One of the ancient, undoubted, and moſt important, Prerogatives of the Crown, has been always exerciſed, by the Sovereigns of theſe Realms, with the ſtricteſt Regard to the Honour of the Crown, and the Welfare of the People; and, for that End, they have, in great Wiſdom, in all Ages, taken the Advice of Parliament on ſuch weighty Occaſions:

And whereas her late Majeſty Queen Anne declared, from the Throne, her gracious Intentions to communicate the Terms of Peace to her Parliament, for their deliberate and ſerious Advice therein; wiſely foreſeeing, that the

the Safety of her Perſon and Government, of the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Crown, which ſhe had neareſt her Heart, and of the Proteſtant Religion, and the Liberties of Europe, did inevitably depend on the happy Concluſion of the ſaid Negotiations:

He the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, having taken on himſelf, throughout the ſaid Negotiations, a moſt arbitrary and unwarrantable Authority, and the chief Direction and Influence in her Majeſty's Councils; and moſt wickedly deſigning to proſtitute the Honour of the Crown, and the Dignity of Parliaments, and not only totally to deprive her Majeſty of the wholſome and neceſſary Advice of her Parliament in ſo great a Conjuncture, but, by miſrepreſenting the moſt eſſential Parts of the Negotiations of Peace, to obtain the Sanction of Parliament to his traiterous Proceedings, and thereby fatally to deceive her Majeſty, her Allies, her Parliament, and her People;

He the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer was not only wanting in the Diſcharge of that Duty to his Sovereign, which became his high Station, by not adviſing againſt, and, as far as in him lay, in all Events, by not preventing, even any Intimation from the Throne to the Parliament, which was not conformable to the exacteſt Truth and Impartiality; but taking Advantage of his ready Acceſs to her Majeſty, and his exorbitant Influence in her Councils; did prepare, form, and concert, together with other falſe and evil Counſellors, ſeveral Speeches and Declarations to be made by her Majeſty from the Throne to her Parliament, on the Subject of the ſaid Negotiations of Peace; and did adviſe her Majeſty to make the ſame to her Parliament; and particularly, by means of his falſe and evil Counſels, her Majeſty did, amongſt other things, on the 7th of December 1711, declare from the Throne, in the Words following; "That, notwithſtanding the "Arts of thoſe who delight in War, both Place and "Time are appointed for opening the Treaty of a General Peace; our Allies, eſpecially the States-General, whoſe Intereſt I look upon as inſeparable from my "own, have, by their ready Concurrence, expreſſed their "Confidence in me:"

Whereas it was then notorious to all Europe, and the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others his Accomplices, well knew, that the principal Allies of her Majeſty, and particularly the States-General, then had, in the ſtrongeſt and moſt preſſing Manner, repreſented, not only to her Majeſty's Miniſters in Holland, but afterwards, by a Miniſter of their own, directly to her Majeſty, the Inſecurity and Danger to the common Cauſe, by entering into general Negotiations with France, on the Propoſitions ſigned by Monſieur Meſnager; and alſo, their firm Opinion of the fatal Conſequences that might enſue thereon: And although they had ſtill great Apprehenſions concerning the Method of opening the Conferences, and the Conſequences that might happen thereupon; yet, being wrought on by the Menaces, and other extraordinary Methods uſed with them by her Majeſty's Miniſters, and relying on the ſolemn Aſſurances and Declarations of her Majeſty, to ſupport the Intereſts and Concern of their State, and to act in perfect Confidence and Harmony with them, they did at laſt, with the greateſt Reluctance, conſent to enter upon a general Negotiation of Peace with France: And, in the ſame Speech, her Majeſty was prevailed on, by the evil Counſels of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others, to declare, in the Words following; "That the Princes and States, "which have been engaged with us in this War, being, "by Treaties, intitled to have their ſeveral Intereſts ſe"cured at a Peace, I will not only do my utmoſt to pro"cure every one of them all reaſonable Satisfaction; but I "ſhall alſo unite with them, in the ſtricteſt Engagements, "for continuing the Alliance, in order to render the Gene"ral Peace ſecure and laſting:" And, in her Meſſage, of the 17th of January following, her Majeſty again expreſſes the Care ſhe intended to take of all her Allies, and the ſtrict Union in which ſhe propoſed to join with them:

Whereas, by the evil Influence of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, her Majeſty was not only induced to enter into a private Negotiation with France, excluſive of her Allies; but the ſame was, in like manner, carried on by him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others; and the ſeveral Intereſts which the Allies were intitled to by their Treaties, were not only not ſecured to them by the Peace, nor any reaſonable Satisfaction given to them; but the main Intereſts of her principal Allies, eſpecially of his Imperial Majeſty, were, by the wicked Practices of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others, given up to France; and no Engagements were obtained for continuing the Alliance, in order to render the General Peace ſecure and laſting.

And, her Majeſty having, on many former Occaſions, expreſſed her Reſolution, never to make Peace with France and Spain, ſo long as Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, remained in the Houſe of Bourbon, ſhe was prevailed upon, by the Advice of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others, to declare herſelf, in Anſwer to an Addreſs of the Houſe of Peers, the 11th of December 1711, to the Effect following; viz. "I ſhould be ſorry "any one could think, I would not do my utmoſt to "recover Spain, and the Indies, from the Houſe of Bour"bon:"

Whereas it is moſt manifeſt, that the leaving the Kingdom of Spain, and the Indies, in the Houſe of Bourbon, was the Foundation of the private and ſeparate Treaty between Great Britain and France, which had been before that time ſigned, even with her Majeſty's Conſent; and the ſame fundamental Reſolution was immutably obſerved between them, to the Concluſion of the Peace: And her Majeſty having frequently declared from the Throne, That her Reſolutions in entering into the ſaid Negotiations were, to obtain a general, good, and laſting Peace; and the Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht being inſtructed to treat with France conformably to that End; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, in order to remove the juſt Suſpicions which had been conceived of his private and ſeparate Negotiations with France, did adviſe her Majeſty to make this further Declaration, in her ſaid Meſſage, of the 17th of January; "That the World "will now ſee how groundleſs thoſe Reports are, which "have been ſpread abroad by Men of evil Intentions, to "ſerve the worſt Deſigns, as if a ſeparate Peace had "been treated; for which there has not been the leaſt Co"lour given:"

Whereas a private and ſeparate Negotiation had been carried on, for Five Months together, between England and France; and, during that time, private Propoſitions had been ſent from England, and a private Treaty with a Miniſter of France ſigned, even by her Majeſty's Privity, excluſive of all the Allies, before the ſaid Declaration made by her Majeſty; and private and ſeparate Meaſures were thenceforth carried on by the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and his Accomplices, on behalf of her Majeſty, with the Miniſters of France, even to the Concluſion of the Peace.

Her Majeſty was further prevailed on, by the wicked Advice of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, in her Speech, of June the 6th, 1712, to declare, "That, to prevent the Union of the Two Crowns, "ſhe would not be content with what was ſpeculative; "but inſiſted on ſomething ſolid:" And, in the ſame Speech, to the Effect following; viz. "The Nature of "the Propoſal for a Renunciation is ſuch, that it executes "itſelf; and France and Spain are thereby more effectually "divided than ever:"

Whereas the Miniſters of France had, before that time, aſſured the Miniſters of her Majeſty, That, to accept of the Expedient propoſed on her Majeſty's behalf, would be to build on a ſandy Foundation; and that the Renunciation would be null and void by the fundamental Laws of France; and that they would deceive themſelves, who accepted it as an Expedient to prevent the Union of the Two Crowns:

And

And not only in the Particulars before-mentioned, but in many others contained in the ſaid ſeveral Speeches and Meſſages, made, and ſent to her Parliament, even while the ſaid Negotiations of Peace with France were depending, the moſt eſſential Points relating to Peace and Commerce, and which concerned the Intereſts as well of the Allies as of Great Britain, were groſsly miſrepreſented:

By all which wicked, treacherous, and unexampled evil Counſels, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did moſt baſely, ungratefully, and ſcandalouſly, abuſe the Favour of his Royal Miſtreſs; and, by means of her Authority, did miſlead her Parliament into groundleſs and fatal Reſolutions; and thereby not only prevented the juſt Advice of the Parliament to her Majeſty on that critical Juncture, but obtained the Approbation of Parliament to his myſterious and dangerous Practices; and did not only deprive her Majeſty of the Confidence and Affection of her Allies, but expoſed her Majeſty, and her People, to the Contempt of the common Enemy.

Article 16.

That whereas the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer having, on all Occaſions, uſed his utmoſt Endeavours to ſubvert the ancient eſtabliſhed Conſtitution of Parliaments, the great and only Security of the Prerogatives of the Crown, and of the Rights, Liberties, and Properties, of the People; and being moſt wickedly determined, at one fatal Blow, as far as in him lay, to deſtroy the Freedom and Independency of the Houſe of Lords, the great Ornament, and neareſt Support, of the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms; and falſly intending to diſguiſe his miſchievous Purpoſes, under a pretended Zeal for the Prerogative of the Crown; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, on or about the Months of December or January 1711, whilſt the Houſe of Lords were under an Adjournment, and had Reaſon to expect, that, on their next Meeting, Matters of the higheſt Importance would be communicated to them from the Throne; they having, ſome few Days before, given their humble Opinion and Advice to her Majeſty, That no Peace could be ſafe or honourable to Great Britain, or Europe, if Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, were to be allotted to any Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon; being then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and One of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, and aſſuming to himſelf an arbitrary Direction and Controul in her Majeſty's Councils, contrary to his Duty, and his Oath, and in Violation of the great Truſt repoſed in him, and with an immediate Purpoſe to render ineffectual the many earneſt Repreſentations of her Majeſty's Allies againſt the ſaid Negotiations of Peace, as well as to prevent the good Effects of the ſaid Advice of the Houſe of Lords, and in order to obtain ſuch future Reſolutions of that Houſe of Parliament, on the important Subject of the Negotiations of Peace, as might ſhelter and promote his ſecret and unwarrantable Proceedings, together with other falſe and evil Counſellors, did adviſe her Majeſty to make and create Twelve Peers of this Realm, and Lords of Parliament; and, purſuant to his deſtructive Counſels, Letters Patents did forthwith paſs, whereby Twelve Peers were made and created; and did likewiſe adviſe her Majeſty immediately to call and ſummon them to Parliament; which being done accordingly, they took their Seats in the Houſe of Lords on or about the Second Day of January 1711; to which Day the Houſe then ſtood adjourned: Whereby the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did moſt highly abuſe the Influence he then had with her Majeſty; and prevailed on her to exerciſe, in the moſt unprecedented and dangerous Manner, that valuable and undoubted Prerogative, which the Wiſdom of the Laws, and Conſtitution of the Kingdom, hath intruſted with the Crown, for the rewarding ſignal Virtue, and diſtinguiſhed Merit; by which deſperate Advice he did not only, as far as in him lay, deprive her Majeſty of the Continuance of thoſe ſeaſonable and wholſome Counſels in that critical Juncture, but wickedly perverted the true and only End of that great and uſeful Prerogative, to the Diſhonour of the Crown, and the irreparable Miſchief to the Conſtitution of Parliaments.

All which Crimes and Miſdemeanours were committed and done by him the ſaid Earl, againſt our late Sovereign Lady the Queen, her Crown and Dignity, the Peace and Intereſt of this Kingdom, and in Breach of the ſeveral Truſts repoſed in him the ſaid Earl:

And he the ſaid Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer was Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and One of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, during the time that all and every the Crimes before ſet forth were done and committed.

Ordered, That the ſaid Report be read a Second time To-morrow Morning.

And it was brought up accordingly; and read; and is as followeth;

Honoured Sir,

I Hope this will find you, and your good Lady, &c. in good Health, as your Children here are, God be thanked.

Undoubtedly you have heard of ſeveral Paſſages, that followed upon the Performance of the Wolverhampton Mob; as, namely, the Demoliſhing of the Preſbyterian Meeting-houſes at Stafford and Walſall, and ('tis ſaid) at Stone and Longdon: Yeſterday a Parcel of the Wolverhampton Folks ſet forth, in order to attack Bromwich Meeting-houſe: Theſe People took Bilſton, Dorlaſton, and Wedneſbury, in the Way; ſo that they were a great Number: But the Diſſenters, having Notice of what was intended, came together in great Numbers, Horſe and Foot, furniſhed with Guns, Swords, &c. and attackt the Rioters, and drove 'um off; ſeveral of whom they have wounded: And the Mob has a Report among 'um this Day, that one of their Fraternity is killed; and they ſeem reſolved (as Fame goes) to venture another Puſh for it. The Truth of it is, there is no ſuch thing as appeaſing 'um with good Words; and, I think, to cure it by Force will be but an uncomfortable Matter. As far as I can learn, theſe poor Fellows have got a Notion, that the Miniſtry and Diſſenters have ruined Trade, on Purpoſe to make the Nation out of Love with the late Peace, and Peace-makers; and, becauſe the Miniſtry, and ſecret Committee, and their Friends, will not let the Country have Peace and Trade, they reſolve (if they can hinder it) the Diſſenters ſhall not have a quiet Toleration. Hunger, and want of Sleep, perhaps, may tame 'um in a little while; but, if Things don't mend in a little time, the Pariſhes may be burdened with their Families.

They will not be perſuaded, that there is any Argument againſt Experience; and they ſay, that One Year's Peace was better to them, and the Kingdom, than all the glorious Campaigns the D—— of M—— has ever made in all his Life; that thoſe were the beſt Friends of the Government that made Peace; and that their Impeachers ought much rather to be impeached than the laſt Miniſtry; ſo that, in ſhort, they look upon theſe Impeachments as nothing elſe but a Piece of Spight and Revenge in this military Miniſtry, becauſe the Ratifications of Peace took ſome Bread off their Trenchers: And they reaſon, that 'tis the ſtrangeſt thing in the World, that the Actions and Negotiations of thoſe worthy Patriots that made Peace, ſhould be called High Treaſon, High Crimes and Miſdemeanours, which have been approved by her Majeſty's ſubſequent Ratifications; for which her Majeſty received the Thanks and Congratulations of the Honourable Houſe of Commons, and, indeed, of almoſt the whole Nation. 'Tis impoſſible to recount their odd Speculations that they run into upon theſe Occaſions; however, I was willing you ſhould not be wholly a Stranger to theſe Paſſages. I hope your Goodneſs will pardon the Interruption of this tedious Letter. I am, with due Commendations,

Honoured Sir,

Richd. Ames.

PRAYERS.

A Petition of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Cheſter, aſſembled at the Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace holden at Nantwich, in the ſaid County, on Tueſday the Twelfth Day of July, in the Firſt Year of his Majeſty's Reign, Anno Dom. 1715, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That a Bill is depending for making the River ..... navigable from Fordſham Bridge to Northwich, in the ſaid County of Cheſter; which Work is very practicable, and may be carried to ſome other Places near Northwich; and will be of great Advantage to the Undertakers; and are deſirous, that the Navigation may be undertaken at the Expence, and for the Benefit, of the Inhabitants: And praying to admit them, or ſuch others of the Gentlemen of the ſaid County as ſhall be thought fit, to be Undertakers of the ſaid Navigation.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, to whom the Bill to make the River Weaver navigable from Fordſham Bridge to Northwich, in the County of Cheſter, is committed.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition do lie upon the Table until the Report from the Committee, who were to conſider the Laws in being for preventing the Exporting of Wool from Great Britain and Ireland; and how the ſame may be made more effectual; ſhall be taken into further Conſideration.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, being highly concerned at the continued Endeavours of the Enemies of your Perſon and Government to diſturb the Tranquillity and Happineſs of your Kingdoms, and to deprive your People of the great Bleſſings they enjoy under your auſpicious Reign; and it having appeared to us, that, by the Encouragement, and the falſe and traiterous Inſinuations, of Perſons diſaffected to your Title and Government, great Numbers of your poor deluded Subjects have been prevailed upon, in many Parts of the Kingdom, to aſſemble together, and, in a tumultuous and rebellious manner, to commit great Diſorders, and do great Injuries to others of their Fellow-Subjects and Fellow-Proteſtants; we think it our indiſpenſable Duty, on this Occaſion, to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of all ſuch traiterous Proceedings, and our higheſt Reſentment againſt the Authors and Promoters of them; and to renew to your Majeſty the hearty and vigorous Reſolutions of your faithful Commons to ſupport your Majeſty, and your Government, againſt all your open and ſecret Enemies; and to contribute the utmoſt in our Power to the Honour and Safety of your Sacred Perſon, and the Quiet and Security of your Government:

And, to that end, we crave Leave moſt humbly to beſeech your Majeſty, That you will be graciouſly pleaſed to give Directions to the ſeveral Magiſtrates throughout your Kingdom, That the Laws now in force may be put in a ſpeedy, and in the moſt vigorous, Execution, againſt all ſuch Perſons as ſhall be found any way concerned in the rebellious and tumultuous Riots and Diſorders which have been committed, and are now carrying on, by Perſons diſaffected to your Majeſty, and your Government; and that a ſtrict Inquiry may be made, to diſcover the Authors and Promoters of them, ſo as they may be brought to condign Puniſhment:

And it being apparent, that the Neglect or Miſbehaviour of many Juſtices of Peace, and other Magiſtrates, have given great Encouragement to the ſaid Diſorders, we crave Leave, in all Humility, to beſeech your Majeſty, That an Account may be taken of ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, as have failed in the Diſcharge of their Duty on theſe Occaſions; and that ſuch of them, as ſhall appear to your Majeſty to have neglected their Duty, may be forthwith put out of the Commiſſions of the Peace; and that ſuch other Magiſtrates, as ſhall likewiſe appear to your Majeſty to have neglected their Duty therein, may be proceeded againſt with the utmoſt Rigour of the Law:

And as your loyal Commons are fully aſſured, that, by the Wiſdom and Steadineſs of your Adminiſtration, the Sceptre in your Royal Hand will ſoon become a Terror to all thoſe, who, by open or ſecret Practices, ſhall any way abet the Enemies of your Perſon or Government; ſo, from our moſt dutiful Regard to your Majeſty, and in Juſtice to thoſe of your Subjects, who, for their Zeal, and firm Adherence to your Majeſty, and your Government, have been Sufferers in the ſaid tumultuous and traiterous Diſorders, we do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, That you will be moſt graciouſly pleaſed to give Directions, That an exact Account may be taken of the Loſſes and Damages which any of your Subjects have ſuſtained by reaſon of the ſaid tumultuous and rebellious Proceedings; and that the Sufferers may have full Compenſation made them for their Damages; your faithful Commons moſt humbly aſſuring your Majeſty, That all Expences, which ſhall be incurred on that account, ſhall be made good to your Majeſty out of the next Aids that ſhall be afterwards granted by Parliament:.

And, for the Security of your Sacred Perſon, and the quieting the Minds of your faithful Subjects, we do further moſt humbly adviſe your Majeſty, That you will be graciouſly pleaſed to give Orders, That the Magiſtrates throughout the Kingdom, in their ſeveral Stations, do ſpeedily and effectually put the Laws in Execution againſt Papiſts and Nonjurors.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Zeal you have ſhewn for preſerving the Peace of my Kingdoms, and your Wiſdom in providing ſo good a Law to prevent all riotous and tumultuous Proceedings, give me great Satisfaction; but I am ſorry to find, that ſuch a Spirit of Rebellion has diſcovered itſelf, as leaves no room to doubt but theſe Diſorders are ſet on foot, and encouraged, by Perſons diſaffected to my Government, in Expectation of being ſupported from abroad.

The Preſervation of our excellent Conſtitution, and the Security of our holy Religion, has been, and always ſhall be, my chief Care; and I cannot queſtion, but your Concern for theſe invaluable Bleſſings is ſo great, as not to let them be expoſed to ſuch Attempts as I have certain Advices are preparing by the Pretender from abroad, and carrying on at home by a reſtleſs Party, in his Favour.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

In theſe Circumſtances, I think it proper to aſk your Aſſiſtance; and make no doubt but ... will ſo far conſult your own Safety, as not to leave the Nation, under a Rebellion actually begun at home, and threatened with an Invaſion from abroad, in a defenceleſs Condition: And I ſhall look upon the Proviſion you ſhall make for the Safety of my People, as the beſt Mark of your Affection to me.

Reſolved, Nemine contradicente, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return the moſt humble and dutiful Thanks of this Houſe to his Majeſty, for communicating to his Parliament the Advices he has received of an Attempt preparing to be made upon the Nation from abroad, abetted and encouraged by treaſonable Practices at home, in favour of a Popiſh Pretender; and to aſſure his Majeſty, That this Houſe will, with their Lives and Fortunes, ſtand by, and ſupport, his Majeſty, againſt all his open and ſecret Enemies; and to deſire his Majeſty, That he will immediately give Directions for fitting out ſuch a Number of Ships, as may effectually guard the Coaſts; and to iſſue out Commiſſions for augmenting his Forces by Land; aſſuring his Majeſty, this Houſe will, without Loſs of Time, effectually enable him to raiſe and maintain ſuch a Number of Forces, both by Sea and Land, as ſhall be neceſſary for the Defence of his Sacred Perſon, and for the Security of his Kingdoms.

Reſolved, Nemine contradicente, That the ſaid Reſolution be laid before his Majeſty by the whole Houſe.

FURTHER Articles of Impeachment of High Crimes and Miſdemeanours againſt Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer.

Article I.

That whereas, in or about the Month of January in the Year $171\frac{0}{1}$, a dangerous and deſtructive Expedition had been ſet on foot, and projected, under a Pretence of making a Conqueſt on the Poſſeſſions of the French King in North America; but with a real Deſign to promote his Intereſts, by weakening the Confederate Army in Flanders, and diſſipating the naval Force of this Kingdom; as well as for the ſake of the private Intereſts, and corrupt Gain, of the Promoters of the ſaid Expedition; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, being then One of her late Majeſty's Privy-Council, and One of the Commiſſioners of her Majeſty's Treaſury, was not only wanting in his Duty to her late Majeſty, by wilfully and induſtriouſly abſenting from the Meetings of other Perſons then in high Truſt under her Majeſty, wherein the ſaid Expedition was concerted; and by not adviſing her Majeſty againſt, and doing what in him lay to have prevented, the putting the ſame in Execution; but did, contrary to his Oath, and the high Truſt then repoſed in him, adviſe her Majeſty to conſent to the making an Expedition for the conquering Canada, and the City of Quebeck, on the River of St. Lawrence, in North America: And, in Execution of his ſaid evil Counſels, he did further adviſe her Majeſty to give Orders for detaching ſeveral Battalions of the Forces then in the Service of her Majeſty, in Conjunction with her Allies, in Flanders, and to ſend the ſame, with a large Squadron of Men of War, on the ſaid Enterprize; although the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer well knew, that the ſaid Project, or Expedition, having been frequently deliberated on, and maturely conſidered, a ſhort time before, in a Committee of Council, was then laid aſide, as dangerous and impracticable: And a Demand being made at the Treaſury, on or about the Months of May or June 1711, for the Sum of L. 28,000 or thereabouts, on Pretence of Arms and Merchandize ſaid to be ſent on the ſaid Expedition to Canada, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, being then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and One of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, though he well knew, or had Reaſon to ſuſpect, that the ſame was an unjuſt and exorbitant Demand, and a great Abuſe on her Majeſty, and the Publick, and ſuch as ought not to have been complied with, was not only wanting in his Duty to her Majeſty, in not giving his humble Advice againſt the ſaid Demand, or, at leaſt, in not repreſenting to her the Grounds of ſuch his Suſpicion; but did, contrary to his Oath, and his Duty, adviſe her Majeſty, That the ſaid Sum ſhould be iſſued and paid; and did accordingly counterſign a Warrant to the Paymaſter of her Majeſty's Forces for the Payment of the ſame; purſuant to which, the ſame was iſſued, and received:

And, in further Violation of his Oath, his Duty and Truſt, and with the moſt corrupt Deſign to prevent the Juſtice due to her Majeſty, and the Nation, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, being then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and exerciſing a moſt unexampled arbitrary Power, not only in her Majeſty's private Councils, but extending his evil Influences to the great Council of the Nation, after the ſaid Expedition had proved unſucceſsful, and it had been diſcovered to him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, that the Nation had been cheated of above Twenty thouſand Pounds on that Account, did, moſt ungratefully and corruptly, employ his wicked Arts, and the Credit which he had gained by his many falſe and crafty Inſinuations and Practices, to keep the Houſe of Commons from examining that Affair:

And, in or about the Month of Auguſt 1714, in a Letter, or Memorial, under his own Hand, to her late Majeſty, he did preſume not only to inſinuate the ill Opinion he therein pretended always to have had of the ſaid Expedition; but did declare the Suſpicions he had of the great Injury and Abuſe done to her Majeſty, and the Publick, in the Demand of the ſaid L. 28,000 even at the time when the ſame was made; and that the Publick had been cheated of above L. 20,000 on that Account: And, in the ſaid Memorial, did preſume further to declare to her Majeſty, That he was forced to uſe all his Skill and Credit to keep the Houſe of Commons from examining that Affair the laſt Parliament; thereby vainly, but moſt wickedly, recommending himſelf to the Continuance of her Majeſty's Favour, by the Succeſs of his moſt profligate Meaſures:

By all which unparallelled Corruptions, and moſt dangerous Counſels and Practices of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, the good and faithful Allies of her Majeſty were deprived of the Aid of her Majeſty's Troops, to which they were intitled by their Conventions; and the Confederate Army in Flanders was greatly diminiſhed, to the apparent Advantage of the common Enemy; the publick Money, granted by Parliament for reducing the Power of France, and which was expreſly appropriated for other ſpecial Services, was arbitrarily and illegally miſapplied and embezzled, and an heavy Debt incurred on the Nation, not only fitting the Parliament, but but even in Contempt and Defiance of a Repreſentation made by the Houſe of Commons to the Throne, even whilſt the ſaid Expedition was concerting; and whereby the higheſt Injuſtice was done, in ſuppreſſing an Inquiry ſo juſt to her Majeſty, and her People, and a laſting Reproach and Scandal brought on that Houſe of Commons, of which he boaſts, as having been wrought on, by his corrupt Influence, not to examine into ſo high, and ſo ſcandalous, an Abuſe.

Article II.

That the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, not contented with the high Employments, and Places of Honour and Profit, beſtowed on him by her late Majeſty, nor with the large and exceſſive Gains by him made by the Incomes and Profits of the ſaid Emp'oyments, on or about the Month of October 1711, whilſt the Nation was engaged in a moſt expenſive War againſt France and Spain, for preſerving the Liberties of Europe, and greatly exhauſted with the Supplies and Taxes for carrying on the ſame, and was under ſuch heavy Debts as were impoſſible to be ſatisfied without the utmoſt Frugality, or laying grievous Taxes on the Commons of Great Britain; contrary to his Oath, and his high Truſt, and making a moſt diſhonourable and ungrateful Uſe of the ready Acceſs he had to her late Majeſty, did prevail on, and adviſe, her Majeſty to ſign a Warrant to himſelf, being then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, for the Iſſuing and Payment of the Sum of 13,000 l. to John Drummond Eſquire, or his Aſſigns, for ſuch ſpecial Services relating to the War, as her Majeſty had directed: And the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, on or about the 24th of November following, in purſuance of the ſaid Warrant under her Majeſty's Sign Manual, did ſign a Warrant for the Payment of the ſaid 13,000 l. for ſuch ſpecial Services of the War, as her Majeſty had directed; although no ſpecial Services had been, or were at any time afterwards, directed by her Majeſty, to which the ſaid Monies were to be applied:

And the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer having privately deſired Leave of the ſaid Drummond to ſtrike ſome Tin Tallies in his the ſaid Drummond's Name, he did, purſuant thereto, direct, That Orders, amounting to the Sum of 13,000 l. ſhould be charged in the Regiſter of the Exchequer, on the Monies ariſing by Sale of Tin, in the Name of the ſaid John Drummond; and though the ſame were accordingly ſtruck in the Name of the ſaid Drummond, in or about the Month of November 1711, they were not delivered out to the ſaid Drummond; but were kept in the Treaſury-Chamber, or elſewhere, in the Power or Cuſtody of the ſaid Earl, till about the End of January following, when the ſaid Drummond having Occaſion, as the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer well knew, to go into Holland, at the Deſire and Requeſt of the ſaid Earl, he indorſed his Name on the ſaid Orders; and the ſame were left, by his Privity, Direction, or Conſent, in the Hands of Mr. John Taylour, a Clerk of the Treaſury: And the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, having afterwards got Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Orders, did, in or about the Month of June 1712, ſend an Order, in Writing, to the ſaid Mr. Taylour, to deliver the ſaid Tallies to a Servant of the ſaid Earl; which was done accordingly; the ſaid Indorſement not being at that time filled up.

And the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, having, by theſe corrupt and ſcandalous Methods, got the ſaid Tallies and Orders into his own Hands, did afterwards fill up Aſſignments of the ſaid Orders for 12,000 l. Part of the ſaid 13,000 l. to himſelf, and the remaining Part to ſuch other Perſons as he thought fit; and did afterwards, in or about the Months of Auguſt, October, and November, 1713, at ſeveral times, diſpoſe of the ſaid Orders and Tallies to his own private Uſe and Advantage: And, to cover the ſaid ſcandalous Embezzlements, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did afterwards, as he pretends, adviſe, and prevail on, her Majeſty, on or about the 14th of December 1713, to ſign a Warrant prepared by himſelf; wherein, after the Recitals of his own good, faithful, and acceptable, Services, which had tended to the Quiet, Safety, and Proſperity, of her Majeſty, and her Realms, though accompanied with great Difficulties on himſelf, and Hazards to him, and his Family; and that her Majeſty was reſolved to beſtow upon him a Sum of ready Money; but the ſaid Earl repreſenting to her Majeſty, That the Arrears then due to her Servants and Tradeſmen were very great and preſſing, her Majeſty did therefore agree and determine, that he ſhould have to his own Uſe the ſaid ſeveral Sums, amounting to 13,000 l. compriſed in the Orders aforeſaid; it was directed, That the ſaid John Drummond ſhould aſſign the ſaid Orders, and the whole Right and Benefit thereof, to the ſaid Earl, and his Aſſigns; although the ſaid Earl had privately and clandeſtinely procured from the ſaid Drummond an Aſſignment of the ſaid Orders near Two Years before the ſaid Warrant, and had fraudulently and corruptly diſpoſed and converted them to his own Uſe, without her Majeſty's Privity or Conſent, ſome time before her Majeſty was prevailed on to ſign the ſaid Warrant.

And though the laſt-mentioned Warrant, if any ſuch there be, was not communicated to the ſaid Drummond by the ſaid Earl during her Majeſty's Life; nor was the ſame counterſigned, nor entered in the Treaſury; yet he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, even after his ſaid Corruption had been diſcovered in Parliament, did preſume, without the Privity of the ſaid Drummond, to ſend the ſaid Warrant to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, deſiring, that the ſame might then have been entered in the Treaſury; but the ſame was, with great Honour and Juſtice, refuſed to be ſo entered:

By which moſt vile and ſcandalous Corruption, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer was guilty of the moſt notorious Breach of his Oath and Truſt, as Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain; of the higheſt Abuſe of her Majeſty's Goodneſs, and Embezzlement of her Treaſure; and of the greateſt Injuſtice and Oppreſſion of other her Majeſty's Subjects.

Article IIId.

That whereas, by the eſtabliſhed and known Laws of this Kingdom, the Allowances or Appointments for the Maintenance and Support of Ambaſſadors, Envoys, Plenipotentiaries, and other publick Miniſters of the Crown in foreign Courts, ought to be aſcertained in due Form of Law, as well in Honour, as in Juſtice to the imperial Crown of theſe Realms:

And whereas the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, in or about the Month of July or Auguſt 1712, ſent Mathew Prior Eſquire, an Inſtrument and Creature of his own, into France, for the carrying on his ſeparate and dangerous Negotiations; and did afterwards, in the Month of November 1712, by his evil Counſels, prevail on her late Majeſty, without the Privity of, or any Communication with, her Allies, to ſend the ſaid Mathew Prior as her Majeſty's Plenipotentiary to the French King, with Inſtructions to treat and conclude Matters of the higheſt Importance relating to the general Negotiations of Peace; but the ſame was a treacherous and wicked Contrivance of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, for the more effectual carrying on and promoting his private, ſeparate, and dangerous, Practices with the Miniſters of France, and the Enemies of her Majeſty, and her Kingdoms:

He the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, not regarding his Oath, or his high Truſt, or the Laws of the Kingdom, did, moſt corruptly and ſcandalouſly, combine with the ſaid Mathew Prior for the defrauding her Majeſty of very great Sums, under the Colour of his ſaid Employments in France; and, to that End, the ſaid Earl did contrive, that the ſaid Prior ſhould be ſent into France with the Character aforeſaid, but without any ſettled Appointments or Allowances; but, in the ſtead and lieu thereof, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did give the ſaid Mathew Prior an unlimited Credit; and did promiſe to anſwer and pay ſuch Bills as the ſaid Prior ſhould draw on him during his Reſidence in France.

Purſuant to which Contrivance, and corrupt Agreement, he the ſaid Mathew Prior did, between the 27th Auguſt in the Year 1712, N. S. and the 10th July 1714, or thereabouts, at ſeveral times, draw Bills of Exchange, to the Amount of 12,360 l. or thereabouts, on him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer; which he, being then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, did adviſe, and prevail on, her Majeſty to ſign Warrants for the Payment of, and did counterſign the ſame; although the ſaid Prior was no way intitled to any ſuch Allowances by reaſon of his ſaid Employment; and the ſame greatly (a) [exceeded] the Allowance even of an Ambaſſador of the Crown of Great Britain:

And the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did, in the Years 1712, 1713, and 1714, without any Colour of Authority, but for the further promoting his corrupt and wicked Purpoſes, prevail on, and adviſe, her Majeſty to ſign Warrants, which were counterſigned by himſelf, for the Payment of the Sum of 5,560 l. or thereabouts, to the Uſe of Thomas Harley Eſquire, a near Relation and Emiſſary of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, out of the Monies appropriated to the Uſe of her Majeſty's Civil Liſt:

And did, in like manner, at ſeveral times, in the Years aforeſaid, moſt illegally, fraudulently, and corruptly, iſſue or direct, or adviſe the Direction and Payment of, ſeveral other large Sums of Money, to other Perſons, out of her Majeſty's Treaſury:

By which moſt illegal and ſcandalous Management, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer has introduced a Practice highly prejudicial to, and utterly inconſiſtent with, the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and of the moſt pernicious Conſequence, by opening a Way for the moſt dangerous Corruptions; and was not only guilty of a notorious Breach of his Oath, but entered into the moſt baſe and ſcandalous Combination with the Perſons above-mentioned, and others, under Pretence and Colour of promoting her Majeſty's Service, to defraud her Majeſty of the publick Money, which he was intruſted with the Management of, for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown.

Article IVth.

That whereas the Revenues ariſing to the Crown from the Hereditary Exciſe, and Poſt-Office, or ſome Parts thereof, were, by virtue of Letters Patents of the late King James the Second, charged with, and made liable to, certain Annuities, or yearly Sums, in Truſt for, or to the Uſe of, Mary the Conſort of the ſaid King James the Second; but the ſaid Revenues were afterwards, by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, granted and ſettled for the Support of the Royal Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, or for other publick Uſes, without any Saving or Exception of the ſaid Letters Patents: And whereas, by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of her late Majeſty's Reign, the Sum of 500,000 l. was granted to her late Majeſty, for the Diſcharge of divers Arrears of Salaries, Diet, Monies, and other Allowances, and ſundry Debts for Pre-emptions, Proviſions, and other Cauſes, which had been then incurred, and grown due to her late Majeſty's Servants, Tradeſmen, and others; and were occaſioned by ſeveral extraordinary Expences ſince the Act for the better Support of her Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown: And the ſaid Sum of 500,000 l. was expreſly appropriated to the Uſes afore-mentioned, in Aid of the ſaid Revenues or Branches, which were appointed for the Support of her Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown:

And whereas by an Act, made in the 13th and 14th Years of his late Majeſty King William the Third, it was Enacted, That, for preventing traiterous Correſpondence between his Majeſty's Subjects and the pretended Prince of Wales, or his Adherents, that if any of the Subjects of the Crown of England, from and after the Firſt Day of March 1701, ſhould, within this Realm, or without, hold, entertain, or keep, any Intelligence or Correſpondence, in Perſon, or by Letters, Meſſages, or otherwiſe, with the ſaid pretended Prince of Wales, or with any Perſon or Perſons employed by him, knowing ſuch Perſon to be ſo employed; or ſhould, by Bill of Exchange, or otherwiſe, remit or pay any Sum or Sums of Money, for the Uſe or Service of the ſaid pretended Prince of Wales, knowing ſuch Money to be for ſuch Uſe or Service; ſuch Perſon, ſo offending, being lawfully convicted, ſhould be taken, deemed, and adjudged, to be guilty of High Treaſon, and ſhall ſuffer and forfeit, as in Caſes of High Treaſon:

He the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer (b) [having], by means of the ſaid Mathew Prior, held a private and unlawful Correſpondence with the ſaid Conſort of the late King James the Second, then reſiding in France, and being determined ſecretly to promote, as far as in him lay, the Intereſt of the Pretender; but yet contriving to avoid the ſaid Penalty of High Treaſon; and the ſaid Conſort of his late Majeſty King James the Second having impowered Abbot Gaultier, a Popiſh Prieſt, and buſy Emiſſary between Great Britain and France, during the ſaid private and ſeparate Negotiations of Peace, and who was particularly intruſted, as the common Agent between the Miniſters of Great Britain and France, in tranſacting the moſt ſecret Affairs relating to the Pretender, to concert, with the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, the ſettling the Payment and Remittance of a very great yearly Sum, out of her Majeſty's Treaſure, into France, under Colour and Pretence of the ſaid Letters Patents; and the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, having held frequent clandeſtine Conferences with the ſaid Abbot Gaultier on the Subject aforeſaid, and having, by his evil Counſels, ſacrificed to France the common Intereſts of Europe; and being reſolved, that the Firſt-fruits of the Peace with France ſhould be an Offering made, by his immediate Procurement, to the neareſt and moſt avowed Adherent of the Pretender, though at the great Expence of the Honour and Safety of her Majeſty, and her People, did, ſoon after the Concluſion of the Peace with France, agree and undertake to procure the Payment of the yearly Sum of 47,000 l. and upwards, to, or to the Uſe of, the ſaid Conſort, during her Life; and, in Execution of his ſaid Purpoſe, did afterwards, on or about the 23d December 1713, being then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, adviſe her late Majeſty to ſign a Warrant to himſelf, in the Words, or to the Effect, following; viz. "Ann R. Whereas our late Royal Father "King James the Second, by Letters Patents under his "Great Seal, bearing Date on or about the 28th Day of "Auguſt 1685, did grant unto Lawrence Earl of Ro-"cheſter, Henry Earl of Peterborow, Sidney Lord Godol-"phin, Robert Worden Eſquire, and Sir Edward Herbert "Knight (who are all ſince deceaſed), divers Annuities, "or yearly Sums, amounting to 37,328 l. 13. 7, to "hold to them, and their Heirs, during the Life of the "then Royal Conſort Mary, now Queen Dowager, in "Truſt for her; and, by other Letters Patents, bearing "Date on or about the 3d Day of December 1686, did "alſo grant unto the ſaid Queen a further Penſion, or "yearly Sum, of 10,000 l. to hold during her natural "Life; all which were made payable in ſuch manner as "in the ſaid ſeveral Letters Patents is more fully expreſſed: "Our Will and Pleaſure now is, and we do hereby di-"rect, authorize, and command, That you cauſe Pay-"ment to be made to the Heirs of ſuch of the ſaid "Truſtees, as was the longeſt Liver of them, of ſo much "as, ſince the 25th Day of March laſt 1713, is incurred "or grown due on the ſaid Annuities, or yearly Sums, "amounting to 37,328 l. 13. 7; and to the ſaid "Queen Dowager, or her Aſſigns, of ſo much as, ſince "the ſaid 25th Day of March laſt, is incurred or grown "due on the ſaid Annuity of 10,000 l. according to the "Purport of the ſeveral Grants, or Letters Patents, above-"recited; as alſo of what ſhall hereafter become due, "and payable, upon the ſaid ſeveral Annuities, Quarterly,

" during the Life of the ſaid Queen Dowager: And, for " ſo doing, this ſhall be your Warrant. Given at our " Court at Windſor Caſtle the 23d of December 1713, " in the Twelfth Year of our Reign:"

And did afterwards, on or about the 24th of December following, ſign a Warrant to the Auditor of the Receipt of her Majeſty's Exchequer, requiring him to make and paſs Debentures for paying to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, as is, are, or ſhall be, authorized to receive the ſame, the Sum of 9,332 l. 3. $4\frac{3}{4}$, for One Quarter, incurred upon the ſaid ſeveral yearly Sums therein mentioned, from Lady-day 1713, to Midſummer following; and appointed the ſame to be ſatisfied out of the Sum of 500,000 l. appropriated by an Act paſſed in the then laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for or towards Payment of ſuch Debts and Arrears, as were therein mentioned; and another Warrant to the ſaid Auditor, to make and paſs Debentures for paying to the ſaid Queen, or to her Treaſurer or Receiver, the Sum of 2,500 l. for One Quarter incurred on the ſaid Penſion of 10,000 l. per Annum, from Lady-day 1713, to Midſummer then laſt paſt; and appointed the ſame to be ſatisfied out of the Sum of 500,000 l. appropriated, by an Act paſſed the then laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for or towards Payment of ſuch Debts and Arrears as were therein mentioned:

And the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, on or about the 20th of July 1714, being then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, having, corruptly and deceitfully, in farther Violation of his Oath, and his high Truſt, adviſed her late Majeſty to ſign a Warrant, directing the Payment of One thouſand Pounds Sterling to Daniel Arthur Eſquire, for Monies expended by him for her Majeſty's ſpecial Service; and the ſame being accordingly iſſued, and received by him the ſaid Arthur, out of her Majeſty's Treaſure; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, being then alſo Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, did give private Direction to the ſaid Arthur to pay the ſaid Sum of 1,000 l. to the ſaid Abbot Gaultier, or to his Uſe; purſuant to which Direction, the ſaid Arthur did pay, or cauſe to be paid, the ſaid Sum of 1,000 l. to the ſaid Abbot Gaultier, or to his Uſe:

Whereby the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did moſt wickedly betray the Honour of her late Majeſty, and the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, in adviſing her, under colour of the ſaid Letters Patents, and without the Advice of her Council, or her Parliament, to direct the Iſſuing of the Revenue, provided by Parliament for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, to the Uſe and Benefit of the open and avowed Adherent of the Pretender; and did not only defraud her Majeſty of the ſaid Sum of 1,000 l. but did, moſt arbitrarily, illegally, and corruptly, adviſe the Embezzlement and Miſapplication of ſo much of the ſaid Sum of 500,000 l. in Contempt and Defiance of the expreſs Appropriation of an Act of Parliament.

Article Vth.

That whereas, by the ancient and undoubted Laws of this Kingdom, no Perſon, being a natural-born Subject of this Realm, or within any of the Dominions thereunto belonging, and having committed, and being under the Guilt of, High Treaſon, ought to be received within this Kingdom as a publick Miniſter, or with any Character from any foreign Prince, State, or Potentate: And whereas, ſome time in the Year 1713, one Patrick Lileſh, ſtileing himſelf, and commonly known by the Name of, Sir Patrick Lawleſs, an Iriſh Papiſt, who had ſerved with the late King James the Second, in the War in Ireland, againſt his late Majeſty King William the Third, of ever-glorious Memory; had followed the ſaid King James into France, and continued, in the moſt open and avowed Manner, in his Intereſt and Service, and in Rebellion againſt his ſaid Majeſty King William, and had bore (a) [high] Commiſſions, and been in open Arms againſt her late Majeſty Queen Anne, in the late War in Spain, did come into this Kingdom, and pretended to have, and did take on himſelf, the Character of a Miniſter ſent from Philip King of Spain to her late Majeſty, to treat of Matters of the greateſt Importance to the Honour and Safety of her Majeſty, and her Kingdoms; and having given Notice of the ſame to Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, then Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, and who then aſſumed to himſelf the ſupreme Direction in her Majeſty's Councils; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer was not only wanting in his Duty to her Majeſty, in not adviſing her Majeſty againſt receiving and admitting the ſaid Lileſh, alias Lawleſs, in the Quality aforeſaid; but did, together with other falſe and evil Counſellors, adviſe her Majeſty to receive and admit him as a Miniſter from his ſaid Catholick Majeſty; and the ſaid Earl did preſume frequently to meet, confer, and negotiate the moſt important Affairs of the Nation, with the ſaid Lileſh, alias Lawleſs, in the Quality aforeſaid; and, the better to conceal his ſaid illegal and dangerous Meaſures from her ſaid Majeſty, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer was privy, conſenting, and adviſing, that the ſaid Lileſh, alias Lawleſs, ſhould be introduced to her ſaid Majeſty, and ſhould be received and treated by her Miniſters, under the falſe and diſguiſed Name of Don Carlo Moro; and the Houſe of Lords, ſome time in the Month of April 1714, having Notice of the ſaid dangerous Attempt of the ſaid Lileſh, alias Lawleſs, on or about the 9th of the ſaid Month, made an humble Addreſs to her Majeſty, That ſhe would be graciouſly pleaſed to iſſue her Royal Proclamation, commanding all proper Officers, and Magiſtrates, to make diligent Search for, and to apprehend, all Popiſh Prieſts, and to put the Laws in Execution againſt them; and likewiſe to inquire after, and apprehend, all ſuch Perſons as had ſerved in Arms againſt her Majeſty, or their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, and who were then within this Kingdom, contrary to Law; to the end that they might be brought to Juſtice: To which her Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to return an Anſwer, to the Effect following; viz. That ſhe would give Orders purſuant thereto: And a Proclamation did accordingly iſſue: And, on the ſaid 9th Day of April, the Houſe of Lords, having under their Conſideration what further Security could be provided for ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, came to the following Reſolution; viz. That no Perſon, being a natural-born Subject of Great Britain, or within any of the Dominions thereunto belonging, and who having traiterouſly ſerved againſt her Majeſty, ought to be received as a publick Miniſter, or with any Character, within this Kingdom: Notwithſtanding which, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, having no regard to the Safety of her Majeſty's Perſon, or to the Security of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and ſetting himſelf in utter Defiance not only of the Advice and Reſolution of the Houſe of Lords, but of her Majeſty's Aſſurances to that Houſe of Parliament, and of her Royal Authority and Command, by her Proclamation under the Great Seal, inſtead of doing what in him lay to have apprehended and brought, or cauſing the ſaid Lileſh, alias Lawleſs, to be brought to Juſtice, did afterwards, on or about the 15th Day of March 1714, moſt wickedly and treacherouſly adviſe her Majeſty to ſign a Warrant, directing the Payment of One thouſand Pounds Sterling to Daniel Arthur Eſquire, for ſpecial Services; which being accordingly iſſued, and received by the ſaid Arthur, he the ſaid Earl did privately and corruptly direct the ſaid Arthur to pay the ſame; and, accordingly, the ſaid 1,000 l. was paid to the Uſe of the ſaid Lileſh, alias Lawleſs: And the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did, at other times, in a fictitious and ſcandalous Manner, direct the Payment of other conſiderable Sums of Money, out of her Majeſty's Treaſure, to the ſaid Lileſh, alias Lawleſs; which were accordingly paid to him; although it was notorious, that the ſaid Lileſh, alias Lawleſs, had not only traiterouſly ſerved in Arms againſt her Majeſty, but had been the Miniſter or Agent of the Pretender at the Court of Madrid, and was under ſtrong Suſpicions of being ſent into England, though though under the Pretences aforeſaid, ſecretly to promote the Intereſt of the Pretender in theſe Kingdoms:

By all which corrupt and evil Counſels, he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer did, moſt baſely and ungratefully, expoſe the Perſon of her Sacred Majeſty; did what in him lay to enervate, and render ineffectual, the Advice of Parliament, and her Majeſty's moſt ſolemn Declarations, in a Matter of the neareſt Concern to her Majeſty, and her Kingdoms; and, by countenancing, in the moſt corrupt and ſcandalous Manner, the ſecret Emiſſaries of the Pretender, did greatly encourage his open Adherents; to the apparent Danger of the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

Article VIth.

That whereas her late Majeſty Queen Anne, after ſeveral unſucceſsful Attempts, in Conjunction with her Allies, to eſtabliſh his preſent Imperial Majeſty on the Throne of Spain, being informed, That the People of Catalonia were inclined to caſt off the Yoke impoſed upon them by the French, and to return to the Obedience of the Houſe of Auſtria; and her Majeſty, being deſirous to maintain and improve that good Diſpoſition in them, and to induce them to put the ſame ſpeedily in Execution, did ſend Mitford Crow Eſquire to them, with neceſſary Powers and Inſtructions to carry on ſo great a Work, for the Advantage of her Service, and the Good of the common Cauſe; and, to that End, to treat with the Catalans, or any other People of Spain, about their coming into the Intereſt of King Charles the 3d, his preſent Imperial Majeſty, and (a) [joining with her Majeſty, and] her Allies, againſt the common Enemy: And her Majeſty, after her gracious Aſſureances to aſſiſt them with Men and Money, was pleaſed to authorize her ſaid Miniſter to give them her utmoſt Aſſurances, to procure the Eſtabliſhment of all ſuch Rights and Immunities as they had formerly enjoyed under the Houſe of Auſtria; and that, for their further Satisfaction, ſhe had ſent for Powers from King Charles the Third, for confirming the ſame; and was willing to become Guarantee, that it ſhould be done; nevertheleſs, on this expreſs Condition, That they ſhould receive the ſaid King Charles as lawful King of Spain, and utterly renounce the Houſe of Bourbon: And, together with the ſaid Inſtructions, her Majeſty was pleaſed to ſign, and cauſe to be delivered to her ſaid Miniſter, credential Letters to the Nobility, Magiſtrates, and all other Officers, Civil and Military, of Catalonia, deſiring them to depend on the Promiſes he ſhould make them in her Name: And, in her Majeſty's Inſtructions to the Earl of Peterborow and Sir Cloudeſly Shovel, in or about the Month of May 1705, they are ordered to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to induce the Catalans to join with them in their Undertaking; and to aſſure them of her Majeſty's Support; and to promiſe them, in the Queen's Name, That ſhe would ſecure them a Confirmation of their Rights and Privileges from the King of Spain, that they might be ſettled on a laſting Foundation to them, and their Poſterity; and, in caſe Perſuaſion ſhould not prevail, and the Catalans ſhould not make a ſuitable Return to thoſe kind Offers, they were ordered to annoy their Towns on the Coaſt of Spain, and to reduce them by Force: And, in Conformity to theſe Inſtructions, a Manifeſto, or Declaration, was prepared, by the Privity and Advice of Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, then One of her Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, and delivered to the ſaid Earl of Peterborow, full, on the one hand, of the Aſſurances afore-mentioned, and, on the other hand, of Menaces to them, in caſe they declined her Majeſty's Overtures; which Manifeſto was afterwards publiſhed by him the ſaid Earl of Peterborow, in Catalonia: And whereas the Nobility, Clergy, and the whole Principality, of Catalonia, and the Inhabitants of the Iſle of Majorca, relying on the Faith of thoſe Royal Aſſurances, did utterly abandon the Houſe of Bourbon, and acknowleged King Charles the Third, his preſent Imperial Majeſty, for their lawful Sovereign; and did join their Arms with thoſe of her Majeſty, and her Allies, againſt the Duke of Anjou: And it having pleaſed Almighty God ſo far to bleſs her Majeſty's pious and generous Undertaking, as by moſt ſignal Succeſſes, in a ſhort time, to deliver the Principality of Catalonia from the heavy Yoke of French Bondage; and, great Supplies having been granted by Parliament, for the reducing the whole Kingdom of Spain to the Obedience of the Houſe of Auſtria, the Arms of her Majeſty, and her Allies, were attended with vaſt Succeſſes; having twice entered the capital City of that Kingdom, and obtained many other ſignal Conqueſts, to the great Advantage of the common Cauſe; and, through the whole Progreſs thereof, the Bravery and Firmneſs of the Catalans being always remarkable; thereby, as well as from the repeated Aſſurances given to them, from time to time, in her Majeſty's Name, by every General and Miniſter ſent from Great Britain to Spain, the Hearts of that brave People were united, under the ſtrongeſt Ties of Affection and Gratitude, to her Majeſty; and they were juſtly held in the ſtricteſt Dependance on the Continuance of her Royal Protection: He the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, being an Enemy to the common Liberty of Europe; and having traiterouſly entered into Conſpiracies for ſubjecting the whole Spaniſh Monarchy to the Houſe of Bourbon; and deſigning, moſt maliciouſly, the utter Ruin and Deſtruction of the ancient Rights, Liberties, and Privileges, of the Catalans, who had made ſo glorious a Stand for the Preſervation of them; did, together with other falſe and evil Counſellors, form a moſt diſhonourable, wicked, and cruel, Contrivance, not only for abandoning the Catalans to the Fury and Revenge of the Duke of Anjou, and his Adherents; but for the final Extirpation of all their Rights, Liberties, and Privileges; and, in Execution of that his Intention, during the private, ſeparate, and pernicious, Negotiation of Peace, which was carried on between him and the Miniſters of France, and before any Negotiation of Peace was ſet on foot, in due Form of Law, between the Crowns of Great Britain and Spain, did adviſe her Majeſty to give Directions to the Lord Lexington, her Ambaſſador to the Court of Spain, to acknowlege the Duke of Anjou King of Spain; but was greatly wanting in his Duty to her Majeſty, in not adviſing her to give Inſtructions to her ſaid Miniſter, at the ſame time, peremptorily and abſolutely to inſiſt on ſecuring the Catalans Liberties at the Concluſion of the Peace: And although the private, ſeparate, and treacherous, Practices of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and others, in Combination with the Miniſters of France, did afterwards, on or about the 14th of March 1713, neceſſitate his preſent Imperial Majeſty to conclude a Treaty for the evacuating Catalonia, whereof her Majeſty was Guarantee, without any expreſs and poſitive Stipulations for the Catalans Liberties; his Imperial Majeſty relying, in that reſpect, on her Majeſty's Declaration, to interpoſe for them in the moſt effectual Manner; and on the Promiſes of the French King, to join his Endeavours for the ſame Purpoſe; and although her Sacred Majeſty did, both before and after, frequently declare, by her Miniſters in Spain, That ſhe thought herſelf under the ſtrongeſt Ties of Honour and Conſcience not to abandon a People, whom the Neceſſities of the War had obliged her to draw into her Intereſt; and though the French King did not join his Endeavours for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, together with other falſe and wicked Counſellors, having, from time to time, amuſed and deceived the diſtreſſed Catalans with groundleſs Hopes of her Majeſty's effectual Interpoſitions in their favour; thereby engaging them in a more obſtinate Defence of their Territories againſt the Duke of Anjou; was not only highly wanting in his Duty to her Majeſty, by not doing what in him lay, as a faithful Miniſter, to have prevented the Concluſion of the Treaty of Peace with Spain, till juſt and honourable Conditions were ſecured for the Catalans; but did falſly, maliciouſly, and treacherouſly, adviſe her Majeſty to conclude a Peace with the King of Spain, without any Security for the ancient and juſt Rights, Liberties, and Privileges, of that brave, but unhappy, Nation; and did, further, adviſe her Majeſty to ſend Sir James Wiſhart, her Admiral, with a large Squadron

Squadron of Men of War, at a great Expence, to favour the ſaid King of Spain in the Siege of Barcelona, the capital City of Catalonia; and with expreſs Inſtructions, That, in caſe the Inhabitants of Majorca ſhould refuſe the Terms that ſhould be offered them by the Duke of Anjou, to employ his Squadron in countenancing and aſſiſting all Attempts that ſhould be made for reducing them to a due Obedience: By which moſt vile and deteſtable Counſels, her Sacred Majeſty, contrary to her moſt pious Intentions, the Faith of Nations, and the Duties of Religion, and Humanity itſelf, and contrary to her ſolemn and repeated Aſſurances, was prevailed on to abandon a diſtreſſed People, drawn in, and engaged, by her own Invitation, into an open War with the Duke of Anjou, for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe, and the Commerce of Great Britain; and the Perſons, Eſtates, Dignities, Rights, Liberties, and Privileges, of the Catalans were given up as a Sacrifice to the implacable Reſentment of their enraged and powerful Enemy; and the Honour of the Britiſh Nation, always renowned for the Love of Liberty, and for giving Protection to the Aſſertors of it, was moſt baſely proſtituted, and a free and generous People, the faithful and uſeful Allies of this Kingdom, were betrayed, in the moſt unparalelled manner, into irrecoverable Slavery; and, in conſequence of which moſt diſhonourable and perfidious Councils, the moſt execrable Hoſtilities, Burnings, and Plunderings, were committed upon them, throughout their whole Province, without ſparing the Effuſion of innocent Blood, and without the Diſtinction of Age or Sex; and that unfortunate People were afterwards forced to undergo the utmoſt Miſeries of a Siege, in their capital City of Barcelona; during which, great Multitudes of them periſhed by Famine, and the Sword; many of them have ſince been executed; and great Numbers of the Nobility of Catalonia, who, for their Conſtancy and Bravery in Defence of their Liberties, and for their Services in Conjunction with her Majeſty and her Allies, had, in all Honour, Juſtice, and Conſcience, the higheſt Claim to her Majeſty's Protection, are now diſperſed in Dungeons throughout the Spaniſh Dominions; and not only the Catalan Liberties extirpated, but, by thoſe wicked Counſels of him the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, Catalonia itſelf is almoſt become deſolate.

All which Crimes and Miſdemeanors were committed and done by him the ſaid Earl, againſt our late Sovereign Lady the Queen, her Crown and Dignity, the Peace and Intereſt of this Kingdom, and in Breach of the ſeveral Truſts repoſed in him the ſaid Earl: And he the ſaid Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer was either Commiſſioner of the Treaſury, or Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and One of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, during the time that all and every the Crimes before ſet forth were done and committed:

Articles of Impeachment of High Treaſon, and other High Crimes and Miſdemeanors, againſt Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke.

WHereas a Treaty of Alliance was made and concluded on or about the Seventh Day of September One thouſand Seven hundred and One, between Leopold then Emperor of Germany, his late Majeſty King William the Third, of ever-glorious Memory, and their High Mightineſſes the States-General of the United Provinces, for repelling the Greatneſs of the common Danger, which threatened all Europe, from the Duke of Anjou's having taken Poſſeſſion of the Monarchy of Spain; wherein it was, among other things, agreed, That, in caſe the ſaid Confederates ſhall be forced to enter into a War, they ſhall communicate their Deſigns to one another, as well in relation to the Actions of the War, as all other things wherein the common Cauſe is concerned; and that it ſhall not be permitted to either Party, when the War is once begun, to treat of Peace with the Enemy, unleſs jointly, and by a Communication of Councils: And in and by a defenſive Treaty and Alliance, made and concluded in or about the Month of November One thouſand Seven hundred and One, between his ſaid late Majeſty King William the Third and the States-General, it was, among other things, expreſly agreed, That, when the War is begun, the ſaid Confederates ſhall act in Concert, according to the Seventh and Eighth Articles of the Treaty, of the Third of March $167\frac{7}{8}$, between England and Holland; and that no Peace, nor Truce or Suſpenſion of Arms, ſhall be negotiated or made, but according to the Ninth and Tenth Articles of that Treaty; by which it was agreed, That, when the Allies came once to open War, it ſhall be lawful for neither of them afterwards to come to any Ceſſation of Arms with him who ſhall be declared and proclaimed an Enemy, without it be done conjointly and with common Conſent; and that no Negotiation of Peace ſhall be ſet on foot by one of the Allies, without the Concurrence of the other; and that each Ally ſhall continually, and from time to time, impart to the other every thing that paſſes in the ſaid Negotiation: And in and by a Treaty, entered into and concluded on or about the Month of June 1703, between her late Majeſty Queen Anne, of ever-bleſſed Memory, and the States-General, it was, among other things, agreed, That all Treaties and Alliances, then ſubſiſting between them, ſhould be renewed and confirmed: And whereas a long, bloody, and expenſive, War had been carried on by her late Majeſty, in Conjunction with her ſaid Allies, and other confederate Princes, againſt France and Spain, as well in Reſentment of the Indignity offered to theſe Kingdoms, by their having acknowleged the Pretender King of theſe Realms, as for obtaining a juſt Satisfaction to his Imperial Majeſty, and for the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Religion, and the Balance and Liberties of Europe; and, from the great Succeſſes with which it had pleaſed Almighty God to bleſs the Confederate Arms, they had juſt Reaſon to hope for an honourable, good, ſafe, and laſting Peace; and although the French King was encouraged, in or about the Month of April 1711, to make Propoſitions of Peace to her late Majeſty, ſigned by Monſieur de Torcy, his Secretary of State; which her ſaid Majeſty having pleaſed to communicate to the Miniſters of the States General, ſhe did, however, graciouſly declare, by Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, then Henry St. John Eſquire, and One of her principal Secretaries of State, her Sentiments to them, That the ſaid Propoſitions were too general; and, at the ſame time, the ſaid Viſcount did, in her Majeſty's Name, and by her ſpecial Command, give them her utmoſt and moſt ſolemn Aſſurances, That, in making Peace, as in making War, ſhe would act in perfect Concert with them; in which Sentiments the States concurring with her Majeſty, reciprocal Aſſurances of mutual Confidence, ſo neceſſary to prevent the Deſigns of the Enemy, were returned by them to her Majeſty: Notwithſtanding which,

Article 1ſt.

He the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, then being One of her Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, and of her moſt Honourable Privy-Council; but, having entered into a moſt treacherous Confederacy with the Miniſters and Emiſſaries of France, to fruſtrate the juſt Hopes and Expectations of her Majeſty and her People, by diſuniting the Confederacy at the moſt critical Juncture, when they were ready to reap the Fruits of ſo many Triumphs over the common Enemy; and moſt wickedly intending, as far as in him lay, to enable the French King, ſo exhauſted and vanquiſhed as he had been on all Occaſions, to carry his Deſigns, by a Peace glorious to him, and to the Ruin of the victorious Allies, and the Deſtruction of the Liberties of all Europe; and, having no Regard to the ſolemn Treaties her Majeſty then ſtood engaged in, nor to the Honour or Safety of theſe Kingdoms, did, in or about the Months of July or Auguſt in the Year of our Lord 1711, maliciouſly and wickedly form a moſt treacherous and pernicious Contrivance and Confederacy, with other evil-diſpoſed Perſons, then alſo of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, to ſet on foot a private, ſeparate, diſhonourable, and deſtructive, Negotiation of Peace between Great Britain and France, without any Communication thereof to her Majeſty's Allies, according to their ſaid ſeveral Treaties; and was not only wanting in his Duty and Truſt to her Majeſty, by not oppoſing, and as far as was in his Power, by not adviſing her Majeſty againſt going into any private, ſeparate, Negotiation with France; but, in Execution of his Purpoſes aforeſaid, he the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke did adviſe her late Majeſty to ſend Matthew Prior Eſquire directly to the Court of France, to make Propoſitions of Peace, without communicating the ſame to her Majeſty's Allies; and, accordingly, the ſaid Matthew Prior, by the Advice and with the Privity of him the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, and other falſe and evil Counſellors, in or about the Months of July or Auguſt in the Year of our Lord 1711, was ſent, in a clandeſtine manner, from England to France, and did communicate the ſaid Propoſitions of Peace to the Miniſters of France; in which the particular Intereſts of Great Britain, as well as the common Intereſts of Europe, were ſhamefully betrayed; and, in Manifeſtation of his Deſign to exclude her Majeſty's Allies from their juſt Share in the ſaid Negotiation, an expreſs Article was inſerted in the ſaid Propoſitions, by the Privity and Advice of him the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, That the Secret ſhould be inviolably kept, till allowed to be divulged by the mutual Conſent of both Parties; although the French King had, in the Propoſitions ſigned by Monſieur de Torcy, and tranſmitted in the Month of April preceding, offered to treat with the Plenipotentiaries of England and Holland alone, or jointly with thoſe of the Allies, at the Choice of England: By which treacherous and dangerous Advice, he the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke did not only contrive and ſet on foot a Negotiation of Peace, more advantageous to France than ever France itſelf had aſked; but thereby did put it into the Power of the common Enemy to create incurable Jealouſies and Diſcords between her Majeſty and her faithful Allies, and to deſtroy that Confidence which had ſo long, and ſo ſucceſsfully, been cultivated between them, and which was ſo neceſſary for their common Safety.

Article 2d.

That the French King having, in or about the Months of Auguſt or September 1711, with the Privity and by the Contrivance of the ſaid Viſcount Bolingbroke, and others, ſent over Monſieur Meſnager into England, to carry on a ſeparate and clandeſtine Negotiation of Peace, he the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke did afterwards, in the ſaid Month of September 1711, or thereabouts, ſecretly and unlawfully, and without any Colour of Authority, meet, confer, and treat, with the ſaid Sieur Meſnager, on the Negotiations of Peace between Great Britain and France; and therein did adviſe and promote the making a private and ſeparate Treaty, or Convention, on the ſaid Subject of Peace between the ſaid Crowns, without any Communication thereof to her Majeſty's Allies: And the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke did afterwards, in Violation of his Oath, and high Truſt, falſly and treacherouſly adviſe her late Majeſty to ſign Powers to ſeveral Perſons for concluding, on her behalf, a pernicious and deſtructive Treaty, or Convention, on the ſaid Subject of Peace, with France; and, on or about the ſaid 27th of September 1711, a diſhonourable, deſtructive, and fatal, Treaty, or Convention, was concluded and ſigned by the ſaid Sieur Meſnager, on the Part of France, and by the Earl of Dartmouth and the ſaid Viſcount, being then Two of her Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, and of her Privy-Council, on the Part of her Majeſty, by virtue only of a Warrant under her Majeſty's Sign Manual, under the Signet, directed to themſelves, but not counterſigned, and without the leaſt Knowlege or Participation of the Allies; in which Treaty, the immediate Intereſts of Great Britain are given up to France; and the Duke of Anjou being therein admitted to remain King of Spain, the Balance of Power, and the Liberties of Europe, were thrown into the Hands of the Houſe of Bourbon.

Article 3d.

That whereas her late Majeſty Queen Anne did, in or about the Firſt of October 1711, O. S. give Inſtructions to Thomas Earl of Strafford, her Ambaſſador to the States-General of the United Provinces, to communicate to them certain Propoſitions of Peace, which had been contrived and concerted between the ſaid Sieur Meſnager and the ſaid Viſcount, and others, intituled, Preliminary Articles on the Part of France to come to a General Peace, together with her Majeſty's Sentiments and Reſolutions thereupon; and alſo her Majeſty's further and particular Reſolutions concerning the Proſecution and carrying on the War againſt France and Spain, in caſe the States were deſirous to carry on the ſaid War; and whereas, for ſeveral Years before, and till the ſaid Month of October 1711, there was open War between her late Majeſty and the French King; and the ſaid War continuing for all the ſaid time, and afterwards the French King and his Subjects were Enemies to her late Majeſty; he the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, being then One of her Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, and One of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, and a Subject of her ſaid Majeſty, not conſidering the Duty of his Allegiance, but having altogether withdrawn the cordial Love, and true and due Obedience, which every true and faithful Subject owed to her ſaid Majeſty, and deſigning to give Aid and Succour, and to adhere to the ſaid French King againſt her ſaid Majeſty, did, on or about the Second of October 1711, during the ſaid War, falſly, wickedly, maliciouſly, and traiterouſly, aid, help, aſſiſt, and adhere to, the ſaid French King, and his Subjects, Enemies to her ſaid late Majeſty, againſt her ſaid late Majeſty; and, in Execution and Performance of his ſaid Aiding, and Aſſiſting, and Adhering, he did, on or about the 2d of October 1711, falſly, maliciouſly, and traiterouſly, diſcloſe and communicate her Majeſty's ſaid Inſtructions to her ſaid Ambaſſador, or was privy to, and did adviſe, conſent, or approve, that the ſame ſhould be, and accordingly the ſame were, communicated and diſcloſed to the ſaid Sieur Meſnager, a Subject of the ſaid French King, and an Enemy to her late Majeſty; and, in further Execution and Performance of his ſaid Aiding, Aſſiſting, and Adhering, he the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke did, in and by a Letter or Writing, by him wrote to Monſieur de Torcy, on or about the ſaid 2d Day of October 1711, diſcloſe, communicate, and notify, or did intend to notify, to Monſieur de Torcy, a Subject, Miniſter, and Secretary, to the French King, and an Enemy to her late Majeſty, That the ſaid Sieur Meſnager was fully informed of her Majeſty's ſaid Inſtructions to the Earl of Strafford; thereby falſly, maliciouſly, and traiterouſly, informing and adviſing the ſaid Monſieur de Torcy from what Perſon, and by what Means, he might come to the Knowlege of her Majeſty's ſaid Inſtructions, contrary to the Duty of his Allegiance, and the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Article 4th.

That whereas her late Majeſty Queen Anne did, in or about the Month of December 1711, in due Form of Law, under the Great Seal, conſtitute the Right Reverend John Lord Biſhop of Briſtol, and Thomas Earl of Strafford, her Plenipotentiaries, with full Powers and Inſtructions to meet, treat, and conclude, with the Plenipotentiaries of her Allies, and thoſe whom the French King ſhould, on his Part, depute for that Purpoſe, the Conditions of a good and general Peace: And whereas his Imperial Majeſty, their High Mightineſſes the States-General of the United Provinces, and other her Majeſty's Allies, and the French King, having duly conſtituted and appointed their ſeveral and reſpective Plenipotentiaries for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, the Negotiations and Conferences for a General Peace were opened between them, at Utrecht, about the Months of January or February 1711; and the ſame continued till the 4th of March 1711, and afterwards: And whereas, on the ſaid 4th Day of March 1711, there was open War between her late Majeſty and the French King; and the ſame having continued for ſeveral Years before, and at the ſame time, and afterwards, the ſaid French King and his Subjects were, during all the ſaid time, Enemies to her ſaid Majeſty and her Subjects; he the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, then being One of her Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, and of her Privy-Council, and a Subject of her ſaid Majeſty, not conſidering the Duty of his Allegiance, but having withdrawn his Duty and Obedience from her ſaid Majeſty, and conſpiring and confederating with the Enemies of her ſaid Majeſty, and the Subjects of the ſaid French King, to give him Aid and Succour againſt her ſaid Majeſty, did, on or about the ſaid 4th Day of March 1711, falſly, wickedly, and traiterouſly, aid, comfort, aſſiſt, and adhere to, the ſaid French King againſt her ſaid Majeſty; and, in Execution and Performance of his ſaid Aiding, Aſſiſting, and Adhering, he the ſaid Viſcount did, on or about the ſaid 4th of March 1711, falſly, maliciouſly, and traiterouſly, communicate and diſcloſe her ſaid Majeſty's then final Inſtructions to her ſaid Plenipotentiaries, relating to the ſaid Negotiations of Peace; or was privy to, and did adviſe, and conſent, and approve, that the ſame ſhould be, and accordingly the ſame were, communicated and diſcloſed to Abbot Gaultier, an Agent and Emiſſary of the ſaid French King, and an Enemy of her ſaid Majeſty; and, in further Execution and Performance of his ſaid Aiding, Aſſiſting, and Adhering, he the ſaid Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke did, by a Letter or Writing, wrote by himſelf, on or about the ſaid 4th of March, falſly, maliciouſly, and traiterouſly, diſcloſe, communicate, and notify, or did intend thereby to communicate and notify to Monſieur de Torcy, a Miniſter, Secretary of State, and Subject, of the ſaid French King, and an Enemy of her ſaid Majeſty, That the ſaid Gaultier was informed of her Majeſty's ſaid Inſtructions to her ſaid Plenipotentiaries; thereby falſly and traiterouſly informing and adviſing the ſaid Monſieur de Torcy, by what Means, and from what Perſons, he might have the Knowlege of her Majeſty's ſaid Inſtructions, contrary to the Duty of his Allegiance, and the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Articles of Impeachment of High Treaſon, and other High Crimes and Miſdemeanors, againſt James Duke of Ormonde.

Article 1.

THAT whereas James Duke of Ormonde, in or about the Month of April 1712, being appointed General of the Forces in the Netherlands of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, with Orders to proſecute the War againſt France with all poſſible Vigour, in Conjunction with her ſaid Majeſty's Allies; and having, by her ſaid Majeſty's Directions, and in her Name, given her ſaid Allies the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances to that Purpoſe; was thereupon admitted into the Counſels, and made privy to the moſt ſecret Deſigns, of the Generals of the Confederate Army againſt the common Enemy, and of the Meaſures they thought the moſt proper to carry on the War with Succeſs: And whereas, in the ſaid Year 1712, the ſaid War was carried on between her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Anne and the ſaid French King; and, during all the ſaid Year, the War did continue, and, for all that time, the ſaid French King, and his Subjects, were Enemies of her late Majeſty; he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde, then General of her Majeſty's Army, and a Subject of her Majeſty, not conſidering the Duty of his Allegiance, but having withdrawn his true and due Obedience from her ſaid late Majeſty, and Affection from his Country, did, during the ſaid War, falſly, maliciouſly, wickedly, and traiterouſly, aid, help, aſſiſt, and adhere to, the ſaid French King, againſt her ſaid late Majeſty; and in Execution of his ſaid aiding, helping, aſſiſting, and adhering, maliciouſly, falſly, and traiterouſly, contrary to the Duty of his Allegiance, and the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, did, on or about the 26th Day of May 1712, ſend private Intelligence and Information to Marechal Villars, then an Enemy to her ſaid late Majeſty, and General of the French King's Army againſt her Majeſty and her Allies, of a March the Army of her ſaid Majeſty, and of her Allies, was then going to make, and of the Deſign of the ſaid Army in making that March.

Article the Second.

That whereas, in or about the Month of May 1712, a traiterous Deſign was carried on between Henry St. John Eſquire, then One of her ſaid late Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and other evil-diſpoſed Perſons, and the Miniſters of France, to defeat the juſt Expectations of the great Advantages over the common Enemy her Majeſty and the Nation had then Reaſon to hope for from the great Superiority of the Confederate Forces in the Netherlands; to obtain which, very large Sums of Money had been chearfully contributed by Parliament; and, to that End, the ſaid Henry St. John had given ſecret Aſſurances to the French Miniſters, that her Majeſty's General in the Netherlands, though under the moſt ſolemn Engagements to act vigorouſly in Concert with the Allies, ſhould not act againſt France; and had alſo engaged the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde to concur in the ſaid wicked Purpoſe: Which evil Practices of the ſaid Henry St. John and others, when they were firſt ſuſpected, giving the greateſt Alarm to the Miniſters of the Allies, the Parliament, and to the whole Kingdom; and being thereupon openly diſavowed and denied by all the Conſpirators in the moſt publick manner; he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde, in order to diſguiſe and conceal from her ſaid late Majeſty, and the whole Kingdom, the ſaid traiterous Deſigns then carrying on by the ſaid Henry St. John, and other falſe Traitors to her Majeſty and (a) [their] Country, in Aid and Comfort of the French King, then in open War with, and an Enemy of, her ſaid Majeſty, did, by his Letter of the 25th of May 1712, to the ſaid Henry St. John, then her Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State, called his publick Letter, becauſe prepared, and intended to be read, before her ſaid Majeſty and her Council, wickedly, falſly, and treacherouſly, abuſe and impoſe upon her ſaid late Majeſty and her Council, by affirming and declaring therein, That, if he found an Opportunity to bring the Enemy to a Battle, he ſhould not decline it; although, by a private Letter, writ by the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde, of the ſame Date, and to the ſaid Henry St. John, deſigned to be read by the ſaid Henry St. John and the ſaid Conſpirators only, he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde did, on the contrary, wickedly promiſe and engage, that he would not attack or moleſt the French Army, or engage in any Siege againſt France.

Article the Third.

That he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde, in or about the Month of June 1712, being at that time General of her Majeſty's Forces againſt France, and a Subject of her ſaid Majeſty, not conſidering the Duty of his Allegiance, but having altogether withdrawn the cordial Love and due Obedience which every faithful Subject owed to her ſaid Majeſty, and devoting himſelf to the Service of France, and deſigning to give Aid and Comfort to the French King and his Subjects, then in open War with, and Enemies to, her ſaid late Majeſty; in Violation of the many Treaties of Alliance between Great Britain and ſeveral other Princes and States for carrying on the War againſt France, and of the ſaid late Queen's Inſtructions to him, on or about the 7th of April 1712, under the Sign Manual in purſuance thereof, and of the ſolemn Declarations he had but lately before, by her ſaid Majeſty's Command, and in her Name, made to the Penſionary of Holland, and the Generals of the Confederate Army, to puſh on the War with all poſſible Vigour; and alſo in open and manifeſt Violation of the laſt Orders ſent to him in a Letter from the ſaid Henry St. John, on or about the 7th of June 1712, whereby he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde was directed to make no Ceſſation (b) [of Arms with the French, unleſs the Articles demanded by her Majeſty, and expreſly mentioned and ſet down in the ſaid Letter, as the Conditions for the ſaid Ceſſation,] ſhould be complied with by France; and whereby he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde was likewiſe further expreſly directed and told, That in caſe the Conditions therein mentioned were not complied with by France, that then he was intirely free from Reſtraint, and at Liberty to take all reaſonable Meaſures in his Power for annoying the Enemy, and at full Liberty of acting againſt France; did, on or about the 25th of June aforeſaid, falſly, maliciouſly, wickedly, and traiterouſly, aid, help, aſſiſt, and adhere to, the French King againſt her ſaid late Majeſty, and then in open War with her Majeſty; and, in Execution of his ſaid aiding, helping, aſſiſting, and adhering, and in purſuance of a wicked Promiſe he had ſecretly made the ſame Day to Marechal Villars, General of the French Army, to that Purpoſe, maliciouſly, falſly, and traiterouſly, contrary to the Duty of his Allegiance, and the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, did adviſe, and endeavour to perſuade, the Generals of the Confederate Army againſt France, and the Deputies of the States General, to raiſe the Siege of Queſnoy, a a French Town, then beſieged by them; and did then further traiterouſly and wickedly refuſe to act any longer againſt France; and then alſo traiterouſly and wickedly told the ſaid Generals of the ſaid Confederate Forces, and the ſaid States Deputies, That he could no longer cover the Siege of Queſnoy; but was obliged, by his Inſtructions, to march off with the Queen's Troops, and thoſe in her Majeſty's Pay: Whereas in Truth, (a) [and] the Commons expreſly charge, that he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde did traiterouſly and wickedly make the ſaid Declaration, and refuſed to act againſt France, in manifeſt Contradiction, not only to his ſaid original Orders, but alſo of the ſaid Letter to him, of the 7th of June, from the ſaid Henry St. John; ſince none of the Articles, demanded by her Majeſty for a Ceſſation of Arms, and expreſſed in the ſaid Letter to be the Conditions, without which no Ceſſation of Arms was to be made, had been complied with by France: And, in further Execution of his ſaid traiterous Deſigns, he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde, by a Letter to the ſaid Marechal Villars, on the 25th of June aforeſaid, did traiterouſly and wickedly ſend Intelligence to the ſaid Marechal Villars of the before-mentioned Paſſages between him the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde and the Generals of the Confederate Army and the States Deputies; and how his Propoſitions were received by them; and alſo the Diſpoſition he obſerved in the foreign Troops to adhere to the ſaid Confederates, in caſe of a Separation by the Troops of Great Britain.

Article the Fourth.

That he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde did not only wickedly and falſly affirm to the Generals of the Confederate Army, and the States Deputies, That his ſaid Refuſal to act any longer againſt France, and to cover the Siege of Queſnoy, was in purſuance of Inſtructions he had received for that Purpoſe; but alſo, to induce the ſaid Generals of the Confederate Army, and the States Deputies, to comply with his Propoſal to them to abandon the ſaid Siege, he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde did wickedly repreſent their Compliance therein as the moſt effectual Way to induce her ſaid late Majeſty to take care of the ſaid Confederates Intereſt at the Peace; whereby he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde did, in effect, threaten her ſaid Majeſty's good Friends and Allies, that, unleſs they would diſhonourably abandon an Enterprize undertaken by common Conſent, and thereby ſave a ſtrong Fortreſs, and a numerous Gariſon, of the Enemy, they were not to expect, that her Majeſty would take care of their Intereſts at the general Peace.

Article the Fifth.

That he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde having received a Letter, dated on or about the 14th of July 1712, from the ſaid Marechal Villars, the French General, deſiring to be informed what Troops remained with the Confederate Army, or what Troops and Generals marched off from them with him the ſaid Duke; and declaring at the ſame time, that the Reaſon of that Inquiry was, in order to fall upon and attack the ſaid Confederate Army; he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde, on or about the 16th Day of July 1712, did traiterouſly and wickedly, contrary to the Duty of a true and faithful Subject, and contrary to his Allegiance, and the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, aid, help, aſſiſt, and adhere to, the ſaid French King, and his Subjects, againſt her ſaid late Majeſty, and then in open War with, and Enemies to, her ſaid late Majeſty; and, in Execution of his ſaid aiding, helping, aſſiſting, and adhering, he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde, on or about the ſaid 16th Day of July 1712, did traiterouſly ſend ſecret Intelligence to the ſaid Marechal Villars, the General of the French Army, of the Number of the Troops that had left the ſaid Confederate Army, and alſo of the March the ſaid Confederate Army had that Morning made.

Article the Sixth.

And whereas he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde had received Advice, that the States-General, in or about the Month of October 1712, had formed a Deſign to ſurpriſe and take the Towns of Newport and Furnes, or one of them, then in the Poſſeſſion of the French King; that he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde, intending to ſtrengthen the Hands of the common Enemy, by defeating the ſaid Enterprize, did, on or about the 21th Day of October 1712, in a Letter to the ſaid Henry St. John, then Viſcount Bolingbroke, wickedly and baſely ſuggeſt to and adviſe her ſaid late Majeſty to ſend ſecret Intelligence of, and to betray, the ſaid Counſels and Deſigns of her good and faithful Allies the States-General to the French King, then in War with, and an Enemy to, her Majeſty; and did further, wickedly and ſhamefully, ſuggeſt the Means of putting the ſaid Treachery in Execution, by giving private Intelligence of the Deſign to the ſaid Marechal Villars.

All which Crimes and Miſdemeanors were committed and done by him the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde againſt our late Sovereign Lady the Queen, her Crown and Dignity, the Peace and Intereſt of this Kingdom, and in Breach of the ſeveral Truſts repoſed in him the ſaid Duke: And he the ſaid James Duke of Ormonde was General of her Majeſty's Forces in the Netherlands, and One of her Privy-Council, during the time that all and every the Crimes before ſet forth were done and committed.

That the Dangers to which the Province of South Carolina is expoſed, by the late Invaſion of the Indians, are ſuch as require a ſpeedy and effectual Relief; the Inhabitants fit to bear Arms not being Fifteen hundred or Two thouſand Men; and the Indians are ſaid to be upwards of Twelve thouſand: That, the Proprietors not being able, at their own Charges, either to ſend the neceſſary Supplies for the preſent Relief of the ſaid Province, or to ſupport it under the like for the future, your Committee ſubmit, in what manner it may be moſt proper to preſerve and maintain this ſo valuable a Province, which is a Frontier of the Britiſh Plantations on the Continent:

Colonel Bladen reported, from the Committee, to whom the Petitions of James Campbell Eſquire, and of the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, were referred, the Matter, as it appeared to them; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the ſame, and the Reſolutions of the Committee thereupon, were read; and are as follow; viz.

The Committee having taken into Conſideration the Matters of the ſaid Petition of James Campbell, of London, Merchant, Agent for the publick Creditors of Scotland;

It appeared, That, by the Fifteenth Article of the Treaty of Union between England and Scotland, it is agreed, That all the publick Debts of the Kingdom of Scotland, as ſhould be adjuſted by that preſent Parliament, ſhould be paid out of the ſeveral Sums by the ſaid Treaty payable to Scotland, by way of Increaſe and Equivalents:

That, by an Act, of the laſt Parliament of Scotland, intituled, An Act concerning the publick Debts, the publick Debts of Scotland were adjuſted:

That, by an Act, of the Firſt Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, An Act for further directing the Payment of the Equivalent money, the Commiſſioners of Equivalent were impowered and directed to grant transferrable Debentures for the publick Debts, ſo adjuſted, to the ſeveral Perſons intitled thereto, with Intereſt at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum from the 24th of June 1708.

Sir Patrick Johnſton, One of the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, attended the Committee; and, being examined, declared, That the ſaid Commiſſioners of Equivalent had iſſued out transferrable Debentures, bearing Intereſt tereſt at the Rate of Five Pounds per Cent. per Annum from the 24th of June 1708, purſuant to the aforeſaid Act:

That, by an Act, of the Twelfth Year of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act to acquit and diſcharge the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, &c. the publick Debts of Scotland, which, on the 24th of June 1714, remained unſatisfied, and which were adjuſted and certified, purſuant to the Direction of the ſeveral Acts of Parliament therein recited, are declared to amount to the Sum of 230,308 l. 9 s. 10 $\frac{5}{6}$ d.; and the Commiſſioners of Equivalent are thereby directed and required to iſſue out new Debentures for the ſaid Sum to the ſeveral Perſons proportionally and reſpectively intitled thereto, with Intereſt at the Rate of Five Pounds per Cent. per Annum from the ſaid 24th of June 1714, payable out of the firſt and readieſt of the Monies which either are, or ſhall become, due to Scotland, by way of Equivalent, according to the Agreements in the Treaty of Union.

The ſaid Sir Patrick Johnſton acquainted the Committee, That the Commiſſioners of Equivalent have proceeded to iſſue out new Debentures, purſuant to the Direction of the ſaid Act of Parliament, of the Twelfth Year of her late Majeſty: And the Petitioner, James Campbell, alſo produced to the Committee ſeveral new Debentures, which have been iſſued by the Commiſſioners of Equivalent accordingly.

That, from the ſaid Act of Parliament, of the Twelfth Year of her late Majeſty, and from the Acknowlegement of the ſaid Sir Patrick Johnſton, who was examined to that Effect, it appeared to the Committee, That the publick Creditors of Scotland have not received any Part of the ſaid principal Sum of 230,308 l. 9 s. 10 $\frac{5}{6}$ d. nor of the Intereſt due thereupon.

That, by the 15th Article of the Treaty of Union, it is provided, That the Commiſſioners of Equivalent ſhall keep Books, containing Accounts of the Amount of the Equivalents; and how the ſame ſhall have been diſpoſed of from time to time; which may be inſpected by any of the Subjects who ſhall deſire the ſame.

The ſaid Sir Patrick Johnſton, and Patrick Campbell Eſquire, Treaſurer to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, being examined, acknowleged, That the ſaid Commiſſioners had not kept ſuch Books, with the Amounts of the Equivalents, to be inſpected by the Creditors, or other Subjects of Scotland, as the Treaty of Union requires; becauſe the ſaid Commiſſioners themſelves had not received the Accounts from the Officers of the Revenue, certifying the Equivalents growing due, as the ſaid Act for further directing the Payment of the Equivalent-money appoints; whereby, only, proper Books might have been kept for that Purpoſe: And that,

Upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to the following Reſolution;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petitioner, James Campbell Eſquire, has fully proved the Allegations of his Petition, in behalf of the publick Creditors of Scotland.

After which, the Committee proceeded upon the Petition of the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, which was alſo referred to them: And,

It appeared to the Committee, upon reading the 15th Article of Union, with the Minutes of the Treaty, and other Accounts thereto annexed, publiſhed by Authority;

That Scotland ſhould have an Equivalent for what the Subjects thereof ſhould be charged towards Payment of the Debts of England, in all Particulars whatſoever; viz. 398,085 l. 10 s. for ſuch Parts of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, with which that Kingdom was to be charged upon the Union, as would be applicable to the Payment of the ſaid Debts of England, according to the Proportions which the then preſent Cuſtoms in Scotland, being 30,000 l. per Annum, did bear to the Cuſtoms in England, computed at 1,341,559 l. per Annum; and the then preſent Exciſes in Scotland, being 33,500 l. per Annum, did bear to the Exciſe in England, computed at 947,602 l. per Annum:

And, in regard the ſaid Revenues would improve beyond the before-mentioned annual Values thereof, of which no Eſtimate could then be made, and for which a proportionable Equivalent ought to be anſwered to Scotland; therefore, after the Union, there ſhould be an Account kept of the ſaid Duties ariſing in Scotland, to the end it might appear what ought to be anſwered to Scotland as an Equivalent for ſuch Proportion of the ſaid Increaſe, as ſhould be applicable to the Payment of the Debts of England:

That, for the more effectual anſwering the ſeveral Ends mentioned in this Article, after the Union, the whole Increaſe of the Revenues of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, over and above the annual Produce of the ſaid reſpective Duties, as above ſtated, ſhould go, and be applied, for the Term of Seven Years, to the Uſes hereafter mentioned; viz. for Payment of the publick Debts of Scotland; and towards encouraging and promoting the Fiſheries, and ſuch other Manufactories and Improvements, in Scotland, as might moſt conduce to the general Good of the United Kingdom; and that, upon the ſaid Account, there ſhould be anſwered to Scotland annually, from the End of Seven Years after the Union, an Equivalent in proportion to ſuch Part of the ſaid Increaſe, as ſhould be applicable to the Debts of England: And generally,

That an Equivalent ſhould be anſwered to Scotland for ſuch Parts of the Engliſh Debts as Scotland might thereafter become liable to pay, by reaſon of the Union, other than ſuch, for which Appropriations had then been made by Parliament in England, of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe; in reſpect of which Debts, Equivalents are herein before provided:

That, at the time of the Treaty, certain Branches of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe of England were applicable for the Civil Liſt; others appropriated to Perpetuity, or for a long Term of Years, for Payment of Debts; others were to continue for a ſhort Period of Time, for the ſame Purpoſe; and others were unappropriated, and applicable to the publick Service; the Value of all which reſpective Branches was taken from a Medium of the Produce in the Three Years immediately preceding the Treaty; and the Parts of the Scots Cuſtoms and Exciſe, applicable to the ſeveral Purpoſes aforeſaid, were regulated by the Proportions above-mentioned, as may appear by the aforeſaid Minutes and Accounts of the Commiſſioners for the Treaty of Union.

It appeared further to the Committee, upon reading the aforeſaid 15th Article of Union, and a Clauſe in an Act, of the Sixth of Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the further directing the Payment of the Equivalent-money, That her late Majeſty was impowered to appoint Commiſſioners, who ſhould be accountable to the Parliament of Great Britain, for diſpoſing the ſaid Sum of 398,085 l. 10 s. and all other Monies which ſhould ariſe to Scotland upon the Agreements aforeſaid; which Commiſſioners ſhould be impowered to call for, receive, and diſpoſe of, the ſaid Monies in manner aforeſaid; and to inſpect the Books of the ſeveral Collectors of the ſaid Revenues, and other Duties from whence an Equivalent might ariſe; and that the Collectors and Managers of the ſaid Revenues ſhould be obliged to give to the ſaid Commiſſioners ſubſcribed authentick Abbreviates of the Produce of ſuch Revenues and Duties ariſing in their reſpective Diſtricts; and that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhould have their Office within the Limits of Scotland, and, in ſuch Office, keep Books, containing Accounts of the Amount of the Equivalents, and how the ſame ſhould have been diſpoſed of from time to time; which might be inſpected by any of the Subjects who ſhould deſire the ſame.

That, by the ſaid Act, of the Sixth of Queen Anne, it appeared, That the Commiſſioners, Managers, Collectors, and other proper Officers, of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and of all other Revenues and Duties from whence an Equivalent might ariſe, according to the Agreements aforeſaid, were obliged to make and ſubſcribe Two authentick Abbreviates of the Produce of ſuch Revenues, with the Amount of the ſeveral Sums which ſhould be due by way of Equivalent, according to the ſaid Agreements, from the Commencement of the Union to the 25th March 1708, for for the Firſt time, and ſo from thenceforward half-yearly; one of the ſaid Abbreviates to be tranſmitted to the Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, or the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being; and the other to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent in Scotland for the Time being; and that the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, upon Receipt of ſuch Abbreviates, ſhould and might grant his or their Warrant for the Payment of ſuch Sums, as ſhould be found due, to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent for the Time being:

That, by the ſame Act of the Sixth of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, each Commiſſioner of the Equivalent ſhould have an Allowance of 300 l. yearly, during his Continuance in the Adminiſtration thereof, in Conſideration of their great Pains and Expence, and their being liable, in their Perſons and Eſtates, to the Parties having Intereſt, and to account to the Parliament of Great Britain for their Adminiſtration: But, by an Act of the Twelfth of her ſaid Majeſty, and by an Account, wherein the publick Debts of Scotland, mentioned in that Act, are particularly ſet forth, it appears, That theſe Commiſſioners have got no Payment of their Salaries; and the Sum, ſtated due to them on the 24th June 1714, is 15,129 l. 11 s. 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. over and above a Balance of 16,450 l. 14 s. 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. then remaining in their Hands: And, by the ſame Act of the Twelfth of her ſaid Majeſty, they are made accountable for the ſaid Balance, as being applicable to other Purpoſes preferable to their Salaries: And, ſince the time of makeing up their Accounts with the Parliament, they have been obliged to lay out of the ſaid Balance, for Payment of the neceſſary Charges of the Commiſſion, the Fees and Salaries of their Servants, preceding the 24th June 1715, the Sum of 1,568 7 6, which, by the ſaid Act of the Sixth of her ſaid Majeſty, was payable out of the firſt and readieſt of the Money in the Hands of the ſaid Commiſſioners, from time to time; whereby the Balance, formerly remaining in their Hands, is reduced to the Sum of 14,882 l. 6 s. 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; and the Debt due to them for their Salaries is augmented to the Sum of 16,697 l. 18 s. 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. over and above what remains of the ſaid Balance; and the Salaries due to the ſaid Commiſſioners, from 24th June 1714 to the 24th June 1715, amount to 2,738 l. 12 s. 8 d. which appears by Accounts ſigned by the preſent Commiſſioners of Equivalent:

That there appears to be no Fund for ſupporting the preſent Commiſſion, until Payment or Proviſion is made for the Equivalents due, and growing due.

The Committee examined Mr. Campbell concerning the Accounts of the growing Equivalent, which were to have been made up and kept by the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, and other Matters relating to the Execution of the Truſt to them committed: Who ſaid, That he had been Treaſurer to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent ſince July 1707; and had, by their Allowance and Direction, demanded from the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and from the other publick Offices, ſuch Accounts of the Produce of the Revenue under their reſpective Managements, as appeared to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent to have been neceſſary towards making up Accounts of the growing Equivalents: That no Accounts were delivered to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, other than Abbreviates of the Cuſtoms, and half-yearly Abbreviates of the Exciſe: That in neither one or other the Sums due by way of Equivalent were certified, ſave in One Abbreviate of Exciſe from the 25th March 1708 to the 29th September following: The Commiſſioners of Exciſe ſay, The Sum due, by way of Equivalent, is 1,927 l. 10 s.; which Abbreviates Mr. Campbell laid before the Committee: And further ſaid, That, the Commiſſioners of Equivalent perceiving an Unwillingneſs in the ſeveral Officers of the Revenue to give ſuch Accounts as were thought neceſſary, they, in ſeveral Memorials laid before the Treaſury, repreſented the Difficulties they were under with regard to the Accounts of the growing Equivalent, and the Hardſhips done them; who, notwithſtanding their being authorized by Parliament, veſted with Commiſſions from the Crown, and entruſted with the Execution of ſuch ſolemn Agreements between the Two Nations, have not, for theſe Eight Years paſt, got ſo much as their neceſſary Charges in attending that Office; and, on many Occaſions, demanded both the Increaſe and Equivalents, which they thought due:

But, by the general Abbreviates of the Revenues of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe of Scotland, which were referred to the Committee, it appears to what Purpoſes theſe Revenues were employed; and that the Commiſſioners of Equivalent have had no Part of either of them.

That the Committee, having looked into the Abbreviates of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, which were laid before them, did examine John Crookſhanks Eſquire, Comptroller-General of the Cuſtoms of Scotland, concerning the Abbreviates of the Cuſtoms: Who ſaid, That the Abbreviates then before the Committee were the ſame which were delivered by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent:

That what each Branch of that Revenue did produce, and what the Whole produced each Half-year, did appear by theſe Abbreviates: That the great Inequality of the half-yearly Produces, one being below what the Cuſtoms of Scotland yielded before the Union, and another above it, was the Cauſe, as he apprehended, why the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms never certified any Increaſe due to the Equivalent: That ſeveral Branches of the Cuſtoms were to have determined in June, Auguſt, and September, 1710; and, by ſeveral ſubſequent Laws, are continued, and made perpetual: But the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms were not able exactly to diſtinguiſh the Uſes, to which the Monies, levied upon theſe Branches, were applied; and therefore could never certify what was due, by way of Equivalent, upon the Continuation of theſe Branches.

That the Committee, having looked into the Abbreviates of the Exciſe, did obſerve, That nothing was certified due to the Equivalent upon any of thoſe half-yearly Abbreviates, except for the Half-year ending 29th September 1708; and that, by the general Accounts for the whole Seven Years, which was referred by the Houſe to the Committee, it appears, That, in each Year, there was a net Increaſe; ſave only in the laſt Year, which is charged with the whole Arrears from the Commencement of the Union.

It likewiſe appeared to the Committee, That, ſince the Union, the Branches of the Revenue, which were unappropriated at the time of the Treaty, have been ſince appropriated, ſome for Payment of Debts due before the Union, and others for promiſcuous Services: That all the Branches, which were to have determined in June, Auguſt, and September, 1710, are further continued, by ſubſequent Acts of Parliament; thoſe of the Cuſtoms to Perpetuity; and that of the Exciſe for Ninety-eight Years: And that ſeveral new Duties have been impoſed, ſince the Union, for current Services, and for Payment of old Debts.

That, by the aforeſaid Act, of the Twelfth of Queen Anne, intituled, An Act to acquit and diſcharge the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, &c. it appeared to the Committee, That the Sum due to the Creditors of the Publick in Scotland, over and above the Balance of 16,450 l. 14 s. 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. remaining in the Hands of the Commiſſioners of Equivalent on the 24th June 1714, did amount to 230,308 l. 9 s. 10 $\frac{5}{6}$ d.; and that the Intereſt due thereupon ſince, together with the Charges formerly mentioned to have been paid out of the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, and the Salaries due to the Commiſſioners ſince that time, makes up the publick Debt to 246,130 l. 18 s. 6 d. on the 24th June 1715. And that,

Upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Commiſſioners of Equivalent have fully proved the Allegations and Facts contained in their Petition.

Reſolved, That the Accounts, which have hitherto been delivered by the Officers of the Revenue to the Commiſſioners of Equivalent, do not diſtinguiſh the particular

Applications of Money, in ſuch manner as may enable the ſaid Commiſſioners to make up the Accounts of the Equivalent:

And, therefore, it is their Opinion, That the Houſe be moved for Leave to bring in a Bill for the more effectual Settling of ſuch Debts as are due, and growing due, by way of Equivalent, to Scotland; and to make a Proviſion for Payment of the ſame.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for the more effectual ſtating and ſettling the Debts due, and growing due, to Scotland, by way of Equivalent, that Payment may be made thereof, in Terms of Union; and of an Act, of the Sixth Year of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for further directing the Payment of the Equivalent-money: And that Colonel Bladen, Sir David Dalrymple, Mr. Smith, Mr. Bayly, and Mr. Lownds, do prepare, and bring in, the ſame.

Mr. Secretary Stanhope preſented to the Houſe, according to Order, a Bill to ſummon James Duke of Ormond to render himſelf to Juſtice by a Day certain; or, in Default thereof, to attaint him of High Treaſon: And the ſame was received; and read the Firſt time.

Reſolved, That the Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe.

Reſolved, That this Houſe will, To-morrow Morning, reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, upon the ſaid Bill.

The Houſe proceeded in the further hearing the Merits of the Election for the Borough of Taunton:

And the Counſel on both Sides were called in:

And the Petitioners Counſel inſiſted upon the diſqualifying ſeveral Perſons, who voted for the Sitting-Members, on account of their having received the Charities called the Town-Charity (which is veſted in Feoffees), and Meredith's Charity:

And a Book being produced, wherein is entered the Account of the Diſpoſition of the Town-Charity;

The Sitting-Members Counſel objected to the ſaid Book's being read as Evidence.

The Counſel on both Sides were heard thereunto.

And then withdrew,

And a Motion being made, and the Queſtion being put, That the Account of Jeffery Pyſing, Steward and Bailiff of the Lands and Tenements belonging to the Town of Taunton, in the County of Somerſet, from the Twenty-firſt Day of December 1713 to the Twenty-firſt of December 1714 (inſerted in a Book, intituled, "Taunton, An Account-"Book of the Profit of the Town-Lands, 1683)," although not allowed and ſigned by the Feoffees, be admitted to be read as Evidence;

Then the Petitioners Counſel proceeded to diſqualify ſeveral Perſons named in the ſaid Account, as having received the ſaid Charity-money: And alſo examined Witneſſes, to prove Perſons having worn the Cloaths given by Meredith's Charity; and alſo to ſome Perſons coming into the Borough by Certificate: And alſo examined Witneſſes, to prove that ſeveral Perſons who lived in the Borough, and were Houſekeepers and Pot-wallers, offered to poll for the Petitioners, but were refuſed; and alſo, to ſome partial Proceedings, as was inſiſted, of the Mayor, and Mr. Yard, who was a Juſtice of Peace in the ſaid Borough:

After which, the Petitioners Counſel ſummed up their Evidence.

And the Counſel were directed to withdraw.

Ordered, That the further Hearing the Merits of the Election for the Borough of Taunton be adjourned till Saturday Morning next.

PRAYERS.

A Petition of Richard Partridge, in behalf of the Inhabitants of the Colony of Rhode-Iſland, and Providence Plantation, in America, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That whereas there is a Bill for the Regulation of the Charter and Proprietary Governments in America, which, the Petitioner is informed, will affect the ſaid Colony of Rhode-Iſland (for which your Petitioner is concerned): That thereby their Charter may become void: That the ſaid Inhabitants having their Charter granted them by King Charles the Second, whereby they have the Privilege of chooſing their Governor, Council, &c. and have defended the Colony ever ſince, at their own Expence, from the French and Indian Enemy, and always behaved themſelves with great Submiſſion to the Crown of Great Britain, and never in the leaſt (that the Petitioner hath heard of) given any Suſpicion of their abuſing thoſe Privileges they have been favoured with from their Sovereign: And praying, That a Clauſe may be admitted, to ſave the Rights of the ſaid Government; or to hear the Petitioner, by Counſel, in their behalf.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, to whom the Bill for the better Regulation of the Charter and Proprietary Governments in America, and of his Majeſty's Plantations, is committed: And that the Petitioner be heard, by his Counſel, before the Committee, thereupon, if he think fit.

An ingroſſed Bill, from the Lords, intituled, An Act for confirming a Sale already made to Edmund Dummer Gentleman, of ſome Part, and for veſting other Part, of the Eſtate of John Bromfeild Eſquire, in the County of Southampton, compriſed in the Articles made upon his Marriage with Anne his Wife, in Truſtees, to be ſold for the Payment of his Debts; and for ſettling the remaining Part thereof as near as may be to the Intent of the ſaid Articles; and for making thereby, and by other Means in the Act mentioned, ſome Proviſion for the ſaid John Bromfeild, and Anne his Wife, and their Iſſue; was read the Third time.

Reſolved, That the Bill, with the Amendments, do paſs.

Ordered, That the Lord William Powlet do carry the Bill to the Lords, and acquaint them, That this Houſe hath agreed to the ſame, with ſome Amendments: To which they deſire their Lordſhips Concurrence.

Sir John Brownlow reported from the Committee, to whom the ingroſſed Bill, from the Lords, intituled, An Act to enable Sir Richard Wynche Baronet, and Humphry Wynche Eſquire, only Son and Heir apparent of the ſaid Sir Richard Wynche, to ſettle a Jointure upon ſuch Woman as the ſaid Humphry Wynche ſhall marry, was committed, That they had examined the Allegations of the Bill, and found the ſame to be true; and that the Parties concerned had given their Conſents to the Bill, to the Satisfaction of the Committee: And that the Committee had made an Amendment to the Bill, which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the ſame was twice read; and, upon the Queſtion put thereupon, agreed unto by the Houſe; and is as followeth;

Preſs 6. L. 38. After the Word "to," add "the King's "moſt Excellent Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and."

Mr. Cholmly preſented to the Houſe, according to Order, a Bill for the Improvement of the Breed of Horſes: And the ſame was received; and read the Firſt time.

Reſolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Mr. Walpole reported from the Committee of Secrecy, That the ſaid Committee having, purſuant to the Orders and Powers given to them by this Houſe, proceeded to examine Thomas Harley Eſquire, who was ſworn by ſuch Members of the ſaid Committee as are Juſtices of Peace for the County of Middleſex, and City of Weſtminſter; and the Committee conceiving, that the ſaid Mr. Harley had very much prevaricated in his Examination, the ſaid Committee had directed, That ſome Extracts of Letters, relating to the ſaid Mr. Harley, which gave Occaſion to the ſaid Examination; and likewiſe a Copy of the Depoſition of Mr. Harley; ſhould be laid before the Houſe; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the ſame were read: And the ſaid Extracts of Letters, and Depoſition, are as follows; viz.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. St. John to the Lords Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, 16° Februarii 17½.

THO' I have a great deal more to ſay, in order to explain clearly to your Lordſhips the preſent Situation of the Queen's domeſtick Affairs, and the Meaſures which ſhe propoſes your Lordſhips ſhould purſue towards effecting your great Work, under all the Difficulties which are thrown in the Way, than can be contained in the Compaſs of a reaſonable Letter; yet I ſhould, by this Meſſenger, have entered into all that Detail, had not the Reſolution been taken, of finally inſtructing Mr. Harley on Monday, in the View of diſpatching him on Tueſday.

It were to be wiſhed, that this Gentleman could have been ſooner ſent both to Utrecht and to Hanover; but the Hurry which we have been for ſome time in is inexpreſſible; and he was too uſeful to be ſpared, till the Houſe of Commons was perfectly ſecured to the Queen's Intereſt, and to the Meaſures of Peace: I think, I may ſay, that they are abſolutely ſo now.

Your Lordſhips will have this Matter fully opened to you by Mr. Harley.

Extract of a Letter from the Lords Plenipotentiaries to Mr. Secretary St. John, 5° March 1712, N. S.

YOUR Favour, of the 16th paſt, under your own Hand, gives us Hopes of ſeeing Mr. Harley here very ſoon; and of receiving by him ſuch Orders as may enable us to fix on ſomething more certain than hitherto we could do.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Secretary St. John to the Lords Plenipotentiaries, 4° March 17½.

I Find your Lordſhips, in the private Letter of the 5th of this Month, which you honoured me by Couchman, under ſome Impatience for the Arrival of Mr. Harley; and I am very far from wondering at you for it; ſince, in your preſent Situation, you run the Riſque of having the Game taken out of your Hands by others, and are in no ſort able to play it on, yourſelves: This evil Circumſtance will now now be very ſoon cured; Mr. Harley goes away To-morrow; and your Lordſhips will be much better informed of the Queen's Intentions by what he will have the Honour to ſay to you, than you could poſſibly have been by Ten Reams of written Inſtructions.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. St. John to Monſieur de Torcy Secretary of State to the French King, the 4th of March $17\frac{1}{2}$, O. S.

I Should be aſhamed, Sir, to have ſo long deferred anſwering your Letters, if I did not believe I was able to allege, in my Juſtification, a good Reaſon; and which you will not diſapprove: In a word, I was willing to write to you with Certainty; and, for that End, I was obliged to ſtay till the Miniſters of the Emperor, and of the Republick of Holland, had more openly ſhewn their Game; till the neceſſary Diſpoſitions were made among our People at home; and, in ſhort, till the Queen had taken the only Reſolution, which could bring us, in a little time, to a good and ſolid Peace.

I have now the Satisfaction to tell you, that this Reſolution is taken; and that Mr. Harley will ſet out this Evening, or To-morrow Morning, with the final Inſtructions of the Queen to her Plenipotentiaries.

You will give me Leave to refer myſelf to the Sieur Gaultier, to explain to you more at large the Subject of this Gentleman's Commiſſion; and what the Queen hopes his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will do, to co-operate with her.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. St. John to the Lords Plenipotentiaries, 26° March 1712.

MR. Harley is, I make no doubt, long before this, with your Lordſhips; and I hope he has fully explained the Queen's Deſires and Views to you; at leaſt, he is as amply inſtructed in them, as I am able to inform him: The Conduct of this Matter is in ſo good Hands, that I am hopeful an anſwerable Event may be expected.

Extract of a Letter from the Lords Plenipotentiaries to Mr. St. John, 6° April 1712.

MR. Harley has been here theſe Three Days; and Yeſterday Mr. G.....r came to ſee us, having arrived the Night before.

Extract of a Letter from the Lords Plenipotentiaries to Mr. St. John, 8° April 1712.

OUR laſt, of the 6th, acquainted you, that ſome People had been diſappointed, that Day, in their Expectations of breaking this Congreſs; which we hope may be carried on, and produce the good Effects intended.

That Evening, after we had received ample Informations from Mr. Harley, and alſo ſpoken with Mr. Gaultier, we had a long Conference with the French Plenipotentiaries, upon the Project that was ſent you the 22d; whereof we again incloſe a Copy, with ſuch Remarks, as, after all we could urge, the French Miniſters inſiſted on.

The Fifteen per Cent. they will by no means allow to extend to other Goods than ſuch as come into Spain, in order to be tranſported into America.

Mr. Harley thinks it may be requiſite to let fall that whole Pretenſion, and ſettle Commerce on the Foot it ſtood in the Time of King Charles the IId of Spain; and that the only Uſe we need make of the Fifteen per Cent. is to get ſomething for it another Way; which we ſhall be glad to hear from you; for, in that Caſe, our Work with the Dutch will become a good deal eaſier.

Copy of the Examination of Thomas Harley Eſquire, taken before the Right Honourable Hugh Boſcawen Eſquire, Comptroller of his Majeſty's Houſhold, and One of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, at the Committee of Secrecy.

THE Examinant ſaith, That when he was firſt ſent abroad, in or about March $17\frac{1}{2}$, he was ſent by the Queen's expreſs Commands, who was pleaſed to ſpeak, herſelf, very particularly to him: That her Majeſty ordered the Secretary of State to make ſuch Powers as were neceſſary to be given to him, but would make it eaſy to him, and without any Formality: That Directions were given for full Powers, which this Examinant left in the Office, where he thought they would be moſt ſafe: That he never received any Powers, nor ever ſaw them; but, at his own Choice, went abroad without Powers: That the Queen ordered, That this Examinant ſhould have an Account of the State of Affairs, to be communicated by him to ſuch Perſons as he was to diſcourſe with abroad: That he received, from ſeveral Offices, ſeveral Papers, relating to the Revenue, and other Matters, touching the then Situation of Affairs; from which the Queen was pleaſed to order him to inform himſelf as well as he could, that he might be able to explain himſelf when he went; and, in particular, when he came to the Hague, he was to give the Penſionary an Account of the State of Affairs, and to uſe the beſt Arguments he could, to haſten the Peace: But he does not know whether he has any of thoſe Papers now by him; and does not remember, that he had any particular Inſtructions for himſelf, except from thoſe Papers, but what he received from the Queen's own Mouth; the Particulars whereof he cannot at preſent charge his Memory with, except as above-mentioned: That he did not produce, at the Hague, or at Utrecht, any credential Letters from the Queen, or any of her Miniſters: That he had no Orders to tranſact or negotiate any thing relating to the Peace, with any foreign Miniſter; and that he did not tranſact, in any manner, with any foreign Miniſter: That he did not, to his Knowlege, carry over any Plan, Project, or Scheme, of a Peace; and that he did not tranſact any thing at Utrecht with Abbot Gaultier, nor confer with him either there, or before he went from England: That he does not remember he had any Orders from the Queen, or any of her Miniſters, relating to the Fifteen Pounds per Cent.; and that he doth not remember, that he did ſignify any Orders to the Queen's Plenipotentiaries concerning it; and that he does not remember any thing at all about the Fifteen Pounds per Cent.: That he ſtaid in Holland till he had the Queen's Order to go forward, ſignified by the Secretary of State: That he received ſeveral Letters whilſt he was abroad; but from whom, in particular, he cannot remember; and that he wrote ſeveral Letters; but to whom he cannot remember; and that he doth not know, that he has either Copies, or Originals, of any Letters that he either wrote or received: That he had no ſettled Allowance or Appointment; but, at his firſt going over the firſt time, he ſpent his own Money, which the Queen was afterward pleaſed to order ſhould be allowed him: That, the firſt time he went abroad, he received under Three thouſand Pounds; and, in both Journies together, he received, in all, about Five thouſand Five hundred Pounds; and that what he received, the Queen ordered for his Expences, and the Trouble he had been at: That nobody negotiated any Money for him upon the publick Account, but Mr. Decker; and that he does not remember, that he had any publick Money, but for his own Expence; which did not, in the Whole, exceed the Sum of Five thouſand Five hundred Pounds.

Another Clauſe was offered, to be added to the Bill, That no Perſon, who may reap any Benefit by the Attainder or Forfeiture of any Perſon by virtue of this Act, ſhall be a Witneſs againſt any Perſon, by whoſe Forfeiture any Benefit may accrue to ſuch Witneſs:

And the ſaid Clauſe was twice read; and amended; and, upon the Queſtion put thereupon, agreed unto by the Houſe to be made Part of the Bill.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, Tradeſmen, and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Portſmouth, in the County of Southampton, in behalf of themſelves, and of ſeveral Hundreds of other trading Perſons within the ſaid Borough, and the Liberties thereof, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the Petitioners have, for ſeveral Years, given large Credit to great Numbers of Seamen, as well Inhabitants as others, employed in his Majeſty's Navy, when their Payment has been deferred for ſeveral Years; by reaſon whereof, there is now actually due to the Petitioners ſeveral Sums of Money, amounting to ſeveral Thouſands of Pounds: That, unleſs ſuch Credit had been given to the ſaid Seamen, their Families could not have been ſupported; but muſt neceſſarily have been a Burden to the reſpective Pariſhes they belonged to: That the ſaid Credit has uſually been advanced by the Petitioners upon the Security of Aſſignments made by ſuch Seamen on their Pay and Wages due for their Service performed on board the Ship or Ships to which they belonged; they being, for the moſt part, utterly incapable of giving any other Security for Debts by them contracted: That, if the Wages, &c. of ſuch Seamen, ſhould be exempted from the Payment of thoſe Debts by any Law to be made for that Purpoſe, it would utterly ruin the Petitioners, and Multitudes of other Tradeſmen in theſe Parts; the greateſt Part of whoſe Subſtance has been applied that way; and would alſo very much affect Tradeſmen in other Parts, who are Creditors to the Petitioners on that very Account; and would thereby effectually deſtroy all future Credit to Seamen: And praying, That they may be heard, by their Counſel, againſt againſt the Bill for the Relief of inſolvent Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen, before the ſaid Bill do paſs.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Bill for the Relief of inſolvent Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen, is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard, before the Committee, thereupon, by their Counſel, if they think fit.

And alſo, a Petition of ſeveral of the Inhabitants of the City of London, and many others of the Pariſhes, where Seamen reſide, in the Out-parts of the aforeſaid City, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the Petitioners, having given great Credit to Seamen, and their poor Families, in their Abſence when at Sea, upon Account of their Wages due for their Service performed on board of his Majeſty's Ships of War, by ſupplying them with Goods, and Money to buy them Bread for themſelves, and their poor Children; which otherwiſe muſt inevitably have periſhed, if they had not, by the Petitioners, been ſo credited and ſupported: That the Petitioners, having been a great while out of their Money, and in continual Expectation of receiving the ſame, upon Aſſignments given to them by the above-mentioned Seamen, are now, to their very great Surprize, informed, That, by an Act, which is now depending, for the Relief of inſolvent Soldiers and Seamen, that a Clauſe is therein inſerted, which provides, That, in the Schedule which ſhall be delivered by the ſaid Soldiers and Seamen, in order for their Diſcharge, that their Penſions, Pay, or Wages, ſhall not be therein mentioned, or accounted as Part of their Eſtate; but ſhall, as we humbly conceive, be received by the ſaid Soldiers and Seamen, and converted to their own Uſe; which will be to the great Prejudice of ſome of the Petitioners, and the Ruin of others, that have given ſuch Credit: And praying, That the ſaid Act may not paſs, without ſome Proviſion made therein for the Safety of the Petitioners, and Prevention of their Ruin; which will certainly happen, if the ſaid Act paſſes, with the aforeſaid Clauſe mentioned therein.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Bill for the Relief of inſolvent Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen, is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard, before the Committee, thereupon, by their Counſel, if they think fit.

And then the Houſe adjourned till Monday Morning, Nine of the Clock.

PRAYERS.

Reſolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Cholmley, Mr. Yonge, Mr. Shepheard, Mr. Heyſham, Sir Tho. Johnſon, Sir James Bateman, Lord Coningſby, Mr. Barlow, Mr. Godfrey, Mr. Broderick, Sir Richard Steele, Mr. Barrington, General Pepper, Mr. Ingram, Mr. Dockminique, Mr. Onſlow, Mr. Comptroller, Mr. Walpole, Mr. Evelyn, General Stanwix, Mr. Butler, Mr. Portman, Mr. Plumptree, Mr. Smith; and all that ſerve for the County of York: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber.

Sir Iſaac Rebow reported, from the Committee, to whom the Petition of ſeveral Bay and Say-weavers in Colcheſter, in the County of Eſſex, in behalf of themſelves, and ſeveral Hundreds of the ſame Trade; and to whom the Petition of many of the Baymakers of the ſaid Borough, and all other Baymakers of the ſaid Town, together with their Sons and Apprentices; were referred; the Matter of Fact, as it appeared to them, and the Reſolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the Report, and Reſolutions, were read; and are as follow, viz.

That it appeared to the ſaid Committee, by the Teſtimony of Thomas Webb, Weaver and Woolcomber, and others of the ſame Trade, That there are many Perſons that uſe the Trade of Weaving within the ſaid Town, who have no Right ſo to do; by which means, the Petitioners, and their Families, by the Multitude of unlawful Helps, are reduced to extreme Poverty, for want of Employment; by which means, the Poors Rates are increaſed much more than formerly: And that the bringing in of Strangers and Foreigners; and a By-law, made by the Governors of the Dutch Bay-hall, in the Year 1707; whereby all Perſons are excluded from making Bays, but ſuch as have ſerved Seven Years to the Trade of Baymaking; is the chief Occaſion of it.

Richard Root informed the Committee, That the Bay and Say-making, in Colcheſter, hath been a free Trade ever ſince the Firſt Patent granted by Queen Elizabeth to the Dutch; and the Weavers, and other Branches of the Woollen Manufacture, admitted into it, without Interruption, till the aforeſaid By-law was made by the Governors of the Dutch Bay-hall; which ſaith, That no Perſon ſhall be admitted into the ſaid Trade, but what has ſerved Seven Years to a Baymaker; and have ſince denied to admit ſeveral, who are free Burgeſſes of the ſaid Town, and whoſe Fathers and Grandfathers uſed the ſaid Trade; although the Charter, and Cuſtom of the Town, admitted any Perſon, who hath a Right to his Freedom by Birth or Service: That the Weavers anciently had the Liberty of Baymaking to the Hall; and that, if the By-law continues in Force, in a little time there will be no Maſters to employ the Petitioners; for moſt of the preſent Traders have no Apprentices: Since the Year 1707, 70 Traders have died, or left off, by reaſon of that Reſtraint in the By-law; and but 28 ſet up in that time; ſeveral of whom came by the free Trade: All the preſent Traders are but 57; they have but 27 Apprentices, of which 16 will be incapable of Settlement, when their Times are expired, by reaſon of Poverty; and, conſequently, but 11 capable; and there are about 1,500 Bay and Say-weavers in the Town, who have a legal Right.

Edward Finch, and others, Weavers, alſo gave the Committee an Account, That there were 100 Weavers in the Town, who have Families, and want Work; and as many more gone out of the Town; yet ſeveral Hundred of unlawful Helps are employed, who never ſerved their Time as an Apprentice, or have any manner of Right; and named about 6 or 7 Weavers, who are denied by the Governors, and were Men of Subſtance, and ancient Weavers in the Town; and would employ many of the Poor, if they were admitted to a free Trade; and that thoſe Maſters, who do employ ſome few of the Poor, oblige them to work at their own Rates, and take Houſes of them, though they had no Occaſion; neither do ſome inhabit in them; yet they muſt pay the Rent; and threatened to be turned out of their Work, if they refuſe ſo to do; as alſo, to take Goods and Commodities, when their Work is done, inſtead of ready Money, and for much more than the real Value: By all which Oppreſſions, they, and their Families, are reduced to great Extremities, ready to periſh, for want of a free and open Trade, as formerly.

Then the Committee proceeded to examine the Baymakers, upon their Petition to them referred: And called,

Mr. Matthew Bernard: Who ſaid, That he had dealt very much in Colcheſter Bays; and that, if the ſaid By-law, made by the Governors of the Dutch Bay-hall, ſhould be deſtroyed, it would be a great Prejudice to that Trade; by reaſon, there are already more Bays made than the Markets can diſpoſe of: And he further ſaid, That the Weavers are generally very poor Men, and often ſteal their Yarn; which makes their Work not ſo good as they are in the adjacent Towns; but none are paid better Prices for their Work than they are; and owned, they were ſometimes paid in Goods, inſtead of ready Money; and that, he believed, ſome of the Weavers might live in the Baymakers Houſes; and fewer Bays would be made, if the unlawful Helps were taken away; for that many Perſons hath left off their Trade, and the Markets are overſtocked.

Mr. * Abbot ſaid, He had been a Dealer in the Bay-Trade 20 Years; and that he never knew any of the Weavers want Work, of one ſort or another; and, ſince the Making of the By-law, the Trade has been much improved; for, often, a Baymaker has 40 or 50 Pounds with an Apprentice; which, if the Trade was open, would be loſt: And, as another Inſtance, that there are great Quantities of Bays made, more than the Markets can take off;

He further ſaid, That the Weavers often leave out Three or Four Pound of Yarn out of a Bay; which occaſions the Badneſs of their Goods; and is one chief Reaſon, why the Bays, made at a Place called Bocking, within 12 Miles of Colcheſter, are ſo good: But owned, that the Weavers were paid ſometimes in Goods, inſtead of ready Money; and that the Trade of Bocking was open; but the Bocking People dread an open Trade at Colcheſter, becauſe their Men will run away from one Town to another: He further ſaid, That he had often paid Two Shillings in a Bay more than other Places; becauſe other People would take their Men away: He further ſaid, Good Sums of Money were given with Apprentices, before the By-law was made.

The Committee aſking ſome of the Witneſſes, Whether there were not ſeveral of the ſaid Baymakers, who had ſigned the Petition for the By-law to be continued, that came in by a free and open Trade; they all owned, That they had.

Mr. * Dubourg ſaid, He had been a Factor for the Baymakers about Six or Seven Years; and that there is ſeveral Hundred Pieces of Bays in his Cuſtody, more than the Markets can take off; and if the Trade ſhould be open, and more Goods made, they muſt rot in the Hall.

That it appears to this Committee, That, till the Year 1707, the Trade of Baymaking was not reſtrained to ſuch Perſons only as had ſerved their Apprenticeſhip to Baymakers; but was free to all who had ſerved their Apprenticeſhip to any other Branch of the Woollen Manufacture there.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to the following Reſolutions;

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That ſo much of the ſaid By-law of the Governors of the Dutch Bay-hall in Colcheſter, made in the Year 1707, as reſtrains the Making of Bays to ſuch as have ſerved Apprenticeſhips to the Baymakers only, is highly detrimental to that Branch of the Woollen Manufacture.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, by means of the above-mentioned By-law, and by the ill Practices of ſome of the Baymakers in the ſaid Town of Colcheſter, the poor Weavers have been grievouſly oppreſſed.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Houſe be moved for Leave to bring in a Bill for the ſaid Weavers Relief, by giving free Liberty to all Perſons, who have ſerved their Apprenticeſhips to any Part of the Woollen Manufacture in Colcheſter, to work at their ſaid Trades, and at the Making of Bays within the ſaid Town; with proper Limitations and Reſtrictions relating to the ſaid Dutch Bay-hall.

The Two Firſt of the ſaid Reſolutions, being ſeverally read a Second time, were, upon the Queſtion ſeverally put thereupon, agreed unto by the Houſe.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for the Weavers Relief, by giving free Liberty to the Perſons who have ſerved their Apprenticeſhips to any Part of the Woollen Manufacture in Colcheſter, to work at their ſaid Trades, and at the Making of Bays, within the ſaid Town; with proper Limitations and Reſtrictions relating to the Dutch Bay-hall: And that Sir Iſaac Rebow, Mr. Heyſham, Mr. Dockminicque, Mr. Ducane, and Mr. Broderick, do prepare, and bring in, the ſame.

The Lord Coningsby reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill for allowing a Time for Two hundred Thirteen Families of Proteſtant Palatines, now ſettled in Ireland, to take the Oaths, in order to intitle them to all the Benefits intended them by the Act, of the Seventh Year of her late Majeſty's Reign, for naturalizing foreign Proteſtants, was committed, That they had made ſome Amendments to the Bill; which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where they were once read throughout; and then a Second time, one by one; and, upon the Queſtion ſeverally put thereupon, agreed unto by the Houſe.

Ordered, That the Bill, with the Amendments, be ingroſſed.

The Houſe being moved, That the Act, of the Ninth and Tenth Years of his late Majeſty King William, for the better preventing the Embezzlement of his Majeſty's Stores of War; and preventing Cheats, Frauds, and Abuſes, in paying Seamens Wages; and the Act, of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of his ſaid Majeſty, for the more effectual Suppreſſion of Piracy; might be read;

They were read accordingly.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to prevent Diſturbances of Seamen and others; and to preſerve the Stores belonging to his Majeſty's Navy Royal; and alſo for explaining the ſaid Act, made in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the better preventing the Embezzlement of his Majeſty's Stores of War; and preventing Cheats, Frauds, and Abuſes, in paying Seamens Wages; and for reviving, and making perpetual, the ſaid Act, made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Suppreſſion of Piracy: And that Sir Charles Turner, and Mr. Nevill, do prepare, and bring in, the ſame.

The Orders of the Day being read;

The Members, who, upon calling the Houſe the Eighth Inſtant, were not excuſed, and were ordered to attend this Day, were called:

And John Snell Eſquire, Thomas Maſters Eſquire, Sir William Blacket Baronet, Doddington Grevill Eſquire, and Sir Robert Furneze Baronet, appeared.

Richard Shuttleworth Eſquire being called, he was excuſed, upon account of extraordinary Buſineſs in the Country.

Charles Parker Eſquire being called; and he not appearing;

Ordered, That the ſaid Mr. Parker, for diſobeying the Order of the Houſe for his attending this Day, be ſent for in Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe.

The Order of the Day being read, for the Houſe to reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider of the Motion for a Supply to be granted to his Majeſty, for making Proviſion for the Miniſters who are to officiate in the Fifty new Churches, which are to be built in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter;

Ordered, That his Majeſty's moſt gracious Meſſage, of the Twenty-eighth of June laſt, be referred to the ſaid Committee.

Then the Houſe reſolved itſelf into the ſaid Committee.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Farrer took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker reſumed the Chair.

Mr. Farrer reported from the Committee, That they had come to a Reſolution; which they had directed him to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered, That the Report be received To-morrow Morning.

The Houſe reſolved itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, upon the Bill for raiſing Nine hundred ten thouſand Pounds, for publick Services, by Sale of Annuities, after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be charge-

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Farrer took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker reſumed the Chair.

Mr. Farrer reported from the Committee, That they had gone through the Bill, and made ſeveral Amendments thereunto; which they had directed him to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Mr. Speaker,

A Petition of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes, of the Town and County of Southampton, and other trading Inhabitants of the ſame, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That the ſaid Town of Southampton is a Sea-Port Town; and that, during the laſt Ten Years of the late War with France, Brigadier Borr's Regiment of Marines was quartered there; and the Officers and Soldiers belonging to the ſame, divers whereof became Inhabitants there, and had Families, were truſted by the Petitioners with conſiderable Sums of Money, for the Support of themſelves and Families, and other Neceſſaries: That the ſaid Regiment was broke in the ſaid Town, ſoon after the Concluſion of the Peace; and then all Accounts between the ſaid Officers, Soldiers, and the ſaid Petitioners, were adjuſted and ſettled, in the Preſence of the Commiſſioners who diſbanded the ſaid Regiment; and, for the Repayment of the ſeveral and reſpective Sums due to the ſaid Petitioners, amounting to ſeveral Thouſand Pounds, the ſaid Officers and Soldiers could give no other Securities, but Aſſignments on their Pay and Wages due for their Service in the ſaid Regiment; which the Petitioners were forced to accept: That, by reaſon the ſaid Town of Southampton being a Sea-Port Town, it has been the Reſidence and Abode of divers Seamen, and their Families, who have had nothing to ſubſiſt, but their Pay and Wages for their Service in the Royal Navy; wherefore the Petitioners have truſted them with conſiderable Sums of Money, as well to fit themſelves out to Sea, as to ſupport and maintain their Wives and Children in their Abſence; without which, they muſt have been reduced to the greateſt Want; and, at their Return, all the Security they could give for the juſt Debts they then owed, was, by Aſſignments of their Pay for their Service performed: That, if the Pay and Wages of ſuch Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen, who are indebted to the ſaid Petitioners, ſhould be exempted from the Payment of their juſt Debts by any Law to be made for that Purpoſe, it will not only bring the Petitioners to Poverty and Want, but alſo very highly affect the Trade of the ſaid Town of Southampton, and other Sea-Port Towns, the major Part of whoſe Stock and Subſtance have been neceſſarily applied to the Uſes before-mentioned: And praying, That we may be heard, by our Counſel, againſt the Bill for the Relief of inſolvent Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Bill for the Relief of inſolvent Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen, is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard, by their Counſel, upon their Petition, if they think fit.

Ordered,

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Bill for the Relief of inſolvent Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen, is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard, by their Counſel, upon their Petition, if they think fit.

And the Managers went to the Conference:

And, being returned;

The Lord Wm. Powlet reported, That the Managers had been at the Conference: And that the Earl of Clarendon managed the ſame on the Part of the Lords; and acquainted the Managers on the Part of the Commons, That the Lords have agreed to ſome of the Amendments, made by this Houſe, to the ſaid Bill; and, as to One Amendment, that the Lords had agreed to the ſame, with an Amendment; to which Amendment they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe; but that, as to the other Amendments, made by this Houſe, to the ſaid Bill, the Lords had diſagreed to them; and they gave their Reaſons for diſagreeing to the ſame; which Reaſons the Lord William Powlett read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the ſame were read; and are as follow; viz.

The Lords diſagree to the Commons Amendment, Preſs 15. Line 31.;

Becauſe they are of Opinion, That the Word "only" anſwers the true Intent of the Bill; which is to bind only ſuch Right as may be claimed under the Marriage-Articles, mentioned in the Bill; and not ſuch other Right as the Perſons claiming under the Articles, or ſome of them, may poſſibly have by any other means not taken Notice of in the Bill.

The Lords diſagree to the Amendment, Preſs 24. Line 7.;

Becauſe they are of Opinion, That the Words "equally, "Share and Share alike," will not agree with the Words following, in the Bill; viz. "in ſuch Proportions, and "at ſuch Times, as the ſaid George Trenchard and Robert "Mitchell, or the Survivor of them, or the Executors "or Adminiſtrators of ſuch Survivor, ſhall think fit to "appoint;" which Words both Houſes had agreed to.

The Lords diſagree to the Amendment, in Lines 13, and 14.;

Becauſe they are of Opinion, That the Words "equally, "Share and Share alike," ſtand very properly in that Place, to prevent Diſputes, and cauſe an equitable Diviſion, among the Children, if in caſe Mr. Trenchard and Mr. Mitchell ſhould not make any ſuch Appointment as before-mentioned.

The Lords diſagree to the Amendment, Preſs 27th, Line 26th; which was the Addition of a Clauſe;

Becauſe it does not appear to their Lordſhips, but that, if there is any ſuch Sum as Fifty Pounds, with Intereſt, owing to the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh, the ſame may be ſome way ſecured, preferable to the ſaid Debts.

The Lords alſo diſagree to the Amendment, in Line the 42d;

Becauſe, the former Amendment being diſagreed to, the Words "and the ſaid Fifty Pounds, with Intereſt," will have Reference to no Part of the Bill.

Then the Amendment, made by the Lords, to One of the Amendments, made by this Houſe, to the ſaid Bill, was read; and is as follows; viz.

To the Commons Amendment, Preſs 15. Line 9. Leave out from "and" to the End of that Amendment, and inſert "the ſaid other Indenture of Aſſignment, of the "25th of Auguſt 1713."

The ſaid Amendment, being read a Second time, was, upon the Queſtion put thereupon, agreed unto by the Houſe.

Then the ſaid Amendments, made by this Houſe, to which the Lords do diſagree, being ſeverally read;

And the Queſtion being ſeverally put thereupon, That this Houſe doth inſiſt upon the Amendments, made by this Houſe, to which the Lords had diſagreed;

Powlett* do carry the Bill to the Lords, and acquaint them, That this Houſe hath agreed to the Amendment, made by their Lordſhips, to the ſaid Amendment, made by this Houſe: And that this Houſe doth not inſiſt upon ſuch of their Amendments with which their Lordſhips have diſagreed.

Articles of Impeachment of High Crimes and Miſdemeanors, againſt Thomas Earl of Strafford.

WHEREAS his late Majeſty King William the Third, of ever-glorious Memory, out of his great Wiſdom, and tender Regard for his own Kingdoms, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and to vindicate the Honour of the Crown and Nation, then affronted by France in proclaiming the Pretender King of Great Britain, after the French King had, but lately before, acknowleged his Majeſty's Title to the ſame; as well as from a juſt Concern for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe, againſt the growing Power of France, which was then become more formidable, from the Duke of Anjou's having taken Poſſeſſion of the intire Spaniſh Monarchy; did, upon the Advice and Requeſt of both Houſes of Parliament, in or about the Month of September 1701, enter into, make and conclude, a Treaty with Leopold Emperor of Germany, and the States-General of the United Provinces; wherein, a ſtrict Conjunction and Alliance amongſt themſelves being thought neceſſary for repelling the Greatneſs of the common Danger, it was, amongſt other things, agreed, That there ſhould be, and continue, between the ſaid Confederates, a conſtant, perpetual, and inviolable, Friendſhip and Correſpondence; and that each Party ſhould be obliged to promote the Advantages of the other, and prevent all Inconveniencies and Dangers that might happen to them, as far as lay in their Powers:

That the ſaid Allies, deſiring nothing more earneſtly than the Peace and general Quiet of all Europe, had adjudged, that nothing could be more effectual for the Eſtabliſhment thereof, than the procuring an equitable and reaſonable Satisfaction to his Imperial Majeſty for his Pretenſions to the Spaniſh Succeſſion; and that the King of Great Britain, and the States-General, might obtain a particular and ſufficient Security for their Kingdoms, Provinces, and Dominions, and for the Navigation and Commerce of their Subjects:

That it ſhould not be permitted to either Party, when the War is once begun, to treat of Peace with the Enemy, unleſs jointly, and by a Communication of Councils; and no Peace ſhould be made, unleſs an equitable and reaſonable Satisfaction for his Imperial Majeſty, and a particular Security for the Kingdoms, Provinces, Dominions, Navigation, and Commerce, of his Majeſty of Great Britain, and the States-General, be firſt obtained; and unleſs Care be taken, by fitting Security, that the Kingdoms of France and Spain ſhall never come, and be united, under the ſame Government; nor that one and the ſame Perſon ſhall be King of both Kingdoms:

And whereas his ſaid late Majeſty King William, and the States-General, ſeriouſly conſidering, that France was then become ſo formidable, from the Acceſſion of Spain to the Duke of Anjou, that, in the Opinion of all the World, Europe was in Danger of loſing her Liberty, and undergoing the heavy Yoke of univerſal Monarchy; and that the ſureſt Means of effecting that Deſign were to divide the King of Great Britain from the States-General; for which Purpoſe, all imaginable Efforts would be made; they therefore thought it neceſſary to unite, in the ſtricteſt manner that was poſſible; and, to that End, a defenſive Treaty and Alliance was concluded, and entered into, between them, in or about November 1701; wherein, amongſt other things, it was further agreed, That, by the Alliance with the Emperor, made in September then laſt, particular Care being taken for the Recovery of the Spaniſh Low-Countries out of the Hands of the moſt Chriſtian King, the ſaid Confederates expreſly engaged to aid one another with all their Forces, for the Recovery of the ſame; and, in regard the principal Intereſt of the ſaid Confederates conſiſted in the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe, that the before-mentioned Treaty with the Emperor ſhall be faithfully and ſincerely executed; and both Sides ſhall guaranty the ſame, and uſe their Endeavours to confirm and render it more ſtrong, from time to time:

That, in making Peace, particular Care ſhall be taken of the Commerce and Traffick of both Nations; and alſo, for their Security, as well in regard to the Low-Countries, as the Countries adjacent, that, when the War is begun, the Confederates ſhall act in Concert, according to the 7th and 8th Articles of the Treaty of the 3d of March $16\frac{7}{8}$, between England and Holland; which was thereby renewed and confirmed; and no Peace, nor Truce, or Suſpenſion of Arms, ſhall be negotiated or made, but according to the 9th and 10th Articles of that Treaty; by which it was agreed, That, when the Two Allies came once to an open War, it ſhall be lawful for neither of them afterwards to come to any Ceſſation of Arms with him who ſhall be declared and proclaimed an Enemy, without it be done conjointly, and with common Conſent: That no Negotiation of Peace ſhall be ſet on foot by One of the Allies, without the Concurrence of the other: That each Ally ſhall, continually, and from time to time, impart to the other every thing that ſhall paſs in the ſaid Negotiation; and ſhall ſtipulate, with the common Enemy, for the ſame Rights, Immunities, Exemptions, and Prerogatives, for his Ally, as he ſhould do for himſelf, if ſo be the ſaid Allies do not agree to the contrary:

And whereas the French King, having got Poſſeſſion of a great Part of the Spaniſh Dominions, exerciſed an abſolute Authority over that Monarchy; having ſeized Milan, and the Spaniſh Low-Countries, by his Armies, and made himſelf Maſter of Cadiz, and of the Entrance into the Mediterranean, and of the Ports of the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies, by his Fleets; every-where deſigning to invade the Liberties of Europe, and to obſtruct the Freedom of Navigation and Commerce; and, inſtead of giving the Satisfaction that was juſtly expected, had proceeded to further Violences and Indignities; and, having influenced Spain to acknowlege the Pretender, and, thereby, to concur with him in the ſaid Affront, her late Sacred Majeſty Queen Anne, taking Notice that ſhe found herſelf obliged, for maintaining the publick Faith, for vindicating the Honour of the Crown, and to prevent the Miſchiefs which all Europe were threatened with, to declare War againſt France and Spain, did accordingly, in the Month of May 1702, in the moſt publick and ſolemn Manner, proclaim the ſame; as his Imperial Majeſty, and the States-General, did likewiſe do, in or about the ſaid Month of May, in purſuance of the before-mentioned Treaties:

And whereas many Kings, Princes, and States, of Europe, being invited by the ſaid Grand Alliance, and relying on the Faith thereof, did afterwards become Parties to the ſaid confederate War againſt France and Spain; and, in the Treaty entered into, in or about the Month of May 1703, between his Imperial Majeſty, the Queen of Great Britain, the States-General, and the King of Portugal, it was, amongſt other things, expreſly ſtipulated, That no Peace, nor Truce, ſhall be made, but by the mutual Conſent of all the Confederates; nor ſhall any, at any time, be made, whilſt the Second Grandſon of the moſt Chriſtian King, by the Dauphin, or any other Prince of the Line of France, continued in Spain:

And whereas, to give the greateſt Strength that was poſſible to the Union ſo neceſſary to both Nations, her late Majeſty, and the States, by a Treaty in the Month of June 1703, renewed and confirmed all Treaties and Alliances then ſubſiſting between them; and, to the end a juſt and reaſonable Peace might the better be obtained, that might eſtabliſh the Repoſe and Tranquillity of Europe, it was agreed, That neither of the ſaid Allies ſhould make a Suſpenſion of Arms, or a Peace, with France or Spain, but in Conjunction, and by common Conſent:

And whereas the ſaid War was, for ſeveral Years, carried on with Vigour and Unanimity, at a vaſt Expence of Blood and Treaſure; for the Support of which, on the Part of Great Britain, many Millions were granted by Parliament, who, on many Occaſions, expreſſed their Senſe of the Juſtice of it, and frequently gave their humble Advice to the Throne, That no Peace could be ſafe, honourable, or laſting, ſo long as Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, continued in any Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon:

And whereas the juſt Cauſe of her Majeſty, and her Allies, in Defence of the common Liberty, and in Vindication of the Honour of the Crown of Great Britain, was favoured by the Divine Providence with unparalleled Succeſſes, and ſignal Victories; whereby, as well as by the Wiſdom and Unanimity of their Councils, the Reputation of the Confederate Arms was highly advanced, and Great Britain was eſteemed the Guardian of the Liberties of Europe:

And whereas, from the proſperous Condition of the Affairs of the Allies, nothing remained, in all human Appearance, but that they ſhould reap the Fruits of all their Victories in a ſpeedy, juſt, honourable, and laſting, Peace; and, on the other hand, nothing was left to raiſe the Hopes of the Enemy, whereby to defeat that happy Proſpect, but his ſecret Endeavours to diſunite the Confederacy:

And whereas divers evil-minded Perſons, Enemies to the true Intereſts of their own Country, as well as to the common Liberties and Welfare of Europe, having, by many wicked Arts, and baſe Inſinuations, obtained Acceſs to her late Majeſty Queen Anne, and being admitted into her Councils, and into Places of the higheſt Truſt, and having formed a wicked and treacherous Correſpondence with the Emiſſaries of France, and ſet on foot a private and deſtructive Negotiation of Peace, thereby intending to weaken and diſſolve the Confederacy, which had ſo long and happily ſubſiſted between her Majeſty and her good and faithful Allies, to the Honour and Safety of the Nation, had prevailed upon her ſaid late Majeſty, for that Purpoſe, to declare her Reſolution of entering into a Treaty of Peace with the common Enemy, againſt the Conſent and Opinion of all her Majeſty's Allies; and alſo to appoint John then Lord Biſhop of Briſtol, and Thomas Earl of Strafford, her Plenipotentiaries, to tranſact the ſame at Utrecht:

And

And whereas her Sacred Majeſty, in purſuance of the Treaties ſhe ſtood engaged in, and of her Declaration, in the Month of April 1711, to the Grand Penſionary, and the other Miniſters, of Holland, being ſtill determined, in making Peace as in making War, to act in perfect Concert with her Allies, and, in Conjunction with them, to demand, and procure, from France a juſt Satisfaction for all their Pretenſions, according to, and in Performance of, the many ſolemn Treaties and Alliances then ſubſiſting between her Majeſty and them, did, in purſuance thereof, by her Inſtructions under the Sign Manual, dated the 21ſt of October 1711, to him the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, her Ambaſſador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States-General, direct him, That, during the Courſe of the then intended Negotiation of Peace, it muſt be the moſt careful Endeavour, and the fixed Principle, of all the Confederates, to hold faſt together, in order to obtain from the Enemy the utmoſt which could be hoped for in the preſent Circumſtances of Affairs; and that he might aſſure the Confederates, that her Majeſty, on her Part, would firmly adhere to that Rule; and that ſhe was ſo far from making Peace without the Concurrence of the States-General, that ſhe had declared her firm Reſolution not to make it without their Satisfaction:

And alſo, by her Inſtructions, under the Sign Manual, to the ſaid then Biſhop of Briſtol, and him the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, her Plenipotentiaries to treat of a good and general Peace, her ſaid Majeſty, amongſt other things, did direct them, upon their Arrival at Utrecht, to concert, with the Miniſters of the Allies, in what manner it might be moſt proper to open the Conferences, and what Method to obſerve in the Progreſs of the Treaty; upon that and all other Occaſions, earneſtly to repreſent to thoſe Miniſters the great Importance of appearing united; and, for that Reaſon, to recommend to them, that, if any Difference or Diſpute ſhould ariſe, the ſame ſhould be accommodated amongſt themſelves, that France might have no Hold to break in upon them; but, on the contrary, whenever they meet the Enemy's Miniſters in the Congreſs, every Opinion that is delivered, and every Inſtance that is made, may be backed by the concurrent Force of the whole Confederacy:

That, if it ſhould be thought proper to begin by the Diſpoſition of the Spaniſh Monarchy, they were to inſiſt, That the Security, and reaſonable Satisfaction, which the Allies expected, and which his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had promiſed, could not be obtained, if Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, be allotted to any Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon:

Notwithſtanding all which Premiſes,

Article the Firſt.

He the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, being of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, and her Ambaſſador Extraordinary to the States-General, and appointed One of her Plenipotentiaries to treat with the Miniſters of France of a good and general Peace, in Concert with the Miniſters of her Majeſty's Allies, who, for that Purpoſe, were aſſembled, at Utrecht, with thoſe of France, with full Powers to tranſact the ſame; having no Regard to the true Ends of his ſaid Commiſſions and Powers; to the Honour or Safety of her Majeſty, or her Kingdoms; to the many ſolemn Engagements ſhe was under to the old and faithful Allies of this Nation; or to the common Liberties of Europe; but, being devoted to the Intereſt and Service of the French King, the then common Enemy; in Defiance of the Tenor of the ſeveral Treaties before-mentioned, or ſome of them, as well as of the frequent Advices of Parliament, and the many Declarations of her Majeſty from the Throne; but more particularly in Defiance of the ſolemn and mutual Aſſurances, which had been ſo lately renewed, between her Majeſty and the States-General, to act in perfect Concert with each other in making Peace as in making War, and of the ſeveral Inſtructions from her Majeſty, under the Sign Manual, to him the ſaid Earl, in purſuance thereof; was not only wanting in his Duty and Truſt to her Majeſty, by not adviſing againſt, and, as far as was in his Power, by not oppoſing, the going into any private, ſeparate, Negotiation with France; but on the contrary, when a ſeparate, diſhonourable, and deſtructive, Negotiation of Peace was entered into between the Miniſters of Great Britain and France, without any Communication thereof to her Majeſty's Allies, according to their ſeveral Treaties, he the ſaid Earl did not only take upon himſelf, and preſume, from time to time, to adviſe and exhort, that the ſame ſhould be continued and carried on; but did likewiſe frequently concert private and ſeparate Meaſures with the Miniſters of France, in order to impoſe upon, and deceive, her Majeſty's good Subjects, and her Allies; and was inſtrumental in promoting the ſaid ſeparate Negotiation, excluſive of all the Allies, and to their manifeſt Prejudice and Detriment:

And, further, he the ſaid Earl, when the Miniſters of France, at Utrecht, refuſed to anſwer in Writing, and, on many other Occaſions, proceeded in a fallacious and unjuſtifiable manner in tranſacting the Negotiations of Peace, was not only wanting in his Duty, in not repreſenting to her Majeſty, and her Miniſters, againſt the ſame, and in not ſupporting, in the manner he ought to have done, her Majeſty's good Allies in their reaſonable Demands from France; but, on the contrary, commended the French Prudence in taking ſuch Meaſures; and even ſuggeſted himſelf the Methods for France to make uſe of to create Diſſenſions amongſt the Allies, and ſeparate Negotiations between each of the Allies and France, thereby to diſſolve the whole Confederacy:

By which wicked and treacherous Practices, he the ſaid Earl proſtituted the Honour of her Majeſty, and the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms; and groſsly violated his Powers and Inſtructions, the many Treaties which her Majeſty then ſtood engaged in to her Allies, and the repeated Aſſurances which the ſaid Earl had, by her Majeſty's Order, and in her Name, given to the ſaid Allies, to act in perfect Concert with them throughout the whole Negotiations of Peace; thereby rendering the Deſign of the Confederacy, and the mutual Support expected from the ſame, altogether uſeleſs, and giving up the Affairs of Europe into the Hands of France.

Article the 2d.

Whereas the maintaining a perfect Union, and good Correſpondence, between her late Majeſty and the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, was of the utmoſt Importance for preſerving to theſe Kingdoms the invaluable Bleſſings of their Religion, and Civil Liberties, by ſecuring the Succeſſion to the Crown to a Race of Proteſtant Princes, ever renowned for their great Juſtice and Clemency, and thereby defeating the traiterous Deſigns of the Pretender; and, for that Purpoſe, the great Wiſdom of divers Parliaments, which had fixed, and confirmed, the ſaid Succeſſion, had alſo laid the Obligation of an Oath upon the Subjects of theſe Realms, to ſupport and maintain the ſame to the utmoſt of their Power:

He the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, not regarding the many ill Conſequences to her Majeſty, and theſe Kingdoms, which would naturally enſue from a Diſunion, or Coolneſs of Affection, between Princes ſo nearly allied in Blood and Intereſt, inſtead of doing what in him lay to prevent the ſame, did, on the contrary, in his Letters, from Holland, to her Majeſty's Miniſters of State in Great Britain, by divers falſe Repreſentations, and ſcurrilous Reflections upon his preſent moſt Gracious Majeſty, then Elector of Hanover, endeavour to alienate her Majeſty's Affections from his ſaid Electoral Highneſs, and to create, or widen, fatal Differences or Miſunderſtandings between them; and when, by the wicked and pernicious Advice of him the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, and divers other evil Counſellors, her late Majeſty was at laſt prevailed upon to make a fatal Ceſſation of Arms with the then common Enemy, without any Concert with his ſaid Electoral Highneſs, and againſt the Conſent, and contrary to the moſt earneſt Repreſentations, of all her Allies; for the Execution of which, he the ſaid Earl was ſent over to the Army in the Netherlands, where the Generals of the Auxiliaries paid by her Majeſty, whoſe Honour and Conſciences would not permit them to abandon the Confederates, and leave them as a Sacrifice to France, refuſed to withdraw with the Duke of Ormond, without particular Orders from their reſpective Maſters: Which Proceedings of the Confederate Generals being wickedly repreſented by the ſaid evil Counſellors, in Conjunction with the Miniſters and Emiſſaries of France, as an Indignity offered to her Sacred Majeſty;

He the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, to create Uneaſineſſes and Diſſenſion between her late Majeſty and his then Electoral Highneſs, did, by his Letter, on or about the 17th July 1712, to her Majeſty's then Secretary of State, maliciouſly and wickedly ſuggeſt and affirm, that the ſaid Separation of the Confederate Generals from the Duke of Ormond ought to be imputed to his ſaid Electoral Highneſs:

And further, he the ſaid Earl, by frequently affirming, and ſometimes in the moſt ſolemn manner, to the Miniſters of his ſaid Electoral Highneſs, as well as others, the moſt notorious and manifeſt Untruths, contrary to the Intentions and Intereſts of her Majeſty, and vainly intending thereby to deceive and impoſe upon his ſaid Electoral Highneſs, and the reſt of her Majeſty's good and faithful Allies, in Matters of the higheſt Importance; and particularly, by ſolemnly affirming, on or about the 16th of July 1712, to Monſieur Bulcau, General of the Hanover Forces, and the reſt of the Confederate Generals, That her Majeſty had made no Truce with France; whereas he the ſaid Earl then well knew the ſame was made and concluded ſeveral Weeks before; did thereby, as well as by all the before-mentioned Proceedings, not only proſtitute and diſhonour the high Characters he was then inveſted with, but, as far as in him lay, did diſſolve the mutual Confidence, and good Underſtanding, ſo neceſſary to be maintained between her ſaid late Majeſty and the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, for the Safety and Proſperity of Great Britain, and the common Liberty of Europe.

Article the 3d.

Whereas, in the pernicious Negotiations of Peace carried on by him the ſaid Earl, and other evil Counſellors, with the Miniſters of France, the French King had propoſed to acknowlege her Majeſty's Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, when the Peace ſhould be ſigned between Great Britain and France, and not before; whereupon the Houſe of Lords, by an humble Addreſs to her Majeſty, on the 15th of February 1711, begged Leave to repreſent their juſt Indignation at that diſhonourable Treatment of her Majeſty; as alſo their utmoſt Reſentment at the Terms of Peace offered to her Majeſty, and her Allies, by the Plenipotentiaries of France; for which Addreſſes, her Majeſty was pleaſed to return them her hearty Thanks for the Zeal they had therein expreſſed for her Honour:

He the ſaid Earl was not only wanting in his Duty to her Majeſty, and Zeal for the Proteſtant Succeſſion, in not adviſing her Majeſty againſt treating with France upon ſuch diſhonourable Terms; but did himſelf, with other evil Counſellors, privately, wickedly, and treacherouſly, concert and agree with the Miniſters of France, that the ſaid Propoſals, ſo derogatory to the Dignity of her Majeſty, and dangerous to theſe Kingdoms, ſhould be the Conditions, upon which France would agree to treat of a Peace with Great Britain:

And further, he the ſaid Earl, in Contempt and Defiance of the Judgment of the Houſe of Peers, which had received her Majeſty's gracious Approbation, and acting the Part of an Emiſſary of France, inſtead of a Plenipotentiary of Great Britain, being thereunto encouraged, and founding his Preſumption on a Letter to the then ſaid Biſhop of Briſtol, and him the ſaid Earl, from Henry St. John Eſquire, then Principal Secretary of State, on the 16th of February 1711, the next Day after the ſaid Addreſs of the Houſe of Peers was made, and informing them of the Indignation expreſſed in Great Britain at the Offers of France; but that, by the Management of Mr. Thomas Harley, then Secretary of the Treaſury, the Houſe of Commons was perfectly and abſolutely ſecured to the Meaſures of Peace; did wickedly, deceitfully, and perfidiouſly, concert and agree with the Miniſters of France at Utrecht, that the ſaid French Miniſters ſhould write a colluſive Letter to him the ſaid Earl, and the then ſaid Biſhop of Briſtol, wherein her Majeſty ſhould be ſtiled Queen of Great Britain; which Letter was not to be made any uſe of at Utrecht, or taken as an Acknowlegement by France of her Majeſty's Title to the Crown; but was agreed to be tranſmitted to Great Britain, thereby to deceive and impoſe upon her Majeſty, and the Parliament, as if France had then actually acknowleged the ſame; which ſaid Letter was accordingly written by the Miniſters of France, and tranſmitted to Great Britain by him the ſaid Earl:

Whereby her Majeſty, the Parliament, and the whole Nation, were moſt groſly and ſcandalouſly abuſed, and drawn into the ſaid deſtructive Meaſures of Peace; to the great Diſhonour of her Majeſty, and theſe Kingdoms, and to the apparent Danger of the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

Article the 4th.

That he the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, in Defiance of the many Treaties between her Majeſty and her Allies for the Recovery of the Monarchy of Spain to the Houſe of Auſtria, thereby to preſerve a due Balance of Power in Europe; and in Contempt of the Advice and Opinion of Parliament, that no Peace could be ſafe, honourable, or laſting, ſo long as Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, continued in any Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon; and alſo, in direct Violation of her Majeſty's Inſtructions, of the 23d of December 1711, in purſuance thereof; whereby he the ſaid Earl was expreſly commanded to inſiſt, in the Conferences of Peace with the Miniſters of France, that the Security, and reaſonable Satisfaction, which the Allies expected, and which his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had promiſed to grant, could not be obtained, if Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, be allotted to any Branch of that Houſe; did not only preſume to treat about the Peace with the Miniſters of France, without inſiſting, as he ought to have done, that Spain, and the Weſt Indies, ſhould not be allotted to the ſaid Houſe of Bourbon; but alſo, when the Miniſters of his Imperial Majeſty, and of the King of Portugal, in Conformity to the mutual Obligations and Treaties between her Majeſty and them, and with each other, demanded of France, That Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, ſhould be reſtored to the Houſe of Auſtria, and requeſted him the ſaid Earl to join with them to ſtrengthen that Demand, did decline and refuſe to do the ſame:

By which perfidious and unwarrantable Practices of him the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, incurable Jealouſies and Diſcords were created between her Majeſty and her Allies; that mutual Confidence, which had ſo long, and ſo ſucceſsfully, been cultivated between them, and which was ſo neceſſary for their common Safety, was abſolutely diſſolved; the juſt Balance of Power in Europe was wickedly betrayed; and apparent Advantages were given to the common Enemy, to impoſe what Terms of Peace he ſhould think fit upon her Majeſty, and the whole Confederacy.

Article the 5th.

Whereas her late Majeſty, on the 7th of December 1711, having earneſtly recommended from the Throne, That Proviſion might be made for an early Campaign, in order to carry on the War with Vigour, and as the beſt Way to render the Treaty of Peace effectual; and accordingly Supplies were granted, and Magazines provided at a great Expence; and, in purſuance thereof, her Majeſty having given early Aſſurances to her Allies of her ſincere Intentions, and likewiſe expreſly inſtructed her General, the Duke of Ormond, not only to renew the ſame Aſſurances, and declare her Reſolution of puſhing on the War with the utmoſt Vigour, but to concert with the Generals of the Allies the proper Meaſures for entering upon Action; which Aſſurances were accordingly given by the ſaid Duke; and the Confederate Army was thereupon ordered to be aſſembled; which, at that time, was the ſtrongeſt that had been in the Service during the whole Courſe of the War, and greatly ſuperior to that of the Enemy:

Notwithſtanding which Premiſes, he the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, then of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, being informed of the reaſonable Proſpect, which, by the Bleſſing of God, the Army of the Confederates then had, of gaining new Conqueſts over the Army of France; in order to diſappoint the Expectations of the Allies, and to give Succeſs to the ſecret and wicked Negotiations then carrying on by himſelf, and other evil Counſellors, with the Miniſters of France, on divers very falſe and groundleſs Suggeſtions and Allegations, and in Violation of many Treaties, then ſubſiſting between her Majeſty and the States-General, as well as ſeveral other Princes; at ſeveral times, and particularly by his Letter, of the 30th of April 1712, to Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, then Henry St. John Eſquire, One of her Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, did wickedly and treacherouſly ſuggeſt and adviſe, That a Ceſſation of Arms ſhould be made with France by her Majeſty without, and even againſt, the Conſent of her good Allies and Confederates:

In purſuance of which wicked Counſels and Advices, Directions were afterwards privately ſent, in her Majeſty's Name, to the Duke of Ormond, in Flanders, to avoid engaging in any Siege, or hazarding a Battle, till further Orders; although nothing had been then ſettled in the ſaid private Negotiations, for the Intereſt and Security of Great Britain:

And further, he the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, at that time alſo of her Majeſty's Privy-Council, did adviſe her late Majeſty, That he himſelf ſhould be ſent, and accordingly he was afterwards ſent, from England to the Army under the Duke of Ormond, in Flanders, with Directions, in her Majeſty's Name, to cauſe a Ceſſation of Arms to be made, and proclaimed, between her Majeſty's and the French Army, and a Separation to be made by the Troops of Great Britain from the Confederate Army; which were accordingly performed and executed by the Advice and Direction of him the ſaid Earl, without the Conſent, and contrary to the earneſt Repreſentations, of her Majeſty's Confederates, and in open Violation and Defiance of the many Treaties then ſubſiſting between her Majeſty and her good and faithful Allies:

By which wicked and perfidious Counſels and Practices of him the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford, the Progreſs of the victorious Arms of the Confederates was ſtopped, and a moſt favourable Opportunity loſt for conquering the Enemy; all Hopes of Confidence between her Majeſty and her Allies were intirely deſtroyed, and the French King made abſolute Maſter of the Negotiations of Peace.

Article the 6th.

That he the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford having, in Concert with other falſe and evil Counſellors, wickedly adviſed and procured the ſaid fatal Ceſſation of Arms, and likewiſe obtained for France the Separation of the Troops of Great Britain from the Confederate Army; in further Execution of his treacherous Purpoſes, to advance and promote the Intereſts of France; and being determined, as far as in him lay, not only to render all future Correſpondence, and good Harmony, between her Majeſty and the States-General utterly impracticable, but deſigning, by all poſſible means, to weaken and diſtreſs the ſaid States, in order to bring them under an abſolute Neceſſity of complying and ſubmitting to the Meaſures of France; and, well knowing, that taking Poſſeſſion of Ghent and Bruges was the readieſt means of effecting the ſame; did wickedly and treacherouſly adviſe, That a Party of the Queen's Troops ſhould be ſent to march through ſome of the Towns belonging to the States-General, in hopes that the Commanders of the ſaid Towns, incenſed by ſuch unjuſt and unneceſſary Provocations, and through the Apprehenſions of the ill Conſequences that ſuch Attempts and Proceedings might ſubject them to, would be induced to refuſe them Admittance, and thereby give a Pretence for putting in Execution the perfidious Deſigns and Reſolutions which had been concerted by him the ſaid Earl, and other evil Counſellors, with the Miniſters of France; in purſuance of which wicked Advice, a Party of her Majeſty's Troops was accordingly ſent, with Orders to march through ſome of the fortified Towns belonging to the States-General; and, on Pretence of their being denied Paſſage through the ſame, the ſaid treacherous and deſtructive Deſign was immediately put in Execution, and Ghent and Bruges were ſeized upon by the Troops of Great Britain; whereby, all Means of Communication between Holland and the Confederate Army being intirely cut off, or put into the Hands of thoſe who had ſo lately and ſhamefully betrayed the common Cauſe, apparent Advantages and Encouragement were given to the French Army, and her Majeſty's good and faithful Allies were deterred from forming or proſecuting any Deſigns againſt the common Enemy, ſince the ſame could not be put in Execution without their Knowlege and Conſent, who, on many Occaſions, had given the moſt evident Proofs of their Diſaffection to the Confederates, and of their firm Adherence to the Intereſts of France.

All which Crimes and Miſdemeanors were committed and done by him the ſaid Earl, againſt our late Sovereign Lady the Queen, her Crown and Dignity, the Peace and Intereſt of this Kingdom, and in Breach of the ſeveral Truſts repoſed in him the ſaid Earl: And he the ſaid Earl of Strafford was of her late Majeſty's Privy-Council, her Ambaſſador Extraordinary to the States-General, and One of her Plenipotentiaries to treat of a good and general Peace with France, during the time that all and every the Crimes before ſet forth were done and committed.

Ordered, That the ſaid Articles be read a Second time, Article by Article.

And the ſame were read accordingly:

And the ſaid Articles were, upon the Queſtion ſeverally put thereupon, agreed unto by the Houſe to be Articles of Impeachment againſt Thomas Earl of Strafford.

Ordered, That the ſaid Articles be ingroſſed.

Ordered, That a Clauſe be prepared, ſaving Liberty to the Commons to exhibit any further Articles againſt the ſaid Thomas Earl of Strafford; and that he may be put to anſwer the ſaid Crimes and Miſdemeanors.

Mr. Secretary Stanhope preſented to the Houſe, according to Order, a Bill for enabling his Majeſty to ſettle a Revenue for ſupporting the Dignity of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs, in caſe ſhe ſhall happen to ſurvive his Royal Highneſs the Prince, of Wales: And the ſame was received; and read the Firſt time.

Reſolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

A Meſſage from the Lords, by Mr. Rogers and Mr. Holford:

A Petition of the Three French Regiments of Foot, late under the Command of Major-General Lamelonniere, Brigadier Belcaſtell, and the Right Honourable the Lord Lifford, formerly Brigadier Ducambon, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, That, the Petitioners being all French Proteſtant Refugees, and having ſerved, the former War, in Flanders and Ireland, with a Zeal ſuitable to the Gratitude they owe for that Protection they having received from the Engliſh Nation; this Honourable Houſe, out of a more particular Care for them, did, by a Reſolution, of the 1ſt of March 1698, appropriate, for Payment of their Arrears, the Sum of 32,551 l. 9 s. 5 d. Part of the 800,000 l. then granted by the Act of Parliament, for Payment of the Arrears due to the Forces in Ireland, which paſſed the Royal Aſſent on the 1ſt of February before; notwithſtanding which, and contrary to the ſaid Reſolution, above One-third Part of that Money was with-held from them, and diverted to other Purpoſes: That this Honourable Houſe, upon their Application, in the Years 1705, 1706, 1707, 1708, and 1709, being very ſenſible of the Grievance they had ſuſtained, of the Juſtneſs of their Demands, and the great Zeal they have ever ſince likewiſe ſhewn, during the laſt War, in Flanders, Spain, and Portugal, where moſt of them have actually ſerved her late Majeſty, cauſed ſeveral Bills, at ſeveral times, to be brought in for their Relief; which, for want of Time, did not paſs: That, in the Year 1710, the Petitioners made their Application to this Houſe; praying, That, as the Sums due to them were of the ſame Nature with the Deficiencies, the Payment whereof was, by a Bill then depending, aſſigned on the South-Sea Company, their Payment, both Principal and Intereſt, might likewiſe be aſſigned to them on the ſaid Company; ſeeing all theſe Deficiencies had been equally made good by the Parliament, and, upon preſſing State-Exigencies, applied, by the Government, to other Uſes than they had been intended for: That the Petitioners, notwithſtanding the Goodneſs of their Cauſe, having had the Misfortune not to be comprehended in the ſaid Bill, which was paſſed into an Act; therefore humbly hope, that you will take their Right into Conſideration, and grant them ſuch Relief as to your Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet: And praying this Honourable Houſe, to impower the Commiſſioners to be appointed for taking, and ſtating, the Debts due to the Army, that they may ſettle and determine what is lawfully due to the Petitioners; and that the Petitioners may be paid, in the manner that ſhall be judged the moſt proper and convenient.

The Commons cannot agree to the Amendment, made by your Lordſhips, in Preſs the Firſt, Line the 23d; for,

for, in this Caſe, there is no Danger of Fraud, if the Examination ſhould be taken before One Baron of the Exchequer; and they obſerve, it will be improper to alter it to Two or more Barons here, when the Certificate is afterwards allowed, by the Bill, to be made out by One Baron only, under his Hand.

Becauſe the Bill directs, That the Certificate, or Certificates, ſhall be made by the ſaid Barons, or any of them, expreſſing their Satisfaction as to the Proof of the reſpective Loſſes; which will make it the Intereſt of the ſeveral Sufferers to produce all the Proof that can be obtained.

The Anſwer of Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer to the Articles of Impeachment againſt him was, according to Order, read; and is as followeth; viz.

The Anſwer of Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer to the Articles exhibited by the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled, in the Name of themſelves, and of all the Commons of Great Britain, in Maintenance of their Impeachment againſt him for High Treaſon, and other High Crimes and Miſdemeanors, ſuppoſed to have been by him committed.

THE ſaid Earl, ſaving to himſelf all Advantages of Exception to the ſaid Articles, and of not being prejudiced by any Words, or Want of Form, in this his Anſwer; and alſo ſaving to himſelf all Rights and Privileges belonging to him as One of the Peers of this Realm; for Anſwer to the ſaid Articles, ſaith; He admits, many ſolemn Treaties and Alliances have been formerly entered into between the Crown of England and other Princes and Potentates of Europe, for their mutual Security, and to prevent the immoderate Growth of the Power of France, which might prove dangerous to the neighbouring Princes and States; and that therefore it was laid down as a fundamental Principle, and Maxim of Union, amongſt the Allies, That France and Spain ſhould never come, and be united, under the ſame Government; and that one and the ſame Perſon ſhould not be King of both thoſe Kingdoms: And he apprehends, that the principal View and Aim of the Allies was, to ſettle and maintain an equal Balance of Power in Europe; and, ſince the Conjunction of Spain to the Dominions of France might poſſibly enſue from the Duke of Anjou being poſſeſſed of that Crown, the diſpoſſeſſing him was deſired, as the moſt likely Means to prevent that Conjunction; and, for the ſame Reaſon, the Union of Spain with the Empire muſt have been equally fatal, and the Prevention of it equally the Deſign of the Alliance; nor could the Continuance of Spain in the Houſe of Bourbon be, in any reſpect, prejudicial to the Allies, if the Union of that Crown with France could be prevented: As new Dangers of ſuch Union have been apprehended, new Treaties and Stipulations have been entered into among the Allies, to obviate ſuch Dangers; and, particularly, the Treaty for an intended Partition ſeems to have been concluded upon that View: And, though he acknowleges the Wiſdom of Parliament in condemning that Treaty, as prejudicial, and fatal in its Conſequences, to England, and the Peace of Europe; yet he preſumes, it was not condemned becauſe Part of the Dominions of the Crown of Spain were thereby allotted to the Houſe of Bourbon, but becauſe ſuch conſiderable Parts of thoſe Dominions, as the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily, the Province of Guipoſcoa, and other Territories, were allotted to that Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon to whom the Crown of France was to deſcend; which might have been a great and dangerous Addition to the then formidable Strength of that Crown; and becauſe it was made againſt the repeated Remonſtrances of Charles the Second, then King of Spain; who declared, by his Ambaſſador, That ſuch Partition-Treaty could have no other Effect, than to force Spain to throw itſelf into the Arms of France, to prevent the Diſmembering of the Spaniſh Monarchy: And that it had this Conſequence, appeared upon the Death of that Prince; who ſeems to have been induced, by that Conſideration, to bequeath the intire Monarchy of Spain to the Duke of Anjou, a younger Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon; who, accordingly, upon the Demiſe of the ſaid King Charles the Second, took Poſſeſſion of the Monarchy of Spain: But this Acceſſion of the Duke of Anjou to the Crown of Spain did not produce the Alliance, in the Article mentioned, between Leopold then Emperor of Germany, his late Majeſty King William the Third, of ever-glorious Memory, and the States-General, as immediately neceſſary at that Juncture; for King William, as well as the States-General, acknowleged the Duke of Anjou as King of Spain; thereby allowing, that the Duke of Anjou's Enjoyment of the Monarchy of Spain, while he was but a younger Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon, was not inconſiſtent with the Liberties of Europe, or the Preſervation of a due Balance of Power: And afterwards, when the French King had ſeized the Spaniſh Netherlands, King William, by Advice of Parliament, came in to the Aſſiſtance of the States, as an Auxiliary only, by ſending, upon their Requeſt, Ten thouſand Men, which England was obliged, by Treaties, to furniſh, in caſe the States were attacked: After which, many Conferences paſſed, at the Hague, betwixt the Miniſters of England and the States, and thoſe of France, in order to find out ſome Expedient, by which, upon a reaſonable Diviſion of the Dominions of Spain, a new War might be prevented: And the States, in the Courſe of thoſe Conferences, often aſſerted, That though they had acknowleged Philip King of Spain, yet ſuch an Acknowlegement was not contrary to the Demand of a reaſonable Satisfaction to be given to the Emperor for his Pretenſions to the Spaniſh Succeſſion; which was, in Effect, to declare, That the Satisfaction demanded for the Emperor was ſuch, as would leave King Philip in Poſſeſſion of Spain: But thoſe Conferences broke off, about Auguſt 1701, without Effect; and, in September following, King William entered into the Grand Alliance with the Emperor, and the States-General; whereby it was agreed, That, in the Firſt place, Endeavours ſhould be uſed, by amicable Means, to obtain the Satisfaction deſired for the Emperor; who probably, at that time, would have accepted a very eaſy Compoſition for his Pretenſions: But when the French King acknowleged the Pretender as King of England, which not long after happened, his Majeſty King William, and the Parliament of England, juſtly provoked by this Affront, reſolved to enter into the War, which had been begun by the Emperor alone, in Italy, the Year before: And the late Queen mentions this Indignity as the chief Motive of her engaging in it, as appears by her Declaration of War againſt France and Spain, in May One thouſand Seven hundred and Two.

The ſaid Earl admits the ſeveral Treaties ſet forth in the Preamble to the ſaid Articles; and that ſuch Advice was given by Parliament, and ſuch Speeches were made from the Throne, as in the ſaid Preamble are mentioned; but, for more Certainty, begs Leave to refer himſelf to the very Treaties, Addreſſes of Parliament, and Speeches, when they ſhall be produced: And he humbly hopes, your Lordſhips will allow him to obſerve, That thoſe Treaties manifeſtly ſhew, that the Deſign of the Allies, in endeavouring the Recovery of Spain from the Houſe of Bourbon, was, to prevent the Union of thoſe Two potent Kingdoms in one and the ſame Perſon: In the Grand Alliance, in 1701, the avowed Ends thereof are, the procuring an equitable and reaſonable Satisfaction to his Imperial Majeſty for his Pretenſion to the Spaniſh Succeſſion; the Security of the Dominions of the King of Great Britain, and States-General, with the Navigation and Commerce of their Subjects; the preventing the Union of France and Spain under the ſame Government; and the Territories and Provinces, pointed out in the Fifth Article; were the furtheſt Views of that Alliance; whereby it was thought his Imperial Majeſty would receive the utmoſt Satisfaction, which he could reaſonably demand, for his Pretenſion tenſion to the Spaniſh Succeſſion: No Mention is made of the Recovery of the whole Monarchy of Spain to the Houſe of Auſtria, either in the Grand Alliance, or in the Defenſive one, made the ſame Year, between his Majeſty King William and the States-General: And when, in the Treaty between the Emperor, the Queen of Great Britain, and the States-General, on the one Part, and the King of Portugal on the other, about May 1703, it was concerted to place Archduke Charles, the preſent Emperor, upon the Throne of Spain, he was then but a younger Branch of the Houſe of Auſtria; and there is great Reaſon to believe, that the Queen, as well as other Princes of Europe, and, in particular, the King of Portugal, did not think a Treaty to procure the Crown of Spain for the Archduke, when a younger Branch of the Houſe of Auſtria, did lay any Obligation of procuring that Monarchy for him when he became Firſt of that Houſe, and was elected Emperor; ſince the Imperial and Hereditary Dominions, joined to the whole Spaniſh Monarchy, would have given ſuch Exceſs of Power to one Prince, as would have been formidable to Europe, and a Means to deſtroy that Balance of Power which her Majeſty, in all her Treaties, had conſtantly laboured to preſerve; and it is known, and an allowed Rule by the Law of Nations, in reference to Leagues between Princes, That, if there happens a material Change in what was the principal Ground and Cauſe of the Treaty, the Obligation thereof ceaſes: If, therefore, in the preliminary Articles, in 1709, and afterwards, in the Conferences at Gertruydenberg, a Ceſſion of the Spaniſh Monarchy to King Charles the Third, who was then younger Brother to the Emperor, was thought reaſonable to be inſiſted on; yet the ſaid Earl humbly ſubmits to your Lordſhips great Judgment, whether there was equal Reaſon for inſiſting on ſuch Ceſſion, when King Charles the Third was become Head of that Houſe, and had Poſſeſſion of the Empire, and all the Hereditary Countries of Auſtria, as a Condition without which no Peace ſhould be made: The States-General were ſo far from admitting, or yielding, that the Monarchy of Spain ſhould, in all Events, be given to the Houſe of Auſtria, that he the ſaid Earl hath heard, they refuſed to admit it to be inſerted as a Condition of their Barrier-Treaty, when propoſed by her Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Hague; and choſe rather to put a Stop to the Proceedings of that Treaty, and hazard the Advantages they thereby expected, than comply with that Propoſal: The Advice of Parliament is of great Weight; to which her late Majeſty always gave, and he the ſaid Earl always paid, a juſt Regard; and he doubts not, but the Houſe of Peers had proper Inducements, when they gave their Advice to the Throne, That no Peace would be ſafe, honourable, or laſting, ſo long as the Kingdom of Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, continued in the Poſſeſſion of any Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon: But, if he may be permitted to offer his humble Conjecture of the Motives of that Advice, he conceives, it might proceed from an Apprehenſion of a future Union of thoſe Two Crowns, as likely to enſue, in caſe Spain ſhould continue in the Poſſeſſion of any who might become Heir to the Crown of France; and that even the Conjunction of the Empire and Spain would be leſs dangerous than ſuch an Union: But, when her Majeſty communicated to her Parliament, the 6th of June 1712, the Terms upon which a Peace might be made; and thereby informed them, That France had been brought to offer, That the Duke of Anjou ſhould, for himſelf, and his Deſcendants, renounce, for ever, all Claim to the Crown of France; and that, at the ſame time, the Succeſſion of the Crown of France was to be declared, after the Death of the then Dauphin and his Sons, to be in the Duke of Berry and his Sons, in the Duke of Orleans and his Sons; and ſo on to the reſt of the Houſe of Bourbon; and that the Succeſſion to Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, after the Duke of Anjou and his Children, was to deſcend to ſuch Prince as ſhould be agreed upon at the Treaty of Peace; for ever excluding the reſt of the Houſe of Bourbon; both Houſes of Parliament, by their reſpective Addreſſes to her Majeſty, in the ſame Month, expreſſed their intire Satisfaction: And as the Houſe of Commons deſired her Majeſty to proceed in the Negotiations, then depending, for obtaining a ſpeedy Peace; ſo the Houſe of Lords aſſured her Majeſty, That they intirely relied on her Majeſty's Wiſdom to finiſh that great and good Work: And, after her Majeſty had concluded a Peace on thoſe Terms, both Houſes of Parliament ſeverally congratulated her Majeſty on the Concluſion of the Peace; and alſo joined in an Addreſs, of the 22d of April 1714, expreſſing their juſt Senſe of her Majeſty's Goodneſs to her People, in delivering them, by a ſafe, honourable, and advantageous, Peace with France and Spain, from the heavy Burden of a conſuming Land-War, unequally carried on, and become at laſt impracticable.

He the ſaid Earl acknowleges, That her Majeſty was pleaſed, about Auguſt 1710, to re-admit him, among others, to a Place in her Council, and to require his Service in Offices of Truſt; to which he ſubmitted, purely in Obedience to her Majeſty's Commands, with great Reluctance, from the Proſpect of the Difficulties with which he was likely to ſtruggle: But as he never asked any Employment, nor uſed any wicked Arts, or baſe Inſinuations, to obtain the ſame from her Majeſty; ſo, in all Employments, with which her Majeſty was pleaſed to honour him, he ſincerely endeavoured to diſcharge his Duty with the utmoſt Integrity; having always, with the trueſt Zeal, deſired, and endeavoured as far as he could, to promote the Honour and Service of her Majeſty; whoſe Aim he knew to be the Welfare of her Kingdoms, in the Firſt place; and, as far as ſhe judged it conſiſtent with that, the common Good of her Allies.

In or about the Month of September 1710, her Majeſty, whoſe undoubted Prerogative it was, thought fit to diſſolve the Parliament then in being, and call a new one. In the Year 1711, Propoſitions were made, by France to her Majeſty, for a Peace, without the Contrivance, or previous Knowlege, of the ſaid Earl: Her Majeſty, out of her Affection for her People, having it much at Heart to eſtabliſh Peace in her own Days, expreſſed her Concern for the Diſappointment of former Negotiations; and her earneſt Deſire to put a ſpeedy End to the War, and to the Effuſion of Chriſtian Blood; and to eaſe her Subjects from the heavy Burden of their Taxes. The ſaid Earl doth acknowlege, that he thought a Peace was very much for the Intereſt and Advantage of Great Britain: And, in his humble Opinion, the moſt favourable Juncture for obtaining advantageous Terms of Peace, was, immediately after the ſignal Victories gained by her Majeſty's Arms, in the Year 1706; for, after the Reduction of the Dominions of the Electors of Bavaria and Cologne, with other important Conqueſts in Germany; after the intire Deſtruction of Three great Armies of France, in Flanders, Spain, and Piedmont; after the Allies had recovered the Spaniſh Netherlands, Milan, and other Territories in Italy; it might have been hoped, from the great Diſtreſs in which the Enemy then was, a juſt and reaſonable Peace could have been obtained; ſince ſo much was, at that time, gained from the Enemy, and ſo much more, in all Probability, would have been yielded by them, as would have fully anſwered the Ends of the Grand Alliance: Peace was, at that time, ſought by the Enemy; and the ſaid Earl, who had the Honour to be then One of the Principal Secretaries of State, owns, he then adviſed the Accepting of it: And he humbly begs Leave to obſerve, That the War had been continued upon ſo unequal a Foot, that the Burden of it annually increaſed; and, at the time when thoſe Propoſals were made by France, was become almoſt inſupportable: It had, indeed, been ſtipulated by the Grand Alliance, That the Allies ſhould aſſiſt one another with all their Forces, according to a Specification to be agreed on in a particular Convention for that Purpoſe; but it doth not appear any ſuch Convention was made, otherwiſe than as the Houſe of Commons were informed by One of the Principal Secretaries of State to his late Majeſty King William, That, by the Proportion adjuſted with the States, England was to furniſh Two Parts of Five by Land, and the States the other Three; and England was to furniſh Five Parts of Eight by Sea, and the States the other Three: But the States, not always allowing themſelves to be under an Obligation to furniſh ſuch Proportions, gave Occaſion to England's bearing an unequal Part in the War, with reſpect to the Allies: The States had that prudent Regard to the frugal Ordering of their Affairs, that they frequently inſiſted, they ought not to be preſſed beyond their Ability; and made themſelves the ſole Judges of what came within the Compaſs of it; and, by that means, avoided the ſupplying any Quota, or Proportion, which they thought improper for them to furniſh: In the mean time, the Charge of the War was greatly increaſed upon the Subjects of Great Britain; in the Year 1702, it was under Four Millions; from thence it gradually increaſed, till 1706; the Charge of which Year amounted to above Five Millions and an Half; and, ſtill advancing, till the Year 1711, it was then grown to near Seven Millions; and, at the ſame time, there was a Debt contracted, not provided for by Parliament, amounting to Seven or Eight Millions; the very Intereſt of which, and other Debts wherein the Nation was involved, amounted to Three Millions per Annum; and the Revenues of Great Britain were under ſuch Anticipations, that it was found difficult to raiſe about Two Millions and an Half for the growing Service, to be paid within the Compaſs of the Year; ſo that, when the Duties and Difficulties upon Trade, and the Continuance of the Taxes upon Land, which had lain ſo heavy above Twenty Years, are conſidered, the ſaid Earl believes, it could not be thought for the publick Intereſt to prolong the War, without an abſolute Neceſſity.

During this time, the States had managed with ſo good Oeconomy, that the ſaid Earl hath not heard of any additional Duty laid by them upon Trade, from the Year 1702, to the Year 1711; and what Acquiſitions were made upon the Continent, during the Continuance of the War, though at the Expence of Britiſh Blood and Treaſure, accrued to the Share of the Allies; and the Dutch, being under no Prohibition of Commerce with France, had a farther Advantage of the Britiſh Merchants, in reſpect to a free Trade: Although the Princes of the Empire were engaged, by previous Treaties, to furniſh their Quotas to the common Cauſe; yet, when they were often preſſed to do it, they alleged, in Excuſe, That thoſe Troops, which they were obliged to furniſh at their own Expence, were in the Pay of the Crown of Great Britain: The Emperor left it to her Majeſty to provide for thoſe Troops, which, by the Portugal Treaty, in the Year 1703, he was to furniſh: The King of Portugal not only neglected the Proportion of 12,000 Foot, and 3,000 Horſe, which, by the ſaid Treaty, he was to provide at his own Expence; but even refuſed to permit the 11,000 Foot, and 2,000 Horſe, for which he had a Subſidy from her Majeſty, to be paid by Muſters, according to an Article of that Treaty; and, when preſſed to furniſh his full Number of Troops, alleged his Inability, for want of that Part of the Subſidies which the States ought to have paid him: So that almoſt the whole Charge of the War in Spain was left upon her Majeſty; the States having ſent few or no Troops thither, after the Battle of Almanza; and all the other Allies being likewiſe defective in their Proportions.

This was the Condition of Affairs, with reſpect to the Charge of the War; nor did there appear, from the then Situation of Affairs, any more promiſing Proſpect with regard to the Event; for although it had pleaſed God to bleſs her Majeſty's Arms with wonderful Succeſs, at which the ſaid Earl moſt ſincerely rejoiced, yet it did not appear, that, after the Year 1706, our Succeſſes in other Parts had countervailed our Loſſes in Spain; for, after Two great Battles, wherein we had been there defeated, after our Forces had been twice obliged to retire from Madrid, and after the taking the Britiſh Troops at Brihuega, the Recovery of Spain, which was the main Article that retarded the Concluſion of the Peace at Gertruydenberg, ſeemed almoſt deſperate; eſpecially, ſince the French, in the Year 1711, by their plentiful Vintage and Harveſt, had well nigh recovered the Effects of the Famine; and ſince ſome of the Allies, at the ſame time, made preſſing Inſtances for recalling Part of the Troops, as they had done frequently during the Courſe of the War: From whence it appears, how juſt the Grounds were, upon which both Houſes of Parliament repreſented to her Majeſty, That the War had been unequally carried on, and was at laſt become impracticable: And the ſaid Earl humbly hopes, he ſhall not be thought to have deſigned any Diſſervice to his Country, if, in ſuch Condition of Affairs, he did not diſſuade her Majeſty from hearkening to the Overtures of Peace made to her from France; or if, during ſuch Negotiations, he endeavoured, by correſponding, with her Majeſty's Knowlege and Approbation, in any Courts concerned therein, to rectify any Miſtakes, or contribute, in any meaſure, towards the Concluſion of a general Peace: But the ſaid Earl believes, that, in all the Negotiations towards ſuch Peace, the Allies had ſuch Knowlege and Communication of all the Meaſures therein taken by her Majeſty, as the Treaties her Majeſty was engaged in required; that the Propoſitions tranſmitted from France, about April 1711, were immediately communicated to the Penſionary, and Miniſters, of Holland; that her Majeſty did, at the ſame time, aſſure them of her Reſolution to act in Concert with them in making Peace, as in making War; that when the States had expreſſed their Deſires to be equal with thoſe of Great Britain for a general and laſting Peace, and had declared, That they were ready to join in proper Meaſures to procure it; and deſired France might explain itſelf more particularly upon the Points contained in thoſe Propoſitions, her Majeſty endeavoured to obtain ſuch Explanations, and afterwards communicated them to the States: And if her Majeſty had thought it not expedient to proceed in the Method of a Preliminary Treaty, which had proved ſo ineffectual, in the Year 1709, and 1710; but thought it might be ſufficient to have Articles ſigned by a Miniſter of France, by his Sovereign's Command, to open Conferences for a Peace; the ſaid Earl humbly hopes, that this Proceeding will appear to be ſo far from being an unreaſonable Deviation from the Methods of former Tranſactions in that kind, that it will be juſtified by many Precedents of ſuch Treaties: The ſaid Earl can affirm, that, during the whole Negotiation ſo far as he was concerned, he acted with a ſincere Intention to obtain a General Peace for the Welfare and Honour of her Majeſty, and her Kingdoms; and ſuch as might give reaſonable Satisfaction to her Allies, and anſwer all the Obligations her Majeſty was under, by any Treaties, with any of the Confederates; and is not conſcious to himſelf, that he hath, in any reſpect, tranſgreſſed that Duty, which, as a Privy-Counſellor, or Officer of State, he did owe to her Majeſty, or to the Publick: He is not inſenſible, that many of the Articles, wherewith he ſtands charged, are complicated with ſuch Circumſtances, Aggravations, and Inferences, as may render it difficult for him to acknowlege ſome Facts alleged, without acknowleging, or ſeeming, at leaſt, to acknowlege, thoſe Circumſtances or Inferences: And as he is not conſcious to himſelf of being guilty of any Crime he ſtands charged with, ſo he takes it to be agreeable to the common Courſe of Proceedings of this Nature, and to your Lordſhips Juſtice, that he ſhould not admit any Circumſtances, which may tend to the Accuſation of himſelf: He therefore begs Leave, That he may be allowed to diſtinguiſh between the Acts themſelves, and the Inferences drawn from them; and that, whenever he acknowleges any Fact, he may not be underſtood to acknowlege thoſe Conſequences, which are, in the Articles, deduced from it; unleſs it ſhall appear, that the Conſequence was the Aim and Deſign of the ſaid Earl, or is the neceſſary Reſult of any Act he hath done.

In Anſwer to the Firſt Article; the ſaid Earl ſaith, That he always had the greateſt Regard to the Honour and Safety of her late Majeſty, and her Kingdoms; to all the Engagements ſhe was under to the Allies of this Nation; and to the common Liberties of Europe: That he never was devoted to the Intereſt or Service of the French King: That he is not conſcious to himſelf of having ing acted, whilſt he had the Honour to be her late Majeſty's High Treaſurer, or One of her moſt Honourable Privy-Council, contrary to his Oath, or in Violation of his Duty and Truſt, or with Diſregard to, much leſs Defiance of, any Treaties in the ſaid Article mentioned; of the Advices of Parliament; her Majeſty's Declarations from the Throne; or any mutual Aſſurances which had been made, or renewed, between her Majeſty and the States, to act in perfect Concert with each other, in making Peace, as in making War: And he utterly denies, That, in or about the Months of July or Auguſt 1711, or at any other time, he did form any Contrivance, or Confederacy, to ſet on foot a private, ſeparate, diſhonourable, or deſtructive, Negotiation of Peace between Great Britain and France; nor doth he know of any ſuch Contrivance, or Confederacy, formed by any of her Majeſty's Privy-Council; or that ſuch Negotiation was at any time ſet on foot: But the ſaid Earl ſays, He does believe, that, about the Month of April 1711, her late Majeſty did receive, from France, ſome Propoſals, in order to ſet on foot a Treaty for a General Peace, ſigned by Monſieur de Torcy, Secretary of State to the moſt Chriſtian King; which, as he believes, were immediately communicated, by her Ambaſſador in Holland, to the States-General: Whereupon, as he has been informed, they thanked her Majeſty for her Confidence in them; declared themſelves to be weary of the War, and ready to join in any Meaſures her Majeſty ſhould think proper for obtaining a good Peace; and that they hoped her Majeſty would bring the French to explain more particularly the ſeveral Points contained in the abovementioned Propoſals; or to that Effect; and that, after ſuch Requeſt, her Majeſty ſent Matthew Prior Eſquire to the Court of France, in order to obtain as full and ample an Explanation as he could, of the firſt general Offers: But the ſaid Earl denies, that he did adviſe her Majeſty to ſend the ſaid Mr. Prior to the Court of France, to make Propoſitions of Peace, without communicating the ſame to her Allies; or that the ſaid Mr. Prior did, by his Advice or Privity, communicate any Propoſitions to the Miniſters of France, wherein the Intereſts of Great Britain, or the common Intereſt of Europe, were betrayed; nor doth the ſaid Earl know, that the ſaid Mr. Prior had any Power to communicate Propoſitions to the Miniſters of France, which betrayed either the Intereſts of Great Britain, or the common Intereſt of Europe: Therefore the ſaid Earl inſiſts, That there is no Ground to charge him with the treacherous or pernicious Contrivances in this Article mentioned: And if any Article was inſerted in any Propoſitions to be communicated by the ſaid Mr. Prior, That the Secret ſhould be inviolably kept, till allowed to be divulged by the mutual Conſent of both Parties; yet the ſaid Earl denies, that ſuch Article was inſerted by his Advice; and, if any ſuch there was, he cannot, however, believe it was deſigned to exclude her Majeſty's Allies from their juſt Share in the ſaid Negotiations; and hopes he may be allowed to obſerve, That, in caſe any Inſtructions were given for not divulging Propoſitions which concerned Great Britain in particular, the ſame were far from manifeſting ſuch Deſign as is before-mentioned; ſince it is well known to be the undoubted Right of every Member of a Confederacy to demand particular Advantages for themſelves, not inconſiſtent with their Alliances; and which are not to take place, but on the Concluſion of a General Peace; and it has been uſual for thoſe to whom the Firſt Overtures of Peace are made, to make Demands for themſelves in the Firſt place; as the States, particularly, did in the Negotiations at the Hague in the Year 1709, and at Gertruydenberg in the Year 1710: And though he apprehends, that an Agreement not to divulge the Propoſitions, without the mutual Conſent of both Parties, could not be to the Prejudice of the Allies; yet he believes, that, in order to prevent any unreaſonable Jealouſies among them, even thoſe Propoſitions which related to Great Britain in particular were communicated to them; and that it will likewiſe appear, that the Propoſitions ſigned by Monſieur de Torcy, and tranſmitted in the Month of April 1711, in the ſaid Articles mentioned (whereby it is ſaid, the French King offered to treat with the Plenipotentiaries of England, or Holland, alone, or jointly with thoſe of the Allies, at the Choice of England), were Propoſals relating only to the Manner of treating, when the Conferences ſhould be opened; and that her Majeſty was ſo far from taking upon her to treat ſingly for the Allies, that ſhe choſe to have all the Parties admitted to the Congreſs, where they might have an Opportunity of treating, and adjuſting their reſpective Intereſts; that being, in her Opinion, the faireſt Method of proceeding, moſt advantageous to the Confederates, and moſt likely to prevent Jealouſies and Diſcords among them: And the ſaid Earl ſaith, That he does not know, that any Negotiations of Peace were contrived, or ſet on foot, by any Perſons employed in her Majeſty's Service, which was in any reſpect more advantageous to France than France had aſked; or which had a Tendency to give the Enemy a Power to create Miſunderſtandings between her Majeſty and her Allies, or to deſtroy the Confidence between them.

In Anſwer to the Second Article; the ſaid Earl ſaith, That he believes Monſieur Meſnager, a Subject of the French King, did, ſome time in the Year 1711, with her Majeſty's Leave, come into the Kingdom of Great Britain, and bring with him a Letter from the ſaid French King to her late Majeſty, acknowleging her Majeſty Queen of Great Britain, and likewiſe expreſſing a Deſire to re-eſtabliſh Peace with her; and that he was furniſhed with full Power from the ſaid French King for that Purpoſe: The ſaid Earl further ſaith, That it hath been the uſual and allowed Practice in moſt Nations, eſpecially in England, for Privy-Counſellors, by verbal Orders from the Sovereign, to confer, within the Realm, with Miniſters of foreign Princes; and he conceives ſuch Practice to be agreeable to the Laws of this Realm; and that full Powers are uſually granted to Miniſters who are ſent abroad, for the Juſtification of the Perſons with whom they ſhall treat, rather than to juſtify ſuch Miniſters themſelves: And the ſaid Earl denies, that he did, in the Month of September 1711, or at any other time, ſecretly and unlawfully, or without Authority, confer or treat with the ſaid Sieur Meſnager on the Negotiations of Peace between Great Britain and France; or that he did adviſe or promote the making a private and ſeparate Treaty or Agreement between the ſaid Crowns: But he hath been informed, and doth believe, that there was a Paper, ſtiled, The Anſwer of France to the Preliminary Demands of Great Britain, more particularly; ſigned by Monſieur Meſnager only; to which was ſubjoined a Declaration of the Queen's Acceptance of thoſe Preliminary Articles, as Conditions his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty conſented to grant; which were to be reduced into the uſual Form of Treaties, and explained after the moſt clear and moſt intelligible Manner, to the common Satisfaction of Great Britain and France; and this only in caſe of a General Peace: And this Declaration, or ſome other Declaration to the like Effect, he believes, might be ſigned by the Lord Dartmouth, and Mr. Secretary St. John, as in the ſaid Articles is ſet forth: But the ſaid Earl muſt crave Leave to ſubmit it to the Judgment of your Lordſhips, whether a Paper of that ſort, if any ſuch there was, containing Offers from France, which were not to take Effect, but in caſe of a General Peace, can be called a ſeparate Treaty: He believes the Allies had early Knowlege and Participation of the ſaid Propoſals from the Miniſters of Great Britain; but denies, that the Intereſt of Great Britain were thereby given up to France, or the Duke of Anjou admitted to be King of Spain; ſince, in the Declaration annexed to the ſaid Propoſals, he believes it is expreſſed, that her Majeſty might, in Juſtice, expect the Securities and Advantages mentioned in thoſe Propoſals, what Prince ſoever he ſhould be to whom the Monarchy of Spain ſhould be allotted; and the ſaid Earl, recollecting, as well as he can, what were her Majeſty's Views at that time, is perſuaded, that her Majeſty had then a Proſpect, that the Monarchy of Spain would fall to the Share of another Prince: The ſaid Earl denies, that, by his Privity, Conſent, or Advice, any private or ſeparate Treaty or Agreement, whereby the Intereſts of Great Britain were given up to France, or the Duke of Anjou was admitted to be King of Spain, was agreed, concluded, or ſigned, by the ſaid Sieur Meſnager, on the Part of France; and by the ſaid Lord Dartmouth and Henry St. John, or either of them, in behalf of her late Majeſty; much leſs did the ſaid Earl at any time aſſume to himſelf regal Power, or take upon him to meet, and treat with, the Enemy, without Authority from her Majeſty, to do any thing to ſubvert the ancient and eſtabliſhed Conſtitutions of the Government of theſe Kingdoms; or introduce any illegal or dangerous Methods of tranſacting the Affairs of State: And the ſaid Earl further ſaith, That he did never aim at, or endeavour, by any ſeparate Treaty, to diſſolve, or cancel, any of thoſe ſolemn Treaties in which her Majeſty ſtood engaged to her Allies; nor was he privy to any Treaty, whereby the Queen was brought under a Dilemma, either to ſubmit to the Dictates of France in the Progreſs of ſuch Negotiation, or to loſe the Confidence of her Allies.

In Anſwer to the Third Article; the ſaid Earl denies, That, to diſguiſe, or carry on, any private, ſeparate, or dangerous Negotiations, he did contrive, or adviſe, the preparing and forming the Set of general Preliminaries in the Article mentioned, intituled, Preliminary Articles, on the Part of France, to come to a General Peace, or any other ſort of general Preliminaries of like Nature; or that the ſame ſhould be ſigned by the Sieur Meſnager; or that he did adviſe her Sacred Majeſty, that the ſame ſhould be received by her Majeſty: But the ſaid Earl hath been informed, that certain Articles, called Preliminary Articles, on the Part of France, to come to a General Peace, ſigned by the Sieur Meſnager only, were received by her Majeſty; and believes the ſame might be communicated to the Miniſters of the Allies then reſiding in England, as a Ground whereon the Confederates might treat, or negotiate, concerning a General Peace; but whether the ſame were communicated as the only Tranſactions that had been on that Subject between Great Britain and France, the ſaid Earl knows not: But, ſince it is termed impious Advice, and contrary to the Duty and Truſt of a Miniſter of State of Great Britain, to adviſe the receiving ſuch Articles, the ſaid Earl, from his Concern for the Honour of her late Majeſty's Adminiſtration, and the future Welfare of theſe Kingdoms, doth ſubmit, whether it is criminal for ſuch Miniſter to adviſe the receiving Articles from a Miniſter of a Prince in War, containing Propoſals for giving reaſonable Satisfaction to Great Britain, and all her Allies; and which, being ſigned by the Miniſter of that Prince only, were not intended to bind any other: And, ſince Preliminary Articles are no eſſential Step towards a general Negotiation; there being, as he believes, but few Inſtances where any Matters of Importance have been ſettled before the Opening of general Conferences; the ſaid Earl doth not conceive, that if any Miniſter of State had adviſed her Majeſty to accept the Preliminaries, or Offers, from France, ſaid to be ſigned by Monſieur Meſnager, the 27th of September 1711, as the Foundation of a Treaty, he had thereby offended againſt any known Law; ſince the Proceedings upon ſuch Preliminaries could not be more unſafe than proceeding without any at all: The ſaid Earl denies, that any Treaty, ſigned by the Earl of Dartmouth, or Mr. St. John, or either of them, on the Part of England, and the Sieur Meſnager, on the Part of France, if any ſuch there be, was induſtriouſly concealed from the Allies, her Majeſty's Council or Parliament, by his Advice or Contrivance; or that he diſſuaded her Majeſty from laying any ſuch Treaty before her Allies, her Council or Parliament; or that he adviſed her Majeſty to receive the ſaid general Preliminaries, or to communicate the ſame, in her Name, or by her Authority, to the States-General, as a ſufficient Foundation whereon to open the Conferences of Peace with France: The ſaid Earl hath been informed, and doth believe, that there were certain Inſtructions prepared, and ſigned by her Majeſty, and delivered to the Earl of Strafford, her Majeſty's Ambaſſador to the States-General; wherein the ſaid Ambaſſador might be directed to repreſent to the Penſionary of Holland, and ſuch others as ſhould be appointed to confer with him, in ſuch manner as is ſet forth in this Article, or to the like Effect; but he denies, that the ſaid Inſtructions were prepared, ſigned, or delivered, by his Advice: Nevertheleſs, the ſaid Earl believes, the ſaid Inſtructions were well warranted by the Truth of ſuch Facts, as, in the ſaid Article, are ſet forth to be contained in thoſe Inſtructions; ſince the ſaid Earl hath had credible Information, that, after her Majeſty had received an Account of the Senſe of ſome Perſons in Holland concerning the Overtures, made by France, for the ſetting a general Negotiation of Peace on foot, very preſſing Inſtances were made, on her Majeſty's behalf, with the Enemy, to explain the Firſt Offers made by Monſieur de Torcy more particularly, and to form a diſtinct Project of ſuch a Peace as they were willing to conclude: And that ſuch Inſtances had Effect, will appear from the Preliminaries ſaid to be ſigned by Monſieur Meſnager, September the 27th, 1711; wherein ſeveral Explications are made, and many Particulars of Moment are contained, which were not in the Propoſitions of Monſieur de Torcy: Wherefore the ſaid Earl apprehends, that the Propoſitions ſaid, in this Article, to be ſent over to France, if any ſuch were ſent, were not ſo general as the Propoſitions of Monſieur de Torcy, nor in any reſpect enſnaring, or deſtructive, to the Intereſts of Great Britain, or the Allies: But yet the ſaid Earl believes, that her Majeſty, at the ſame time ſhe did communicate the ſaid Preliminaries to the States-General, did likewiſe order her Ambaſſador to acquaint them, That ſhe judged thoſe Articles did not contain ſuch particular Conceſſions as France would probably be obliged to make in the Courſe of the Negotiations; or to that Effect: If, therefore, her Majeſty did, for the Good and Eaſe of her People, endeavour to prevail with her Allies to enter into a Negotiation of Peace, and did communicate the ſaid Preliminaries to them with that View, the ſaid Earl cannot be induced to believe, that the ſaid general Preliminaries, communicated to the States by her Majeſty, in manner aforeſaid, were calculated to amuſe and deceive them; nor doth the ſaid Earl know, or believe, that her Majeſty's Inſtructions to her ſaid Ambaſſador, either in the Particulars aboveſaid, or in any other, contained Matters falſe, prevaricating, or evaſive: And the ſaid Earl muſt take the Liberty to affirm, that, in the late Negotiations of Peace, as well as in all other publick Tranſactions of State, as far as he was concerned, he acted with the higheſt Regard to the Honour of her Majeſty, and with the utmoſt Zeal for the Welfare both of her, and her People; and is not conſcious to himſelf, that he ever gave any Councils, whereby the Truth and Sacredneſs, which ought to conſtitute and accompany the Inſtructions of publick Ambaſſadors to Princes in Friendſhip, and Confederacy againſt the common Enemy, were in any-wiſe proſtituted, or the Honour of her Majeſty, and of the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, in any ſort, debaſed or betrayed: And he humbly hopes, no Inſtance can be given, wherein the Royal Hand of her late Majeſty was made the Inſtrument to advance the Intereſt of the common Enemy.

In Anſwer to the Fourth Article; the ſaid Earl doth not remember what Repreſentations were made by Monſieur Buys to her Majeſty, in relation to the Propoſitions in the ſaid Article mentioned; but ſaith, That if any Repreſentations were made, the ſame were not rendered ineffectual by any Influence of the ſaid Earl: And the ſaid Earl doth admit, that at a Committee of Council there might be made ſome Declaration, in her Majeſty's Name, to Mr. Buys, to the Effect in the ſaid Article mentioned; but doth not admit, that any ſuch Declaration was made by him the ſaid Earl, or by his Management or Contrivance: And the ſaid Earl believes, that what was ſo declared to the ſaid Mr. Buys was agreeable to Truth, and to the real Sentiments and Intentions of her Majeſty; nor doth he know wherein the ſaid Articles ſigned by Mr. Meſnager, and accepted by the Lord Dartmouth and Mr. St. John, if any ſuch were then ſigned, were inconſiſtent with ſuch Declaration; or how her Majeſty was thereby diſhonoured, or her Allies abuſed; or that any Negotiation, entered into with France, was either dangerous to itſelf, or fatal in its Conſequences.

In Anſwer to the Fifth Article; the ſaid Earl admits, That her Sacred Majeſty Queen Anne did, in due Form of Law, and under her Great Seal, conſtitute the Right Reverend John Lord Biſhop of Briſtol, and the Earl of Strafford, her Plenipotentiaries, with full Power, to meet, treat, and conclude, with the Plenipotentiaries of the Confederates, and thoſe whom the French King ſhould, on his Part, depute for that Purpoſe, the Conditions of a good and general Peace, that ſhould be ſafe, honourable, and, as far as was poſſible, agreeable to the reaſonable Demands of all Parties; and believes Inſtructions were prepared, and delivered to them, wherein they were inſtructed, amongſt other things, to the Effect in the ſaid Article ſet forth; and is firmly perſuaded, that, when the ſaid Plenipotentiaries were ſo inſtructed to inſiſt, That Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, ſhould not be allotted to the Houſe of Bourbon, no Treaty had been negotiated, and agreed, that Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, ſhould remain in a Branch of that Houſe; and he has Reaſon to believe, that, at the time when the ſaid Inſtructions were given to her Majeſty's ſaid Plenipotentiaries, there was juſt Ground to believe, that King Philip would be induced to abandon Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, and content himſelf with the Dominions of Savoy, and the Kingdom of Sicily; and, he believes, he may ſo far depend on his Memory as to ſay, That he heard the late Queen declare, She believed the Proſpect King Philip had of ſucceeding to the Crown of France, would be an Inducement to him to be eaſy with that Allotment; and it ſeemed probable, that the Addition of the Dominions of Savoy to the Crown of France, in caſe King Philip ſhould ſucceed to it, would be eſteemed by the French Court as a thing more to be deſired by them, than that Spain, and the Indies, ſhould remain in the Poſſeſſion of a younger Prince of the Houſe of Bourbon, under the Condition of his renouncing the Right he would have to the Crown of France, if the eldeſt Branch ſhould fail: Theſe ſeem to him to have been her Majeſty's Views at the time when the ſaid Inſtructions were given to the Biſhop of Briſtol, and the Earl of Strafford; and he therefore believes, that whoever contrived, or prepared, the ſame, did prepare them conformable to her Majeſty's real Sentiments; and was far from any Thought, or Deſign, to abuſe the Royal Authority, delude the States-General, prejudice his Imperial Majeſty, or any of the Allies, or carry on the Meaſures of France: And if King Philip afterwards, upon Information, that the then Dauphin was likely to live, or at the preſſing Inſtances of the Spaniards, and Influence of Spaniſh Counſels, or upon any other Motives, refuſed to accept of Savoy and Sicily, and choſe rather to renounce the French Monarchy, he thinks, no Perſon who acts in the Service of the Crown can be ſafe if it may be charged on him as a Crime, that he adviſed Inſtructions, which, by intervening Circumſtances, afterwards became improper: But he the ſaid Earl doth not admit, that he contrived, or prepared, the ſaid Inſtructions; or was conſenting, or adviſing, to the contriving, or preparing, of them; or prevailed on her Majeſty to ſign them; much leſs that he abuſed the Royal Authority, to the Deluſion of the States-General; or intended the Prejudice of his Imperial Majeſty, or any of the Allies; or was engaged to carry on the Meaſures of France; or had, when the ſaid Inſtructions were prepared, negotiated, or agreed, with the Miniſters of France, that Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, ſhould remain in a Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon; or had prevailed on her Majeſty to be Party to any private Treaty, wherein the ſame is neceſſarily implied: If the Plenipotentiaries were inſtructed, That, in caſe the Enemy ſhould object, That the Second Article of the Seven ſigned by Monſieur Meſnager, implied the Duke of Anjou ſhould continue on the Throne of Spain, to inſiſt, That thoſe Articles were binding to France; but laid neither the Queen, nor her Allies, under any Obligation; the ſaid Earl does not apprehend, how an Inſtruction to her Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries to make a juſt Anſwer to a falſe Inference that might happen to be drawn by the Enemy from the Words of ſuch an Article, can be interpreted an entering into a Confederacy, or Colluſion, with the Miniſters of the Enemy; or that her Majeſty's Conſent to ſuch Inſtructions could imply any Deſign to impoſe on his Imperial Majeſty, or the Allies, or to conceal any Negotiations between Great Britain and France: But the ſaid Earl is confident, it will not appear by any of his Actions, on the ſtricteſt Scrutiny, that he ever entered into any Confederacy, or Colluſion, with the Miniſters of the Enemy; or prevailed on the Queen to give her Conſent thereto; or had any Deſigns to impoſe upon his Imperial Majeſty, or any of the Allies; or ever was privy to any ſecret Negotiations, or ſeparate Treaty, between Great Britain and France, whereby, either in the before-mentioned, or in any other, Particulars, any Reproach could be brought on the Crown of theſe Realms, or any Treaties, wherein her Majeſty was engaged to her Allies, were violated.

In Anſwer to the Sixth Article; the ſaid Earl does admit, That, after the Conferences of Peace between the Plenipotentiaries of the Allies and thoſe of the Enemy, for negotiating a general Peace, were opened, wherein, he is perſuaded, her Majeſty, and her Miniſters, did act in perfect Confidence with the Allies, and to promote their common Intereſt, and to obtain from the Enemy all juſt and reaſonable Satisfaction; the Progreſs of the ſaid Negotiation was delayed by Debates concerning the Enemy's Refuſal to give their Anſwer in Writing to the Demands of the Allies: But he doth not know, that any of the Miniſters of Great Britain did, by any Encouragement, or Concurrence, contribute thereunto: And if, during that time, her Majeſty thought fit to authorize any of her Miniſters to write, or negotiate, upon any particular Points relating to the Peace, directly from England to France, in order to facilitate the general Negotiation of Peace, which he the ſaid Earl doth not admit to have been done by his Privity; yet he the ſaid Earl doth not apprehend, that, by the Conſtitution of the Kingdom, or any Law in being, the Queen was debarred from doing ſo; or that, by conſtituting the ſaid Plenipotentiaries, ſhe had ſo far delegated to them her Royal Authority, as to be diſabled, without revoking their Commiſſion, to treat, or negotiate, any Matters conducing to that End, in ſuch other manner as ſhe ſhould think fit: The ſaid Earl ſaith, That he did not adviſe, contrive, or promote, any private, ſeparate, or unjuſtifiable, Negotiation with France; nor doth he know any Negotiation relating to the Peace was carried on without Communication thereof to the Allies: And the ſaid Earl denies, that he ever aſſumed Regal Authority; or that he treated of Peace with France in any manner that could be liable to ſuch Imputation; or did promote the Deſign of the Enemy, to the Deſtruction of the common Cauſe of her Majeſty, or of her Allies; contrary to the Laws, or Conſtitution, of this Kingdom, or in Violation of any of the Alliances her Majeſty ſtood engaged in, or of the Aſſurances given by her Majeſty, or of her Inſtructions to her Plenipotentiaries; or that any Terms of Peace were by him, at any time, concerted, prejudicial to the Intereſt of her Majeſty, or her Kingdoms, or Allies; or whereby the good Effects of the general Negotiation were defeated.

In Anſwer to the Seventh Article; the ſaid Earl ſaith, That he never adviſed her late Majeſty to accept of a Treaty with France, on a Suppoſition that the Spaniſh Monarchy ſhould continue in the Poſſeſſion of a Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon; nor did he adviſe, or carry on, any private or ſeparate Negotiation with France on the Subject of a Renunciation to be made by the Duke of Anjou of the Right he might have to the Kingdom of France, and that ſuch Renunciation ſhould be the Security againſt the Re-union of the Two Kingdoms; or that, by his Counſels, her Majeſty was prevailed on to accept, and finally to conclude and ratify, a Treaty of Peace with France, wherein the ſaid Renunciation is taken as a ſufficient Expedient to prevent the Miſchiefs that threatened all Europe, in caſe the Crowns of France and Spain ſhould be united upon the Head of one and the ſame Perſon; nor doth he know, know, that, during the ſaid Negotiation, any ſuch Memorial, as in the ſaid Article is ſet forth, was tranſmitted, by the ſaid Monſieur de Torcy, to any of her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: But he the ſaid Earl doth freely acknowlege, that, if he had been called upon to give his Opinion concerning the Leaving of Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, in the Poſſeſſion of a Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon, and accepting the Renunciation of his Right to the Kingdom of France by the Duke of Anjou, he doth not at preſent ſee any Reaſon why he might not have been of Opinion for leaving Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, to the preſent Poſſeſſor, and accepting the Renunciation, rather than have continued the War, ſo burdenſome to the People, and ſo impracticable upon the Foot on which it then ſtood; eſpecially ſince all Endeavours to remove him by Treaties, or Force, had ſo long proved ineffectual: And in caſe any ſuch Memorial as is ſet forth in the ſaid Article was ſent by any Miniſter of France to the Secretary of the late Queen, he ſhould look upon the ſame as a Proof of the Earneſtneſs of the Court of France to avoid ſuch Renunciation, which might more effectually prevent all Poſſibility of annexing the Crown of Spain to that of France; but, whatever Inducements might be for ſuch a Memorial, if any ſuch was tranſmitted, the ſaid Earl doth affirm, that he never gave any Counſels, by which the Intereſt of the common Cauſe could be betrayed into the Hands of the Enemy; nor doth he think it was poſſible, by any Power and Influence, to engage her Majeſty to become Party with France in any Deceit; but, whatever Credit he at any time had by her Favour, he always uſed it with the utmoſt Sincerity for her Service, and the Good of her People.

In Anſwer to the Eighth Article; the ſaid Earl believes, That her late Majeſty Queen Anne did, on the 7th Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1711, recommend it from the Throne, that Proviſion might be made for an early Campaign, in order to carry on the War with Vigour, and as the beſt Way to render the Treaty of Peace effectual; and he does believe, that, in order thereto, Supplies were granted, and Magazines provided, at a great Expence, for an early Campaign; and that, in purſuance thereof, her Majeſty might ſend ſome General Officers to explain her Intentions to her Allies; and likewiſe inſtructed her General, the Duke of Ormond, to declare her Reſolutions of carrying on the War, and to concert, with the Generals of the Allies, the proper Meaſures for entering upon Action: And he doth believe, that the Confederate Army was provided with all Neceſſaries: But whether the ſaid Army had approached, or how near they had approached, to the Enemy; whether they had any, or what, Superiority as to the Number of Troops; or what Likelihood there was that they would have been able, either by Battle or Siege, to have bettered the Affairs of the Allies, or to have facilitated the Negotiations of Peace; the ſaid Earl is not able to ſay: But it muſt be obvious to every one, that any Miſcarriage, or Diſaſter, on the Part of the Allies, at ſuch a Juncture, muſt have been fatal to them: And though the Divine Aſſiſtance had been very remarkable in the many Victories her Majeſty's Forces had obtained; yet her Majeſty's Piety was ſo great, that it is not likely ſhe ſhould, without the greateſt Neceſſity, have been willing to have tempted that Providence, which had been ſo ſignal in her Favour, by hazarding the Blood of her Subjects at a time, when ſhe had ſo near a Proſpect of the Concluſion of a Peace: And the ſaid Earl believes, it might be owing to this Piety of the Queen, and her Knowlege of ſome important Matters then depending, that Directions were ſent to the Duke of Ormond, if any ſuch were ſent, to avoid engaging in any Siege, or hazarding any Battle, till further Orders; which, he ſuppoſeth, her Majeſty might do upon any Cauſes ſhe thought proper, as well as the Deputies of the States, who, as the ſaid Earl hath been informed, have often refuſed to engage in Siege, or Battle, upon ſuch Ground as they alone thought fit, when their own Generals, and the Generals of the other Allies, were of Opinion, they had a viſible Advantage of the Enemy, and might engage in ſuch a Siege, or Battle, with great Probability of Succeſs: But he doth affirm, that the Miniſters of France never repreſented to him, or to any others, as far as he knows, during any Negotiation, any Apprehenſions they had from the Bravery, and good Diſpoſition, of the Confederate Army; nor was he ever informed of any ſure Proſpect, which, it is alleged, the Army of the Confederates then had, of gaining new Conqueſts over the Army of France, or whereby they would have been enabled to have forced any better Terms of Peace than there was at that time Likelihood of; but, on the contrary, he has been informed, that the Forces of France were ſuperior in Number to thoſe of the Confederates, eſpecially in Horſe: However, the ſaid Earl doth not admit, that he did adviſe, or conſent, that any Order ſhould be diſpatched, in her Majeſty's Name, to the Duke of Ormond, to the afore-mentioned Effect; nor had he any View, or Deſign, to diſappoint the Expectation of the Allies, or to give Succeſs to any ſecret Negotiations with the Miniſters of France: The ſaid Earl likewiſe denies, that he did conſent, or adviſe, that Orders ſhould be ſent to the Biſhop of Briſtol, One of her Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries then at Utrecht, to declare to the Dutch Miniſters, That her Majeſty looked on herſelf, from their Conduct, to be then under no Obligation whatſoever to them: He doth not know what Alarm the Allies might take, or what Repreſentations they made to the Biſhop of Briſtol of their Diſſatisfaction, or Conſternation; but doubts not, the ſaid Biſhop would readily repreſent what they deſired, though ſuch Repreſentation made by his Lordſhip, if any ſuch there was, fell not under the Knowlege of the ſaid Earl; nor doth he admit, that any Application of that kind was made to him: And, in caſe the States-General made ſuch Addreſs directly to her Majeſty, by a Letter of the 5th Day of June, as in the ſaid Article is ſet forth, he the ſaid Earl, not being acquainted therewith, could neither adviſe her Majeſty to hearken to the Inſtances therein made, nor to diſregard, or to reject, the ſame: He ſaith, he never entered into Meaſures for the Advancement of the Intereſt of the common Enemy, or countenanced, encouraged, adviſed, or promoted, any Negotiations with France, without Participation of the Allies, or contrary to her Majeſty's Engagement, or to the Ruin of the common Cauſe; nor is he conſcious to himſelf, that he ever gave any Counſels, by which the Progreſs of the victorious Arms of the Confederates was ſtopped, or any Opportunity loſt for conquering the Enemy, or which had any Tendency to deſtroy the Confidence between her Majeſty and her Allies, or make the French King Maſter of the Negotiations of Peace, or which could put the Affairs of Europe into his Hands.

In Anſwer to the Ninth Article; the ſaid Earl denies he was privy, or conſenting, to any Concert with the Miniſters of France, for the ſeparating the Troops in her Majeſty's Pay from the reſt of the Confederate Army; and, not being privy to any ſuch Concert, he hopes, it will not be imputed to him as any Want of Duty, that he did not adviſe againſt ſuch a Proceeding: He denies alſo, that he ever entertained the leaſt Deſign of impoſing upon the Allies any Neceſſity of ſubmitting to the Terms of France, or of leaving the Confederate Army to the Mercy of the Enemy; or that he did conſent, or adviſe her Majeſty, that the Duke of Ormond, and the Troops in her Majeſty's Pay, or ſuch of them as would obey his Orders, ſhould ſeparate themſelves from the Army of the Confederates: The ſaid Earl hath been informed, and believes it to be true, that the Imperial General, and ſome other Generals, did propoſe to the Duke of Ormond, in June or July in the Year 1712, to decamp from the Ground where they lay, and to proceed towards Landrecy, in order to form the Siege of that Place; and that the Duke of Ormond thought it not proper to conſent thereto; and gave Notice to the ſaid Generals, that, if they decamped, they muſt not expect him to follow them: And the ſaid Earl believes, Inſtances may be given, where Generals of other Potentates in the Alliance have refuſed to comply with what has been propoſed to them by her late Majeſty's General:

The

The ſaid Earl hath likewiſe heard, that, notwithſtanding ſuch Notice from the Duke of Ormond, the ſaid Generals ſeparated themſelves, and their Forces, from the ſaid Duke, and marched towards Landrecy without him; and that the ſaid Duke continued, for ſome time, in his former Camp, after ſuch Separation; and that the Generals of the Auxiliary Troops paid by her Majeſty, although required by the ſaid Duke of Ormond, under whoſe Command they then were, to continue with him, and to obey his Orders, refuſed ſo to do: He the ſaid Earl ſuppoſes it might proceed from her Majeſty's Reſentment of that Inſtance of Diſobedience in the Auxiliary Troops to the Commands of her General, that ſhe did not think fit immediately to pay the Arrears of thoſe Forces, which had ſo obſtinately withdrawn themſelves from her General, and marched, without him, towards Landrecy; as not apprehending herſelf obliged, by any Conventions, or the Proviſion of any Act of Parliament, ſo to do: But, whatever might be the Cauſes, or Occaſions, of her Majeſty's Reſentment, the ſaid Earl ſaith, That he, being in the Office of High Treaſurer under her Majeſty, could not, by the Duty of his Place, iſſue out any Monies, without a proper Warrant or Authority from her Majeſty; and denies, that ... ever received any Warrant or Authority from her Majeſty for iſſuing any Sum or Sums of Money for or towards the Pay, or Subſidies, on account of the ſaid foreign Troops, who had ſo ſeparated; without which, the iſſuing or directing any Monies for the Payment of them had been a Violation of his Duty: And the ſaid Earl denies, that he did, at any time, refuſe, or put a Stop to, any ſuch Pay or Subſidies; but, on the contrary, when the Miniſters of the Princes to whom thoſe Forces belonged did apply for the Payment of the ſaid Troops, the ſaid Earl deſired them to make Application to her Majeſty for the neceſſary Warrants in order thereunto: And as the ſaid Earl had no Notice of any Separation intended between her Majeſty's Forces and thoſe of the Allies before the ſame was made; ſo he abſolutely denies, that, by his Advice or Counſel, or with his Privity, any ſuch Separation was made; and humbly apprehends, that he ought not, in Juſtice, to be charged with any Conſequences of it. He believes, that the Forces of ſome of the Allies were engaged in the unfortunate Action of Denain; and that the Siege of Landrecy was raiſed, and the Towns of Queſnoy, Bouchain, and Douay, were, ſome time after, retaken by the French Army; but whether thoſe Diſaſters might not have been prevented by a Compliance with the Meaſures her Majeſty had taken for the common Good, the ſaid Earl ſubmits to your Lordſhips.

In Anſwer to the Tenth Article; the ſaid Earl denies, That he did carry on, or concert, with the Miniſters of France, a private or ſeparate Negotiation for a general Suſpenſion, by Sea and Land, between Great Britain and France; or that he did adviſe her Majeſty to ſend over Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke to the Court of France, with Powers to ſettle ſuch Suſpenſion; but hath been informed, and believes it may be true, That, about the 19th of Auguſt, N. S. 1712, a Suſpenſion of Arms was agreed on, in France, by the ſaid Viſcount Bolingbroke, on her Majeſty's Part, for Four Months: But whether ſuch Agreement was made without the Knowlege or Participation of her Majeſty's Allies, or how far the Terms of Peace were then ſettled with France, either for Great Britain, or the Allies, the ſaid Earl is not able to ſet forth; but, from the Informations he hath received of that Affair, believes it will appear, that the ſaid Suſpenſion was a Continuation only of a former Agreement for a Ceſſation of Arms, which had been not only communicated to the Allies, but into which they had been invited; and believes, her Majeſty might be induced to deſire ſuch Ceſſation, as what was uſual, among Princes and States in War, during Negotiations of Peace; by which means, the Britiſh Merchants enjoyed a free Trade, and had an Opportunity of carrying the Merchandizes of other Countries to ſeveral Parts of Europe, as the Dutch had done during the War; and therefore the ſaid Earl doth not conceive, that her Majeſty, by the ſaid Suſpenſion, did, in the leaſt, intend the Violation of any Treaties between her and her Allies; or to deprive them of any Aſſiſtance to which they were intitled; or to expoſe them to the Inſults of the common Enemy; nor doth he diſcern, how theſe Conſequences could enſue, without the Default of the Allies themſelves; much leſs, how the Ties of Union and Friendſhip, between her Majeſty and them, were cut aſunder; or her Majeſty's Perſon or Government, or the Safety of her Kingdoms, or the Proteſtant Succeſſion, were expoſed thereby: But the ſaid Earl aſſures himſelf, that he ſhall never ſtand chargeable with any Conſequences of ſuch Suſpenſion, which he never adviſed; nor did he the ſaid Earl ever entertain the leaſt Thought or Deſign of occaſioning the Deſtruction of the common Cauſe of Europe, or hindering her Majeſty from reſuming the War againſt France, in Conjunction with her Allies, if it had been ſo thought fit; or of weakening the Union between her Majeſty and them.

In Anſwer to the Eleventh Article; the ſaid Earl ſaith, He believes it to be true, that, in or about the Month of September, or October, 1712, the States-General were in Poſſeſſion of the Town and Fortreſs of Tournay; and that her Majeſty, in her Inſtructions, of December the 23d, 1711, to her Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, did direct them to inſiſt, with the Plenipotentiaries of France, in the general Congreſs, that, towards forming a Barrier for the States-General, Tournay ſhould remain to the States; and doth believe, the French King did, at one time, incline thereunto; but doth not know, that her Majeſty, in her Speech, in the ſaid Article mentioned, did declare herſelf, as in the ſaid Article is ſet forth: The ſaid Earl admits, That until, and after, the Months of September and October 1711, there was open War between her late Majeſty and the French King; and that, during ſuch War, the French King, and his Subjects, were Enemies to the late Queen; but the ſaid Earl hath been informed, and believes, that full Powers were given by her Majeſty, and the States-General of the United Provinces, to their reſpective Miniſters, and by the French King to his Miniſters, to negotiate and treat of Peace between her Majeſty and the States-General, and the ſaid French King; upon which Negotiations, a Peace was afterwards concluded between them; during which Negotiations, he hath heard, that the French King did inſiſt upon the yielding up the Town and Fortreſs of Tournay, by the States, to him; and the ſaid States-General deſired her Majeſty's Interpoſition with the French King on their behalf; and that, at ſuch Requeſt, her Majeſty interpoſed her beſt Offices on behalf of the States-General; and did at laſt prevail, that the ſaid Town and Fortreſs of Tournay ſhould be, and he believes the ſame is, continued to the States-General, as Part of their Barrier: But the ſaid Earl abſolutely denies, that he did deſign to give Aid or Succour, or to adhere to, the French King; or that he did, in or about the Month of October 1712, or at any other time during the ſaid War, aid, help, or aſſiſt, or adhere to, the ſaid French King; or that he did ever counſel or adviſe the ſaid Enemy, in what Manner, or by what Methods, the ſaid Town and Fortreſs of Tournay, or either of them, might be gained from the States-General to the French King, in Manner and Form as in the ſaid Article is charged: On the contrary, he the ſaid Earl did uſe his beſt Offices to preſerve the ſaid Town and Fortreſs of Tournay to the States-General: But the ſaid Earl ſaith, That, during the Negotiations of the late Peace, he had the Honour to be One of her ſaid late Majeſty's Privy-Council; and whatever Counſel and Advice he gave, relating to any Terms of the ſaid Peace, he acted therein as a Privy Counſellor, and Miniſter of State, and no otherwiſe; and doth inſiſt, That, for any Privy-Counſellor, or Miniſter of State, during the Negotiations of Peace, to adviſe, or negotiate, concerning the yielding or giving up any Town, Province, or Dominion, upon the Concluſion of the Peace, as Part of the Terms and Conditions of ſuch Peace, is not High Treaſon by any Law of this Realm; and that ſuch Conſtruction might hereafter deprive the Crown of the Advice and Aſſiſtance of ſeveral Members of the Privy-Council, in Matters of the greateſt Importance, by deterring them from giving ſuch Advice, as, by their Oaths, and the Duty of their Place, they are obliged to do; would overthrow all Means of reſtoring Amity between Princes, and render the Law in Caſe of High Treaſon uncertain; which, by reaſon of its being the moſt penal, ought to be moſt plain; and would be highly dangerous and deſtructive to the Lives and Liberties of the Subject.

Matters

In Anſwer to the Twelfth Article; the ſaid Earl, not admitting, that her late Majeſty Queen Anne ſtood engaged by Treaties, in manner as in the ſaid Article is alleged; but referring himſelf to the Treaties, when they ſhall be produced; for Anſwer, denies, That he did, in any of the Years 1710, 1711, and 1712, or at any other time, aid, help, aſſiſt, or adhere to, the Duke of Anjou, in the ſaid Article named; or adviſe or counſel any of the Enemies of her ſaid late Majeſty, or concert with any of them, or promote, the yielding or giving up of Spain, and the Weſt-Indies, or any Part thereof, to the ſaid Duke of Anjou, in Manner and Form as in the ſaid Article is alleged: And the ſaid Earl ſaith, as in his Anſwer to the Eleventh Article he hath already ſaid, That, during the Negotiations of the late Peace, he had the Honour to be One of her ſaid late Majeſty's Privy-Council; and whatever Counſel or Advice he gave, relating to any Terms of the ſaid Peace, he acted therein as a Privy-Counſellor, and Miniſter of State, and no otherwiſe; and inſiſts as in his Anſwer to the Eleventh Article he has inſiſted.

In Anſwer to the Thirteenth Article; the ſaid Earl admits, That the flouriſhing Condition of Trade and Navigation contributes much to the Riches, Power, and Strength, of theſe Kingdoms; and believes, that her late Majeſty had a juſt Regard thereto, and a ſincere Deſire to obtain ſome Advantages therein for her People; and did make the ſeveral Declarations from the Throne, ſet forth in this Article; and that both Houſes of Parliament did, from time to time, expreſs their grateful Acknowlegements to her Majeſty, for her great Care and Concern for the Welfare of her People; and believes, her Majeſty might think it reaſonable, conſidering the Share and Burden ſhe and her People had ſuſtained in the War, that France ſhould, in the Firſt place, adjuſt the Intereſts of Great Britain, which were to be ſecured on the Concluſion of a general Peace: But the ſaid Earl doth not know, or believe, that, at the ſetting on foot, or in the Progreſs, of any Negotiation between the Miniſters of Great Britain and France, it was laid down as a Principle, That France ſhould, in the Firſt place, conſent to adjuſt the Intereſts of Great Britain, to the Intent, that the Miniſters of Great Britain might thereby be enabled to engage the Queen to make the Concluſion of the Peace eaſy to France: Nor doth he know, that any Conceſſions were made by the Miniſters of Great Britain, with Intent to promote the Intereſts of France, againſt the Allies; or that any Meaſures were entered into, or concerted, between them, in order to ſtrengthen the Hands of the French, or to enable them to impoſe the Terms of a general Peace: And the ſaid Earl doth abſolutely deny, that he was engaged, in Concert with France, in any Negotiations deſtructive to his Country; or that he ever had the leaſt Imagination or Thought tending that way, or to the ſacrificing the Commerce of Great Britain to the Aggrandizement of France; but, on the contrary, he hath always had the moſt real and ſincere Deſires to ſecure and advance the Commerce of Great Britain, and to preſerve his Country; in whoſe Service he hath been always ready to ſacrifice himſelf, and every private Intereſt whatſoever: And the ſaid Earl is not conſcious to himſelf of any Want of Duty, either in not inſiſting upon, or not procuring, the moſt certain Securities that could be obtained for the Safety and Advantage of the Commerce of theſe Kingdoms: And the ſaid Earl doth not admit, That he did adviſe her late Majeſty, that any Propoſition ſhould be ſent by Mr. Prior to France; or that any private or ſeparate Treaty, or the Preliminary Articles, which are ſaid to be ſigned the 27th of September 1711, ſhould be ſigned; but the ſaid Earl hath been informed, and believes, That in a Paper, intituled, The Anſwer of France to the Demands of Great Britain, more particularly, it is ſaid, That the intire Reſtitution of Newfoundland, and of the Bay and Streights of Hudſon, was demanded for the Engliſh; and that the French King's Anſwer was, That the Diſcuſſion of that Article ſhould be referred to the general Conferences of the Peace; provided the Liberty of Fiſhing, and Drying of Cod-Fiſh, upon the Iſle of Newfoundland, ſhould be reſerved to the French: And the ſaid Earl conceives that Paper not concluſive; but was to be the Subject of future Conferences, wherein the whole Matter might be intirely conſidered; and, conſequently, that the entering into Conferences on that Paper, was not the yielding to the French the Liberty of fiſhing, and drying Fiſh, on Newfoundland; which they inſiſted on: And the ſaid Earl denies, that he adviſed the Demands for Great Britain, in point of Commerce, ſhould be made in looſe, general, or inſufficient Terms; or that he adviſed the Liberties inſiſted on by the French ſhould be given up to France, as in the ſaid Article is alleged: And he believes, that when it is conſidered, what Advantages were likely to enſue to the Commerce of Great Britain by the Aſſiento Contract, and the Liberty of trading to the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies; by the Ceſſion of Accadia, the Bay and Streights of Hudſon, the Iſland of St. Chriſtopher, Newfoundland, the Iſland of St. Peter, with other adjacent Iſlands; by the Demolition of Dunkirk, and the Ceſſion of Port-Mahon and Gibraltar; it will not be thought, the Commerce of Great Britain was neglected by her Majeſty in the late Treaty of Peace: And as the ſaid Earl doth not know, that France was, at any time, Maſter of the Negotiations; ſo he denies, that he did engage her Majeſty in any private Treaties with France, without Security for the Commerce of Great Britain; or that he did contrive, with any of the Miniſters of France, to keep in Suſpenſe any Matters that concerned the ſaid Commerce; or that he was any ways inſtrumental to the preventing any Advantages of the ſaid Commerce from being ſettled; or that he endeavoured to elude any thing that had been agreed on, in any Negotiation, for the Benefit of Great Britain: And although the ſaid Earl doth not admit, that he adviſed the Ninth Article of the Treaty of Commerce with France; yet he begs Leave to obſerve, that nothing is poſitively ſtipulated in that Article; but the Whole is conditional, and left to be determined by the Wiſdom of Parliament; and hopes it will never be thought an Act of Treachery, to refer an Article of any Treaty to the Judgment and Conſideration of Parliament, whatever Judgment the Parliament ſhall think fit to make thereon: And the ſaid Earl denies, that he adviſed her Majeſty to agree with France, that the Subjects of France ſhould have Liberty of fiſhing, and drying Fiſh, on Newfoundland; but the ſaid Earl believes, that what her late Majeſty agreed with France relating thereto, will not ſeem unreaſonable, if it be conſidered, that the French, long ago, claimed Right to, and were in Poſſeſſion of, great Part of Newfoundland; and that they were allowed to continue in Poſſeſſion thereof, by the Crown of England, in a Treaty, made at Whitehall, in the Year 1686; and, in another Treaty, made at Ryſwick, in the Year 1697: And the ſaid Earl doth not know, that ſuch Agreement of her Majeſty is contrary to the expreſs Proviſion of any Act of Parliament; ſince he preſumes, the Act, made in the 10th and 11th Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act to encourage the Trade to Newfoundland, cannot reaſonably be intended, or conſtrued, to extend to any Part of the Iſland, other than what was, at the time of making that Act, in the Poſſeſſion of the Engliſh: And the ſaid Earl is informed, That, at that time, the Part of Newfoundland, where the Subjects of France are, by the Treaty of Utrecht, allowed the Liberty of fiſhing, and drying Fiſh, was not in the Poſſeſſion of the Engliſh. The ſaid Earl denies, that he adviſed her Majeſty to make a Ceſſion to France of the Iſle of Cape Breton; or that he adviſed her Majeſty to conſent, that what is agreed, in the Treaty of Utrecht, concerning the Fiſhery of Newfoundland, or Cape Breton, ſhould be made an Article in that Treaty: However, the

ſaid Earl doth not know, that Cape Breton was Part of the Territories of the Crown of Great Britain; nor does he apprehend, that her Majeſty, who, in her Speech from the Throne, declared, That France had conſented to make an abſolute Ceſſion of Annapolis, with the reſt of Nova Scotia, or Accadia, ſhould be underſtood to ſpeak of Cape Breton, which is no Part of that Continent, but an Iſland diſtinct from it: The ſaid Earl further ſaith, He conceives, that the only Advantages in Trade ſtipulated for Great Britain, did not depend on Conditions to be made good by Act of Parliament; on the contrary, he doubts not to make it appear, that many Advantages in Trade were ſtipulated for Great Britain, in the late Treaties of Peace and Commerce, which have been enjoyed by the Subjects of Great Britain ſince the Concluſion of the ſaid Treaties, notwithſtanding the Parliament had not thought fit to make any Act to enforce the Ninth Article of the Treaty of Commerce with France: And the ſaid Earl denies, that, by his Counſels, the good Intentions of her Sacred Majeſty, to have obtained for her People advantageous Terms of Commerce, were fruſtrated, or the Trade or Manufactures of Great Britain rendered precarious, or at the Mercy of the Enemy, or any beneficial Branch of Trade yielded up to the Subjects of France: And as the ſaid Earl diſowns the being concerned in any Violation of Treaties, or in carrying on the Meaſures of France, or in any Negotiation which could terminate in the Sacrifice of the Commerce of Great Britain to France; ſo he obſerves, with great Satisfaction, the flouriſhing Condition of the Trade and Navigation of theſe Kingdoms, ſince the Concluſion, and by means, of the late Peace, in the great Increaſe of the Number and Tonage of Shipping; of the Exportation of the Woollen Manufactures, the Fiſh, and other Product of this Kingdom; in conſequence whereof, the Cuſtoms have been greatly advanced, near Three Millions of Gold and Silver has been coined, and the Exchange has all along been in favour of England, to and from all Parts of Europe.

In Anſwer to the Fourteenth Article; the ſaid Earl doth not admit, That he formed any Project or Deſign for diſpoſing the Kingdom of Sicily to the Duke of Savoy from the Houſe of Auſtria; or that he did adviſe her Majeſty to give any ſuch Inſtructions to Henry Viſcount Bolingbroke, as in the ſaid Article mentioned; or to conſent to any Treaty, wherein a Ceſſion is made of the ſaid Kingdom to his Royal Highneſs, without any Concurrence or Participation of his Imperial Majeſty; nor doth he admit, that her Majeſty was prevailed on, by his Advice, to aſſiſt his ſaid Royal Highneſs with her Fleet againſt the Emperor, in order to obtain the Poſſeſſion of that Kingdom: But, in Juſtification of her Majeſty's Proceedings in relation to the ſaid Kingdom, the ſaid Earl doth beg Leave to obſerve, That, by the Grand Alliance, it was agreed, among other things, That the Confederates ſhould uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to recover the Kingdom of Sicily out of the Hands of the Enemy; and that the principal Ends for endeavouring the Recovery of Sicily were, That his Imperial Majeſty might have a reaſonable Satisfaction for his Pretenſion to the Spaniſh Monarchy; and that the Trade and Navigation of the Subjects of Great Britain and Holland might thereby be better ſecured: Since, therefore, the Empire, and Hereditary Countries of Auſtria, were now fallen upon Charles the Third, who, at the time of that Treaty, was a younger Branch of that Houſe; ſince ſeveral Towns in the French Flanders, which were not in the Poſſeſſion of King Charles the Second at the time of his Death, together with Spaniſh Flanders, Milan, and Naples, might ſeem a reaſonable Satisfaction for his Imperial Majeſty's Pretenſions to the Spaniſh Succeſſion; and ſince the Trade and Navigation of the Subjects of Great Britain, and Holland, would be as effectually ſecured by the Diſpoſition of the Kingdom of Sicily to the Duke of Savoy, as if the ſaid Kingdom had fallen to the Share of the Emperor; and greater Difficulties would be likely to ariſe in obtaining the Diſpoſition thereof to the Houſe of Auſtria than to that Duke; inaſmuch as King Philip might be more eaſily induced to yield it to the Duke of Savoy, than to ſo potent a Prince as the Emperor; and there were Grounds to believe, that all, or moſt, of the Princes and States of Italy were ſo apprehenſive of the growing Power of the Houſe of Auſtria in Italy, that they would ſuffer any Extremities rather than ſubmit that Sicily, together with Milan and Naples, ſhould be in the Hands of the Emperor; the ſaid Earl doth not diſcern how any Project to diſpoſe of the ſaid Kingdom to that Duke could be thought unjuſt, diſhonourable, or pernicious, or any Act of Injuſtice to his Imperial Majeſty, or Violation of the grand Alliance; nor doth the ſaid Earl remember in what reſpect it was contradictory to any Declaration of her Majeſty, or the Inſtructions ſhe had given her Plenipotentiaries; and in caſe her Majeſty thought fit, afterwards, to employ any Part of her Fleet to aſſiſt that Duke, her good and faithful Ally, to take Poſſeſſion of that Kingdom from the Enemy, in Conſideration of the ſaid Duke's ſteady Adherence to the Confederacy, and great Sufferings by ſuch Adherence, he the ſaid Earl is not able to diſcover, why ſuch Aſſiſtance might not be given to the ſaid Duke, as well as to any other of her Allies whatſoever: And ſince it is allowed, by this Article, that the then Duke of Savoy never made any Application, in order to obtain the ſaid Kingdom for himſelf, it ſeems an Evidence, at leaſt, that the Perſon or Perſons, who adviſed the late Queen to agree to ſuch Allotment, did not act upon any private Intereſt, or had any other View than the Preſervation of a Balance of Power in Europe, and the Security of the Trade and Navigation of the Subjects of Great Britain, and Holland; and cannot reaſonably be thought, upon a fair and candid Interpretation, to have been guilty of betraying the National Faith, or Honour of the Crown, or employing the Naval Power of theſe Kingdoms, or the Supplies granted by Parliament, againſt any Ally of this Kingdom.

In Anſwer to the Fifteenth Article; the ſaid Earl ſaith, He is, and always was, of Opinion, that the Word of the Sovereign is ſacred; and that all Communications from the Throne to Parliament ought to be true; and that it becomes all Miniſters of State, as far as in them lies, to maintain the Honour of the Crown in ſuch Caſes with the utmoſt Exactneſs: Nor doth the ſaid Earl know, that he hath, at any time, been defective in his Duty in this Particular; or ever took upon himſelf any arbitrary or unwarrantable Authority, much leſs the chief Direction and Influence in her Majeſty's Councils; nor did he ever proſtitute the Honour of the Crown, or Dignity of Parliament, by miſrepreſenting any Part of the late Negotiations of Peace, to deceive either her Majeſty, her Allies, her Parliament, or her People; nor did he ever prepare, form, or concert, or adviſe her Majeſty to make, any Speech or Declaration from the Throne to her Parliament that was not conformable to Truth: He believes, her Majeſty might make ſeveral Speeches from the Throne to her Parliament, at the ſeveral times in the ſaid Article mentioned; to which the ſaid Earl refers; and particularly, that her Majeſty did, on the 7th Day of December 1711, declare, That her Allies, eſpecially the States-General, had, by their ready Compliance for opening a Treaty of a general Peace, expreſſed their Confidence in her: But the ſaid Earl, not admitting there were ſuch Repreſentations as ſuggeſted in this Article, begs Leave, in Vindication of the Honour of his Royal Miſtreſs, who was a Princeſs of ſtrict Piety and Truth, to obſerve, That the States-General ſent over Monſieur Buys to her Majeſty, with Letters full of Aſſurances of their Reſpect to her Perſon, and their Reſolutions not to ſeparate themſelves from her; and likewiſe ſignified, by him, to her Miniſters, their Readineſs to concur with her Majeſty: And the ſaid Monſieur Buys, immediately upon his Arrival at London, delivered Paſſports for the French Miniſters to come to Utrecht; and, at a Meeting of ſeveral Lords of the Council, ſhewed his Approbation of ſending circular Letters, to invite the reſt of the Allies to the general Congreſs: And the ſaid Monſieur Buys exhibited full Powers for preparing, and ſigning, a new Treaty; whereby her Majeſty, and the States, ſhould be mutually engaged to each other in making War and Peace; to guaranty the Peace, when made;
